WHAT TO WATCH FOR

- The Aggies have claimed nine of the last 10 meetings with South Carolina, including four of the last five in Columbia ... Texas A&M defeated the Gamecocks, 30-17, last season in Aggieland.
- The Maroon & White boast one of the best rushing offenses in the nation, ranking ninth with 221.5 yards per game, while their 21 rushing touchdowns are good for 15th in the country.
- Junior RB Le'Veon Moss leads the strong Aggie rushing attack, ranking third in the SEC and 26th nationally with 94.6 yards per game, while his 10 rushing scores are the third-most in the league ... Moss made it three straight games with multiple trips to the end zone with a pair of rushing scores against No. 8 LSU, marking the first time an Aggie has rushed for multiple scores in three consecutive games since Trayveon Williams in 2018.
- Texas A&M has been efficient in the red zone as it ranks fourth in the country and leads the SEC with a 97.0 conversion rate ... The Aggies have scored on 32 of 33 trips, including 24 touchdowns.
- The Maroon & White have disrupted the opposition's aerial attack all season, registering their third game this season with multiple picks after tallying three against LSU ... The Aggies' 11 interceptions on the season are tied for second in the SEC and 11th nationally, while their 46 passes defended rank among the 10th in the country and third in the league.
- Sophomore LB Taurean York has led the defense in tackles four times this season, including each of the last two games, tallying six takedowns against LSU after posting a career-high 12 in the win at Mississippi State ... York also recorded the first interception of his career to seal the victory over the Tigers.
- Junior DL Nic Scourton has come on strong in league play, tallying 10.0 tackles for loss and 4.0 sacks through five SEC games and has registered at least 1.0 tackle for loss in seven of the team's eight games this season ... He ranks second in the nation and first in the SEC with 12.5 tackles for loss on the season, while his 5.0 sacks are good for ninth in the league.

QUICK HITS

- The Aggies have notched their best start in SEC play, boasting a 5-0 record for the first time since joining the league in 2012 and their best conference start since going 7-0 to begin Big 12 play in 1998.
- With the wins over No. 8 LSU and No. 9 Missouri, Texas A&M is the only team in the nation to take down two AP top-10 teams so far this season.
- After three weeks away from action, sophomore QB Conner Weigman returned for the Aggies in Week 6, leading them to a big victory over top-10 Missouri, connecting on 18-of-22 passes for a season-best 276 yards.
- Junior RB Amari Daniels has played a key role in the Aggies' success in the run game, ranking among the top-25 in the SEC with 47.9 yards per game while his five rushing scores are good for 11th in the SEC.
- The offensive line has controlled the battle in the trenches while clearing the way for A&M's top-10 rushing attack, as the unit ranks second in the SEC and 12th nationally allowing 26.0 tackles for loss.
- The Aggies have held their opponents to 100-or-fewer yards on the ground in five of the last six games, most recently limiting LSU to just 24 yards on 23 attempts ... A&M has not allowed multiple rushing scores in a game since the season opener and its six touchdowns allowed this season are the 12th-fewest in the nation.
- Junior DB Will Lee III has brought veteran leadership to the secondary and ranks eighth nationally with eight breakups while his 10 passes defended are the 10th-most in the country ... He ranks fourth on the team with 30 tackles, 28 of which are solo takedowns which are good for 17th in the SEC.
- Graduate K Randy Bond tallied 10 points in the win at Mississippi State, marking the 11th time in his career he has scored 10-plus points in a game ... Bond ranks 10th nationally with 14 made field goals this season while his 72 total points are good for 15th.

MILESTONES TO WATCH FOR

- Sophomore QB Conner Weigman continues to climb the Texas A&M record books and is in need of three touchdown passes to crack the top-15 all-time, entering the game with 19 career scoring strikes.
- Junior RB Le'Veon Moss is 184 rushing yards away from moving into the top-35 all-time at A&M with 1,355 to-date, while junior RB Amari Daniels is 123 yards away from the top-40 with 1,234 career yards.
- Graduate WR Moose Muhammad III ranks 14th in career touchdown receptions at Texas A&M with 11 entering the week and his next scoring grab will move him into a tie with Chad Schroeder (2003-06) for 13th ... Muhammad is also five catches and 44 receiving yards away from cracking the top-30 all-time at A&M.
- Junior WR Noah Thomas is looking for a touchdown catch to move into the top-14 all-time at A&M, entering the week with 10 to-date.
- Graduate K Randy Bond ranks among the top-10 on A&M's career fields made, extra points made, kicker-only scoring and overall scoring lists ... His 53 made field goals are just three away from fourth all-time ... Bond is eyeing Josh Lambo's 109 career extra points as he sits in 10th with 103 and his 262 career points are three shy of Terry Venetoulis (1990-93) for ninth on the overall scoring list and sixth among kickers only.

QUARTERBACK ROOM

- The Aggies boast proven depth in their quarterback room with three players that have made multiple starts in their A&M careers and each thrown for at least 290 yards and multiple touchdowns in a game.
- Sophomore Conner Weigman began the year as the starter and returned after battling an early injury to guide the Aggies to a landslide victory over No. 9 Missouri in Week 6 and made it four straight in league play with a road win over Mississippi State.
- In the Missouri win, Weigman connected on 18-of-22 passes for a season-best 276 yards, leading the Aggies to victory over a top-10 team for the second time in his career ... Against McNeese, Weigman guided the Aggies to touchdowns on all five drives he was in on in the first half, helping A&M take a 38-0 lead into the half.
- Freshman Marcel Reed has stood ready and shown up in a big way when called on, leading the Aggies to three victories in his three starts as well as three of A&M's record five wins to start league play ... Reed was named SEC Freshman of the Week after sparking a 31-6 scoring spree in the second half to lift the Aggies past No. 8 LSU with three unanswered rushing touchdowns of his own to become the first A&M QB to rush for three-plus scores since Trevor Knight in 2016.
- Reed also garnered SEC Freshman of the Week honors for his performance at Florida after throwing for 178 yards and two scores to go along with 13 carries for 83 yards and a touchdown.
- Junior Jaylen Henderson started the final four games of the 2023 campaign, accounting for four touchdowns in the lopsided win over Mississippi State in his first start for the Maroon & White ... He has completed 53-of-78 passes for 715 yards and six touchdowns as an Aggie, while also adding 104 yards on the ground and two scores.

BRYAN-COLLEGE STATION IS THE HOME OF TEXAS A&M ...

On August 20, 2020 the Texas A&M Board of Regents voted and approved the use of "Bryan-College Station" as the home of Texas A&M University. "Bryan-College Station" should be used to reference all sporting events, academic events, press releases, marketing collateral, letterhead, and other representations of Texas A&M University and The Texas A&M University System where a specific postal address is not required.

Aggieland has grown beyond the boundaries of any one municipality. College Station is known as the "Home of Texas A&M University", but the City of College Station and the City of Bryan have had an entwined history since the City of College Station was incorporated in 1938. Bryan and Texas A&M University's historical ties go back to 1871, when Bryan was incorporated and the Texas Legislature established the Agricultural and Mechanical College of Texas.

The former Bryan Air Force Base was operated as the Texas A&M University Research and Extension Center for a quarter of a century before being designated as the Texas A&M University Riverside Campus in 1988, and the Texas A&M University Riverside Campus grew into the Texas A&M University Research Annex before transforming into the RELLIS Campus in 2016. The RELLIS Campus is home to Texas A&M University System entities including ten regional universities, the Texas A&M Engineering Extension Service (TEEX), the Texas A&M Engineering Experiment Station (TEES) and the Texas A&M Transportation Institute (TTI). In 2007, the City of Bryan gifted more than 200 acres to the Texas A&M University Health Science Center.

Recognizing that over the past decade, Texas A&M University and the Texas A&M University System have expanded into the City of Bryan with seven Texas A&M University System colleges, ten Texas A&M University System universities and multiple Texas A&M University System state agencies on more than 2,200 acres with more than $1 billion in investment, the Board of Regents voted to recognize the long history and partnership between the City of Bryan, the City of College Station and both Texas A&M University and The Texas A&M University System.

MAROON GOONS

- The Texas A&M offensive line has been winning the battle in the trenches, playing with great consistency despite having to lean on its reliable depth ... The Maroon Goons have helped the Aggies boast one of the best rushing offenses in the country while also holding strong to protect their quarterbacks.
- The Maroon & White rank 12th in the country and second in the SEC, allowing 26.0 tackles for loss on the year, while their 11.0 sacks allowed rank fourth in the league.
- With the help of the o-line clearing the way, the Aggies rank ninth nationally and second in the SEC averaging 221.5 rushing yards per game and have racked up over 200 yards on the ground in five games this season.
- The line is anchored by junior Trey Zuhn III, who was named a season-long team captain prior to the season ... While the Aggies have had to use four different starting lines this season due to injury, Zuhn has remained a staple at left guard and has been joined in all eight games by Ar'maj Reed-Adams at right guard and Dametrious Crownover at right tackle.
- Zuhn started all 13 games last season and has logged 32 career starts as he helped clear the way for a 1,000-yard rusher in 2022 and helped A&M rack up over 400 yards of total offense in eight games last year.

ELEVATING THE RUN GAME

- Junior running backs Le'Veon Moss and Amari Daniels have made big improvements in the offseason and have been a dynamic duo in the backfield to give the Maroon & White one of the best rushing attacks in the nation.
- Moss ranks 26th nationally and third in the SEC averaging 94.6 yards per game, while his 6.4 yards per carry average is good for fifth in the SEC ... Moss always battles for the extra yard, racking up 526 yards after contact this year and averaging 4.4 yards after contact per carry which ranks 11th in the country ... A top-10 scorer in the SEC, Moss' 10 rushing scores are good for third among league backs.
- In the win over LSU, Moss' two rushing scores marked his fourth multi-touchdown game of the year, making it three straight weeks with multiple scores after adding two scores at Mississippi State and making a career-best three trips to the end zone in the win over Missouri ... Moss registered his third 100-yard game of the season and fourth of his career in the win over the Tigers, with a career-high 138 rushing yards.
- Moss had a strong start to his third season in Aggieland, setting a new career high in every category through the first three games of the year ... He posted 20 carries against Notre Dame, scored two touchdowns in the McNeese win and tallied 110 yards in the victory at Florida.
- Moss has also been a threat in the passing game, adding a career-best three catches for 42 yards against LSU to help his rank fourth in the SEC averaging 109.8 all-purpose yards per game.
- Daniels racked up a career-high 91 yards on 12 carries in the win over LSU ... He recorded his second multi-touchdown game of the season and of his career with a pair of 1-yard scores in the first half against Missouri and joined the 1,000 career yards club with 68 yards on 13 carries in the win at Florida.
- On the season, Daniels ranks among the top-25 in the league with 47.9 y/g while his five touchdowns are good for 11th in the SEC.
- Dual-threat freshman QB Marcel Reed has also supplemented the Aggies' solid rushing attack leading all SEC QBs averaging 5.5 yards per carry, while his 48.0 yards per game and five rushing scores are good for top-10 overall in the league and third among SEC signal callers ... Reed came in midway through the third quarter against LSU and sparked the Aggies scoring three unanswered rushing TDs.
- As a team, the Aggies are No. 9 in the country and second in the SEC in rushing offense, averaging 221.5 yards per game, and their 21 rushing scores rank 15th nationally and second in the league ... A&M also boasts league-best 5.3 yards per carry.

- After eclipsing the 300-yard mark in Week 2, the Maroon & White tallied 310 yards on the ground in the win at Florida, marking the first time they have tallied 300-plus rushing yards in back-to-back games since the 2012 season.
- In the win over McNeese, A&M racked up 333 yards on the ground and five rushing scores, marking the most rushing yards in a game for the Aggies since rushing for over 500 yards against Northwestern State to start the 2018 season and the most rushing scores since reaching the end zone five times on the ground in the Orange Bowl win over North Carolina to cap off the 2020 season.

STEADY BACKER

- Sophomore LB Taurean York immediately stepped into a leadership role as a true freshman in 2023, quarterbacking the defense at middle linebacker, and was selected as a team captain by his teammates ahead of the 2024 season.
- In the win at Mississippi State York tallied a career-high 12 tackles, registering the second double-digit tackles game of his career ... He has led the team in tackles in four games this season, most recently with six while adding the first pick of his career in the win over LSU.
- York's efforts against the Bulldogs also led an impressive outing from the entire linebacker unit, as junior Scooby Williams recorded his first career interception and returned it 32 yards to set up an A&M touchdown while also adding a career-best 2.0 tackles for loss and six tackles, and sophomore Daymon Sanford nearly doubled his previous career high with seven tackles, 1.0 TFL and two breakups.
- He leads the Aggies with 46 tackles on the year, good for 20th in the SEC, and has recorded five-plus tackles in five of the team's eight games so far this season.
- York started all 13 games last season, finishing second on the team with 74 tackles, which ranked in the top-20 among SEC players and third among league freshman ... His 8.5 tackles for loss were the most by an SEC freshman a year ago and ranked fourth on the team.

NEW LOOK SECONDARY

- The Texas A&M secondary has seen a number of new faces in 2024, adding eight defensive backs in the transfer portal while returning sophomores Jayvon Thomas and Dalton Brooks have also made starts this season.
- Junior Will Lee III, who came to Aggieland from Kansas State, ranks second in the SEC with 10 passes defended on the year, breaking up a career-high four passes in the win over Arkansas and recording his first interception as an Aggie in the win over McNeese ... Top-four on the team in tackles, 28 of Lee's 30 tackles are solos and good for 17th in the SEC.
- Brooks has come on strong in SEC play, making at least six tackles in three of the last four games and leading the team in two of those outings ... Brooks tallied a career-best nine tackles in the win at Mississippi State.
- Sophomore Marcus Ratcliffe made an immediate impact for the Maroon & White after spending last season at San Diego State, starting all eight games and ranking second the SEC while ranking 14th nationally with three interceptions on the year.
- Senior BJ Mayes came up big in the third quarter against LSU, registering two of A&M's three interceptions in the win that set up a pair of Aggie touchdowns ... His two picks on the year are good for seventh in SEC.
- Lone returning veteran Bryce Anderson registered the first touchdown of his career when he came up with a tipped pass and returned it 45 yards to the house at Florida, becoming the third Aggie to have scored a defensive touchdown in their career.
- As a team, the Aggies rank 10th nationally and third in the SEC with 46 passes defended, sitting at 11th in the country and second in the SEC with 11 picks, while also leading the league in turnover margin (0.88).

DEPTH ON THE D-LINE

- Texas A&M boasts one of the most talented and unpredictable defensive lines in the nation, led by the veteran experience and consistent production of senior Shemar Turner and junior transfer Nic Scourton.
- Scourton has played with consistency in the SEC, registering at least 1.0 tackle for loss in seven of A&M's eight games ... Against Arkansas he finished with 4.0 tackles for loss and 2.0 sacks, including a strip sack late in the fourth quarter to help the Aggies seal the victory.
- Scourton ranks second nationally and is tied for league lead with 12.5 tackles for loss on the year ... His total is tied for ninth with Pittsburgh Steeler DeMarvin Leal in A&M's single-season list since joining the SEC in 2012 ... Scourton also adds 4.5 sacks on the season which are good for ninth in the league.
- Turner filled out the stat sheet in the win at Mississippi State, finishing with six tackles, 2.0 for loss, and a solo sack for 9 yards lost, while also breaking up a pass a forcing a fumble ... He started the 2024 season with a career-high seven takedowns against Notre Dame.
- Junior Cashius Howell has been a key disruptor in league play and ranks 10th in the SEC with five pass breakups on the season ... Howell has registered at least one breakup and one hurry in three of the last four games, tallying three breakups and two hurries in the win at Mississippi State.
- Juniors Shemar Stewart and Albert Regis have earned starting jobs on the line this season after being part of the Aggies' consistent second rotation last year ... Stewart has come on strong in the last three games, getting to the quarterback in back-to-back victories while matching his career high with five tackles at Florida.
- As a defense, the Aggies have held their opponents to 100-or-fewer yards on the ground in five of the last six games, most recently limiting LSU to just 24 yards on 23 attempts, not allowing a rushing yard in the second half ... A&M has the No. 18 rushing defense (104.5 y/g), while its six rushing scores allowed are 12th nationally ... The team's 57.0 tackles for loss are good for 11th in the FBS.

SPECIAL TEAMS SUCCESS

- Graduate K Randy Bond was one of the nation's leading scorers a season ago and continues to rank among the best in 2024 while also climbing A&M's all-time scoring, field goals made and extra point lists.
- Bond currently ranks 10th nationally and fourth in the SEC with 14 made field goals this season, while his 72 total points land among the top-15 in the country and top-five league scorers.
- Bond has posted double-digit points in a game 11 times in his career and four time this season, most recently tallying 10 points in the victory at Mississippi State by way of two field goals and four extra points.
- The kicker has been climbing A&M's all-time field goals made, extra points and scoring lists, ranking sixth with 53 career makes, 10th overall with 262 points and 10th with 103 made extra points.

- Last season, Bond registered a new career-long with a 52-yarder against ULM and he later connected from the same distance against South Carolina and Mississippi State.
- Freshman P Tyler White has also elevated A&M's special teams game this season, as he averages 46.3 yards on 26 punts in his first year as the team's primary punter ... White boasts a 62-yard long from the Notre Dame and has sent nine punts 50-plus yards.
- White earned SEC Special Teams Player of the Week in back-to-back weeks this season after landing seven of his nine punts inside the 15 and five inside the 10 against Arkansas and the following week averaged 46.3 yards per punt, pinning Missouri on its own 1 ... White earned his third SEC Special Teams Player of the Week honor after booming three punts 50-plus yards down the field, landing four of his five punts inside the 20, and finishing the night with an average of 48.4 yards per boot, including a game-long 54 yards.
- Four Aggies on the 2024 roster have registered a blocked kick in their careers ... Senior DL Shemar Turner blocked a pair of field goal attempts last season, getting his hand on the ball in back-to-back weeks against Ole Miss and Mississippi State, and junior DL Albert Regis blocked a field goal attempt in the win over Miami in 2022, and senior WR Jahdae Walker blocked a punt a year later in Miami ... Prior to arriving in Aggieland, graduate DB Trey Jones III registered a blocked kick against Eastern Michigan in 2022.

THE ELKO EFFECT

- Known as one of the top defensive minds in the country, head coach Mike Elko has consistently produced highly disruptive and productive defenses throughout his career, most recently putting the Texas A&M defense on the map during his time as defensive coordinator and carrying the same standard as the head coach at Duke.
- In his first season at the helm in Aggieland, Elko has led the Maroon & White to their best start in SEC play, going 5-0 in the league ... This marks the best record in conference play since the Aggies started their Big 12 slate 7-0 in 1998.
- In 2023, Duke led the ACC and ranked 16th nationally in scoring defense (19.0 ppg) while registering a top-five rush defense among league teams and standing in 17th in the country with 67 passes defended ... In Elko's first season as a head coach, the Blue Devils ranked in the top-35 in the nation in scoring defense, rush defense, rushing touchdowns allowed and passes defended.
- After not finishing in the top-50 nationally in total defense for more than a decade, Elko's first stint in Aggieland as defensive coordinator from 2018-21 coincided with consistent top-35 finishes, including a top-10 ranking in the 2020 final FBS total defense standings.
- Elko has produced top-50 defenses in 11 of the last 12 years with multiple programs (Duke, Texas A&M, Notre Dame, Wake Forest, Bowling Green).

TEXAS A&M UNIVERSITY

HOME OF THE 12TH MAN

THE 12TH MAN

- Sophomore DL Nana Boadi-Owusu was named the 12th Man on August 5, 2024.
- In 2023, Boadi-Owusu saw the field in the season-opening victory over New Mexico, as well as against Miami, ACU and in the Texas Bowl against Oklahoma State. He was a member of the 12th Man Kickoff Team that received the Brotherhood Impact Award at the annual team banquet. Following his redshirt season in 2022, he earned the team's Aggie Defensive Scout Team Honors.
- Growing up the son of Ghanan immigrants and a proud Arlington Martin Warrior, Boadi-Owusu worked hard in the classroom and on the field to position himself for success at Texas A&M. Chasing a high-level college education where he could have a chance to continue his football career, Boadi-Owusu's high school coach put in a call to the late Aggie legend and former defensive line coach Terry Price to express Boadi-Owusu's interest in A&M and the rest was history.

ORIGINS OF THE 12TH MAN

- Texas A&M's famous 12th Man tradition dates back to Jan. 2, 1922 when student E. King Gill came out of the stands in the Dixie Classic in Dallas at the request of legendary head coach Dana X. Bible because of injuries to his football team ... Gill never entered the game but "stood ready" in the Aggies' 22-14 win over the powerhouse Centre College Praying Colonels.
- Texas A&M celebrated the 100-year anniversary of the birth of the hallowed 12th Man tradition throughout the 2021-22 school year.
- In honor of the tradition, the Texas A&M student body "stands ready" to show their support of their team on the field.

THE 12TH MAN KOT

- The 12th Man Kickoff Team tradition was started in 1983 by then-head coach Jackie Sherrill after being inspired by watching students build the famous Aggie Bonfire. "I knew that I could find, out of 40-some-odd thousand students, 11 guys that would cover kickoffs, but have no regard for their body and be tough as nails," Sherrill said. (Source: MyAggieNation.com) Beginning in 1991, a single 12th Man was chosen to represent the student body on the kickoff unit.

Mike Elko was named the head football coach at Texas A&M University on Nov. 27, 2023, returning to Aggieland after spending two seasons as the head coach at Duke. The former Texas A&M defensive coordinator also made stops at Notre Dame and Wake Forest prior to his time with the Maroon & White.

In his first season as a head coach, Elko was named the 2022 ACC Coach of the Year as Duke finished 9-4 complete with a victory over UCF in the Military Bowl, the program's first bowl game appearance since 2018. The Blue Devils boasted one of the best rushing defenses and offensive lines in the country that season. On defense, they gave up just 120.9 yards per game and 10 touchdowns on the ground, standing as the only school in the ACC to allow 10-or-fewer rushing touchdowns on the year. The offensive line kept its quarterback protected, ranking 12th among Power 5 schools allowing just 17.0 sacks and was tied for seventh nationally giving up just 51.0 tackles for loss on the season.

Elko guided Duke to back-to-back bowl games in year two, capping the year off at the Birmingham Bowl. The 2023 season saw the Blue Devils get off to a 4-0 start, including a 28-7 victory over then-No. 9 Clemson to begin the year before injuries took their toll and Duke finished the regular season 7-5. The Blue Devils again boasted an offensive line that ranked in the top-18 among Power 5 schools in sacks and tackles for loss allowed, while also sitting in 16th nationally as a defense, giving up just 19.0 points per game.

Prior to his time in Durham, Elko served as the defensive coordinator and safeties coach in Aggieland from 2018-21, helping Texas A&M finish with four straight bowl trips and an overall record of 34-14 (.708).

The 2021 season saw Elko's defense rank 14th in the nation giving up just 327.5 yards of offense per game, while also boasting the No. 3 scoring defense. The Aggies allowed opponents to score just six rushing touchdowns all year, which was good for second in the country. Texas A&M also ranked No. 9 in pass efficiency defense, No. 7 in red zone defense and No. 12 in total sacks. By season's end, Elko was a semifinalist for the Frank Broyles

Award, which honors the nation's top assistant coach.

In 2020, the Aggies finished 9-1 following an SEC-only regular season slate with an Orange Bowl victory. Elko guided a veteran defense that led the SEC and was top-10 in the nation in total defense, also boasting the No. 3 ranking in the country in rushing defense.

Before arriving at Texas A&M, Elko was the defensive coordinator at Notre Dame in 2017 and was a semifinalist for the Broyles Award as the Fighting Irish finished 10-3 with a win over LSU in the Citrus Bowl.

Elko served three seasons (2014-16) as the defensive coordinator and safeties coach at Wake Forest under head coach Dave Clawson. His 2016 defensive unit finished in the top 20 in turnovers forced, sacks and scoring defense, as only four schools in the country could claim that honor and the other three teams qualified for the College Football Playoff (Alabama, Clemson, Washington).

Elko served as the defensive coordinator for Clawson at Bowling Green from 2009-13. He coached linebackers from 2009-11 and then safeties in 2012 and 2013.

Prior to his stint at Bowling Green, Elko was the defensive coordinator at Hofstra from 2006-08, after also working on Clawson's staffs at Richmond in 2004-05 and Fordham from 2002-03.

Elko first coordinated defense at the U.S. Merchant Marine Academy (2001) and he spent one season (2000) coaching defensive backs at his alma mater, Penn. Elko started his coaching career as a graduate assistant, coaching inside linebackers at Stony Brook (1999) and defensive backs in the spring of 2000.

A native of South Brunswick, New Jersey, Elko graduated from Penn with a bachelor's degree in history in 1999. As a safety, he helped the Quakers to the 1998 Ivy League championship.

Elko is married to the former Michelle Madison and they are the parents of three children: Michael, Andrew and Kaitlyn.

- In 2019, Klein installed a new offense under first-year Kansas State head coach Chris Klieman as the Wildcats led the nation in red zone offense (96.2%) and ranked 10th nationally in fewest passes intercepted (5).

JORDAN PETERSON

CO-DEFENSIVE COORD./
DEFENSIVE BACKS

SL

- Peterson returned to his alma mater where he got his start in coaching as a GA at Texas A&M in 2010 and 2011, which followed a four-year playing career for the Aggies (2006-09).
- He spent the previous four seasons at Kansas and prior to that he served five seasons at Fresno State (2012-16) helping the team win a Mountain West title in 2013 and make a Mountain West championship appearance in 2014.

HOLMON WIGGINS

CO-OFFENSIVE COORD./
WIDE RECEIVERS

SL

- Wiggins has over 20 years of coaching experience, including a recent stint at Alabama (2019-23) as an assistant head coach and WR coach where he helped the Crimson Tide win the 2020 CFP national titles and three SEC titles (2020, '21, '23).
- He developed five first round NFL Draft picks at Alabama, including Heisman Trophy winner DeVonta Smith.
- He began his coaching career in 2003 at his alma mater New Mexico where he was a three-year starter.

ISHMAEL ARISTIDE

DEFENSIVE BACKS

SL

- Aristide recently spent two seasons at Duke after stops at Miami, Texas A&M, Ole Miss and Auburn.
- In 2022, he helped Duke rank first nationally in fumbles recovered (16) and second in turnover margin (+1.23), while his defensive backs unit ranked fourth in the ACC in pass breakups (59).
- Prior to spending the 2021 season at Miami, Aristide served two seasons with Elko in Aggieland (2019-20) as the senior defensive analyst and secondary assistant.

ADAM CUSHING

OFFENSIVE LINE

SL

- Cushing spent the last two seasons at Duke after stints at Eastern Illinois, Northwestern and La Verne.
- In his first season in Durham, the OL helped set a Duke record and ranked second in the ACC with 31 rushing touchdowns, while leading the ACC in fewest sacks allowed (17.0) and tackles for loss allowed (51.0).
- Cushing spent 15 seasons in a variety of roles at Northwestern, including 10 seasons as the offensive line coach and helping lead the Wildcats to a Big Ten Conference West Division title in 2018.

PATRICK DOUGHERTY

- Former Texas A&M and NFL defensive lineman, Jerod-Eddie remains in Aggieland after serving as a defensive analyst for three seasons before being promoted to an on-field assistant coach late in the 2023 season.
- Jerod-Eddie was a four-year letterman for Texas A&M (2008-11) and earned All-Big 12 Second team honors in 2011 and honorable mention recognition in 2010.
- He has mentored Aggie defensive linemen such as Bobby Brown III (Rams), DeMarvin Leal (Steelers) and Micheal Clemons (Jets) since 2020.

SEAN SPENCER

DEFENSIVE LINE

- Known as "Coach Chaos", Spencer brought nearly 30 years of collegiate and NFL coaching experience to Aggieland, including the two previous seasons spent at Florida as the co-DC and DL coach.
- In 2022, Spencer's unit contributed to a Florida defense that led the SEC with 22 takeaways and ranked eighth in the nation with a +8 turnover margin.
- Spencer spent the 2020 and 2021 seasons as the DL coach for the New York Giants, following a six-year stint at Penn State where his unit produced five-straight seasons with 400+ sacks.

TOMMY MOFFITT

DIRECTOR OF FOOTBALL
STRENGTH & CONDITIONING

SL

- Moffitt is regarded as one of the nation's premier strength & conditioning coaches in college football.
- With over 30 years of experience, Moffitt spent 21 seasons at LSU and served under three head coaches winning national titles with Nick Saban ('03), Les Miles ('07) and Ed Orgeron ('19).
- Moffitt has been at the forefront of strength & conditioning around the nation in teaching fundamentals as well as the biomechanics of speed development.

Texas A&M ranked No. 6 nationally in home attendance in 2023 with an average of 99,234 and has drawn more than a half-million fans to Kyle Field every season since 2006, with the exception of the pandemic-limited 2020 campaign.

KYLE FIELD

- Home of the Aggies since 1905. Stadium built in 1927 and the horseshoe enclosed in 1929.
- Capacity: 102,733
- Stadium record crowd is 110,633 (A&M vs. Ole Miss, 10/11/2014).
- Kyle Field is named for former A&M Dean of Agriculture Edwin Jackson Kyle, who donated a 400 x 400-foot area of the southern edge of campus that had been assigned to him for horticultural experiments. It became the home of the Aggies.
- Texas A&M finished a $485 million redevelopment of Kyle Field in time for the 2015 season that made the Home of the 12th Man the largest football stadium in the SEC and the state of Texas.
- Texas A&M has led the SEC in home attendance five times since joining the league in 2012, including two of the last three seasons.
- A&M was one of three teams nationally to average over 100,000 in home attendance in 2021. Kyle Field averaged 102,883 in home attendance that season with a total of 720,181 fans attending seven home games.
- Kyle Field's all-time record crowd is 110,633 for the Texas A&M-Ole Miss contest on Oct. 11, 2014 when capacity was expanded to over 107,000 during the stadium redevelopment.

CONNER WEIGMAN

QB - SO-1L - CYPRESS, TEXAS [BRIDGELAND]

- As the Maroon & White signal caller, Weigman has showcased great poise and command of the pocket to go along with elite arm accuracy.
- In the offseason, Weigman was named to the Johnny Unitas Golden Arm Award, Maxwell Award and Walter Camp Award Preseason Watch Lists. The Aggie signal caller also spent time over the summer at the Manning Passing Academy.
- In 14 career games, Weigman has accounted for 21 total touchdowns is currently climbing his way through the Texas A&M record books, ranking 17th all-time in passing touchdowns (19), 18th in career completions (211) and 19th in career passing yards (2,593).
- Weigman returned to action for the first time since week two against No. 9 Missouri and delivered a statement win for the Aggies. He was efficient, completing 18-of-22 passes for 276 yards and also added five rushes for 33 yards. Weigman's performance helped the Maroon & White to their largest win over an AP Top 10 opponent in program history.
- Weigman was sharp in the win over McNeese, guiding the Aggies to touchdowns on all five of his drives. The signal caller finished his day 11-of-14 for 125 yards and two touchdowns to go along with 39 yards on the ground.
- Weigman put together the most efficient passing game of his career against ULM in 2023, completing 25-of-29 passes (86.2 percent) for 337 yards and a score. The 86.2 percent was the highest clip by an Aggie quarterback in program history.
- He set career highs with 31 completions and 53 attempts at Miami while coming up just 2 yards shy of his career best with 336 yards in the air. The 53 pass attempts were the most by an Aggie since Kenny Hill (2013-14) also put it up 53 times in 2014. The 31 completions were the most by an Aggie since Nick Starkel (2017-18) completed 42 against Wake Forest in 2017.
- Weigman has thrown only four interceptions in 295 career attempts, with his first coming on his 179th attempt, surpassing the previous Aggie best in that category, held by Johnny Manziel (2012-13), who opened his career with 133 throws without a pick.
- In the 2023 season opener against New Mexico, Weigman threw a career-high five touchdown passes, the most in a regulation game by an Aggie QB since Manziel in 2013. That tally is tied for fifth on Texas A&M's single-game chart.
- Weigman made his collegiate debut in the fourth quarter at South Carolina in 2022 and made his first career start under center against Ole Miss one week later.
- Against Ole Miss, Weigman finished with a career-best 338 yards on 28-of-44 passing and four touchdowns. His passing yards were the most in a game by a true freshman in program history and his four passing TDs were the most in a game since Kellen Mond (2017-20) threw four against South Carolina in 2020.
- After helping lead the Aggies to a pair of wins to close out 2022, including a victory over No. 6 LSU, Weigman was named an ESPN Freshman All-American.
- Weigman was a highly touted 4-star prospect out of Bridgeland High School and was rated the No. 1 quarterback by Rivals and ESPN. He was named a 2022 Under Armour All-American. Weigman was a multi-sport athlete that was also rated as one of the top baseball prospects in Texas.

MARCEL REED

QB • FR-1L • NASHVILLE, TENN. [MONTGOMERY BELL]

- A dual-threat quarterback, Reed worked his way into the No. 2 spot during camp and has shined when given the opportunity under center. He has logged three starts at QB1 this season, leading the Aggies to a 3-0 record.
- In the win over No. 8 LSU, Reed provided a spark off the bench in the second half with his legs as he rushed for three scores. Reed's three rushing touchdowns were the most by a Texas A&M quarterback since Trevor Knight in 2016. With Reed under center, the Aggies scored 31 second half points to rally against the Tigers. His performance garnered him SEC Freshman of the Week, Davey O'Brien National Quarterback of the Week and Shaun Alexander Player of the Week honors.
- Reed threw for multiple touchdowns for the third consecutive week in the win over Arkansas. The dynamic quarterback also rushed for a score, marking the second time in his career that he has thrown for two touchdowns and rushed for one.
- Reed became the first Aggie quarterback to rush for 75 yards or more in back-to-back games since Kellen Mond in 2019 after racking up a career-high 91 yards in the win against Bowling Green. He also became the first Texas A&M quarterback to throw for two touchdowns and rush for 80-plus yards in consecutive games since Johnny Manziel in 2012.
- In the win at Florida, Reed completed 11-of-17 passes for 178 yards and two scores. On the ground, he added 83 yards on 13 carries and one touchdown. Reed became the first Aggie freshman quarterback to pass for 175-plus and rush for 75-plus yards in a game since Kellen Mond in 2017.
- His performance garnered him SEC Freshman of the Week honors and helped the Maroon & White snap a 10-game road losing streak.
- With Reed at the helm in the win over Florida, the Texas A&M offense provided plenty of fireworks as they recorded 10 rushes of 10-plus yards and completed five passes of 15-plus yards. He also guided the Aggies to a pair of 90-plus yard scoring drives, including a 99-yard drive in the second quarter.
- Reed made three appearances during his freshman campaign, including the Texas Bowl in which he completed 20-of-33 passes for 361 yards to go along with 29 yards rushing and a touchdown. He threw his first collegiate touchdown in the win over Abilene Christian, connecting with Jaden Platt for a 13-yard score.
- Reed was rated as a 4-star prospect by 247 Sports, Rivals and ESPN coming out of Montgomery Bell Academy. In 2023, he was named Mr. Football in Tennessee.
- He finished his high school career with 6,357 yards passing and 62 touchdowns. On the ground, Reed compiled 2,277 yards and 38 scores. He helped his team to back-to-back state championship game appearances during his junior and senior season.

LE'VEON MOSS

RB • JR-2L • WALKER, LA. [ISTROUMA COLLEGE PREP]

- After a strong offseason saw Moss take the reins as the lead back, he has been the driving force behind a powerful running attack that ranks ninth nationally and second in the SEC with 221.5 yards per game. In five of the last seven games, Moss and the Aggies have surpassed 200 yards on the ground.
- Moss currently ranks inside the top-10 among the SEC in all-purpose yards (109.8), rushing yards (757), rushing yards per game (94.6), yards per carry (6.4), rushing touchdowns (10) and total points scored (60). He also sits 11th nationally and second among SEC running backs in yards after contact per carry at 4.42 (min. 90 carries).
- Moss became the first Aggie in program history to record multiple rushing touchdowns in three straight SEC games after punching it in twice to go along with 83 yards on 14 carries in the win over No. 8 LSU. The multi-touchdown night was the fourth of the season for Moss as he became the first Aggie to rush for 10 scores in a season since Trayveon Williams in 2018. He also logged a career-high 42 receiving yards in the win.
- Moss set a new career-high on the ground with 138 yards on 12 carries and found the end zone three times in the dominant victory over No. 9 Missouri. Moss' three rushing touchdowns were the most by an Aggie since Isaiah Spiller in 2019. In the win, Moss also registered a career-best 173 all-purpose yards, adding 35 receiving yards.
- In the win over Arkansas, Moss took over the game late as the junior racked up 90 of his 117 yards in the fourth quarter. He sparked the Aggies lone scoring drive of the second half, rushing for 46 yards to set up the go-ahead touchdown pass from Marcel Reed to Tre Watson.
- His performance against the Razorbacks marked his third career 100-yard rushing game and second against Arkansas. Moss also surpassed 1,000 yards rushing in the win, cracking the Texas A&M top 50.
- In the win at Florida, Moss compiled 110 yards on 18 carries, marking the second 100-yard game of his career and first of the season. Moss showed off his strength in the win, recording 84 yards after contact.
- Against McNeese, Moss found paydirt twice on the ground, marking the first multi-touchdown game of his career.
- In 2023, Moss led the team in average rushing yards per game (53.8) and ranked second in total yards rushed (484) and rushing touchdowns (5) in nine games.
- Moss recorded his first career 100-yard game in a win over Arkansas, totaling 107 yards on 17 carries. He also added three catches for 27 yards in the victory.
- In the win over Auburn, Moss logged a team-high 97 yards on 15 carries and a touchdown. The performance sparked a four-game stretch of tallying 15-plus carries for Moss.
- As a freshman, Moss played in seven games and earned the Top Offensive Newcomer Award, Attitude Award and Toughness Award at the annual team banquet.
- At Istrouma College Prep High School, Moss registered 1,754 rushing yards and 23 touchdowns, including 16 in his junior season. He was rated as a 4-star recruit according to all three major outlets.
- He earned 2022 Under Armour All-American honors and was named to the 2022 Polynesian Bowl selection.

NOAH THOMAS

WR • JR-2L • PEARLAND, TEXAS [CLEAR SPRINGS]

- A red zone weapon, Thomas stands as the tallest member of the Aggie receiving corps at 6-6 and boasts a wealth of game/SEC experience among the position room. On the season, Thomas leads the team with 14 "Money" receptions.
- Thomas found the end zone for the 10th time in his career in the win at Mississippi State, hauling in a 20-yard pass from Conner Weigman. His 10 career touchdown catches are tied for 19th all-time in program history.
- Thomas was the go-to option for the Aggies in the win over Arkansas, logging the first 100-yard game of his career with 109 on a career-high tying six catches. He also recorded a career-long 58-yard touchdown catch, marking the ninth of his career and second of the season. The touchdown moved him into a tie for 26th in program history with Speedy Noil (2014-16) and Jimmy Teal (1982-84).
- Thomas showed off his red zone prowess in the win over McNeese as he found the end zone for the first time this season with a 15-yard touchdown catch. His 28 yards receiving ranked second on the team in the victory.
- Thomas earned a spot as a starter in eight of 11 games in 2023 and led the Maroon & White with five touchdown catches to go along with 359 yards on 29 receptions.
- He logged the first multi-touchdown game of his career with three scoring receptions in the 2023 season opener against New Mexico. He came up with a 15-yard pass in the back of the end zone in the first quarter, then hauled in 34- and 9-yard grabs in the second quarter.
- His three touchdown grabs were the most by an Aggie since Christian Kirk's (2015-17) Belk Bowl effort against Wake Forest in December 2017. The last Texas A&M player to catch three scoring passes in a half was Mike Evans in 2013.
- He was rated as a 4-star recruit by 247 Sports and a 3-star by Rivals and ESPN following a standout career at Clear Springs HS in the Greater Houston Area. At Clear Springs, Thomas was a three-sport athlete as he played basketball and ran track in addition to football.

AMARI DANIELS

RB • JR-2L • MIAMI, FLA. [CENTRAL]

- Daniels has been a complimentary piece alongside Le'Veon Moss in the Aggies dominant rushing attack this season, which ranks second among the SEC with 221.5 yards per game. The shifty back has helped the Maroon & White to 200-plus yards on the ground in five of the last seven games.
- In the win over No. 8 LSU, Daniels compiled a career-high 91 yards on 12 carries for a 7.6 average. He logged 53 of his 91 yards after the halftime break, helping the Aggies to a 31-point second half.
- Daniels logged the second multi-touchdown game of his career in the Aggies rout of No. 9 Missouri as he found the end zone twice with his legs to go along with 34 yards rushing.
- Daniels rushed for 75 yards on 12 carries and two touchdowns in the win over McNeese. The two rushing scores marked the first multi-touchdown game of his career.
- In 2023, Daniels appeared in all 12 games and led the team in carries (105), rushing touchdowns (6), rushing yards (532) and yards per carry (5.1).
- In a win over Auburn, Daniels rushed for 85 yards on five carries that featured a career-long 79-yard run. He also logged another 70-plus yard performance at Ole Miss.
- As a freshman, Daniels played in six games with one start and was earned the Aggie Offensive Most Improved Award at the team banquet.
- He was rated a 4-star recruit by Rivals and ESPN out of Miami Central. Daniels garnered MaxPreps All-America honors as a senior and helped his team to the 6A state title as a junior.

NIC SCOURTON

DL • JR-TR • BRYAN, TEXAS [PURDUE]

- One of the top defensive line transfers in the country, Scourton returned home to Aggieland after spending the last two seasons at Purdue.
- Scourton garnered plenty of preseason hype entering his first season in Aggieland after being named to the Bednarik Award, Lombardi Award and the Nagurski Trophy Preseason Watch Lists. The edge rusher was also named to the Sporting News and ESPN Preseason All-America First Teams, AP Preseason All-America Second Team and Preseason All-SEC and Preseason Coaches All-SEC Second Teams.
- Scourton enters Saturday's contest tied for the league lead in tackles for loss with 12.5 and ninth in sacks with 5.0. He has recorded a tackle for loss in six straight games and 15 of his last 17 contests. Scourton has also totaled a 0.5 sack or better in 11 of his last 15 games.
- Scourton's presence up front has helped the Aggies hold four of their last six opponents to under 100 yards rushing, including limiting No. 8 LSU to just 24 yards. In five SEC games, the Maroon & White have limited their opponents to 73.8 yards rushing, which leads the league.
- In the win over No. 8 LSU, Scourton continued to showcase his dominance in league play as the junior racked up 1.5 tackles for loss and a 0.5 sack. He has now recorded a tackle for loss in all five SEC games, totaling 10.0 in league action.
- Scourton wreaked havoc up front in wins over Arkansas and No. 9 Missouri, racking up seven tackles, 6.5 tackles for loss and 3.5 sacks. In the win over Arkansas, Scourton totaled a career-high 4.0 tackles for loss to go along with a forced fumble, a pass breakup and a quarterback hurry.
- He made his presence felt up front against Bowling Green, racking up a season-best six tackles, five of which were solos. Scourton also recorded a tackle for loss for the third time this season.

TAUREAN YORK

LB • SO-1L • TEMPLE, TEXAS [TEMPLE]

- York, who was selected as a season-long team captain, represents the nucleus of the Texas A&M defense. As a rookie in 2023, he quickly established himself as a well-studied, reliable player and leader at mike linebacker.
- With York at the helm of the defense, the Aggies rank inside the top-20 nationally in points allowed per game (18.4). He has also helped the Maroon & White hold SEC foes to only 73.8 rushing yards per game, which ranks first among the league.
- York sealed the win over No. 8 LSU with the first interception of his career. He also added a game-high seven tackles, five of which were solos, and 1.0 tackle for loss. York has now recorded at least 1.0 tackle for loss in three straight games.
- York logged his best game of the season in the win at Mississippi State, racking up a career-high 12 tackles to go along with 1.5 tackles for loss and a 0.5 sack. The double-digit tackle game was the second of his career.
- In the Aggies impressive victory over No. 9 Missouri, York recorded his first sack of the season. In the win over Bowling Green, York recorded his first career pass breakup and also totaled five tackles, four of which were solos.
- York matched the team lead for tackles in the road win over Florida with five and also logged 0.5 tackle for loss. In the season opener against No. 7 Notre Dame, York racked up a team-high tying nine tackles.
- In 2023, he earned ESPN Freshman All-America honors and was named to the SEC All-Freshman Team after finishing his debut season with 74 tackles in 13 starts. York finished third on the team with five hurries and fourth with 8.5 tackles for loss.
- York's 8.5 tackles for loss were the most by an SEC freshman in 2023 and his 74 total tackles ranked third among the rookies.
- During his freshman campaign, York played alongside one of the most productive linebackers in the nation in current Green Bay Packer Edgerrin Cooper. Together, the duo helped the Aggies boast the best rush defense (108.8) in the SEC and a top-20 defense nationally (316.2).
- He registered five-or-more tackles in nine of the 13 games and logged at least five tackles in seven of the eight league contests.
- York was named SEC Freshman of the Week after leading the Texas A&M defense with a season-high 11 tackles, 2.0 for loss, in the win over Auburn.
- Coming out of Temple High School, York was not highly recruited and received a late offer from the Aggies. York was a four-year starter at linebacker in high school, tallying 435 tackles, 47.0 tackles for loss, 15.0 sacks and 11 forced fumbles in his career. He earned UIL District 12-6A Defensive MVP in each of his final three seasons.

SHEMAR TURNER

DL • SR-3L • DESOTO, TEXAS [DESOTO]

- One of the premier defensive linemen in the SEC, Turner has played in 39 games during his career in Aggieland. Turner sets the bar for a physical Texas A&M defensive front and leads by example with his work ethic and effort.
- During preseason camp, Turner was named to the Bednarik Award, Lombardi Award and Nagurski Trophy Preseason Watch Lists, while also being named to the Preseason All-SEC and Preseason Coaches All-SEC Second Teams.
- Turner has played a key role in the Aggies rush defense this season, helping the Maroon & White keep four of their last six opponents under 100 yards rushing. In the win over No. 8 LSU, Turner and the Aggies held the Tigers to only 24 yards rushing.
- Turner put forth his best game of the season in the win at Mississippi State, racking up six tackles to go along with 2.0 tackles for loss and 1.0 sack. He also forced a fumble and recorded the first pass breakup of his career.
- Turner compiled 2.0 tackles for loss in the win over Bowling Green, marking the second time in his career he had multiple solo tackles for loss in a game. He also recorded his first sack of the season.
- In the Maroon & White's season opener against No. 7 Notre Dame, Turner logged seven tackles and 0.5 tackle for loss.
- With Turner leading the charge up front in 2023, the Maroon & White led the SEC in rush defense (108.8) and sacks (42.0), while ranking second in tackles for loss (99.0) and third in total defense (316.2). For his stellar play in the trenches, Turner garnered Second Team All-SEC honors.
- Turner appeared in eight games in his first collegiate season, earning Coaches' Freshman All-SEC Team accolades.
- He played at DeSoto High School, one of the premiere high schools in the Lone Star State. Turner was marked as a consensus 4-star recruit and a top-10 player in Texas by 247Sports, Rivals and ESPN.

Aug. 31 | Kyle Field | Bryan-College Station, Texas | 6:30 p.m. | Att: 107,315

No. 20 Aggies Drop Opener to No. 7 Notre Dame

The No. 20 Texas A&M football team dropped a back-and-forth affair to No. 7 Notre Dame, 23-13, in its season opener in front of the fourth-largest crowd of 107,315 at Kyle Field.

Le'Veon Moss compiled 72 yards on a career-best 20 carries to lead the ground attack for the Aggies. Quarterback Conner Weigman finished 12-of-30 passing for 100 yards and two interceptions.

On the defensive end, Taurean York and Will Lee III led the Maroon & White with nine tackles each. Transfer Nic Scourton topped Texas A&M with 1.5 tackles for loss in his Aggie debut.

After Texas A&M won the toss and elected to receive the opening kick, the Maroon & White struck first with a 34-yard field goal courtesy of Randy Bond. The graduate student's 40th career make capped off a 10 play 58-yard drive. The Fighting Irish responded on the ensuing drive with a 46-yard field goal to even the score at 3-3. Following a pair of punts from both sides, the score remained locked at the end of the first quarter.

In the same fashion as the first, a pair of field goals accounted for all the scoring in the second quarter as the two sides headed into the break tied at 6-6. In the opening minute of the second quarter, Bond knocked in a 49-yard field goal. Notre Dame later responded with a 26-yarder with 8:32 remaining in the half.

The Fighting Irish took their first lead of the night, 13-6, at the 6:50 mark of the third quarter behind a 47-yard rushing touchdown from Jadarian Price.

After a scoreless third, the Aggies found paydirt as Moss punched it in from a yard out to cap off a 10 play 65-yard drive. Bond's extra point tied the game at 13-13 with 11:49 showing on the clock. Following a pair of punts from both teams, Notre Dame pieced together an eight play 85-yard drive to jump back in front for good, 20-13, on a 21-yard Jeremiah Love touchdown run.

The Maroon & White were unable to respond on the ensuing drive as they turned it over on downs at their own 33-yard line. Despite holding the Fighting Irish from a first down, Notre Dame was able to tack on a 46-yard field goal to make the final 23-13.

Aggies Blow Past McNeese, 52-10, Record First Win of Elko Era

A stout defensive performance along with a high-powered offensive attack led the Texas A&M football team to its first win of the Mike Elko era as they rolled past McNeese, 52-10, Saturday afternoon at Kyle Field.

The Aggie offense was clicking on all cylinders, scoring on the first eight drives of the contest, marking their longest streak in regulation since 2011 against Baylor. The Maroon & White accumulated 529 yards of offense on the afternoon, including 333 on the ground. On the defensive end, Texas A&M held the Cowboys (1-2) to 279 yards and only 99 through the air.

Le'Veon Moss paced the offensive attack for the Aggies as the junior racked up 84 yards on nine carries and found the end zone twice. The multi-touchdown performance marked the first of Moss' career. Amari Daniels followed with 75 yards on 12 carries and two scores of his own, recording the first multi-touchdown game of his career.

Conner Weigman was efficient through the air in only a half of work as the sophomore went 11-of-14 for 125 yards and two scores. Off the bench, Marcel Reed finished 5-of-11 for 71 yards and added 43 yards on the ground on seven carries.

Transfer Cyrus Allen led all receivers with 72 yards on five catches, while Moose Muhammad III and Noah Thomas each hauled in a touchdown catch.

On the defensive end, Jordan Lockhart led the Maroon & White with six tackles, including four solo. Myles Davis and Tristan Jernigan each followed with five, while Shemar Turner led the team with a tackle for loss. In the secondary, Marcus Ratcliffe and Will Lee III accounted for the lone turnovers of the game as the duo each recorded an interception.

Randy Bond added a 42-yard field goal in the win to move into seventh all-time with 42 career field goals.

Aggies Roll Florida in SEC Opener, 33-20

From start to finish, the Aggies (2-1, 1-0 SEC) showed to be the superior team as they outgained the Gators (1-2, 0-1 SEC), 488-301, on the day. Marcel Reed made his first career start in the Maroon & White and finished the day completing 11-of-17 passes for 178 yards and two scoring strikes, while adding 83 yards rushing on 13 carries and one touchdown. Le'Veon Moss eclipsed the century mark for the first time this season and second of his career after tallying 110 yards on 18 rushes.

The Aggie defense limited Florida to 52 yards rushing, while Marcus Ratcliffe, Jayvon Thomas and Bryce Anderson each recorded an interception. Ratcliffe, Taurean York and Shemar Stewart tallied five tackles each.

After receiving the opening kick, the Aggies struck first as Randy Bond connected on a 31-yard field goal to cap off a 14 play 62-yard drive. Following a Florida punt, the Maroon & White extended their lead to 10-0 behind a 29-yard touchdown pass from Reed to Theo Melin Öhrström with just under 30 seconds left in the first quarter. On the drive, the Aggies marched 92 yards on nine plays in 5:12.

Despite a 37-minute weather delay, the Aggies remained hot as Bond made it 13-0 with his second field goal of the afternoon, this time from 48 yards out. After forcing the third Florida punt of the afternoon, Of Sarge's charges marched 99 yards on 15 plays to stretch the lead to 20-0 courtesy of a Reed 1-yard rushing score with under a minute remaining in the half.

After Florida broke through on the scoreboard to open the second half, the Aggies answered 49 seconds later when Reed connected with Cyrus Allen for a 73-yard touchdown. A failed two-point conversion by the Maroon & White made the score 26-7 with 11:00 left in the third.

Texas A&M later extended its lead to 33-7 when Bryce Anderson picked off Mertz and took it to the house for a 45-yard touchdown.

The Gators added a pair of late scores to trim the Aggie deficit to 33-20 with 5:13 remaining in the fourth quarter, before the Maroon & White ran out the clock.

No. 25 Aggies Defeat Bowling Green, 26-20

Marcel Reed led the Aggies (3-1) as the freshman threw for 173 yards on 16-of-29 passing to go along with two touchdowns. The signal caller also racked up a team-best and career-high 91 rushing yards on 12 carries in the win. Le'Veon Moss followed with 90 yards on 16 carries, marking his third straight game with 80-or-more yards on the ground. The junior also added a catch for 20 yards.

On the defensive side, the Aggies racked up 7.0 tackles for loss and 2.0 sacks. Scooby Williams led the Maroon & White with seven tackles, four of which were solos. Shemar Turner made his presence known up front, logging a game-high 2.0 tackles for loss to go along with a sack.

Randy Bond matched his career-high with four field goals from 28, 29, 34 and 42 yards out in the win.

The Aggies registered the lone score of the first quarter as Reed connected with Theo Melin Öhrström for a 27-yard touchdown on the opening drive. Prior to the touchdown pass, the Maroon & White converted a fourth-and-1 as Reed hit Terry Bussey on a crossing pattern to keep the drive alive.

In the second, the Falcons (1-2) cut into the lead, 7-3, with a 33-yard field goal with 13:35 remaining in the half. Texas A&M responded on its ensuing drive as Bond connected on a 28-yard field goal to make it 10-7 at the 10:17 mark.

Bond added another field goal in the closing seconds of the half, this time from 29 yards out, to give the Maroon & White a 13-3 lead at the break. The field goal capped off an 18-play 77-yard drive that lasted over six minutes.

The Aggies remained in front in the third thanks to a 5-yard touchdown pass from Reed to Jahdae Walker that was sandwiched between two Falcon scores. Following a blocked punt by Bowling Green, the Falcons looked to even the score with a 28-yard field goal, but Jackson Kleather missed wide right and the Maroon & White took a 20-17 advantage into the fourth.

A pair of Bond field goals from 34 and 42 yards out gave the Aggies the cushion they needed in the fourth as the lead stretched to 26-17 with 7:15 left. Following a pair of turnovers from both sides on back-to-back possessions, Bowling Green totaled the final points of the night on a 23-yard field goal with :38 left in the game. On the ensuing kickoff, the Maroon & White secured the onside kick attempt to seal the win.

No. 24 Aggies Battle Past Arkansas to Win Southwest Classic Trophy

The No. 24 Texas A&M football team defeated Arkansas, 21-17, in a hard-nosed, physical SEC battle Saturday afternoon at the Southwest Classic inside AT&T Stadium.

The Aggies (4-1, 2-0 SEC) claimed their first and only lead of the day with 9:00 remaining in the game as Marcel Reed connected with Tre Watson for a 5-yard touchdown. Following Randy Bond's extra-point, the Maroon & White led 21-17, an advantage they would not relinquish. The eight-play, 75-yard scoring drive was sparked by Le'Veon Moss, who compiled 46 yards on the ground.

The Aggie defense put the final touches on the win as Nic Scourton logged a strip sack and Jaydon Hill recovered the fumble to seal the victory. The play capped off a strong performance from Scourton, who recorded four tackles, all of which were solos and tackles for loss, including 2.0 sacks.

Reed finished the day 11-of-22 passing for 163 yards and two touchdowns, while adding 13 yards on the ground and one score. Moss logged a career-high 117 yards on 13 carries in the win, marking the third 100-yard game of his career and second straight against the Razorbacks (3-2, 1-1 SEC). Among the receivers, Noah Thomas put forth his best performance of the season, hauling in six passes for a career-high 109 yards and a touchdown.

On the defensive end, the Maroon & White wreaked havoc up front as they totaled 10.0 tackles for loss, eight quarterback hurries and 3.0 sacks. Dalton Brooks led the way with seven tackles, two of which were for loss, while Marcus Ratcliffe and Dezz Ricks followed with five takedowns each.

On the third play of the game, Arkansas opened the scoring behind a 75-yard touchdown pass. The Aggies answered on their second drive of the day as Reed connected with Thomas for a 58-yard touchdown pass with 10:28 remaining in the opening quarter. The touchdown catch marked the longest of Thomas' career. The Razorbacks used a fake punt to keep its ensuing drive going and later found paydirt with an 8-yard touchdown run to take a 14-7 advantage into the second.

Following a forced fumble by Shemar Stewart that was recovered by Scooby Williams at the Razorback 10-yard line, the Maroon & White evened the score behind a 5-yard rushing touchdown from Reed as 8:58 remained in the half. The forced fumble and fumble recovery were career-firsts for the Aggie duo. The score remained deadlocked at 14-14 as the two sides headed to the locker room for halftime.

The two sides headed to the fourth quarter tied for the first time in Southwest Classic history after a scoreless third. The Razorbacks broke the tie with 13:24 remaining in the contest with a 45-yard field goal to jump back in front 17-14.

No. 25 Aggies Dominate No. 9 Missouri, 41-10

The Aggies (5-1, 3-0 SEC) remained unbeaten in SEC play after outgaining the Tigers (4-1, 1-1 SEC) 512-254 on the day. Defensively, the Maroon & White wreaked havoc as they totaled a season-best 6.0 sacks and 8.0 tackles for loss. Nic Scourton led the charge with three tackles, 2.5 for loss and 1.5 sacks. Dalton Brooks totaled a team-best six tackles, five of which were solo takedowns.

Quarterback Conner Weigman returned as the starter for the first time since Week 2 and finished the day 18-of-22 passing for 276 yards. Running back Le'Veon Moss rushed for a career-high 138 yards on 12 carries to go along with a career-best three touchdowns. The junior added two catches for a career-high 35 yards. The 100-yard performance marked the second straight for Moss and the fourth of his career.

Texas A&M blitzed Missouri in the opening half, racing out to a 24-0 lead and outgaining the Tigers 305-79. Following a fourth down stop on the Tigers' opening possession of the game, the Aggies found paydirt as Daniels capped off an eight play 60-yard drive with a 1-yard touchdown run as 9:17 remained in the first quarter. The Maroon & White later tacked on a 44-yard field goal courtesy of Randy Bond as they took a 10-0 lead into the second.

After the stoppage, Daniels found the end zone once again as the junior punched it in from 1-yard out to finish off an eight play 65-yard drive. Bond's extra-point pushed the advantage to 17-0 as 14:27 remained in the half. Moss put the finishing touches on a dominant first half with a 1-yard rushing score to cap off an 11 play, 88-yard drive.

Ol' Sarge's charges continued to pour it on in the third as Moss broke through the gap for a 75-yard touchdown run on the first play from scrimmage to extend the lead to 31-0. With 6:30 left in the quarter, Bond pushed the advantage to 34-0 behind a 38-yard field goal.

The Tigers finally broke through on the scoreboard at the 5:06 mark in the third behind a broken play that led to a 59-yard touchdown pass.

In the fourth, the Aggies tacked on another score as Moss found the end zone for the third time on the day with an 18-yard rush. Missouri later added a 23-yard field goal in the closing seconds to make the final 41-10.

No. 14 Aggies Defeat Bulldogs 34-24, Remain Perfect in SEC

The No. 14 Texas A&M football team remained perfect in SEC action Saturday afternoon as it secured a 34-24 road win over Mississippi State at Davis Wade Stadium. With the win, the Aggies (6-1, 4-0 SEC) are off to their best start in league play since winning four straight in 2016.

Conner Weigman finished the afternoon 15-of-25 passing for 217 yards and a score. Le'Veon Moss paced the rushing attack and the Aggies' scoring efforts after making it back-to-back games with at least two trips to the end zone.

Defensively, Taurean York led the way as the sophomore racked up a career-high 12 tackles to go along with 1.5 tackles for loss and a 0.5 sack. Dalton Brooks followed with a career-high nine tackles, while Daymon Sanford set a career-high with seven tackles, all of which were solos. Scooby Williams matched Shemar Turner for the team lead in tackles for loss with 2.0, adding the first interception of his career.

The Bulldogs (1-6, 0-4 SEC) struck first with a 14-yard touchdown pass, followed by Weigman hitting Noah Thomas with a 20-yard scoring strike to even the score at 7-7.

The Maroon & White took their first lead of the day, 14-7, in the half after a 9-yard rushing score by Le'Veon Moss. The Aggies stretched their advantage to 21-10, courtesy of a 6-yard rushing touchdown from Amari Daniels. The Bulldogs answered on the ensuing drive with a 4-yard touchdown pass to trim the lead to 21-17 at the break.

The Aggie defense held Mississippi State scoreless and to just 24 yards of offense in the third. Offensively, the Maroon & White tacked on 10 points to their lead, 31-17, behind a 28-yard field goal from Randy Bond and a 3-yard touchdown run from Moss.

Following a Weigman interception to open the fourth, the Bulldogs capitalized with a 12-yard touchdown pass to trim the lead to 31-24 with 13:41 left in the game. After the two squads traded punts, Bond iced the 34-24 win for the Aggies with a 44-yard field as 6:13 showed on the clock.

The Aggie defense held strong to close out the game as Mississippi State turned it over on downs on each of its final two possessions.

No. 14 Aggies Use Strong Second Half to Down No. 8 LSU, 38-23

BJ Mayes recorded a pair of game-changing interceptions and Marcel Reed rushed for three scores as the No. 14 Texas A&M football team used a 31-point second half to down No. 8 LSU, 38-23, Saturday night in front of 108,000-plus at Kyle Field.

With the win, the Aggies (7-1, 5-0 SEC) are off to their best start in SEC play in program history and have defeated two top-10 opponents at home in the same season for the first time since 1989.

After taking over under center in the second half, Reed completed both of his passes for 70 yards and rushed for 62 yards on nine carries to go along with three touchdowns. Amari Daniels led the rushing attack with a career-high 91 yards on 12 carries, while Le'Veon Moss added 83 yards on 14 rushes and two touchdowns.

Defensively, the Maroon & White were led by Taurean York who logged a team-high seven tackles to go along with 1.0 tackle for loss and his first career interception. Bryce Anderson followed with six tackles, five of which were solos, and Nic Scourton added a half sack and 1.5 tackles for loss.

After the Tigers jumped out to a 10-0 lead in the opening quarter, the Aggies answered back in the closing seconds as Moss powered it in from 7 yards out to cap off a nine play, 75-yard drive. In the second, LSU missed a pair of field goals but was able to add another touchdown to take a 17-7 lead into the break.

In the third, Mayes switched the momentum with his first interception as an Aggie to set Texas A&M up with a first-and-goal at the 8-yard line. Reed capitalized on the next play as he punched it in from 8 yards out to cut the deficit to 17-14 with 8:10 remaining. Following a fumbled snap on a Tiger field goal try, O' Sarge's charges found the end zone again as Reed powered his way in from 8 yards out to give the Aggies their first lead of the night, 21-17, with 1:00 left in the third.

In the closing seconds of the third, Mayes logged his second interception of the night to set up another Texas A&M score. Reed once again capitalized on the LSU miscue as the signal caller took it in from 4 yards out to stretch the lead to 28-17 as 14:07 showed on the clock. The Tigers answered with a score but failed to convert the two-point conversion as the Aggies led 28-23 with 9:57 left in the contest.

Texas A&M continued to punish LSU on the ground on the ensuing drive as Moss logged the fifth rushing touchdown of the night with a 3-yard run to push the advantage to 35-23 with 8:09 left to play. York put an end to the following Tiger drive with his first career interception to set up a 26-yard field goal from Randy Bond to make the final 38-23.
