

Speaking From the Lofty Pulpit

"The priest Ezra brought the law before the assembly...(and) stood on a wooden platform that had been made for the purpose." (Nehemiah 8:2b & 4a)

Speaking from the lofty pulpit

Ezra read the holy law,

till the people bowed in wonder filled with grief, then joy and awe.

So may we with rapt attention

focus on the saving Word

till we know and love and sing it,

living out what we have heard.

Words: R. Frederick Crider ©2014 All Rights Reserved. Scripture: Nehemiah 8:1-12 NETTLETON Suggested tune: 87.87 ("Come Thou Fount Of Every Blessing" #400)

Hymns'14.4.2