The No. 11 Texas A&M Aggies play for a spot in their seventh Elite Eight on Wednesday when they battle the No. 19 Oklahoma State Cowgirls at WakeMed Soccer Park Field No. 4 in Cary, North Carolina. The Aggies' four-match shutout string will be put to the test as they play an Oklahoma State squad that pummeled South Alabama, 7-0, in their second round match last Friday.

The Aggies' freshmen have blossomed in the spring, scoring six of their eight goals in the last four matches. For the season, the rookies have scored 17 of the team's 30 goals.

NCAA TOURNAMENT HISTORY

The Aggies are playing in their 26th consecutive NCAA Division I Championship, one of four teams to play in each tournament since 1995. The other schools to make every tournament since 1995 are North Carolina (1982-2021), Virginia (1994-2021) and Penn State (1995-2021). Texas A&M is 38-23-7 (.610) all-time in the NCAA Championship. The Aggies have appeared in the Sweet Sixteen 16 times and have advanced to the Elite Eight six times, including twice since 2014. The Aggies made their first College Cup appearance in 2014.

Elite Eight (6) - 2001, '02, '06, '08, '14, '15
College Cup (1) - 2014

ADVANCING IN GOOD COMPANY

Texas A&M advanced to the second round of the NCAA Championship for the 23rd consecutive season. They own the third-longest active streak behind only North Carolina (38) and Virginia (26).

PENALTY KICK SHOOTOUT HISTORY

In 2017, the Aggies dropped a shootout to Notre Dame in the second round of the NCAA Tournament, marking their second consecutive season succumbing to PKs. Prior to their 2016 PK disappointment at USC, Texas A&M had a string of 10 consecutive successful shootouts. During the stretch, seven of the 10 advances came in NCAA Championship play, including the 2002 NCAA Sweet 16 in which Texas A&M scored a decision against UCLA despite not recording a shot in the 110 minutes of game action.

CONSISTENT SUCCESS

G Guerrieri and North Carolina's Anson Dorrance are the only two coaches to appear in every NCAA Championship since 1995.

SERIES VS. OKLAHOMA STATE

The Aggies own a 16-1-4 edge in the all-time series against Oklahoma State. The last 10 meetings have been decided by 1 goal or less with the Maroon & White owning a 6-1-3 advantage.

The teams met at least once every season between 1996-2011 as Big XII Conference foes. Texas A&M's last game against a Big XII team while in the conference came against Oklahoma State at the league tournament championship game with the Aggies' winning 1-0 on a goal by Megan Majewski with nine seconds left on the clock.

The only meeting since Texas A&M left for the greener pastures of the SEC came in 2017. The teams played to a 2-2 draw at Ellis Field, despite the Maroon & White owning overwhelming advantages in shots (28-9), shots-on-goal (10-3) and corner kicks (9-3). The Cowgirls took a lead on an own goal in the 18th minute. Grace Piper tied the game in the 25th minute. The Aggies appeared to score the game-winner on Stephanie Malherbe's goal in the 83rd minute, but Oklahoma State knotted it up with 4:09 remaining.

WINNING

Texas A&M is guaranteed their 28th consecutive winning season - every year of the program. The closest the Aggies have finished to the .500 mark is the 12-8-2 (.591) record they posted in 2016. The 28-season string ranks sixth all-time among NCAA Division I schools and it's the third-longest active streak, trailing just North Carolina (39) and Virginia (34).

WINNERS WIN

The Aggies rank 12th among NCAA Division I programs in all-time victories. Now with 468 wins in the 28 years of the program.

INTERNATIONAL EXPERIENCE

Texas A&M entered the 2020-21 campaign with three players who have seen action on foreign national teams in recent years, including Jimena Lopez, Barbara Olivieri and Andersen Williams.

Lopez has several years of experience with Team Mexico. The senior from Mexico City has played over 30 international matches for Mexico National Teams since 2016. Most recently, Lopez took part in the 2019 Pan American Games in Peru along with 2020 Olympic qualifying matches in Edinburg, Texas and Carson, California.

Olivieri played two matches with Venezuela's U17 squad in 2018 and she scored two goals in three matches with the U20 team in 2020. She has also trained with the senior national team in 2019 and 2020.

Williams has logged 15 matches with Canada's squads, including three appearances at the CONCACAF U20 Championship in 2020. She scored three goals in four matches at the CONCACAF U17 Championship in 2018. She helped Canada to a fourth-place finish at the FIFA Women's U17 World Cup in 2018.

GOING PRO

The Aggies lost the services of two All-SEC performers during the break of this unique elongated 2020-21 campaign. Jimena Lopez and Addie McCain both elected to turn professional in January. The duo were selected in the 2021 NWSL Draft with McCain picked by Kansas City NWSL in the second round and OL Reign picked Lopez in the fourth round. Lopez elected to sign with Spanish club SD Eibar and she made her professional debut on February 7. The versatile Lopez was 2019 SEC Midfielder of the Year and 2020 SEC Co-Defender of the Year. McCain earned distinction as 2020 SEC Midfielder of the Year.

STRONG FINISHES

The last four seasons, the Maroon & White have outscored opponents 95-40 in the second half, including 15-6 in 2020-21. In 2019, Texas A&M bested opponents, 29-13, in the second stanza. It continues a trend with the Aggies, who also outscored opponents 26-13 in the second half in 2018 and 25-8 in 2017.

YOUTH MOVEMENT

Texas A&M's freshmen have accounted for a whopping 17 of the team's 30 goals through 15 matches. Two-time SEC Freshman of the Week Barbara Olivieri leads the team with eight goals. Laney Carroll and Lauren Geczik have added three goals apiece. Taylor Pounds added to the ledger with her first career goal in the Aggies' win against Alabama and a tally in the most recent game against Texas State. Kate Colvin notched her first tally in the SEC Tournament semifinal match against Vanderbilt. The newcomers have also accounted for 10 of the team's 26 assists.

LEADERS ON BOTH ENDS

The Aggies finished SEC league play as the leader in both offense and defense. The Maroon & White led the league in goals per game at 2.25 with 18 tallies in eight games. With the shutout against Auburn in the SEC regular-season finale, Texas A&M moved into first place in goals-against average at 0.63.

CATCHING UP

Entering the season with the SEC's second-best all-time winning percentage in league games at .736, trailing just Florida (.801), the Maroon & White have begun catching teams on the league's all-time conference wins list in just their ninth season as a member. With 68 wins under their belt, the Aggies have already passed 26-year league member Mississippi State (47 SEC) and are looking to chase down the next squads on the list including LSU (89 SEC wins in 26 years) and Alabama (87 SEC wins in 27 years).

GOALS IN 2s

The Aggies have had players score multiple goals in four of the 15 matches this season.

GUERRIERI RANKS AMONG THE NATION'S WINNINGEST COACHES

Texas A&M head coach G Guerrieri ranks among the leaders in winning percentage and victories among active Division I coaches. With a career record of 484-151-39 (.747), he ranks third in victories and seventh in winning percentage (minimum five years as a Division I head coach).

Guerrieri ranks fifth all-time among NCAA Division I coaches in victories, trailing North Carolina's Anson Dorrance (887), Connecticut's Len Tsantiris (570 - retired), Florida's Becky Burleigh (513 - retired) and Santa Clara's Jerry Smith (504).

THE NETMINDERS

The Aggies boast a deep goalkeeping corps with three netminders who have logged multiple starts this season. In 2020, Kenna Caldwell and Shantel Hutton have each started three matches while Jordan Burbank has two starts under her belt. For their careers, Hutton has seen the most action with 20 starts, posting a 12-5-3 record and 0.87 goals-against average with nine shutouts. Burbank has played in four matches, including three starts, recording a 0.75 gaa and one shutout.

All three Texas A&M netminders have recorded shutouts in 2020 with Hutton blanking Ole Miss (3-0), Burbank posting a clean sheet against Mississippi State (3-0) and Caldwell shutting out Alabama (2-0), Auburn (2-0), LSU (1-0), Louisiana (2-0), Texas State (3-0), No. 3 Rice (1-0) and No. 15 South Florida (2-0).

AGGIES BOAST THREE STRAIGHT SEC FRESHMAN OF THE WEEK WINNERS

Barbara Olivieri was earned SEC Freshman of the Week for week four and five and Lauren Geczik picked up the honor for week six.

Olivieri earned her first recognition after the Aggies' 2-1 victory over Florida. After registering an assist in each of her first two matches, Olivieri finally put the biscuit in the basket. She bent in a corner kick from the left arc over the keeper's head and into the far netting to give the Maroon & White a 1-0 lead in their donnybrook against No. 15 Florida. Olivieri was a menace in the midfield and came inches away from two more goals.

The following week, Olivieri scored two goals in a span of 2:43 to give the Aggies a 2-0 lead over Mississippi State in the 37th minute.

Geczik scored the first two goals of her career in just 36 minutes of play at Tennessee. With the match deadlocked at 0-0, she entered the match in the 25th minute and scored in her first 2:14 on the pitch. Geczik added her second goal in the 39th minute to give the Aggies the 2-0 lead at the intermission en route to a 3-1 victory.

SKYNET APPROVED

On October 20, SoccerWire.com released their list of the top 50 NCAA Women's players based on InStat Index ratings. InStat's signature metric is the InStat Index, an algorithm that is regarded as the most accurate assessment of any player's performance. The InStat Index measures each player's contribution to the team's success, the significance of their actions, opponent's level and the level of the league they play in. The Aggies had a whopping five players ranked in the top 20. Addie McCain led the way, tied for No. 4 while Jimena Lopez check in at No. 11. The other Maroon & White on the list included Barbara Olivieri (No. 13), Karlina Sample (No. 19) and Macie Kolb (No. 20). Texas A&M and Florida State were the only teams to have more than two players ranked in the top 20. Only two other SEC players cracked the top 20.

LEAGUE LEADERS

The Aggies lead all SEC schools in all-time victories (468) and all-time winning percentage (.755). Florida ranks second to both the Maroon & White in both categories with 431 victories and a .742 winning percentage.

HUTTON SETS A&M FRESHMAN SHUTOUT STREAK MARK IN 2019

Shantel Hutton set the Aggie freshman record for consecutive shutouts with five in a row in 2019. Her streak ended after 563:26 without surrendering a goal - also an A&M freshman record. The stretch included a pair of, 0-0, double overtime draws. During the stretch Hutton has won a pair of SEC Freshman of the Week accolades.

SAMPLE RANKED NO. 12 ON TOP DRAWER SOCCER MIDSEASON TOP 100

Texas A&M junior defender Karlina Sample checked in at No. 12 on TopDrawerSoccer's Midseason Top 100 released in early April. Sample garnered All-SEC First Team distinction after the league-only slate in the fall, as well as being named SEC Co-Defender of the Year with teammate Jimena Lopez. The tri-captain stars on an Aggie backline that ranks third in the SEC in goals-against average (0.83) and second in shutouts (7) with three different netminders starting multiple games. She has started all 13 matches and ranks second on the squad with 1,170 minutes played. Sample has one assist on the season, the first of her career, tallied in a 3-1 win at Tennessee.

AGGIES LEAD THE NATION WITH FOUR PLAYERS ON MIDSEASON FRESHMAN TOP 100

Texas A&M landed four players on the TopDrawerSoccer Midseason Freshman Top 100 list released in early April. The featured Aggies included Barbara Olivieri (No. 3), Taylor Pounds (No. 21), Laney Carroll (No. 38) and Lauren Geczik (No. 83). Texas A&M and UCLA led the nation with four players named to the roll. The Aggies also joined North Carolina as the only squads with three players listed in the top 40. Florida State, North Carolina, Texas A&M and UCLA were the only teams with two players named in the top 25.
