God of grace and truth, revealed in your Son, Jesus Christ, who came so that we may have life and have it to the full (John 10:10), we ask for your grace and truth to penetrate the trouble and painful reality of sex trafficking. May your grace transform and heal broken hearts and your truth reveal our constant need for your grace.

God of grace and truth, grant to all the broken hearted life, full life through Jesus Christ.

We raise our voices in anguished prayer for our sisters and brothers, women and girls, men and boys, who are victims of sex trafficking. They are your beloved daughters and sons, exploited sexually or forced to work because of human violence and greed.

God of grace and truth, grant to all the broken hearted life, full life through Jesus Christ.

Fill us with your holy anger and your sacred passion that those who are trafficked might know healing and justice; that traffickers will come to repentance and conversion; that all of us might live in such a way that others are not made to pay the price for our comfort and convenience.

God of grace and truth, grant to all the broken hearted life, full life through Jesus Christ.

We lift before you those who are working to fight this evil every and pray for that you may grant them strength for their work. We ask for your blessing upon the work of Safe Avenues and organizations like them and may their work inspire us to extend your grace and truth in this broken world.

God of grace and truth, grant to all the broken hearted life, full life through Jesus Christ. In his name, amen.

CORNER

The Persecuted Church - Finding Jesus in Prison

Although the prison in Soroti, Uganda, has about 650 inmates, Josh Shaarda only expected a small group to show up for the first Bible study he was leading there. But he was in for a surprise. “About 180 men were present and waiting for me,” said Shaarda. “I was like ‘wow...God is awesome.’”

And each week, almost all of the men kept showing up! Shaarda and his wife, Mandy, are partner missionaries with Resonate Global Mission in Uganda. Their primary role is to teach discipleship skills with Freedom in Christ Ministries, a Resonate partner ministry.

Shaards said his Bible studies had a message that struck a chord with the inmates.

“We focused on understanding our identity in Christ, on winning the battle for our minds, on believing truth and living according to it, and on specific confession of sin,” said Shaarda.

Sharing these truths with inmates has yielded stunning results.

“Nearly every week we offer an invitation for people to receive Jesus as their personal Savior,” Shaarda noted. “One week God’s Spirit stirred and nine men came forward.”

After release from prison, one of the inmates invited Shaarda to a service at his village church in which he shared his testimony. “I met Jesus in prison,” the inmate proclaimed. “I learned that my identity comes from what Jesus did for me, not from what I do.... The day I learned that I wept and gave my life to Jesus.”

The prison guards have also seen a tangible difference. “Inmates rarely try to escape now,” said one guard. “The church’s presence in the prison has... changed the way inmates treat each other, the way inmates treat officers, and the way officers treat inmates.”

Throughout this experience, Shaarda has grown increasingly amazed by the power of the Holy Spirit. “The gospel of Christ can be received by anyone, regardless of circumstances, and lead to transformation.”

Shaarda said he doesn’t want his prison ministry to end. He hopes to expand his reach by training ward pastors (inmates chosen by their peers to lead) and helping people as they transition out of prison. “I do hope to go back to the prison and begin ministering again. Lord willing, we will also explore the opportunity to minister in other prisons as well.”

Continue to pray for area churches: Ebenezer Presbyterian, St. John’s Lutheran, First Lutheran, United Methodist, Holy Redeemer, Our Saviors Lutheran, Temple of Jesus Christ, Hispanic Church and Emden. Ask God to continue to move through His church to the glory of His kingdom. Remember, we are part of God’s kingdom and need to always be following Him.

Are you continuing to pray that God would use us to share His love and the Good News of the Gospel with our community? Pray that the presence of God will shine through us, the Emden Church Family, and that He will use us in His Kingdom will.
