From The Pastor

Picturing the Body of Christ

“The human body has many parts, but the many parts make up one whole body. So it is with the body of Christ.” (1 Corinthians 12:12 NLT)

Bob Johansen points out in his book, “Leaders Make the Future,” the potential of leaders connected through a powerful variety of networks. He states, “Amplified individuals will create amplified organizations. Our global connectivity is growing dramatically, which is creating new ways to organize ourselves.” Leaders are not isolated; they need to stay connected to networks and organizations. “The most connected leaders will be the best leaders,” he affirms. He gives more explanations about how future leadership will be more engaged with global networks just as the human body needs extensions to keep functioning in higher performances.

Our church leadership will need to find new ways to create networks. Leadership with more connections will perform better here in Living Faith UMC. We will need to change the old ways of isolated leadership if we want to achieve goals and keep thriving as a local church. We need to work more as a human body rather than just isolated leaders. We are the body of Christ; we are a living organism, not a mere machine. Thus, our mindset needs to reset the program. Let us start working more as interconnected leaders and stop doing things following personal agendas. We must stop working in “silos” and start making networks.

As your new pastor, it is my intent to develop our church leadership by implementing networking systems. The human body works as one unit, yet it keeps strong connections with all the body organs through systems. Likewise, we will be thriving as the Body of Christ in unity through the Holy Spirit power. I will be praying for wisdom and discernment that the Lord may give us a new sensitivity to the Holy Spirit guidance. Our mission is to make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world. However, we are going to start transforming our concept of discipleship before we go into the world without knowing what it truly means to be a Christian disciple. As Jesus’ disciples, we will be daily walking closer to our Lord and Master.

May the grace of the Lord Jesus be with you!

Pastor Jaime
