Franklin Presbyterian Church

From
the pastor

REVEREND LOU VENTURA

I'm sure I speak for many when I say Wednesday, Nov. 9 cannot get here soon enough—this election season has been unbelievable! It seems we are to believe that our country will fall if the wrong candidate is elected—but we can't forget that, with our system of checks and balances (based on the Presbyterian tradition of preventing one person or body from having too much power), the elections for members of Congress are equally crucial.

What I have tried to remember to these many months of mud-slinging is that Americans have felt these same emotions in elections throughout our history, and we have survived to tell the stories. I'm thinking particularly of the election of 1800, when "With Jefferson as President, so warned one newspaper, "Murder, robbery, rape, adultery, and incest will be openly taught and practiced, the air will be rent with the cries of the distressed, the soil will be soaked with blood, and the nation black with crimes." Others attacked Jefferson's deist beliefs as the views of an infidel who "writes aghast the truths of God's words; who makes not even a profession of Christianity; who is without Sabbaths; without the sanctuary, and without so much as a decent external respect for the faith and worship of Christians."<sup>1</sup>

Regardless of who wins the presidential election, it is merely one more election in our nation's story. Our country will survive this election, I promise. Now more than ever, we need to remember that we are first and foremost God's beloved children—all of us, no matter for whom we vote.

Joyfully and with love in Christ,

Lou

Invitation and Outreach By Benjamin Matteson, Invitation and Outreach Team Lead

Many thanks to our generous FPC family: our Peacemaking Offering was a success! We collected $208.00; the Genieve Shelter will receive $100.00, with the remainder going to our Presbytery to disperse where it is needed.

As we head into the month of November, we begin one of our busiest times for outreach. The holidays are almost upon us! We are still doing some groundwork for the Thanksgiving meal project. As you know, we hope to partner with AARP to provide Thanksgiving meals for the elderly and infirm. At this point we are in the process of trying to identify those who would have difficulty in making a meal for themselves, and those folks who might not have family to enjoy the holiday with. If we are unable to find a sufficient number (as of this writing, we only have one name), we may take a break this year, re-evaluate and possibly re-tool this particular outreach. Watch the bulletin and website for the latest on the project, and pencil in November 23 on your calendar to save the date, just in case.

At the end of November, we will also start collecting for our annual Angel Tree Offering. We plan to once again pick a family or two from Franklin Social Services and collect money to provide Christmas to these families. More information to come as the holidays get closer.

As always, if you have any questions please let me know.

We are a community of believers called by God to live humbly in the spirit of Christ and to act as His voice and hands in our world.

PRESBYTERIAN WOMEN

By Vivian Christie, FPC Presbyterian Women Moderator

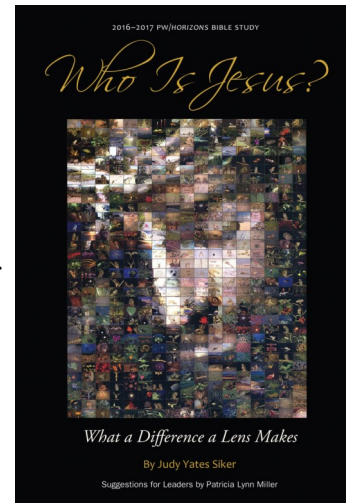

PRESBYTERIAN
WOMEN

Our circle began in October with a powerful Bible Study, "Who is Jesus?" Rev. Lou gave us a great background on the time before and during Jesus' life. We then heard what the Gospel of Mark said who Jesus was.

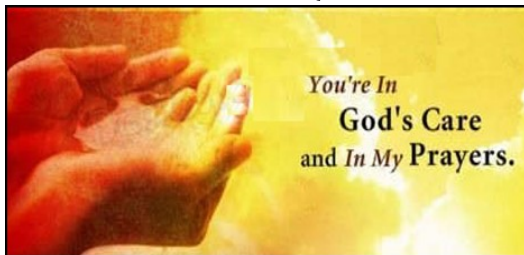

Our next meeting is Tuesday, November 1, at 10am in Brenner Hall. Lesson two is focused on the Gospel According to Matthew. The author of our study tells us that the key idea in the lesson is that Jesus is the long-awaited Jewish messiah whose teaching opens the kingdom of heaven to us here and now. Be sure to read Matthew 5-7:13, and come prepared to have a meaningful discussion.

We are still hoping to start an evening circle, and have had a few responses. If you have ANY interest, please give me a call as soon as possible. We have had a suggestion to move the evening circle meeting to Sunday evening instead of Tuesday evening. We have suggestions to move to The Village to include others. What are YOUR thoughts? If we are to move forward with this, we will need to begin in November.

Rev. Lou and I represented our PW at the Fall Gathering. More to report to you on that next month.

Two Important Actions Taken at October PEVA Quarterly Meeting

At PEVA's quarterly meeting, held October 25, 2016, two actions were taken that impact the entire presbytery.

The first was a vote to dismiss the congregation of First Presbyterian Church Gloucester (FPCG) from the PC(USA) to the Covenant Order of Evangelical Presbyterians (ECO).

The motion was put forward by an administrative commission (AC) that had been assigned to work with FPCG in October 2015 at their request to assist them in a discernment process as they considered withdrawal from the PC(USA). Over 50 listening sessions were held as the commission listened to congregants on both sides of the question. Some of the major issues for their desire to leave the denomination are: definition of marriage; the divestment issue; and using an authoritative interpretation (AI) to change the Book of Order. The congregational vote whether to leave the denomination was held on September 11, 2016; by secret ballot, 23 elected to stay with the PC(USA), 177 to leave; and 1 voted as undecided.

On August 28, 2016, the AC met at Groves Memorial Presbyterian Church in Hayes with some of the members that desired to stay within the PC(USA) to offer pastoral support and materials to assist them through this time. The ECO's East Central Presbytery has agreed to assume ecclesiastical authority over FPCG and its pastor (Rev. Doug Nagel) upon PEVA's dismissal. The PEVA vote to dismiss was 79 yes and 27 no votes; the motion to dismiss FPCG to the ECO passed. NOTE: It is important to understand that this motion includes a contingency that the resolution of property issues and implementation of other conditions are met prior to complete dismissal. Membership at FPCG in 1995 was listed as 525 and at the end of 2015 there were 338 members reported.

The second action taken at this meeting involved Makemie Woods, PEVA's camp and retreat center in Barhamsville, VA. Earlier in the year PEVA contracted with a consultant to perform a viability study to determine a way forward regarding the camp. The full report is available on PEVA's website, or you can see Pastor Lou for a copy. At the PEVA meeting, small groups met to discuss specific questions regarding whether to take action on the consultant's recommendations. We await the results of the small group discussions, and will share them with you once they are received. For further details, see Ruling Elder Robert Meredith or Pastor Lou, who attended the meeting.

We Want to Be Prepared....

At its stated meeting on September 21, the FPC Session approved a motion from the Facilities Team to obtain an Automated External Defibrillator (AED) unit.

DEFIBRILLATOR

AED

An AED is an electrical device that provides a shock to the heart when there is a life-threatening arrhythmia present. The most common arrhythmia is ventricular fibrillation, a very rapid erratic beating of the heart. The defibrillator shocks the heart to stop so that it can start rhythmically contracting again.

A unit costs between $1200.00 and $1500.00. The Session feels strongly that we should have an AED unit on-site in case of emergency. It was suggested that the congregation may welcome an opportunity to contribute to the purchase of an AED unit, which would be kept in the sanctuary. Should additional funds be required, they would be covered from the Brenner Fund.

If you would like to contribute, please mail or place a check in the offering plate with "AED Unit" in the memo line.

To my church family,
Thank you so much for all the gifts for my new home. I am having a great time in my new apartment!

Love,

Deloris Joyner

Greetings, FPC family!

I just wanted to take a moment to say thank you for giving me this wonderful opportunity to serve all of you here as Administrative Assistant.

To Pastor Lou, a HUGE thank you for giving me a shot at this job to begin with. I can never express the magnitude of just how very grateful I am to you for taking a chance on me and giving me this opportunity!

Another huge thank you to the session members. I will be forever grateful to you all for allowing me the chance to prove that I could be an asset to FPC.

To the entire congregation, thank you all for being such a friendly, open-minded, fun group of people! I look forward to each and every day that I come to work here, and I am looking forward to many, many more! God bless you all!

News Briefs

Advent Lectio Divina Begins

On Tuesday, Nov. 22 at 6:00 p.m., a new series of lectio divina will begin using the Advent lectionary texts.

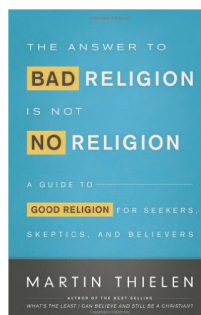

Each week, we will review the week's lectionary scripture to inform the upcoming Sunday's worship using the process of lectio divina: reading through the text three times, then reflecting upon what stands out in light of our lives and the world today.

The second meeting will be Tuesday, Nov. 29 at 6:00 p.m.; at this meeting the group will select the best evening of the week to meet through the week before Christmas.

Each meeting stands on its own, so if you aren't able to make each meeting, you can drop in on any date. Additionally, feel free to bring your dinner and eat while we meet.

Hope to see you there!

The Answer to Bad Religion is Not No Religion Book Study to Begin February 5, 2017

A study of the book The Answer to Bad Religion is Not No Religion by Martin Thielen is scheduled for the Sunday school hour, 9:45 a.m., beginning Sunday, February 5, through Sunday, April 9, in Brenner Hall.

It is not too late to indicate your interest; we will be ordering books in January.

Robert Meredith, Christian Formation Team Leader, writes: This is the title of a book I recently read with the subtitle "A Guide to Good Religion for Seekers, Skeptics, and Believers." It is written by Martin Thielen, a Methodist minister whose early experience in the ministry I have some personal identification with. As laid out in his table of contents, Thielen discusses bad religion as religion that engages in self-righteous judgment of others; expresses a chronic spirit of negativity; breeds arrogance, intolerance, and absolutism; participates in partisan politics and excessive nationalism; and fosters nominal commitment to Christ and the Church.

No religion he says is not helpful and not necessary. One of the major motivations for his book is to address a significant trend in this country and in Western Europe for the younger generations who choose to have no relationship to organized religion, especially Christianity. He believes that those churches practicing bad religion and whose practices and beliefs seem to be mostly inferred when the term "Christian" is referenced in the media, taint all of us who call ourselves by that name.

Thanksgiving*

HumanKind

to be transitioned to the community by March 2017.

WHAT YOU CAN DO: At this time, monetary gifts designated for the Zuni Transition will assist in finding new living arrangements for these adults (HumanKind is one beneficiary of the upcoming Thank Offering). Additionally, write or call your Virginia legislative representatives to demand Medicaid waiver funding for the thousands of people who are still on the waiting list.

New federal regulations are challenging the Zuni campus of Human Kind, a rural, institutional setting of co-located homes for 44 adults with mental disabilities. Staff there are working on plans for residents

Angel Tree Fun Is On the Way!

On Saturday, December 17, we will be shopping for Christmas gifts for our Angel Tree families. The more who can shop, the quicker it goes. Project leader Tiffany Matteson is super-organized with names, ages, wish list items, and sizes, and we always have a great time. (If we're lucky, Santa will be around and we can take a group picture!)

Then, on Sunday, December 18 after worship, we'll have our wrapping party in Brenner Hall.

Save the dates and let Tiffany know you're available to help.

in Brenner Hall following worship

Planning continues on our upcoming celebration!

We are gathering materials from the church archives to display, and several of you have brought in your memories to share in the form of pictures, newspaper articles, and church bulletins. Keep 'em coming!

Our celebration was given a "shout out" at the recent PEVA quarterly meeting! There were congratulations offered from many of the commissioners in attendance on Franklin's ordaining the first woman pastor in the presbytery.

Make plans to attend if at all possible, and bring the family—this is a celebration you won't want to miss!
