Theological Questions

Last week's question: Is it necessary to have a wedding ring in order to receive the sacrament of Marriage?

No. The tradition of blessing wedding rings during the Rite of Marriage is a beautiful and beloved custom, and it is widely observed; and the wearing of a wedding ring serves a useful purpose, as an outward and visible reminder, to oneself and to others, of one's commitment to the marriage bond.

However, it is not an essential part of the Rite. A person who is unable to afford a ring, for example, is not prevented from entering into marriage in the Catholic Church. The "outward sign" that is essential to the sacrament of Marriage is not the ring, but the public exchange of consent by the bride and groom.

New Question: What are the words for the exchange of consent in the Catholic Rite of Marriage?

See next week's bulletin for the answer.

Help victims of recent fires in Fairfax County through WFCM

On May 2, our community suffered devastating losses in two separate fires. The Forest Glen senior apartments had fire, smoke, and water damage to 75 units affecting over 125 residents who were evacuated. Ten townhomes in Sully Station II have been condemned due to fire. Western Fairfax Christian Ministries (WFCM) is receiving gift cards to benefit the residents impacted by the fires. Gift cards to Walmart, Target, and Visa in $20-$50 denominations are preferred. While gift cards continue to be a great resource, cash is best for addressing the housing needs, which include application costs, deposits, rent, etc. Please consider making a donation to Western Fairfax Christian Ministries who is taking the lead to work directly with the county and the affected residents.

Donations may be mailed to: WFCM: P.O. Box 220802, Chantilly, VA 20153. Donations may be dropped off at WFCM at 4511 Daly Drive, Suite J, in Chantilly. WFCM can receive in-person donations from 9 a.m.-3:00 p.m. Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays, and from 9 a.m.-7 p.m. on Tuesdays and Thursdays. Donate online at wfcmv.org. For additional information, call 703-988-9656 or email rkolowe@wfcmv.org.
