THE WIDOW'S OFFERING - When the widow brings her small offering, Jesus teaches about generosity, sacrifice, and the heart of giving. But is there more? Join Groundwork as we study Mark 12:41-44 to see why Jesus' response also renews God's call to be people filled with love with a heart for justice and mercy. Listen now at GroundworkOnline.com and subscribe to Groundwork's weekly emails for future episodes.

The King

Sometimes we speak or shout the truth without realizing just how right we are. That happened during Holy Week, first when Jesus rode into Jerusalem on a donkey. The palm-waving crowd hailed Jesus as their king — though he wasn't the earthly king they wanted.

Days later, during Jesus' trial, Pilate taunted the Pharisees, saying, "Here is your king." Furious, they protested, "We have no king but Caesar." Pilate turned Jesus over to them. But still wanting to needle the insistent persecutors, he wrote a sign reading "The King of the Jews" and had it fastened above Jesus' cross (John 19:19).

Was Jesus a king? Witnesses of the Resurrection thought so. The first Christians were accused of "saying there is another king, Jesus" (Acts 17:7). The writer of Revelation envisions the day when the whole world will understand that the risen Christ isn't only Lord and Savior but also "Lord of lords and King of kings" (Revelation 17:14).

CORNER

THE PERSECUTED CHURCH: Seven Years Later: Word and Deed Continue in Japan

It's 2018, almost seven years after "the big one" that hit in March 2011—the earthquake, tsunami, and nuclear meltdown that killed nearly 18,000 people—and Japan is still plagued by aftershocks from that earthquake.

The 2011 quake was the strongest in Japan's recorded history. But the CRC mounted a historic response to the disaster, partnering with donors and using agency resources and networks to bring relief to survivors. This effort by World Renew, Resonate Global Mission, and other churches from around the world has been a powerful witness in this country where less than one percent of the people are Christians.

"Ministry in word and deed" was no cliché, as water, food, clothing, and many other commodities were distributed and people of all ages and from many nations joined together.

Although the disaster response officially ended in 2017, gifts to the CRC's mission agencies are still having a reverberating effect. The leaders have been equipped and encouraged are now getting involved in ministry.

Rev. Akira Tateishi was a pastor of a local church whom Resonate missionary, Larry Spalink has known and discipled since he was only 12 years old. He found his niche in serving the victims and helping with relief work. His vision, energy, and zeal led to his establishment and ongoing operation of Sakura House, a ministry center along the coast that serves not only the community members there but also residents of a local temporary housing villages.

Continue to pray for area churches: Ebenezer Presbyterian, St. John's Lutheran, First Lutheran, United Methodist, Holy Redeemer, Our Saviors Lutheran, Temple of Jesus Christ, Hispanic Church and Emden. Ask God to continue to move through His church to the glory of His kingdom. Remember—we are part of God's kingdom and need to always be following Him.

Are you continuing to pray that God would use us to share His love and the Good News of the Gospel with our community? Pray that the presence of God will shine through us, the Emden Church Family, and that He will use us in His Kingdom will.
