

Hymns12.2.11HymnSociety WHERE GOD AND PEOPLE MEET

“There is neither Jew nor Greek, .. slave nor free,...male nor female...for you are all one in Christ Jesus. “ Gal. 3:28 RSV

Where God and people meet glad songs of hope abound,
that all will be as one in Christ,
and make this holy ground.

When gender, culture, race
may tempt us to divide,
Lord, help your Church sense deeper things-- one’s character inside.

There’s neither Jew nor Greek,
there’s neither slave nor free,
and men and women share as one
in Christian unity.

The God who made us all
must like variety!
May we accept God’s gracious plan
and live as family.

Then may our worship here
reflect the Church above,
where diverse people celebrate
the rainbow of God’s love.

Words: R. Frederick Crider ©2012 All Rights Reserved. Scripture: Galatians 3:28

ST.THOMAS

Suggested Tune: Aaron Williams, The New Universal Psalmist, 1770 (i.e.#540 “I Love Thy Kingdom Lord”) SM

