Olivia Gans Turner directs American Victims of Abortion (AVA), an outreach project within the Outreach Department of the National Right to Life Committee (NRLC).

Olivia helped to organize one of the nation's first peer-to-peer post-abortion support groups in the New York City area after almost two years of suffering through an acute emotional reaction to her own abortion experience as an unwed college student.

Olivia has spoken widely on post-abortion syndrome and other abortion-related issues in the United States and in Europe. She travels to many college campuses throughout the year to meet with the students, and, as a frequent witness before legislative bodies, she provides testimony on informed consent laws and parental notification laws, as well as abortion complications. In the nineteen years since she became AVA director, she has traveled to over seventeen countries.

Between 1994 and 2000, Olivia was a non-governmental organization (NGO) delegate to numerous United Nations conferences. Those include the 1994 World Population and Development Conference held in Egypt; the 1995 United Nations Conference on Women held in Beijing, China; and the 2000 World Summit on Children held in New York City.

In 2014, Olivia was asked by the Eternal Word Television Network (EWTN) to host a five part half hour mini series, When They Say You Say. The series has aired twice and is designed to help prepare pro-lifers for answering the tough questions they will face when they debate or discuss pro-life issues.

Olivia has appeared on such nationally syndicated programs and networks as Nightline, Good Morning America, Hannity & Colmes, C-SPAN, CNN, and National Public Radio (NPR), EWTN Nightly News, and other news programs.

In addition to her duties at NRLC, Olivia currently serves as the president of Virginia Society for Human Life.

Quotes from Fr. Frank Pavone

“The pro-life movement is not primarily a response to Roe vs Wade. It is a response to Jesus Christ.”

“If we took a moment of silence for each person lost to abortion, we would be silent for over 100 years. “

“... the People of God have to elect public servants who know the difference between serving the public and killing the public, and that those who can't tell the difference don't belong in public office. “
