

December 6, 2020 • Second Sunday of Advent, Cycle B
Saint Charles Borromeo eBulletin

Beloved,

Advent = "Coming." Jesus has been coming into the world for 2000+ years since his birth in the flesh. He's coming to you, in full force, right NOW. Never not coming to you. Ponder this entering. The God of the universe!

Let goodness and kindness catch up (see last Sunday's homily).

How/where does Jesus enter and reveal his Everlasting Goodness?

Story. 16 year old girl loves art, wants to paint her biggest picture yet has no canvas. Help, dad? Pandemic, non-essential stores closed, sheltering in place. What to do? Time to make do with what you have. Just like Jesus always did in the Gospels using, wheat, flowers, fig tress, bread and wine.... Dad finds splintered, rough scrap of plywood. He says no way and his daughter says perfect!

All dad saw was the cracks and hazardous splinters. All the daughter pictured was the creation of something new, unexpected, beautiful. Aren't you and I the splintered, rough plywood; the daughter? And this is the story of this holy season of preparation. Jesus enters in Advent, NOW, to raise up hazardous, ragged plywood to wonder and beauty. It seems to me this is the heart of Jesus and the heart of Christianity.

Happy ADVENT-URING!!!

I'm praying you will get lost in wonder and beauty as you let Jesus make do with what he has in you!

+Fr. John

I am looking forward to a few baptisms with you at our 9 am mass Sunday, December 13th! Also, if you are good and behave well at that mass (joke!), I want to give each family a Christmas present!

Also, I am going to have a drive-through prayer with you and your family from 11-noon on the Feast of the Holy Family Sunday, December 27th! #BBTB

St. Charles Christmas Military Outreach Toy Drive

Many enlisted soldiers based here in San Diego cannot afford Christmas gifts for their children.

This year St. Charles Borromeo Catholic Church will be helping collect toys for our enlisted military families who are far from home. We invite you and your kids to brighten an enlisted family's Christmas! You can donate toys throughout December on Sunday mornings at Mass, Weekdays at the 8:00 Mass, or at the church office! If you are unable to shop for toys, please consider a special donation to St. Charles Borromeo "Toy Drive" and we will shop for you! We are looking for new unwrapped toys (infant- teen). Our Partner, Military Outreach Ministries will pick up the toys and distribute them to families in need.

2003 Yukon Needs a Family:

Seasons Greetings St Charles parish family! Do you know of a mother with children, a family, or military family in need of transportation? A generous patron is looking to donate a 2003 GMC Yukon (similar to the one picture) that would safely hold eight! The Yukon has been a blessing to her family and now needs to find a new family to belong too! It has been cared for mechanically and might need more repairs as it is an older vehicle. Please contact me if you have a possible new family for this Yukon! Not looking to donate to an organization but rather directly to a mother, or family. Thank you Reach out to Rachel (858) 750-5962. Please do not call the parish.
