OCTOBER 2015

Franklin Presbyterian Church

From the Pastor

REVEREND LOU VENTURA
COVENANT PASTOR

Even though the calendar says it's fall, it's still a little too warm for my taste. I am ready for the crisp cooler air and all the delights that come with this season. As I write this, we are tracking Hurricane Joaquin's path, with varying predictions as to whether it will make landfall in or near our area. I have lived in hurricane-prone areas for much of my life, so I am well aware of their destructive capacity as well as their unpredictability. While doing undergraduate work at the University of Texas Medical Branch, I lived in Galveston, Texas, the site of the horrible hurricane that swamped the island in 1900. I walked the seawall that was built to raise the island to diminish future destruction many times in my two years there.

But while hurricanes cause chaos, they can actually be quite organized in their composition. Creating order out of chaos is part of the first

Invitation and Outreach: Sharing Day

Part of our mission here at FPC is to be the voice and hands of Christ. We especially try to do this by serving our local neighborhood through community events.

Our next neighborhood outreach program is a Sharing Day. That means it is time to clean out your closets, attics, and basements! Bring your gently used items to FPC for our Sharing Day on October 31, from 9-11 am. Items can be dropped off at FPC any time before the event and placed in the upstairs storage room. Remember, your junk may be someone else's treasure! All items will be shared with our neighbors and community members FREE of charge.

Volunteers are needed to help set up and organize items on Friday, October 30 at 6:30 p.m., and to welcome our neighbors during the event. We would love to have you participate any way you can.

We are a community of believers called by God to live humbly in the spirit of Christ and to act as His voice and hands in our world.

PRESBYTERIAN WOMEN

By Vivian Christie

FPC Presbyterian Women Moderator

PRESBYTERIAN WOMEN

It is time for our Circle meetings to start again! Join us the first Tuesday of each month at 10 a.m. at Brenner Hall. This Tuesday, October 6, we begin our new year with our Bible Study entitled, "Come to the Water." We are fortunate to have the Rev. Lou Ventura and Mr. Robert Meredith to serve as our Bible Study Leaders.

On Saturday, October 10, Presbyterian Women of Eastern Virginia are meeting at Denbigh United Presbyterian Church for our Fall Gathering. Our keynote speaker is Sushma Ramswami from India. For the last 20 years, she served as the Communications Secretary of the Church of North India. She has been leading movements for the empowerment of women, children and youth. In the aftermath of hate crimes against minorities, she has organized training programs. She has provided counseling and healing to victims of riots. This description does not represent the Christian devotion. What is very important is the fact that she agreed to be in our presence and share her experiences from her country.

We MUST leave our church NO LATER THAN 7:30 to arrive by 8:45 and register. We hope you can plan to attend. Please let Vivian Christie know if you plan to attend so we can arrange carpooling.

lesson at this month's Presbyterian Women circle meeting. During the coming year, the women will explore how water is a recurring theme throughout our lives as Christians. (I've checked the table of contents—no hurricanes are mentioned!) ☺

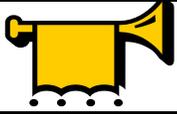

The Thanksgiving holiday and Advent are right around the corner. Now is the perfect time for each of us to explore the themes in our own lives, and examine how those themes have been influenced by our faith. Where are our "growing edges," the places we need to change or improve, in order to be all that God wants us to be? What do we need to do to expand our spiritual maturity? What is chaotic and disorganized in our lives, and what can we do—even teeny, tiny baby steps—to bring order and peace? Regardless of the answers to these questions, I am here to walk with you toward the answers.

Joyfully and with love in Christ,

SESSION UPDATE

At its stated meeting on September 23, 2015, the FPC Session:

- Received 2014 Church Financial Review (audit), indicating that no major issues or discrepancies were found;
- Approved a motion that the FPC Operating Account be reimbursed for all manse repairs and expenditures for 2015 from the proceeds of the sale of the manse; this totals $7000.00. Held a brief discussion that the Brenner Fund would not be reimbursed for the roof repairs since that fund is in place to cover capital improvements. This motion and discussion will be shared with the FPC Corporation trustees;
- Validated the electronic vote held on 8/13/15 to hire Joe Banty as Administrative Assistant, replacing Gaby Bryce;
- Reviewed a list of members provided by the receiving treasurers that appear from their giving to be inactive. The Session will reach out to some of these members and the rolls will be formally reviewed later in the year when the Annual Statistical Report is completed;
- Held a brief discussion regarding an Advent-season special study or lectio divina; no decision was made;
- Heard a report that FPC received a grant of $2500.00 to assist with the expense of installing a security system from the Synod of the Mid-Atlantic. The Facilities Team will be looking at existing quotes and additional systems in order to make a decision on the final cost and ways to make up any shortage that the grant will not cover, if needed;
- Was notified that the brick and mortar repair work should begin shortly;
- Discussed plans to paint the Treasurer's office;
- Were notified that the Men of the Church will begin meeting again on Saturday, 10/10/15 in Brenner Hall, after taking the summer months off;
- Revised the date of FPC's Sharing Date from 10/17 to 10/31/15 from 9-11 a.m.;
- Was notified that the Invitation and Outreach Team plans to provide 5-6 study Bibles for inmates at the Southampton County Jail per the request of several inmates and upon approval by the warden.

News Briefs

Blessing of the Animals Rescheduled

Due to anticipated severe weather with the landing of Hurricane Joaquin, the Executive Planning Board of the Franklin Fall Festival decided late Wednesday, September 30, to cancel the festival and all associated events, originally scheduled for Friday and Saturday, October 2 and 3.

The festival has been rescheduled for November 13-14, and our Blessing of the Animals will be held on Saturday, November 14, at 3 p.m. in the same location—Harold Atkinson Park across from City Hall on 2nd Avenue.

Notification will be provided to the Tidewater News as well as posted on FPC's Facebook page and on flyers posted at the vet's office and other locations around town. Let your friends know!

PEVA Presbyterian Women Fall Gathering at Denbigh United PC

The Women of PEVA are invited to attend the PEVA PW Fall Gathering on Saturday, October 10, at Denbigh United Presbyterian Church in Newport News.

The keynote speaker will be Sushman Ramswami from India, who has served for the past 20 years as the Communications Secretary of the Church of North India. She has been leading movements for the empowerment of women, children, and youth, and in the aftermath of hate crimes against minorities, has organized training programs that provide counseling and healing to victims of riots.

Registration and breakfast begin at 8:15 a.m. and the keynote address and workshop breakouts will last until 1:15 p.m. If you are interested in attending, please notify Vivian Christie or Betty Jones of FPC's Presbyterian Women.

COMING SOON TO A NARTHEX NEAR YOU!

This year's Advent devotional is written by Martin Marty, a religious commentator and Biblical scholar. "Lift Up Your Heads" introduces us to the language of "lifting up" found throughout Scripture and applies that evocative imagery to our approach to Advent.

Each day's uplifting message will better prepare us for the coming of the One who was born to raise us from the depths of sin and death forever.

Watch for your copy, coming soon!
