

1. START: Boggy Bayou boat launch.
2. From the Boggy Bayou boat launch, take your left on Boggy Bayou (North)
3. To your left is Rock Solid Iron Works Gift Shop, where you will find vintage items and blacksmith art. You can use the owner's personal dock by coordinates below:
  - a. 31.131850, -92.013758
4. At the end of Boggy Bayou, take a right on Little River, heading downstream.
  - a. By coordinates : 31.141536, -92.014243
5. The concrete bridge you are passing under is part of Boggy Bayou road.
  - a. 31.141927, -92.009587
6. Along the way, enjoy local leisure life, viewing cabins from the other side...
  - a. Did you know that some of these cabins can only be accessed by boat?
7. Noticed how pretty this "Pollywog Cabin" is?
  - a. 31.143017, -92.001711
8. You may want to take a break, or even have a picnic, at the landing on your left.
  - a. 31.152814, -91.974070
9. Turn right to reach Bay Sec.
10. Once you reach Bay Sec, you can choose to go either left or right (or do one and then the other):

|  |   |
|--|---|
| Left: A. Go left on Bay Sec. B. Follow the waterway to reach Bayou Cocodrie. C. Make your way back to Bay Sec landing. | Right: A. Go right on Bay Sec. B. Follow the waterway and enjoy Lake Grand Bayou. C. Make your way back to Bay Sec landing. |
|--|---|

11. Once again, you can stop at Bay Sec landing, if you want a break.
12. Go South-West on Little River, heading upstream.
13. Noticed the duck houses along the way? Ducks usually lay their eggs in spring and early summer, and usually lay about 12 of them. The female sets on her eggs for about 21 days. The box is protected from snakes and other predator by the metal shield secured underneath. Keep an eye open: it is a beautiful thing to witness a duck entering a box.
14. Navigate your way in Little River. By coordinates "a" below, turn left back to Boggy Bayou.
  - a. 31.141536, -92.014243
15. The Boggy Bayou landing will be to your right.
  - a. 31.120867, -92.011131

* For another calm and peaceful day in Spring Bayou, you can also depart from the Old River Landing and go South-East, then East, simply following Old River as far as The Point landing, and coming back on your steps.
