Theological Questions

Last week's question: In musical terminology, what is a canon?

A canon is a piece of music in which a melody is sung or played by one voice or instrument, and, at precise intervals, is repeated or imitated by several different voices or instruments. The imitations could be the same melody, or a variation of it. A simple canon is called a "round". Most children learn how to sing the song, "Row, Row, Row Your Boat", as a round, each new voice joining in as the previous singer completes the first phrase.

An example of a more complex style of canon would be Pachelbel's Canon (Canon and Gigue in D, by Johann Pachelbel), written for a string quartet, in which three violins play variant melodies around a simple, repeating melody by a bass or cello.

As a musical term, "canon" is not related to the Canon of the Mass, nor the Catholic Church's Code of Canon Law.

The word canon is derived from the Greek, kanon, which means literally means "rod" or "cane". By extension, a canon refers to a "ruler" or a "standard of measurement". Thus, a "canon" can refer to a rule or law or standard, as the Church's Code of Canon Law. Likewise, the "canon" of Scripture means the official list of books in the Bible. And in the Mass, the "Canon" is the Eucharistic Prayer, which remains the same in every Mass, unlike the readings and antiphons, which vary with each feast day.

New Question: In musical terminology, what is a time signature?

See next week's bulletin for the answer.

Help Hurricane Florence Victims

St. Andrew the Apostle Parish is partnering with Infant of Prague Catholic Church in Jacksonville, NC to help Hurricane Florence victims in a more personal way. We will be collecting gift cards in $25 (or less) denominations for Target and Wal-Mart and sending them directly to the Infant of Prague Parish Office to distribute as needed. Please do not purchase one large denomination gift card... instead purchase two for a lesser amount each. This allows help to be given to more people.

Bring your gift card to the parish office or drop it in the offertory collection basket. If you have already contributed to the hurricane relief effort through another charity, thank you! However, if you are also able to donate to this effort, the parishioners of Infant of Prague Catholic Church and their community are very grateful for your assistance and for your prayers.

Since we have no means to send anything other than gift cards, please do not bring clothing, food, etc. to the church. Please call the Parish Office 703-817-1770 if you have any questions.

Please check the bin after Masses this weekend (note that Monsignor Hannan Hall is not accessible during school hours). Any items unclaimed by October 8 will be donated or discarded.

Adult Bible Study

An eight (8) week study of The Blessed Mother entitled "Queen of Heaven, Mary's Battle for You" will be held on Wednesday evenings at 7:15 p.m. beginning October 24 in Monsignor Hannan Hall. Embark on a journey that begins before time itself, when Mary was only an eternal thought in the Mind of God, and extends into her life in Scripture. Discover Our Mother throughout centuries of Church history, as she intervenes at pivotal periods - especially at her most famous apparitions, when she made roses bloom on a hillside in Mexico, when she made a miraculous spring of water rise from the ground in Lourdes, and when she made the sun dance at Fatima. For registration information please contact Russell Rowzie at 703-930-7610 or email at RRowzie@Trimarkcorporation.com.
