The Latest From Douglas County Republican Women
December 2023

President's Message

As I begin to write my President's message for the last time in four years, I am not sure where to begin other than a "Big Thank You" to everyone who helped make my two terms, fun, interesting, rewarding, unusual, and sometimes challenging. But most of all "thank you" for the friendships that we developed over the years.

Thank you to all the committee chairs and members for your dedication to our Club that has helped us grow so much over the last four years. Our members enthusiasm, commitment, and new ideas helped us receive the coveted Diamond Award again this year.

Congratulations to incoming President, Mo Karas, her Executive Board, and Board of Directors. We are all looking forward to great things in 2024.

It has been my pleasure to serve as your President these last four years.

Be happy,

Brenda

Thank you all for a fantastic four years as your Membership Chair. I hope I can count on your support for a fun-filled, productive two-years as your President. 2024 will be filled with challenges for our Republican candidates and especially defeating the Rank Choice Voting ballot initiative. It will take each of us in our own capacity to ensure our Constitutional Republic and the liberties enshrined in our Constitution and Bill of Rights live on. Onward and upward! ♦

Recording Notification Service

Shawnyne Garren, Douglas County Recorder, was the speaker at our November meeting replacing Congressman Amodei. Shawnyne has worked in a variety of positions in the Recorder's office since 2007 and was elected in 2022. She serves on multiple committees for PRIA (Property Records Industry Association) on the national level and is the government co-chair for Nevada's PRIA local chapter. She is also the 1st Vice President of the Nevada Fiscal Officers Association and Secretary of the Recorders Association of Nevada. She explained that the Recorder's office records, and makes public, records of all land and marriage records in Douglas County.

Shawnyne answered the question, "Can someone steal my house?" The short answer is yes, but 13 of 17 counties in Nevada now offer the Recording Notification System (RNS). You can sign up for this free service at the Recorder's office. This service allows members of the public to receive an email alert when a document has been recorded at the Douglas County Recorder's Office. The service is provided as a courtesy to Douglas County residents and property owners. However, there is no guarantee that using the service will prevent fraud or inform a member of all documents recorded that may pertain to their property. ♦

Honoring Sheriff Coverley

THE CLAREMONT INSTITUTE
RECOVERING THE AMERICAN IDEA

The Claremont Institute is delighted to announce the newest members of the Claremont family: the 2023 Sheriffs Fellows.

This year's impressive group of Sheriffs Fellows were selected from across the nation for their incredible service in upholding law and order in our communities and our great nation.

Sheriff Dan Coverley was one of those new inductees this year. Dan was born and raised in Douglas County, NV. He graduated from the University of New Mexico, where he played football and graduated with a B.A. in Criminology.

He has been in law enforcement for 28 years, starting his career with the Albuquerque Police Department and moving to the Douglas County Sheriff's Office in 1997. Dan was a member of the Sheriff's Office SWAT team from 1999 to 2014. He attended the 263rd Session of the FBI National Academy in Quantico, VA in 2016. Dan was elected as Douglas County's 21st Sheriff in 2018. ♦

DCRW is Presented Diamond Achievement Award

DCRW was once again presented the coveted Diamond Achievement Award during the NvFRW Biennial Conference held in Reno last October. This award was presented to 15 of the 20 Nevada Republican Women's Clubs and is NvFRW's highest award.

According to NvFRW Achievement Awards Chair, Roxanne Husmann of Washington, the Awards program is designed to enhance teamwork among members of each club. Clubs earn points over a two-year period, and the awards are presented at the National Federation of Republican Women's Biennial Convention.

Clubs earn points by attending meetings, making political phone calls, giving to their charities, publishing a newsletter, going to the State and National meetings, donating books to the library, supporting PEM, etc. Brenda Robertson, DCRW President, says of our Club, "I am not only honored to receive this award for the second time, but I'm also proud of our members' involvement allowing DCRW to receive the Diamond Award for so many years." ♦

Items Always Needed!

The need for silent auction items is ongoing by DCRW. When cleaning out your closets or cupboards think DCRW! Your items should be in good condition, with an estimated value for your donated item(s).

Three simple steps:

1. If possible, contact Gloria Darrington to let her know what you are bringing to auction off. Her email is gdarrington@charter.net OR
2. Just bring your item and give it to Gloria at the meeting. The earlier, the better so all members have an opportunity to see and bid on the item.
3. Gloria will write up the bid sheet on your behalf. ♦

Your New 2024/25 Board

At the November meeting, the DCRW membership voted in the following new Executive Officers who will be serving you over the next two years:

If you know of a DCRW member who could use a little encouragement or cheer, please contact Jean Tomlinson to let her know. You can contact her at 775•267•2408. ♦

*May your homes be filled with peace, your lives with hope, and your hearts with faith!
Merry Christmas to all.*

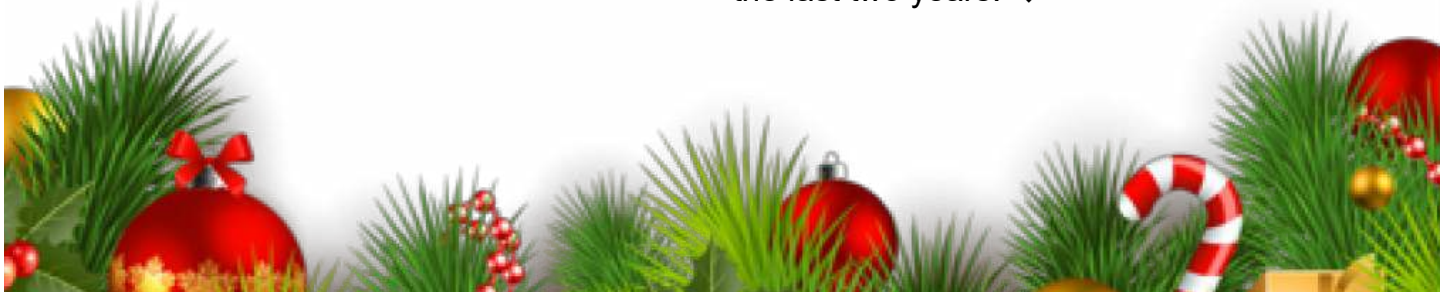

Secretary: Charlotte Ursic

Treasurer: Tina Nepl

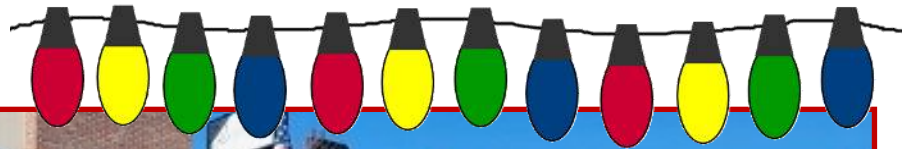

- Co-Treasurer: Cindy Arvayo

As we congratulate, welcome, and support these newly elected Officers onto the Board, let's also remember to give a big thank you to the 2022/2023 Executive Officers who served us so well and so faithfully over the last two years! ♦

Nevada Day Parade

This year's Nevada Day celebrated the 159th anniversary of statehood, and quite the annual celebration it was right here in the birthplace of Nevada. The Nevada Legislature established it as a state holiday in 1933.

Not often acknowledged or even known by many residents of our city and state is that Carson City is the very heart of Nevada. President Abraham Lincoln wanted the Nevada Territory to become a state to assure the wealth from the Nevada Comstock mines would remain in the hands of the Union, and not in the hands of the Confederacy. So, it was during the Civil War this state received the authorization from President Lincoln and the U.S. Congress to become the 36th state on October 31, 1864. This is why Nevada is known as the Battle Born State.

It was President Lincoln who commissioned James W. Nye as the governor of the new Nevada Territory and assigned Orion Clemens—the older brother of Samuel Langhorne Clemens—to travel to Carson City to become secretary to Nye to shepherd the admittance of Nevada to the Union.

This year, the theme of the Nevada Day celebration was Nevada's counties. We now have 17 counties but the County of Bullfrog was created by the State Legislature in 1987, consisting of 144 square miles with no people and no buildings. It had to do with a proposed nuclear dump and was deemed unconstitutional by a district judge. Ormsby County in western Nevada was the state capital and was named for William Ormsby, who was killed in the Pyramid Lake Indian War. The name was later changed to Carson City after John C. Fremont's guide, Kit Carson.

Everyone loves a good old-fashioned parade, and no one does it better than Carson City as over 200 entrants helped us—many of them marching bands—celebrate our role as the seat of government for the past 173 years from Utah Territory to statehood. DCRW President, Brenda Robertson, walked with the Boys & Girls Club of Carson Valley, and both Joy Trushenski (member) and Mo Karas (2nd Vice President) walked with the Carson City Republican Central Committee. ♦

Thanksgiving harkens back to a 1621 Harvest Meal that did not include turkey or mashed potatoes, but did have pumpkin. There was seafood and the Wampanoag brought deer. We, today, often say our Thanksgiving Grace looking forward with mouths watering for a slice of dark meat or breast, some kind of fancy dressing, an assortment of special vegetable dishes—and pie!

No doubt the Pilgrims in Plymouth, Massachusetts, were glad to have a feast, but an even bigger reason to be thankful was a somber one: those attending had survived the brutal winter of 1620-1621 in which half of their number had died. It is likely all would have perished had it not been for the willingness of the Wampanoag to help them and teach them skills for growing crops.

George Washington first called for a “day of public thanksgiving and prayer” to commemorate America’s victory in the American Revolution. Abraham Lincoln moved Thanksgiving from September to November to help heal wounds from the Civil War. The Bible mentions "gratitude" 157 times. Yet "fear not" appears 357 times. Still both exceed the 72 times for “thanks” or “thanksgiving.”

I find it comforting that giving thanks includes recognizing the struggles life presents and appreciating that God is with us, even when things go wrong. Pray for peace this Thanksgiving. The world is in His hands. ♦

Meet Speaker Mike Johnson

On October 25th James Michael Johnson (born January 30, 1972) was elected the 56th speaker of the House. The Republican-controlled House voted, 220-208, to make Johnson the 56th speaker in history. Johnson called the appointment “the honor of a lifetime” in a statement posted to social media site X, formerly known as Twitter. “As Speaker, I will ensure the House delivers results and inspires change.”

Johnson is a graduate of the Paul M. Hebert Law Center at Louisiana State University. Before entering politics, he worked as an attorney in private practice and for Alliance Defending Freedom (ADF). He then sat on the Ethics and Religious Liberty Commission of the Southern Baptist Convention between 2004 and 2012. Johnson's political career began when he ran unopposed for the Louisiana House of Representatives in the special election to fill the vacant seat in the lower chamber of the Louisiana legislature. He served in that body until 2017.

Johnson was first elected to represent Louisiana's 4th congressional district in 2016. During his time in Congress, he contested the results of the 2020 presidential election on the House floor and in court. He supported bills that would institute a nationwide ban on abortion. Johnson served as chair of the Republican Study Committee from 2019 to 2021. He was vice chair of the House Republican Conference from 2021 to 2023.

As a constitutional lawyer, Johnson rose to become a senior attorney and partner at Kitchens Law Firm in Minden, Louisiana. He also served as a litigator and spokesman for Alliance Defense Fund, a conservative Christian legal advocacy group that has pursued an anti-LGBTQ rights agenda. Twice (in 2004 and 2014) Johnson defended Louisiana's ban on same-sex marriage before the state Supreme Court.

In Congress, guided foremost by his evangelical faith and belief in traditionalist family structures, Johnson has amassed a staunch conservative voting record. As of 2022–2023, he had earned lifetime scores of 89% and nearly 92%, respectively, from Heritage Action for America and the Conservative Political Action Conference (formerly American Conservative Union). Moreover, the Susan B. Anthony Pro-Life America organization's scorecard awarded him an A+ rating.

Johnson with his wife, Kelly.

In 1999 Johnson married Kelly Lary, an elementary- and secondary-school teacher who later became a licensed pastoral counselor.

Johnson and his wife host the podcast Truth Be Told, which explores Christianity's role in American civil life. They have four biological children—two sons and two daughters. Early in their marriage, they took custody of a Black teenager (now an adult), whom they raised as a son though never formally adopted. ♦

Amodei Reports

When it comes to the crisis on the southern border, there's no single facet that encapsulates the entire problem. Whether it's the sheer number of migrants overwhelming Border Patrol and the towns they're crossing into, the security breakdown that enables fentanyl and other illicit drugs to pour into the United States and kill our loved ones, or how the Biden Administration cuts corners in order to place migrant children with unvetted sponsors, this chaos is a direct result of Joe Biden's refusal to secure the border.

Make no mistake, House Republicans know that what's happening at our southern border is dangerous, inhumane, and untenable. This is why we passed the Secure the Border Act (H.R. 2), which is the strongest border security package in American history. This legislation would:

- Increase the number of Border Patrol Agents.
- End catch and release.
- Strengthen current law to protect unaccompanied children from human trafficking.
- Deploy additional technology to detect and prevent the entry of narcotics.
- End abuse of executive immigration authority.

It is well past time to take back control of the border and I urge the Senate to immediately act on this legislation so we can do just that.

STANDING AGAINST EXTREMISM

This week, for the 26th time in our history, the House of Representatives censured one of its members. A bipartisan majority voted to hold Representative Rashida Tlaib (D-MI) accountable for propagating Hamas lies and anti-Semitic hate.

Let's be clear that this is not a First Amendment issue – anyone has the right to make stupid, ill-informed statements. However, the House also has the right to rebuke this behavior and make it clear that there must be consequences for the propagation of terrorist lies. I was proud to vote in favor of the resolution to censure Rep. Tlaib and send a message that this type of hate has no place in Congress

THE BIDEN BORDER CRISIS

Since President Biden took office, U.S. Customs and Border Protection (CBP) has logged more than 6.2 million illegal border crossings, plus at least 1.5 million "gotaways" – those who CBP estimate have made it into the country without being caught. These alarming numbers are a direct result of Joe Biden's open border policies, that he claims are a part of his plan to promote "safe, orderly, and humane migration," but:

- Is there anything safe about the journey migrants take in the "care" of cartels?
- Is there anything orderly about the thousands of pounds of fentanyl smuggled across the border?
- Is there anything humane about the exploitation and trafficking of migrant women and children?
