Brian

There is nothing in this message?

In regards to your other message, stay strong and you will prevail. The worm is evil and I don't mean that lightly. I am amazed at the excuses he is using because they are very lame. He not the unions ever identified why they hated me. Now they and the new stand in for chief are using and insituting the policies that I fought for and they rejected. Amazing... Do you remember when you were sent to the academy for retraining and evaluation and I was the chief there? They wanted me to find a way to fail you and not let you return. I wouldn't do that and gave you the shot you deserved. You passed everything and they still wouldn't let you return. I then put you to the largest test, I assigned you to Doug. Do you remember, I do? Even though you had some good naps with Doug you earned the right to return and I backed you and it worked. At least for a while. Stay strong, our Lord has a plan and it will work on his time. I hope the members of the department know someday how I fought for them and for almost 6 years we lost nothing and grew better. The only time in 40 years the BCFD grew and as the worm would say, that is the facts.

God Bless

Chief
