Theological Questions

Last week's question: Why is there a sacrament of Penance for sins committed after Baptism?

The Catechism (1425-1429) says:

The apostle John also says: "If we say we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us." And the Lord himself taught us to pray: "Forgive us our trespasses," linking our forgiveness of one another's offenses to the forgiveness of our sins that God will grant us.

Conversion to Christ, the new birth of Baptism, the gift of the Holy Spirit and the Body and Blood of Christ received as food have made us "holy and without blemish," just as the Church herself, the Bride of Christ, is "holy and without blemish."

Nevertheless, the new life received in Christian initiation has not abolished the frailty and weakness of human nature, nor the inclination to sin that tradition calls concupiscence, which remains in the baptized such that with the help of the grace of Christ they may prove themselves in the struggle of Christian life. This is the struggle of conversion directed toward holiness and eternal life to which the Lord never ceases to call us.

Jesus calls to conversion. This call is an essential part of the proclamation of the kingdom: "The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is at hand; repent, and believe in the gospel."

Christ's call to conversion continues to resound in the lives of Christians. This second conversion is an uninterrupted task for the whole Church who, "clasping sinners to her bosom, is at once holy and always in need of purification, and follows constantly the path of penance and renewal." This endeavor of conversion is not just a human work. It is the movement of a "contrite heart," drawn and moved by grace to respond to the merciful love of God who loved us first.

St. Peter's conversion after he had denied his master three times bears witness to this. Jesus' look of infinite mercy drew tears of repentance from Peter and, after the Lord's resurrection, a threefold affirmation of love for him. The second conversion also has a communitarian dimension, as is clear in the Lord's call to a whole Church: "Repent!" St. Ambrose says of the two conversions that, in the Church, "there are water and tears: the water of Baptism and the tears of repentance."

New Question: In the sacrament of Penance, what are the three acts of the penitent?

See next week's bulletin for the Answer

Novena Prayer to St. Andrew

Hail and blessed be the hour and moment in which the Son of God was born of the most pure Virgin Mary, at midnight, in Bethlehem, in piercing cold.

In that hour, vouchsafe, O my God! To hear my prayer and grant my desires, through the merits of Our Savior Jesus Christ, and of His Blessed Mother. Amen.

Reciting this special novena prayer fifteen times each day from the Feast of Saint Andrew (November 30) until Christmas Eve is a simple yet beautiful way to celebrate the Advent season.

Make it a Merry Christmas for someone special!

Are you, your company or group looking for a family or a child for whom to purchase gifts this Christmas? As we have done for many years now, we will once again be helping families in the Western part of our Diocese. We have asked for the list of families even earlier this year so that you may take advantage of pre-holiday sales. The families we help have been identified as truly needing help this Christmas. This year we have a foster child who moves from one living arrangement to another, three little girls who are being raised by a single mom—many of the situations are dire and beyond sad. In most cases the choice of paying bills or buying extras is no choice at all. Many of these families are two-parent families trying hard to survive.

Donations of unwrapped gifts must be delivered to St. Andrew Church no later than December 11 in order to be delivered to the families for Christmas.

By sponsoring a family, you may purchase one gift or everything for a child or family. The decision is yours and there is no donation too small; all will brighten the life of a sweet little face! Your past generosity has overwhelmed us and also makes us confident we will be able to provide for all the families requesting our help. If you don't have time to shop, but would like to help, we are more than happy to do the shopping for you. If you would like more information, please contact the parish office at 703-817-1770 or jbahr@st-andrew.org.
