How To Create A Daily Diary For Success

Just like you have a diary for work with regards to meetings and calls, you can have a diary for success.

"I am looking for a sign that the path I am currently following is the right one"

All you need to do is have a diary that you can write in every day. When you wake up in the morning write something like:

"I am grateful that I had a good night's rest"

"I am feeling energetic and ready for the day ahead"

You can also write in something that you would like for the day for example:

"I am looking for a sign that the decision I made is the correct one"

Or

At the end of the day just before you go to bed, you can look back in your diary and report how the day went. You will find that you have so much more to be grateful for and that what you asked for, you received.

Be grateful for what you have received and in turn what you ask for will be delivered. If something has not been delivered when you asked for it, just believe that it will when the time is right. Don't write it off because it will come.
