

The Polish Art Foundation and artist Gabriela Rovski warmly invite all artists, friends and art lovers to a special
Social Event combined with a Fundraising Auction

*all proceeds from the day will be directed towards the operating costs of the foundation.

When: Sunday 5 June 2016
Where: Gabriela Rovski's Studio located at 23 Dominic Street, Camberwell
Time: 12 noon sharp

This special event will provide participants with a unique opportunity to meet the artists and purchase items from a wide selection of works available on the day. Our guests will have an opportunity to purchase food and drinks, and 'get lucky' in our special lottery. The event will also allow our artists a unique opportunity to meet each other post PolArt.

We look forward to hosting you, meeting you and of course raising some funds!

Special Information for Participating Artists

- Can all artists presenting works for sale please arrive at the studio no later than 10am on Sunday 5 June;
- Could all artists provide the following details with their submitted works: namely work title, medium and minimum asking price of the work;
- Please note: any works that will not have a listed price will be treated as a donation to the Polish Art Foundation;
- Each work entered into the auction will require a $5 administrative fee;
- All works sold will incur a 20% commission payable to the Polish Art Foundation;
- We ask that all artists collect any of their unsold works at the end of the auction;

Could all artists wishing to participate contact the Polish Art Foundation via polishartfoundation@gmail.com
Please RSVP by Friday 27 May 2016, using the words PAF auction in the email title.

We thank you for your support
