Theological Questions

Last week's question:

Besides reconciliation with God, to whom does the Sacrament of Penance reconcile the penitent?

Forgiveness of sins brings reconciliation with God, but also with the Church. Since ancient times the bishop, visible head of a particular Church, has thus rightfully been considered to be the one who principally has the power and ministry of reconciliation: he is the moderator of the penitential discipline. Priests, his collaborators, exercise it to the extent that they have received the commission either from their bishop (or religious superior) or the Pope, according to the law of the Church.

This sacrament reconciles us with the Church. Sin damages or even breaks fraternal communion, the sacrament of Penance repairs or restores it. In this sense it does not simply heal the one restored to ecclesial communion, but has also a revitalizing effect on the life of the Church which suffered from the sin of one of her members. Re-established or strengthened in the communion of saints, the sinner is made stronger by the exchange of spiritual goods among all the living members of the Body of Christ, whether still on pilgrimage or already in the heavenly homeland:

It must be recalled that . . . this reconciliation with God leads, as it were, to other reconciliations, which repair the other breaches caused by sin. the forgiven penitent is reconciled with himself in his inmost being, where he regains his innermost truth. He is reconciled with his brethren whom he has in some way offended and wounded. He is reconciled with the Church. He is reconciled with all creation.

(Catechism 1462, 1469)

New Question:

Does a priest have any obligation to encourage people to go to Confession?

See next week's bulletin for the answer.

Candlemass - February 2nd - 7:00 pm Mass

The 7 p.m. First Friday Mass on February 2nd will be a sung Traditional Latin Mass. Historically, Church candles would be blessed on this day, thus the name "candlemas". You may bring religious themed or votive candles from your home to be blessed as part of this celebration. Adoration will end at 6:00 p.m. in order to prepare for the blessing and Mass. The 8:45 a.m. School Mass will also have blessing of candles.

The World Day for Consecrated Life will be celebrated in the Church on February 2, 2018 and in parishes on the weekend of February 3-4, 2018. Please pray for all those who have made commitments in the consecrated life, and be sure to thank them on their special day. May they continue to be inspired by Jesus Christ and respond generously to God's gift of their vocation.

In Baptism we are reborn as children of God, made members of His Church and heirs to the Kingdom. We welcome the newest member of our Parish Family:

Elizabeth Rose Poblete Bertulfo

Please remember that a baptismal date can only be scheduled when all paperwork is complete and received in the Parish Office. Without exception, all paperwork must be received in the Parish Office at least one week prior to the intended Baptism date. The baptism booklet and form may be found on our website: www.st-andrew.org. Please call Laurel in the Parish Office at 703-817-1770 with any questions.

Our next class is Friday, February 16, at 7:30 p.m. Please call the Parish Office at 703-817-1770 to register. All parents and ALL those asked to be Godparents or Confirmation Sponsors are required to attend a preparation class.

If you attend a class at another parish, be sure to request a class attendance letter. You will need to present that letter when you request your sponsor eligibility letter from St. Andrews.

Please check the bin in Monsignor Hannan Hall for any items you may be missing. The bin will be cleaned out this week. Unclaimed items will be donated depending on condition.

Religious Education Registration 2018-19

2018 Bishop's Lenten Appeal Begins!

Together, through the BLA, let us renew our personal commitment to the Lord's work in our diocese.
