Taraweeh - The best of taraweeh is to complete it behind the imam, however many rak'as he prays, preferably twenty as this was established by the Chief of Believers, 'Umar. Imam Ahmad b. Hanbal was asked, 'Do you prefer a man pray with the people in Ramadan or on his own?' He said, 'He should pray with the people. And I prefer that he should pray with the imam and pray Witr with him. The Prophet ﷺ said, "If a man prays qiyaam with the imam until he finishes, it will be recorded as if he spent the rest of the night in prayer."

Tahajjud - Allah Most High descends to the sky of the earth in the last third of every night asking, 'Is there anyone asking something, so that I may give it; is there anyone seeking forgiveness, so that I may forgive him.' Tahajjud can be done in sets of two up to ten rak'as or however many one wishes. It's time is before Fajr, provided that one slept before hand. It is quite easy during Ramadan since we are getting up for suhur anyhow.

Quran - It is the custom of the believers to complete the Quran once during Ramadan. For those who cannot recite Quran, they should listen to the Arabic and read the English. The Prophet ﷺ said, 'The reward of the listener is as the reward of the reciter.' The English translation can be found in audio format on the Safina Society YouTube and SoundCloud channels. According to Imam Malik, a woman on her monthly cycle may recite so long as not touching the actual mushaf. She can recite from a phone, tablet, or a tafsir in which there is more explanation than Quranic text.

Sadaqa/Khidma - The Prophet ﷺ was described as 'giving life' to his evenings in Ramadan, meaning that he would do all varieties of good deeds, including helping others. The easiest act is to assist in feeding someone fasting.

Salaat on the Prophet ﷺ - When we make one salaat upon the Prophet ﷺ, Allah sends down on us ten mercies from the heavens. Our salaat upon him implies our praise of him and our gratitude for what he has done for his umma. It is also joining what Allah and His Angels do regularly, for He said, "Allah and His Angels send salaat upon the Prophet. Oh believers, send salaat and salaam on him in excellent ways" (33:56 Ahzaab).

Ways it can be said: Allahumma salli 'ala Sayyidina Muhammad wa 'ala aalihi wa sahabihi wa sallim. The least is: Allahumma salli 'alayh.

Istighfaar - Saying astaghfirullah is not only after we do something sinful. We also seek His forgiveness for not fulfilling His rights of worship. The benefits of saying astaghfirullah while feeling remorse for our shortcomings are many. Amongst them: increase in wealth, increase in offspring, increase blessing on one's children, and a nice abode in this life and in the next.
