From The Pastor

Hello Living Faith! Please know how much I am missing seeing your smiling faces and exchanging hugs or handshakes with you. What a time to be alive! What are the opportunities of these unusual times? I am a person who quickly begins to question who I am and what is my purpose if I am not busily engaged in activity. Thank goodness I rest in the reassurance of God's grace and thank goodness that I know to Whom I belong and what His expectations are for me. Otherwise I fear that I would drift and be lost.

I feel like my purpose right now has changed somewhat. OK, it has changed a whole lot. My life of serving the people of Living Faith has changed from greeting you in person to praying for you more. Rather than gathering together to laugh and rejoice, I quietly reminisce and savor the times we have shared, and I give thanks to God for my seven years as your pastor. Rather than engage in days of driven activity, I now go through my days at a slower pace and give more thought to the moment I am in. These times are not all bad.

Joan D. Chittister wrote these words to encourage us to "Live A Measured Life":

Peace comes from living a measured life. Peace comes from attending to every part of my world in a sacramental way. My relationships are not what I do when I have time left over from my work . . . Reading is not something I do when life calms down. Prayer is not something I do when I feel like it. They are all channels of hope and growth for me. They must all be given their due.

Ask yourself "am I living my life soulfully?" Perhaps now is the time for such deep thoughts that are so important to living our lives in Christ, and yet they are thoughts that are typically given little time due to overly busy lives. God is good. God provides times to rest and time for us to truly know that God is God.

Psalm 46:10 Be still and know that I am God.

Be still.

Know.

Be still and know.

I am God.

Rejoicing in God's goodness with you,
Pastor Sandy

CITYWIDE PRAYER
GOVERNMENT OFFICIALS
April 2020

“Most of all, I’m writing to encourage you to pray with gratitude to God. Pray for all men with all forms of prayers and requests as you intercede with intense passion. And pray for every political leader and representative, so that we would be able to live tranquil, undisturbed lives, as we worship the awe-inspiring God with pure hearts. It is pleasing to our Savior-God to pray for them. He longs for everyone to embrace His life and return to the full knowledge of the truth.”

1 Timothy 2:1-4 TPT

In this unprecedented season, where Covid 19 is impacting our community at every level, it is easy to understand Paul’s exhortation to Timothy to pray for political officials “most of all”! Not only is praying for them a God-pleasing priority, but we are to pray for them with gratitude, and fervency, SO THAT the peace, life, and truth of the Gospel may pervade our city. Especially in this season, not only is there interplay between city and county government, but also between Omaha and our state officials - the governor, DHHS, State Medical Director as well. May our metropolitan area shine in practical ways to benefit the entire nation in this hour!

Pray—Pray for Mayor Jean Stothert, Adi Pour who is the Director of Douglas County Health Department, Governor Pete Ricketts, as well as the mayors of surrounding municipalities (Bellevue, Ralston, Papillion, Gretna, Bennington, etc.) May the Lord give them His wisdom for the good of all, and humility and unity as they work together. Pray for their health and safety as well as that of their loved ones. “By Me kings reign and rulers issue decrees that are just; by Me princes govern and nobles-all who rule on earth.” Prov. 8:15

Pray—Pray that mayoral staffs to be full of wise and godly men and women. Protect them from those who would come with their own agendas rather than the good of the community. Pray God would raise up and bring to the forefront Daniels, Josephs, Esthers, and Deborahs to bring the counsel of God for each leader.

Pray—Pray for godliness, wisdom, health and safety for the members of each City Council. May they be true public servants for the districts they serve. As conflicts arise, pray for honoring attitudes, both behind closed doors and in public.

Committees

Living Faith has a structure of committees to do our work. We have great volunteers, but attending evening meetings is difficult so attendance is low.

How would you re-structure?

- ◆ SPRC (Staff Parish Relations)
  - ◆ Finance
  - ◆ Trustees
- ◆ Congregational Care
  - Membership
  - Prayer
  - Care of Member

What would make it easier for you to serve?

What keeps you from volunteering?

What could change that would turn your “no” to “yes” for committee work?

Please send an email to Tracy
info@livingfaithumc.com

Do you have a high school or college student graduating this spring?
If so, please let the office know!

The ones we know so far are:

Ben Earhart, Ben Hizer, Rebekkah Hale,
Cy & West Stewart, Ashley Thomsen, & Dylan Tipler

Habitat for Humanity is a mission that many of us feel passionate about, even though we no longer go to the worksite together as a team.

If you want to volunteer, go to their website and sign up for the date & time you'll work.
They will be glad to have you!
