The Alfa Owners' Club, in general, and the South Loafers Chapter, in particular, was established to promote fun, friendship and fellowship among Alfa owners.

Although the primary focus of the South Loafers Chapter of the Alfa Owner's Club is toward current and previous Alfa owners in Southern California, Southern Nevada, and Arizona, we do have members who reside in Oregon, Idaho, Ohio, New Mexico, South Dakota, Washington, and Texas. The South Loafers Chapter has four to five outings a year mostly in the Southwestern US. In addition, there is a yearly rally at which all of the chapters in the Alfa Owners Club meet. To join the South Loafers Chapter and attend our specific outings, you must own or have owned an Alfa RV. Additionally, you are also welcome to attend the activities of the other chapters in the Alfa Owners' Club. However, you do need to currently own an Alfa RV to attend the yearly Rally.

*To join, complete this form and include a check payable to, SOUTH LOAFERS, for the first year's dues ($20.00) and a Chapter Badges ($12.00 each) check payable to "2 Crazy Ladies" and mail them both to, VONNIE BEARD. Someone from the Chapter will contact you shortly after your correspondence is received by the South Loafers Chapter.

Any Chapter merchandise (see attached form) should be purchased through the Merchandise Coordinator, DAVID SABOL. You may call him at: 909-730-5115, e-mail him at darlamae11@aol.com or mail the form to him at: 1055 Capen Ave., Walnut CA 91789.

The Chapter "uniform" is a white shirt (preferably the Chapter shirt) or blouse, yellow vest or jacket, and South Loafers name tag. Members wear the uniform as specified by the President, during an Alfa Owners' Club Annual Rally and to designated events. Members also wear the Chapter uniform at Chapter meetings, as designated by the wagon master of the outing.

Each member rig is expected to display the United States and Chapter flags during Chapter outings. Location of the flags is left to the member.
