The 2018 Men's No Regrets Conference is one you won't want to miss! This will mark the 25th year of encouraging and inspiring men with this all day event that will be streamed live at Rock of Life CRC in Willmar. The theme for this year's Conference is "No Reserve, No Retreat, No Regrets" based on a compelling true life story of William Bordan, who dedicated his short life to serve others and to the cause of showing the love of Jesus to the many struggling and hurting men he met.

The cost for this event is $25.00 which includes coffee and donuts for the breaks and lunch at noon. We hope and pray that you will reserve Saturday, Feb 3 for this important Men's event! Redeemer Lutheran Church is excited to be hosting the class Perspectives on the World Christian Movement. Perspectives is a 15 week discipleship course that highlights the Biblical, historical, cultural, and strategic aspects of God's global purpose to draw all people into loving relationship with him. Each week we will have a different speaker ranging from a missionary doing business as missions work in Minneapolis to a missionary who worked with cannibals in Papua. Although the class sounds very missions oriented, it is more about what God has done and is doing in the world and how we can be a part of His plan. Here's what Pastor Steve Van Zanen, former minister of Raymond CRC and current missionary in Lithuania said about the class: "Taking the Perspectives course was a spiritual landmark for me. It provides information and inspiration to engage with God in His work of transforming the world through the Gospel of Jesus Christ. Whether you are considering overseas service or just want to be a faithful disciple in West Central Minnesota, I can think of no better resource than Perspectives for deepening your vision and preparing your heart." The class is from 6-8:30 pm on Tuesdays starting January 16. You are not required to attend all classes to pass the course. Cost is $245 per person but you may attend the first 2 classes for free. For more information and to register visit www.perspectives.org or contact Jayme Van Beek at vanbeekjs@gmail.com

THE PERSECUTED CHURCH: Where There Was Once No School

Porlai is six years old and is now able to start elementary school. Her father's name is Kha and her mother is Xong. They are ethnic Hmong and their village in Laos never had an elementary school until now. Thanks to supporters of World Renew and Tear Australia, and with the support of the government of Laos, it is possible for hundreds of young boys and girls like Porlai to experience the gift of education. Working with Porlai's mom and dad and other villagers, World Renew got their school built.

"On the day I was privileged to visit, Zambee Phonlavong, part of World Renew's education support team, was working with the government-paid teacher to assess the children's language ability in the Lao-lum language," said Tom Post, currently the team leader for World Renew in Asia, focusing on Bangladesh, India, Laos, Cambodia, Philippines and Indonesia.

"Lao-lum is the majority culture language, but the children don't know it when they start school," said Post. "Zambee supports the teachers to manage multiple grades and mother-tongue classes." For him, Post said, "seeing the children at their rustic desks, and watching Zambee work with the teacher was a gift."

The way Porlai and two young boys bent their heads together over the paper on their desk brought back the memory of his own son, Joseph, in Mary Hill Primary school back in Belize, sharing a desk with a mestizo Belizean and an African Belizean.

"Joseph was always on the left side of the three-kid bench so his writing hand could work freely," said Post.

The sight of Porlai and those young boys also resonated, reminding him of his grandmother's history of being a monolingual Dutch immigrant child in a one-room schoolhouse in Fife Lake, Mich.

"And, I think the scene moved me because of the odds Porlai and her people face. Yet there they are: valuing the gift of education, persisting in the rustic conditions, and working through their language barriers. That scene helped renew in me the meaning of our work."

Continue to pray for area churches: Ebenezer Presbyterian, St. John's Lutheran, First Lutheran, United Methodist, Holy Redeemer, Our Saviors Lutheran, Temple of Jesus Christ, Hispanic Church and Emden. Ask God to continue to move through His church to the glory of His kingdom. Remember—we are part of God's kingdom and need to always be following Him.

Are you continuing to pray that God would use us to share His love and the Good News of the Gospel with our community? Pray that the presence of God will shine through us, the Emden Church Family, and that He will use us in His Kingdom will.

"Do not be anxious about anything, but in everything, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, present your request to God" Philippians 4:6
