10 Lepers - Testify

Reflections by Bob Schrimpf

I remember the first time I actually understood the story of the 10 lepers. One night at college, I was cleaning and packing up after an evening of Eucharistic Adoration. Everyone had left and it had been a long night. We all worked hard to make it special for the student body. I wanted nothing more than my pillow and some sleep when Danny, who was on our liturgy team stated: "Let's be like the leper who praised God for what he did and take some time to thank God for being with us tonight". True to form, Danny dropped to his knees and began praying in thanksgiving and we all followed suit.

In the Gospel today, we find 10 men who meet Christ on the road to Jerusalem. All of them struggling with the most horrific scourge known to man: Leprosy. A disease so feared that anyone who had it was immediately banned from society. Lepers would end up at the city dump scrounging for food and shelter. They were given bells to ring and had to keep a safe distance from all others who were 'clean'. In essence, they were completely cut off from society.

As Jesus approaches them along the road they should be ringing their bells and declaring in a loud voice "UNCLEAN!". Yet, this group saw their chance. It was Jesus, the miracle worker, who was passing by! This was their opportunity to be free of their dreaded disease and they take it. "Great Master!" they call out, "Have mercy on us!". This causes such a great deal of commotion that all eyes would now fall on Jesus awaiting His response.

Jesus declares to them: 'Go show yourselves to the priests' and the 10 leave to do just that. The only thing is, they haven't been healed. The Jewish law requires that any leper who claims to be healed must be examined by a priest who can then declare the leper healed. Only with that declaration could the leper then be accepted back into society. Knowing this, the lepers hurry to Jerusalem. Along the way one of them (who happens to be a Samaritan) realizes he is healed and is so overwhelmed that he runs back to Jesus alone. He's breaking protocol, but he's consumed with thanksgiving and praise. Falling at Jesus' feet (symbolizing death) Jesus commands him to rise (symbolizing resurrection - new life) and declares to him: "go, your faith has SAVED you".

This is a teachable moment for all listening. This double outcast (a Samaritan with leprosy) is the prime example of how to respond to Jesus. His faith SAVED him. What was important wasn't that he was healed. Rather, it was that he was saved. Jesus is emphasizing the relationship.

Danny taught me this lesson a long time ago. Jesus moved at that adoration night and it was wonderful. I was going home content, but there was one more thing to do. Like the leper we needed to come back and thank our savior. In the story of the leper it isn't the healing that was most important point. Rather, it was about a man who found his savior.

Mass In the Park Save the Dates:

We are planning two large celebrations for our community - both will be outdoor Masses: Dec 1st, and May 31, 2020.

What is Dynamic Catholic?

You have been hearing us preach on an organization that we are now partnering with

BE BOLD. BE CATHOLIC.®

called Dynamic Catholic. Dynamic Catholic has been inspiring Catholics to rediscover the genius of Catholicism for a decade. They are dedicated to spending the next decade partnering with parishes across the country to uncover what is essential to a community becoming truly dynamic.

Did you know that over the past 20 years the Catholic church has closed 10% of its parishes? Out of 1.7 million baptized Catholics only 150,000 will remain active after college. We need to look at the culture of our Church and transform ourselves into a welcoming and thriving community that reaches out to everyone who comes through our doors. It is an exciting time at St Charles. to be selected as one of 5 parishes in SD to be a pilot Church for Dynamic Catholic. We ask the entire parish to join in on this mission to evangelize. Below are some important dates for our parish as we seek to mobilize:

Launch Date: 11/9 - 11/10 all Masses

Survey Sunday: 11/16 - 11/17

Dream Event (Entire Parish) 2020 -TBA

Each Thursday evening our Young Adult Community gathers to meet in the Parish Hall. There is some social time with food and drink followed by sharing and prayer. We recently had our first social night in the hall.

Check us out on the website or for more information email Bob at bob@saintcharlespl.com. All are welcomed! Ages 18-39.
