Theological Questions

Last week's question: What is polyphony?

"Polyphony" literally means "many voices". Polyphony involves two or more voices singing either in harmony, or with independent melodies.

Ancient liturgical music, in both the East and the West, was always "monophonic", with everyone singing the melody with the same "voice", without harmony. In the 11th century, "organum", a simple form of two-part harmony was introduced into liturgical singing.

During the Renaissance, from about 1400 until 1600, more elaborate forms of harmony and counterpoint were introduced into Western liturgical music, using more complex modern musical notation. At first, the Church regarded polyphony with great caution, because the meaning of the text could be obscured by the complexity of different voices not singing in unison. However, it achieved greater acceptance, and it has become part of the Church's liturgical repertory. In the East, Byzantine liturgical music has been more resistant to polyphony up until modern times.

The great flowering of polyphony in the sixteenth century included many great composers, such as Josquin des Prez, William Byrd, Giovanni Pierluigi da Palestrina, Orlando di Lasso, and Tomas Victoria.

New Question:

In a choir, what does SATB stand for?

See next week's bulletin for the answer.

Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults (RCIA) - Classes Begin Next Month

Beginning in the fall and continuing until the Easter Vigil Mass, a series of weekly instructional classes in the Catholic Faith will be held at St. Andrews. Baptized non-Catholics and those who are unbaptized are welcome to attend these classes to learn more about the faith. There is no obligation or pressure to join the Church at any time.

You, someone in your family, or a friend may be interested in knowing and understanding better what we as Catholics believe and how we strive to live out our faith on a daily basis. This is a great opportunity to join with others in spending an hour each week learning about the Catholic Faith and helping each other in your faith journey.

RCIA (Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults) classes will begin in September and continue up to the Easter Vigil in April 2019. Please contact the Parish Office at 703-817-1770 or parish.office@st-andrew.org for more information.

Clarification of Envelope Policy

For parishioners who do not participate in Faith Direct, in order for your donations to be recorded on your Annual Contribution Statement, they

MUST be in an envelope (either the ones that are mailed to you monthly; or one of the supplementary envelopes which are available at the Church entrances), include your name and address, or placed in a plain envelope that is labeled with your name and address. Loose checks placed in the collection basket will not be recorded under your registration record. Please do not use tape or staples.

Your offertory contributions are recorded when they are received. Therefore, multiple checks in multiple weekly envelopes are entered for that week into our contribution system. For example, if you are away for the month of August and turn in your August weekly envelopes with your September 2 weekly envelope, all of those contributions would be posted to the September 2 collection. Special collection envelopes are handled and recorded separately.

For those who use Faith Direct, contributions are periodically recorded based on printouts the office receives from Faith Direct. If you have any questions, please call the Parish Office.

Two weeks later, the legionaries return to pray the farewell prayers and then move the PVS to the next host. ### Backpack Donations for WFCM

Summer feels like it's just getting started, but it's time to start getting ready for the upcoming school year.

Once again, our parish is participating in Western Fairfax Christian Ministries' annual donation drive to provide sturdy backpacks for area students in need. We will be assisting students at Centreville HS and Mountain View HS this year.

Sturdy, moderately-priced packs in neutral colors are best. (The more sturdy backpacks may help students who don't receive a new backpack every year to get the most use out of the donation).

Shopping tip: Costco sells a High Sierra backpack that has been recommended in the past and is available now.

Bins for the backpacks will be in the Church vestibule and at the entrance to the Parish Office.

Backpacks may be dropped off at the Parish Office during the week and will be accepted until next Sunday August 12.

For more information, contact Jane Copeland at 703-830-8241 or by email at jane.tankersley@cox.net.

Thank you for helping local students start the school year with new gear.

Pro-Life Speaker at St. Veronica Catholic Church - August 10

Parishioners are invited to attend a free pro-life speaker event at St. Veronica's Parish Hall in Chantilly on August 10 at 7:30 p.m. Author Terry Beatley will be speaking on her book What if We've Been Wrong and keeping a promise she made to Dr. Bernard Nathanson, known as the "abortion king," to spread his message of how he deceived the nation with his work in the abortion industry. Nathanson later changed his views on abortion and advocated for the pro-life movement until his death in February 2011. In September, there will be another pro-life speaker event at St. Veronica's featuring Ken Cuccinelli. Stay tuned to the bulletin for details.

Both events are sponsored by Divine Mercy Care (www.divinemercycare.org) and the St. Veronica's Aslan's Army Pro-Life apostolate.
