PERFECT IN AUGUST

- The Aggies got their season started on the front foot, as they won the opening two matches of the year at the Jaguar Invitational.
- A&M dominated its opening match versus the hosts South Alabama, sweeping the Jaguars behind an efficient offensive showing.
- The team recorded a .358 hitting percentage, as they grounded 51 balls with 17 errors on 95 swings. Logan Lednický had the most efficient night of her career when recording 10+ kills, as she hit .565 with 15 kills, averaging five-kills per set.
- In the second fixture of the weekend the Maroon & White faced McNeese, and it was the Cowgirls who jumped out to a lead after taking the opening set. The advantage was short lived, as the Aggies responded winning three-straight frames to take the match, 3-1, and win both of their matches in August.
- Lednický once again was outstanding, recording a match-high 19 kills, as she was one of three members of the team to record double-digit kills, with Taylor Humphrey (12) and Ifenna Cos-Okpalla (11) also being big contributors.

MORRISON MASTERCLASS

- Head coach Jamie Morrison continued his dominance at the helm of the United States women's U19 National Team, leading the squad to its third-straight gold-medal winning showing at the NORCECA Championships.
- Morrison and the Red, White and Blue were perfect throughout the group stage, not dropping a single set in the opening three matches versus Cuba, Canada and Puerto Rico.
- The team advanced to face Puerto Rico again in the semifinals, where the outcome was the same, as Team USA swept the match in dominant fashion to advanced to the final.
- With the championship on the line, Morrison and his group applied the pressure early, taking the opener 25-17. Canada answered in the second 25-20, however the Red, White and Blue responded in the third winning 26-24 and finally they closed the match and tournament out 25-14 to claim gold.

CONFERENCE POLLS

- In the SEC's preseason voting, the Aggies landed a pair of players on the Preseason All-SEC Team. Both Logan Lednický and Ifenna Cos-Okpalla were selected by the league's coaches, marking Lednický's second appearance on the preseason list and Cos-Okpalla's first.
- As a team A&M was projected to finish seventh in the conference this season, as it received 117 voting points, this improved on last year's prediction where it was predicted to place eighth with 63 points.

FIRST SEASON SUCCESS

- The Aggies thrived under the leadership of head coach Jamie Morrison during his first season in Aggieland, as they returned to the postseason for the first time since 2019, following a 16-13 season.
- In the conference, the Maroon & White claimed eight wins including a signature win over No. 4 Florida. That victory was the Aggies first in Gainesville and their highest ranked victory in 24 years.
- Stacking up against the league, A&M paced the competition in blocks per set averaging 2.79 per set as a unit. The group also ranked in the top half of the conference in points per set (17.08), hitting percentage (.235), assists per set (12.27), kills per set (12.94) and opponent hitting percentage (.200).
- The Aggie block not only stood out in the conference, but also on the national stage as the team ranked seventh in the NCAA in blocks per set at the end of the year. The Maroon & White also led the country in total blocks and blocks per set through 18 games last season.
- Last year Morrison and his team opened the season winning seven-straight games, tying for the third-best start to a season in program history.

2023 POSTSEASON HONORS

- Logan Lednický backed up her impressive rookie campaign in her second season, as she continued to collect honors for her outstanding performance. The dominant right side was named to the All-SEC Team and All-South Region Team for the second-straight year as she was impressive on both the offensive and defensive sides of the ball following a 340-kill season and 97-block year.
- Ifenna Cos-Okpalla took a big step in her sophomore season, specifically on the defensive side. The middle blocker's dominance started from the jump, as she logged 62 blocks in the opening 10 matches, including a 14 block outing in only three sets versus Utah State which broke the school record and tied the SEC record for blocks in a three-set match. Cos-Okpalla was named to the All-South Region Team for her performance throughout the year, and she concluded the season as the nation's leader in blocks per set (1.62).

FRESH FACES

- Ready and reloaded for the 2024 campaign, the Aggies brought in six new faces. They added five transfers, including two outside hitters, two liberos and a setter, while bringing in a freshman who also plays outside hitter.
- A&M added fire power to the outside, with a pair of transfer hitters in Emily Hellmuth and Taylor Humphrey. Hellmuth joined the Maroon & White from Pepperdine following two productive seasons. She amassed 431 kills and 99 blocks in her two-year stint with the Waves and was named West Coast Conference Freshman of the Year in 2022. Humphrey was a standout for Rutgers and surpassed the 200-kill mark in back-to-back seasons, totaling 498 through her sophomore season.
- A plethora of depth and experience joins the libero room in the form of Ellee Stinson and Tatum Thomas. Stinson had an outstanding 2023 season for Northwestern, as she recording 498 digs and averaging 4.41 digs per set, those numbers were good for third and second, respectively, in the Big 10. Thomas proved her consistency in her two-year spell with Grand Canyon, racking up 735 digs on the defensive side, while proving a threat from the service line with 57 aces.
- Feeding the offense is a key part to any successful team and the Aggies went out and found a setter who can do just that in the SEC. Maddie Waak joined A&M as a proven product from her two years at LSU. The junior logged 1,270 assists throughout her time in Baton Rouge and 801 assists last year.
- The final piece of the puzzle was an incoming freshman from McAllen, Texas, Amaré Hernandez. The high school product out of McAllen Memorial finished her career with over 1,500 kills and her play was noticed as she named first-team all-district in both 2021 and 2022, while also earning Blocker of the Year honors and Newcomer of the Year in 2021 and 2020, respectively.

RETURNING CAST

- Preparing for the second season under the leadership of head coach Jamie Morrison, the Aggies return nine players from last year who helped get the program get back to the NCAA Tournament.
- Twenty-five percent of the Aggies offence came from the right side standout Logan Lednický, as the junior killed 340 balls last season, taking her career total to a staggering 727 in her first two seasons in Aggieland. Lednický also showed her versatility on defense, as the two-time All-SEC caliber player blocked 97 swings including a career-high eight in the NCAA Tournament versus Texas.
- A&M's success was sparked through two dominant middles in Ifenna Cos-Okpalla and Morgan Perkins. The pair logged 257 blocks and 253 kills on the season, those numbers accounted for 87.7-percent of the team's blocks and 18.6-percent of the team's kills.
- After splitting time early, Ava Underwood stamped her name on the libero position for the Maroon & White last season. She paced the Aggies in digs (242) and digs per set (2.72) on the season.

INTERNATIONAL EXPERIENCE

- Logan Lednický and Ifenna Cos-Okpalla were selected to the 2024 collegiate national team which included 19 premier college players.
- The group then traveled to Anaheim, California, and was given the opportunity to train alongside the U.S. Olympic Women's Volleyball Team before its trip to Paris.

2ND YEAR AT TEXAS A&M | 18 YEARS COACHING

DEBUT SEASON

- During his first season in Aggieland, Morrison led the squad to a 16-13 record, including an 8-10 finish in conference play. The 16 wins were the highest total in the past four seasons, while the eight conference victories are the most since the 2020 season. Morrison also guided the program to its first NCAA Tournament berth since 2019, and 26th appearance in its history.
- The Maroon & White picked up a plethora of notable wins during the season, with six victories coming against 2023 NCAA Tournament teams including, Omaha, Pepperdine, Wright State, Utah State, UNI and Florida. In the match versus the Gators, Morrison led his team into Gainesville and downed then No. 4 Florida for the first time on the road in program history.
- Morrison brought his innovative blocking style to the collegiate game, proving successful as the team finished the year ranked 10th in the nation in blocks per set (2.76) and in the middle of October the Aggies were ranked number one in the statistic.

ON THE INTERNATIONAL STAGE

- Winning at the highest level is something Morrison is accustomed to, as he served as a coach on three separate Olympic-medal winning staffs for the USA men's and women's volleyball teams. He claimed his first medal at the 2008 Games in Beijing, China, with the men's national team, brining home the gold medal. He then switched over to the women's national team, securing silver in London (2012), followed by bronze in Rio (2016).
- Morrison was selected to lead the women's junior national team for the fourth-consecutive year. He took over the reigns in 2021, where he led the U18 women's team to a bronze-medal showing at the FIVB U18 World Championships in Durango, Mexico. He went a step further as he and the U19 women's team claimed gold at the U19 Pan American Cup in 2022 and U19 2023 FIVB World Championships.
- Most recently, he added a third-consecutive title at the U19 NORCECA Championships in Honduras, as his team dropped only one set at the tournament and downed Canada in the final to ensure a perfect 5-0 finish.
