Theological Questions

Last week's question:

What is meant by "making satisfaction" or "doing penance" for our sins?

Many sins wrong our neighbor. One must do what is possible in order to repair the harm (e.g., return stolen goods, restore the reputation of someone slandered, pay compensation for injuries). Simple justice requires as much. But sin also injures and weakens the sinner himself, as well as his relationships with God and neighbor. Absolution takes away sin, but it does not remedy all the disorders sin has caused. Raised up from sin, the sinner must still recover his full spiritual health by doing something more to make amends for the sin: he must "make satisfaction for" or "expiate" his sins. This satisfaction is also called "penance."

The penance the confessor imposes must take into account the penitent's personal situation and must seek his spiritual good. It must correspond as far as possible with the gravity and nature of the sins committed. It can consist of prayer, an offering, works of mercy, service of neighbor, voluntary self-denial, sacrifices, and above all the patient acceptance of the cross we must bear. Such penances help configure us to Christ, who alone expiated our sins once for all. They allow us to become co-heirs with the risen Christ, "provided we suffer with him." The satisfaction that we make for our sins, however, is not so much ours, but done through Jesus Christ. We who can do nothing ourselves, can do all things with the cooperation of "him who strengthens" us. Thus man has nothing of which to boast, but all our boasting is in Christ . . . in whom we make satisfaction by bringing forth "fruits that befit repentance." (Catechism, 1459-1460)

New Question: What are the words of absolution, spoken by the priest in the sacrament of Penance?

See next week's bulletin for the answer.

Collections

The collections for December 24 and December 31 will be reported in the January 7 bulletin.
Thank you for your support of our parish.

Parish Office Closed January 1st

Please note the parish office will be closed on Monday, January 1st. The office will reopen on January 2nd. In the event of a sacramental emergency, contact the parish at 703-817-1777.

Saturday, January 6 Epiphany of The Lord

A Latin Mass in the Extraordinary Form will be celebrated by Fr. Mould on Saturday, January 6th at 11:00 a.m. The Extraordinary Form follows the traditional calendar used in the 1962 Roman Missal. At St. Andrew's parish, there is a Latin Mass in the Extraordinary Form on the 1st and 3rd Thursday of each month at 7:00 p.m., and on other special occasions, such as the Epiphany. In the United States, the Ordinary Form celebration of Epiphany is transferred to the nearest Sunday (January 7th, this year).

Merry Christmas A Gift from the Parish

Each parish family is invited to take home one copy of The Magnificat Rosary Companion booklets located at the church entrances as a gift from the parish this Christmas.

May God bless you & your families, friends and loved ones as we celebrate the birth of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ.

Parish families also have access to a variety of Catholic resources for all ages via FORMED.org. Take a look at all the wonderful content for the Christmas season and throughout the year by logging in and creating an account (it's free using our parish code DKTJ8B).

In Baptism we are reborn as children of God, made members of His Church and heirs to the Kingdom.

Please remember that a baptismal date can only be scheduled when all paperwork is complete and received in the Parish Office. Without exception, all paperwork must be received in the Parish Office at least one week prior to the intended Baptism date. The baptism booklet and form may be found on our website: www.st-andrew.org. Please call Laurel in the Parish Office at 703-817-1770 with any questions.

Our next class is Friday, January 19, at 7:30 p.m. Please call the Parish Office at 703-817-1770 to register. All parents and ALL those asked to be Godparents or Confirmation Sponsors are required to attend a preparation class.

College students—home for Christmas??

If you have been asked to be a Godparent or Confirmation sponsor, plan to attend a class here or at another parish while you are in the area. If you attend a class at another parish, be sure to request a class attendance letter. You will need to present that letter when you request your sponsor eligibility letter from St. Andrews.

Fr. Julius J. Cilinski Council's Ladies Auxiliary is sponsoring a "Coats and More Drive" to help local homeless shelters needing winter apparel (new or gently used) for adults and children. Please bring in your donations to Monsignor Hannan Hall on the weekends of January 20/21 and 27/28.

Ushers Needed

Our parish is in need of ushers for weekend Masses. Recent news events remind us of the importance of being vigilant and prepared. Men and women are invited to volunteer. If your background is in law enforcement, military, safety and security, we would especially ask you to consider volunteering your time. Ushers do not have to serve every week - personal calendars are taken into account. If you are unable to volunteer at this time, we would ask you to identify yourself to the parish office as a member of law enforcement. If interested, please contact Frank Bonsiero, Usher Coordinator, at bonsiero@aol.com.

New to the parish? Enrolled in Faith Direct?

Please note that if you are new to the parish and have redirected your online contributions to St. Andrew the Apostle through Faith Direct, you must complete a parish registration form in order to have your contributions recorded by the parish office. Visit our website for a parish registration form and return it to the parish office by email or during office hours.

Children's Offertory Envelopes

The Parish has ordered a small supply of offering envelopes for children. They are undated, so you may use them if you like and as you like. Children may color the envelopes before coming to Mass. It has a two-fold purpose of teaching children about tithing and allowing parents to have their children participate in donations. Boxes of envelopes are available through the Parish School, RE, or Parish Office. The envelopes are free.

To all the wonderful St. Andrew parishioners who most generously responded to our Christmas giving tree needs. You took time from your schedules to shop for someone unknown to you. The tags from the giving tree were all fulfilled, the Christmas Families in the western part of our Diocese were all adopted. You shopped and dropped off your gifts in a continuous stream of kindness. It was easy to see that the gifts you bought were chosen with care. When you knew a child was in need, you bought more than you had to. When the Missionaries of Charity put a request for an item, you bought two, not one; and so on. May God continue to bless you for the charity which came from your heart.

Thank you to all those who delivered gifts: Joayn and Steve Bahr, Kathy Craddock, Pauline Doan, Anne Heintz, Michelle Kelly, Jean Mancuso, Helen Martin, Donna and Bob McDowell, Libby Melanson, Ann Potter, and Heather Vinter.

A special thank you to Father Bergida for blessing the caravan of gift-bearers on delivery day!
