Welcome Dynamic Catholic

We are excited to announce that St Charles Borromeo has been selected to be one of five parishes in San Diego to be a 'Dynamic Catholic Parish'. DC was founded by Matthew Kelly (Best Lent Ever and Why I love being Catholic) and we will be rolling out a comprehensive ministry this Fall. It will be designed to engage and serve our parish as it brings community, sharing, and prayer into our already vibrant celebrations of the sacraments.

Prayer Teams coming to St Charles

In an effort to meet the needs of many of our parishioners Fr John will have prayer ministers after Mass to pray with those who seek it. We will be training individuals to help with this ministry and you should see the teams sometime in September following the liturgies.

To Know Jesus

Reflection by Bob Schrimpf

When I first arrived in La Jolla to do ministry in 1985 I met Gene Edwards or "Coach" as everyone called him. Coach was on the verge of retirement after a long history at the High School of teaching and coaching football. I got to know him and would casually say 'hi' to him from time to time. I felt I knew him as well as any of the other teachers from the school. Occasionally, I would even crack a joke or two when we spoke. A few years later Gene passed away suddenly and I attended his funeral. As I listened to family and close friends deliver the eulogy my heart was touched by what a great and generous man he was. I heard stories about him I never knew. How he opened his house to Young Life (a Christian High School Ministry) and allowed them to meet in his living room for years. Also, his love for fishing and the outdoors. Mainly I learned how he was a man who loved his wife and kids and was kind to all. So many things I never knew about the Coach. It left me wishing I had known him far more intimately while he was alive.

How often is that the case? We think we know someone and then they share a story, or someone tells us something we never knew regarding them. Suddenly we are left wanting more, wanting to have known them on a deeper level. Jesus is facing the same issue in today's Gospel. Someone wants to know HOW many will be saved and Jesus turns it into a personal WHO will be saved. It's not a number rather the relationship. It's amazing how many are portrayed being locked out of the kingdom that swear they were His disciples! That they knew Jesus.

Religion and our faith aren't about being part of a club, or about social standing, or even appearances. It is about knowing Jesus and doing the will of the Father. Do you know Him? Do you recognize His voice? More importantly, would He know you? The word 'Knowledge' has a two-fold meaning. First, to 'know' which is the ability to recognize, but the other part of knowledge is to 'comprehend'. Jesus died for your sins. However, until you comprehend it you have no knowledge of Jesus. Knowledge is to know (recognize) AND comprehend (see the deeper meaning behind what you can see). We cannot just mail it in. We must be sold out, in love, and serving Jesus! We are called to be in a relationship with Him. Be one of the few willing to give it all to Him so that you may enter through the narrow door.

In the past bulletins we have reported the collection plate and the online giving. However, we neglected to report the weekly envelope receipts. That error has been corrected as reflected in this weeks count.

Cross Catholic Outreach Aug 17-18

Fr Paul Farin will be our guest preacher for this weekend highlighting the plight of the poor. He was ordained in 1988 and serves in the Diocese of St. Georges-in-Granada and has been an Outreach Priest with Cross since 2001. Cross Catholic Outreach was founded to create a meaningful link between parishes in America and the priests and nuns working in the Church overseas in the Caribbean, Africa, Asia, Central and South America. Let's be sure to welcome and support this most important cause.
