REVEREND LOU VENTURA

By the time you read this, my plan is to have submitted an application to the doctoral program at Pittsburgh Theological Seminary. I tell you this as a way to compel myself to actually do so—I have procrastinated completing the application for several months now, primarily because one of the requirements was an 800-word essay. It's finally done, and I need to stop tweaking it, let it go and get it submitted. I know that if I share this with all of you, you will ask me about it, and I want to be able to report that I've done it! ☺

The program, which begins in January, is primarily completed online, with a couple of weeks each winter and fall semester on campus in Pittsburgh. (My delightful mother-in-law has agreed that I can stay with her during those weeks.) The seminary actually wants its doctoral students to remain in ministry, because it informs the coursework. The track I'm planning to take (should I be accepted) is parish ministry, and the degree (doctor of ministry) can be completed in 3-5 years. Instead of a dissertation I'll have to complete a project and a paper.

So, I'm requesting your prayers for courage to submit the application, please, and for acceptance. I'll keep you posted!

Joyfully and with love in Christ,
Lou

Invitation and Outreach

By Benjamin Matteson, Invitation and Outreach Team Lead

The month of September brings us to the last major "monetary" offering we support as a member of PC(USA). Starting Sunday, September 4, FPC will focus on the Peace & Global Witness Offering, formally known as the Peacemaking Offering.

A gift to the Peace & Global Witness Offering enables the church to promote the Peace of Christ by addressing systems of injustice across the world. Individual congregations are encouraged to use up to 25% of this offering to sustain their local peacemaking ministries.

As with our Peacemaking offerings from prior years, FPC's portion of the offering (25%) will be donated to the Genieve Shelter, which serves families escaping domestic violence. The offering will be collected on Sunday, October 2. The plan is to have a guest speaker in worship that Sunday tell us more about the services offered by the Genieve Shelter. Watch Sunday bulletins and announcements for more information on this offering.

We are a community of believers called by God to live humbly in the spirit of Christ and to act as His voice and hands in our world.

PRESBYTERIAN WOMEN

By Vivian Christie, FPC Presbyterian Women Moderator

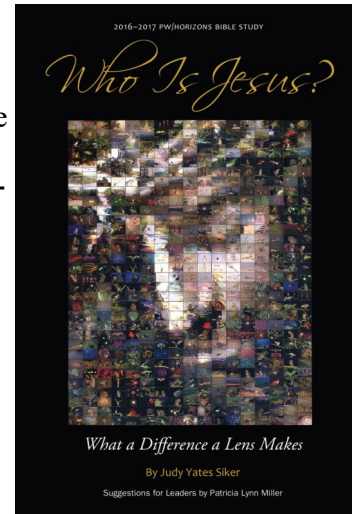

PRESBYTERIAN
WOMEN

The Franklin Presbyterian PW Circle meetings will resume on Tuesday, October 4, 2016, at 10 a.m. in Brenner Hall.

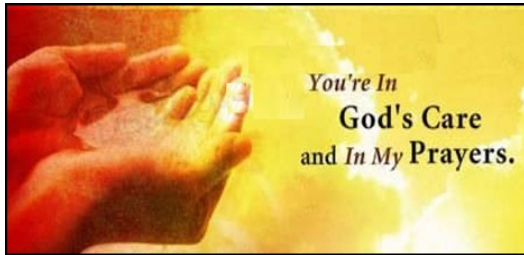

Pastor Lou will lead the first lesson of our 2016-2017 Bible study, "Who Is Jesus? What a Difference a Lens Makes," by Judy Yates Siker, alternating the remaining lessons with Robert Meredith.

This study invites us to join the author on "a journey to expand our understanding of who Jesus was and is—a journey of our hearts and minds, a journey that we will take together."

The study's nine lessons explore the question "Who is Jesus?" through a particular theological lens: Who is Jesus according to the four Gospels, to Paul, Hebrews, the non-canonical Gospels, other Abrahamic faiths, and contemporary cultural interpretations? Join us for what promises to be a fascinating time of learning and discussion.

Prayer

Father, Mother, God,
 Thank you for your presence
 during the hard and mean days.
 For then we have you to lean upon.
 Thank you for your presence
 during the bright and sunny days,
 for then we can share that which we have
 with those who have less.
 And thank you for your presence during the Holy Days, for then we are able to celebrate you and our families and our friends.
 For those who have no voice,
 we ask you to speak.
 For those who feel unworthy,
 we ask you to pour your love out
 in waterfalls of tenderness.
 For those who live in pain,
 we ask you to bathe them
 in the river of your healing.
 For those who are lonely, we ask you to keep them company.
 For those who are depressed,
 we ask you to shower upon them
 the light of hope.

Dear Creator, You, the borderless sea of substance, we ask you to give to all the world that which we need most—Peace.

FPC Shirts to be Ordered Soon!

If you haven't turned in the interest form and you want to order an FPC shirt, please do so within the next couple of weeks. Forms are in the narthex, or you can call Melissa in the church office at 562-4313 for information. We will be contacting the vendor to place an order by the end of September—more details coming soon.

Service of Healing and Wholeness Wednesday, Sept. 28, 6:00—6:30 p.m.

Peace. Quiet. Time to just be.

Come for sanctuary from a cluttered and cacophonous world, and re-center yourself in Christ.

Franklin Cooperative Ministry Served More than 1300 Households

The first six months of 2016 saw the number of households served by Franklin Cooperative Ministry (FCM) exceed 1300. The staff at FCM applies for and receives several grants each year, among them the Camp Foundations, United Way, and Franklin/Southampton Charities. Local donations of food, funds, and household goods are also received throughout the year and are crucial to assist requestors.

Following are some of FCM's statistics for January through June 2016. If you have any questions, please see Franklin Cooperative Ministry board members Jackie Cutchin or Pastor Lou.

Provided 841 food bags (approximately $25,230.00)

Provided 14 people with dental care ($1,125.00)

Provided rent assistance to 10 clients ($4,357.00)

Assisted 178 clients with utility/water bills and other household needs ($36,973.13)

Provided prescription assistance to 18 individuals ($2,210.38)

Provided free clothing to 372 families

The Answer to Bad Religion is Not No Religion

by Robert Meredith, Christian Formation Team Leader

This is the title of a book I have been reading recently with the subtitle “A Guide to Good Religion for Seekers, Skeptics, and Believers.” It is written by Martin Thielen, a Methodist minister whose early experience in the ministry I have some personal identification with. Without naming the denomination he describes how that denomination’s leaders pushed it in the direction of a strict fundamentalist and intolerant stance, a direction he increasingly felt estranged from. As a Southern Baptist educated in Baptist universities and a Baptist seminary, I observed that takeover and the consequent firing of professors who did not toe the fundamentalist line. So I must admit to some intolerance myself toward those who set themselves up as judges over the beliefs of others as though they themselves have the one set of true beliefs.

As laid out in his table of contents, Thielen discusses bad religion as religion that engages in self-righteous judgement of others; expresses a chronic spirit of negativity; breeds arrogance, intolerance, and absolutism; participates in partisan politics and excessive nationalism; and fosters nominal commitment to Christ and the Church.

No religion he says is not helpful and not necessary. One of the major motivations for his book is to address a significant trend in this country and in Western Europe for the younger generations who choose to have no relationship to organized religion, especially Christianity. He believes that those churches practicing bad religion and whose practices and beliefs seem to be mostly inferred when the term “Christian” is referenced in the media, taint all of us who call ourselves by that name.

On the other hand good religion Thielen says impacts the way we live, prioritizes love, engages in service, provides a prophetic voice, builds community, is hope filled, keeps an open mind, practices forgiveness, promotes gratitude, and practices evangelism with integrity.

I found that the author writes clearly and with genuine sadness about the narrow-minded and judgmental mindset of so many Christians, a mindset that is turning off an intelligent younger generation. I recommend this relatively short, easy to read book to anyone with an interest in the subject.

I would also be glad to set up and lead a series of discussions based on this book if there are enough people who would be interested in doing so, dates and times to be decided. Let me know if you are interested. I purchased the book on Amazon, though I am sure there are other sources.

1—The Better Things

In Ecclesiastes, Solomon made many distinctions between the wise and foolish things of this world. Solve this puzzle to discover one of the better things we would be wise to choose. (ECCLESIASTES 7)

Ham and Cheese Rolls

- 48 party rolls (I use Hawaiian rolls-2 packs of 24)
- ½ lb ham (I used almost 1 lb of VA ham)
- ½ lb Swiss cheese
- 1 cup butter (2 sticks)
- ¼ cup brown sugar
- 2 Tbsp. Worcestershire sauce
- 3 Tbsp. poppy seeds
- 2 Tbsp. ground mustard

Slice the rolls in half (doing the whole package at once). Layer ham and Swiss cheese. Put tops on rolls. Melt remaining ingredients in microwave and pour over rolls. Refrigerate overnight.

Bake, uncovered, 15 minutes at 350 degrees.

The Knots Prayer

Dear God,

Please untie the knots that are in my mind, my heart, and my life.

Remove the have nots, the can nots, and the do nots that I have in my mind.

Erase the will nots, may nots, and might nots that may find a home in my heart.

Release me from the could nots, would nots, and should nots that obstruct my life.

And most of all, dear God, I ask that you remove from my mind, my heart, and my life all the "am nots" that I have allowed to hold me back, especially the thought that I am not good enough.

Amen.
