From Aboriginal Ministry

Lent Prayer Campaign for Indigenous Justice - The Christian Reformed Church has affirmed the United Nations Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples. But what does that mean? This Lent, the CRC's Canadian Aboriginal Ministry Committee invites you to enter into the themes of the Declaration through prayer. This is our prayer this week: You know the pain of losing a child. We pray for members of northern communities, as they struggle through the pain of suicide deaths. Bring comfort and peace to these families and communities. Disrupt, unsettle, and heal the forces and broken systems in which children end their lives. Bring healing, strength, and renewal to Indigenous children, youth, and their families. Join with us this Lenten season to pray: crcna.org/DeclarationPrayers

Stooping Like Jesus

- The love of Jesus (vs. 1-5)

The waiting game

Life involves lots of waiting. We wait in groups, in lines, in cars. We wait for packages, for the bus, for the sun to rise. We wait in doctors' offices, at the post office, at the DMV. Waiting implies we're at someone else's mercy, but it's also usually linked to hope. Perhaps that's why Paul Tillich called waiting a metaphor for faith. Why would one wait if there weren't the firm belief that the object of one's wait will eventually materialize?

Waiting can be enervating, which is why Isaiah 40:31 is so promising: "They who wait upon the Lord shall renew their strength." Yet waiting is tough if you have nothing to do while waiting. That's why Jesus, when talking about waiting, also talked about working — work for the night is coming. Sometimes it's less tiring to work than it is to wait.

There's a lot of waiting during Lent. You're waiting for a payoff. You're waiting for the Resurrection. You're waiting for spiritual growth. And then you realize this isn't waiting at all. It's life. It's joy. It's opportunity. It's blessing.

- Let Jesus love you (vs. 6-11)

- Let Jesus dress you up in servant's clothes (vs. 12-20)

Watch and Pray for North Korea

The eyes of the world are on Pyeongchang, South Korea, for the 2018 Winter Olympic Games. Millions of viewers around the world are enjoying the athletic accomplishments, pageantry & sense of comradeship the games inspire.

A little more than 50 miles north of Pyeongchang lies the border with the Democratic Peoples Republic of Korea, a land of physical and spiritual darkness ruled by the brutal Kim regime. North Korean Christians are hunted by their government to be executed or sent to concentration camps, and just owning a Bible can be a capital offense.

North Korea will not ultimately be changed by Olympic PR efforts, domestic politics, international negotiations or bombs. It will be changed by the gospel of Jesus Christ.

This month, The Voice of the Martyrs invites you to help us shine the light of truth into North Korea by supporting VOM's ministry work there. Your gift will help advance the gospel in four ways:

1. Gospel balloons
2. BIBLE delivery
3. Support for front-line workers
4. Covert Gospel operations

As you watch the conclusion of the Olympic Games this week, will you remember to pray for North Korea? Perhaps you could pause during each commercial break to pray for Christians being starved and forced to work each day in prison camps. Perhaps every time you hear a national anthem you could pray for revival in North Korea and for the safe delivery of evangelistic materials like New Testaments and gospel balloons.

By this time next week we'll know the final medal count. We'll know who won each event in this year's Winter Olympics. But only later, in eternity, might we know the full effects of our prayers on the people and nation of North Korea. How many people might place their faith in Christ as a result of gospel balloon drops, Christian radio broadcasts and other projects that VOM supports?

Are you continuing to pray that God would use us to share His love and the Good News of the Gospel with our community? Pray that the presence of God will shine through us, the Emden Church Family, and that He will use us in His Kingdom will.

Continue to pray for area churches: Ebenezer Presbyterian, St. John's Lutheran, First Lutheran, United Methodist, Holy Redeemer, Our Saviors Lutheran, Temple of Jesus Christ, Hispanic Church and Emden. Ask God to continue to move through His church to the glory of His kingdom. Remember—we are part of God's kingdom and need to always be following Him.
