Theological Questions

Last week's question:

Are there any circumstances in which a priest can grant absolution without first hearing the Confession of a penitent?

In case of grave necessity recourse may be had to a communal celebration of reconciliation with general confession and general absolution. Grave necessity of this sort can arise when there is imminent danger of death without sufficient time for the priest or priests to hear each penitent's confession. Grave necessity can also exist when, given the number of penitents, there are not enough confessors to hear individual confessions properly in a reasonable time, so that the penitents through no fault of their own would be deprived of sacramental grace or Holy Communion for a long time. In this case, for the absolution to be valid the faithful must have the intention of individually confessing their sins in the time required. The diocesan bishop is the judge of whether or not the conditions required for general absolution exist. A large gathering of the faithful on the occasion of major feasts or pilgrimages does not constitute a case of grave necessity. "Individual, integral confession and absolution remain the only ordinary way for the faithful to reconcile themselves with God and the Church, unless physical or moral impossibility excuses from this kind of confession." There are profound reasons for this. Christ is at work in each of the sacraments. He personally addresses every sinner: "My son, your sins are forgiven." He is the physician tending each one of the sick who need him to cure them. He raises them up and reintegrates them into fraternal communion. Personal confession is thus the form most expressive of reconciliation with God and with the Church. (CCC, 1483-1484)

New Question:

Is the sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick mentioned in the Bible? See next week's bulletin for the answer.

2018 Bishop's Lenten Appeal:

Living in Faith, Giving in Gratitude

The Bishop's Lenten Appeal is in full swing and we are asking every household in our parish to support this appeal to the extent that they are able. If you wish to make a pledge or gift online, you may do so at www.arlingtondiocese.org. The BLA funds many programs, services and ministries that serve people in need and furthers the Gospel mission of Jesus Christ in our diocese. Let us join together to do the Lord's work – works that touch the lives and souls of thousands of people in our diocese. Thank you!

St. Joseph's Feast Day - March 19

As Italian tradition states, relief from a great famine in Sicily was granted through the prayers of the faithful to St. Joseph. In thanksgiving for favors granted then and now, St. Andrew the Apostle School will host a St. Joseph Table on Monday, March 19 at 9:30 a.m. following the 8:45 Mass. Once the table has been blessed, parishioners and friends are invited to enjoy Italian and not-so Italian treats.

If you would like to bake a favorite treat, we would love to include your specialty. If baking bread is your specialty and you are willing to help, we are in particular need of someone to bake some loaves of bread in traditional shapes (we can show you what those are). This is not a fundraiser, but rather a way to honor St. Joseph. For more information contact Narcisa at narcisa1121@hotmail.com.
