SEPTEMBER 2015

Franklin Presbyterian Church

From the Pastor

REVEREND LOU VENTURA
COVENANT PASTOR

Next to December, August is my favorite month, and it's not just because it's my birthday month. When I was younger, I actually missed school during the summer, and was so excited when we began preparing to go back. Shopping for and gathering together all the school supplies was a big part of that, and that's one reason why I am so delighted that we are once again adopting out book bags for local school kids. It's hard to imagine doing homework or even assignments during the school day without the proper supplies. My guess is that I'm not the only person who really enjoys gathering all the new pencils, pens, paper, folders, and notebooks for a new year of learning, and with this project, we all get to participate once again in that exciting back-to-school tradition.

Most of you know that since June 25, I have been caring for Ron as

Invitation and Outreach: Second Annual "Adopt" A Book Bag

Last Friday Joe Banty and I turned in the book bags the church "adopted" and filled. Like with the first "adopt" a bag program the second was a huge success. It never ceases to amaze me the way our church gets behind the outreach programs that are put before them. Thank you to all who "adopted" a bag and shopped (I know some of the bags got expensive, and items may have been hard to find) and thank you to those of you that donated money towards "adopting" a bag.

The second phase of the "adopt" a bag program starts now. I will be making little goody bags for the teachers, I hope to have those made sometime this week. I am going to put together some bags with a pen, a small thing of tissues, a pack of post-its and some candy for each teacher at S.P. Morton.

Thanks again for all you do to make the Invitation and Outreach programs a success.

We are a community of believers called by God to live humbly in the spirit of Christ and to act as His voice and hands in our world.

PRESBYTERIAN WOMEN

By Vivian Christie

FPC Presbyterian Women Moderator

On August 30th, Presbyterian Women Officers were installed by Rev. Lou Ventura. The officers are very much the same again this year. Thank you ladies for your love and dedication.

Officers are as follows:

Moderator – Vivian Christie

Treasurer – Bobbi Thomas

Circle Chairman – Betty Jones

Least Coin – Sue Fast

Secretary – Faye Springfield

Historian – Terry Rose

Search Committee – Dottie Gilbert

Sunshine – Lane Meredith

PRESBYTERIAN
WOMEN

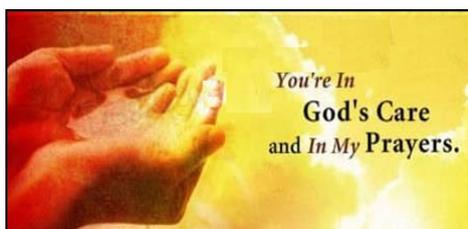

We are pleased to have Rev. Lou Ventura and Mr. Robert Meredith to serve as our Bible Study Leaders again this year. They always have a wonderful way of making the author's ideas come to life for us. This requires lots of time and dedication. We thank you for being called to serve as our leaders.

Our first meeting is Tuesday, October 6, 10am. We are making some changes and striving to keep our meetings to one hour to accommodate busy schedules. Our first meeting may be just a little longer because we need to discuss a focus/a mission project for the coming year. Please come prepared with some great ideas. Our study books, "Come to the Waters," should arrive by mid-September. See Betty Jones or Vivian Christie for one.

Important: Mark your calendars for Saturday, October 10, 2015, for PEVA PW Fall Gathering. It will take place at Denbigh United Presbyterian Church in Newport News. Registration is from 8:15 to 9am and the program closes at 1:15pm. The keynote speaker is Sushma Ramswami from India. She has been leading movements for the empowerment of women, children and youth. And, in the aftermath of hate crimes against minorities, she has organized training programs. She has provided counseling and healing to victims of riots. We are so fortunate to have her in our presence and sharing her experiences from her country. Following Worship, Communion, and our Keynote Speaker, you can visit the Hall of Beautiful Things and then attend 2 sets of workshops. We do hope to have a group to attend. The PW leaders are working hard to make this an informative and enjoyable meeting. Please let Vivian Christie know if you plan to attend. We would need to leave our church no later than 7:30am.

We hope you will choose to join us for Circle on October 6th. We have vibrant discussions and plan programs to help our church and our community. Come and be filled with the spirit of the living water.

he struggles again with debilitating back and leg pain. Our summer has been filled with steroid injections, physical therapy, and pain meds. I've had the relatively easy part, but as anyone who has cared for a loved one knows, it is indeed relative. This experience has made me aware that, while I am definitely gifted with compassion, care-giving is not my strength; it requires a serving gift that unfortunately I do not possess. However, it is important to us that you know that your thoughts, prayers, cards, concerns, and care not only for Ron, but for me, have been of great comfort, and we both deeply appreciate that we are surrounded by your love. Thank you!

Joyfully and with love in Christ,

Lou

Outreach: : The Presbyterian Peace & Global Witness Offering

by Benjamin Matteson

SPECIAL OFFERINGS
PEACE & GLOBAL WITNESS

The Presbyterian Peace and Global Witness Offering (formerly the Peacemaking Offering) supports the efforts of Presbyterians through their congregations, presbyteries, synods, and the General Assembly to work for peace by tearing down the walls of hostility.

The offering begins on Sunday, September 6, and we take up the offering on World Communion Sunday, October 4, 2015.

As Presbyterians, we recognize that Christ taught us to be peacemakers and that being peacemakers is part of being Christ's followers. The Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.) Peace and Global Witness Offering encourages us all to work for peace. Each congregation is invited to find ways to promote peace within the congregation and within the community. Our church will retain 25% of the total offering we receive for the purpose of local peacemaking efforts. As in past years, we will dedicate that to the Genieve Shelter in Suffolk that assists individuals impacted by domestic violence.

If you have any questions please contact Benjamin Matteson at benjaminmatteson@gmail.com or by cell phone 434-594-7212.

Mark Your Calendar for the “Making Arrangements—Your End-of-Life Decisions” Workshop

The “Making Arrangements—Your End-of-Life Decisions” workshop will be held Saturday, September 19, from 3 pm. to 5 p.m. in Brenner Hall. The workshop will be open to the public through flyers and a notice in the Tidewater News.

A light potluck dinner of soup and sandwiches is planned for after the workshop. Watch the narthex for a sign-up sheet to bring food and drink, as well as for the workshop itself. We'll need to know how many handouts to prepare as well as how many folks to feed (maximum 25).

Blessing of the Animals Event October 3, 2015

Animals of God's creation share in the life of human beings. For many of us, our pets are family. Francis of Assisi apparently felt the same way: he called animals, wild and tame, his brothers and sisters. Remembering Francis' love for all creatures, we will invoke God's blessing on these animals in a Blessing of the Animals event on Saturday, October 3.

Since this date falls at the same time of the Franklin Fall Festival, we have decided to open this event to the community. Details—like when and where—are pending, because we are working with the festival committee to determine the most ideal time and location.

Please save the date and make plans to attend with your pets. While pets of all kinds are welcome, it is recommended that animals that become frightened or anxious in crowds or among strangers be left at home for their own safety and comfort.
