Projects around St Charles:

The Academy has an Eagle Scout project going on. It is a new Wall Ball Court over by the dumpsters (which are being moved to more convenient location by the parish offices). Church doors are being repaired. New water heater installed in the Window Room and some minor repairs to the parish office.

Special Collections...

Please be generous to the world wide needs of the Church. Peter's Pence envelopes are in the pews and can be dropped in today's collection baskets. Thank You.

True Wealth

Reflection by Bob Schrimpf

Greed is kind of like this. In Africa, certain tribesmen capture monkeys by drilling holes in logs that have a small hollowed out "pocket" at the bottom. They then place a shiny object like a worthless piece of aluminum foil at the bottom. The monkeys will see the shiny object at the bottom of the hole and grab it, thus wedging their hand in the pocket trapping them. They are unable to free themselves unless they open their hands. They only need to release the foil and their hand would easily slide back up the tube. But first, they would have to want to let go of the shiny object. Unbelievably, they will hold on to this worthless object even as the hunter approaches it to take its life.

I had a theology teacher named Fr Francis Martin. He was a brilliant man of deep faith and prayer. He used to always say "The entirety of Jesus' teachings can be summed up by saying "be satisfied with what you have". As baptized Christians, we are no longer to be drawn to such things as greed. So, why do we spend so much money on lottery tickets each year ($71,826,676,000 last year alone) chasing the dream of wealth? Especially when we know that winning will not bring about happiness. In fact, 1/3 of all winners go bankrupt and a full 70% spend it all within 5 years. (A Great Britain study showed that those who gave their money away were far happier than those who only loaned or invested their winnings.)

Now think about this for a moment. Here in the USA, we are all lottery winners. That happened at birth. You won the lottery by being born into a nation that is the richest in the world and your net worth is more than billions of other world citizens. Over 3 billion people make less than $2.50 a day and a full 80% of the world population lives on less than $10.00 a day! 1/4 of the world has no electricity and the leading cause of death is due to hunger. That is not something most of us ever think about. An individual living in poverty in the US (12K a year income) is still considered to be in the top 13% of the richest people in the world. The world! Yet, somewhere along the way we lost sight of what is important and grabbed on to that 'shiny thing' and won't let go.

In Jesus' day, 5% of the people own 80-90% of the wealth. The masses were poor and miserable. The person in the Gospel was being greedy in demanding his inheritance (which he had no right to as the entire inheritance would have simply gone to the eldest male). The word Jesus chooses to call him was "Man" which is considered to be a derogatory term. Jesus immediately lets this guy know what everyone else already knew, that he's being greedy. But it was this question that opened up the opportunity for Jesus to share a central message.

Why are you breaking your back for something that you can't take with you? Don't be greedy. Let go of that shiny thing. Be satisfied with what you have. In today's Gospel Jesus tells a story of a man with great wealth. Pay attention to how many times the rich man says 'me, my, and I'. Is his mistake hoarding and planning to enjoy his riches? Partly, but look closer. His first mistake is that he thinks he owns his own life (see Verse 19; also read 1 Cor 6:19-20). He doesn't realize his life is a gift, and the real treasure we have from God is that very life. What we do with our life is our gift back to God.
