Eighteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

God's Work

We are so busy! Most of us have more than one job to do, and we never seem to have enough time. We are workers, volunteers, parents, friends, and most of us are more than one thing at a time. But which of these is the work of God? We seldom view our ordinary work as being the work of God. We may think that we have to be ministers or priests, missionaries or charity workers, engaged full-time in works formally identified as being "God's work." But everything we do with a faithful heart and with love for others is God's work. We each have our own role to fill in the world, and many gifts are necessary. We cannot always see the direct connection of our daily work to the plan of God. But we trust and we believe that God leads us to do what is needed, where it is needed. What is "God's work?" "This is the work of God, that you believe in the one he sent" (John 6:29).

Whoever comes to me will never hunger, and whoever believes in me will never thirst. (John 6)

Panis Angelicus

Treasures From Our Tradition

In 1794, a young Irishwoman befriended two widows aboard ship while emigrating to America. They bought a house in Philadelphia and began to live a community life under the direction of a priest. Soon they relocated to Washington. There, the "pious ladies," as the neighbors called them, were asked by their priest friend, by then the president of Georgetown University, to begin a religious community. In 1799 they established a branch of the Visitation Order founded by Saint Jane de Chantal and Saint Francis de Sales in the 1620s.

Many Thanks from Deacon Lane

I want to take a moment to thank you for all your prayers.

I suffered a stroke on the 4th of July and while it was relatively minor it still required hospitalization and physical therapy. The medical staff have been amazed at how quickly I have been recovering, but we know why- Prayer. It has been both humbling and heart warming to be the one who is being visited and prayed for. To realize how many people really care for me, reach out to me, and pray for me. Prayers are working!

Thank You, you are loved.

-Deacon Lane

Prayer and Humility

Arm yourself with prayer rather than a sword; wear humility rather than fine clothes. --St. Dominic
