CHAFIN PUTTING OUT FIRES

KAYLOR CHAFIN has been one of the hottest pitchers in the nation since the beginning of April. In his 11 appearances in April and May, Chafin has not allowed just two runs over30.2 innings. The junior has scattered 13 hits and six walks while striking out 33 en route to a 5-0 record. His numbers include an 0.59 ERA, .126 opponent batting average and 0.62 WHIP over the span. TEXAS A&M/MISSOURI SERIES NOTABLES

Missouri is Texas A&M's most common out of state opponent having met 86 times previously, a couple times more than the Arkansas-Texas A&M series (84).

Texas A&M maintains a 52-33-1 lead in the all-time series which began in 1966. The Aggies have won 10 of the last 13 meetings, including a three-game sweep this season. In the this year's series in Columbia, the Aggies outscore Missouri 25-4 with BRADEN SHEWMAKE batting .500 (8-for-16) with one double, one home run and seven RBI and the pitching staff combining to pitch 27.0 innings without yielding an earned run. The pitching staff held Missouri to a .141 batting average, allowing four unearned runs on 13 hits and seven walks while striking out 34.

The two programs have met in the NCAA tournament in three different seasons. The Aggies have topped the Tigers three times in the tournament and have fallen just once. The longest streak in the series came from 1976 to 1997 when Texas A&M rattled off 11 wins in a row. Since joining the SEC together for the 2012-13 athletic year, the Aggies hold an 8-1 advantage.

POSTSEASON STREAK CONTINUES INTO 2017

Prior to the arrival of head coach ROB CHILDRESS, Texas A&M had never appeared in the NCAA Tournament more than four consecutive years. Advancing to the NCAA Fort Worth Super Regional in 2016 extended the Aggies current string to 10 consecutive years, something that had never happened before in the program's 115 year history.

Childress has led the Aggies to the postseason each of the last 10 seasons, topping the previous-high water mark of four-straight trips, a feat that had happened only twice before at Texas A&M. Former head coach Tom Chandler led his squad to the NCAA Regionals each season from 1975 to 1978 and 11 years later the Aggies enjoyed a similar four-year run from 1986-89 under the direction of head coach Mark Johnson.

LOCAL BOYS

BLAKE KOPETSKY, LANDON MINER and KYLE RICHARDSON continue a long line of local products to play for the Aggies.

Kopetsky was a standout at Rudder High School in Bryan, earning three letters. He was tabbed an All-Texas 4A Third Team outfielder by the Texas SportsWriters Association as a senior in 2012. He played his first two years at Temple Junior College and returned home in the summers to star for the Brazos Valley Bombers.

Miner was a four-year letterwinner at Bryan High School. He logged 21 career prep wins with 305 strikeouts in 258.0 innings. The 305 career strikeouts set the school record. He was a four-time all-district honoree. As a senior he went 8-5 with a 1.72 ERA and 93 strikeouts in 77.0 innings to earn All-Brazos Valley First Team, All-Greater Houston and All-District 18-5A First Team.

Richardson was a two-time all-district pitcher and 2014 All-State Second Team pitcher at College Station High School. He racked up a career record of 25-4 in his first three seasons for the Cougars, not pitching in his senior year. He batted over .300 in three of his four years, including a .459 average in 2015. He tossed three no-hitters and one perfect game as a prep.

Other recent players to hail from Bryan or College Station include Krey Bratsen (2011-14), Luke Anders (2006-09), Nick Anders (2009), Kyle Nicholson (2004-07) and Keith Stein (2005-06).

NOTES AND NOTABLES

- Texas A&M is one of nine teams to win 300 or more games from 2010-16. The Aggies went 302-146-1 over the span. A&M trailed only Vanderbilt (334), Virginia (331), LSU (326), South Carolina (323), Florida State (322), Louisville (321), Florida (320) and TCU (314) and over the span.

HEAD COACH ROB CHILDRESS

One of the top pitching coaches and recruiters in the country, Rob Childress enters his 12th season as the head coach of the Texas A&M baseball program.

With a steady stream of success, Childress has led A&M to a school-record 10 consecutive NCAA Championship appearances, five NCAA Regional titles, two conference regular-season crowns, four league tournament titles and the 2011 College World Series. He owns a career record of 458-238-2, trailing only Mark Johnson (876) and Tom Chandler (660) in coaching victories at Texas A&M.

The 2016 Aggies earned their first-ever SEC Tournament with a 12-5 victory over No. 1 Florida in the championship game. Texas A&M finished the season with a 49-16 record,including a four-week streetch in which the Maroon and-White won 10 of 14 against squads ranked in the Top 10. The magical campaign included Kyle Simonds' complete-game no-hitter against Vanderbilt, a top 10 squad.

The 2015 squad started the season with an SEC-record 24-game win streak en route to a 50-14 campaign, the highest victory tally for the Aggies since 1999. A&M finished third in the SEC with an 18-10 league ledger and won their seventh NCAA Regional title. The Aggies came up one run shy of the College World Series, dropping game three of a Super Regional against TCU, 5-4, in 16 innings.

In 2014, Childress guided the Aggies through their second season in the SEC, securing a spot in the SEC Tournament for the second consecutive year and earning a bid to a school-record eighth consecutive NCAA Championship.

In Texas A&M's first run through the SEC in 2013, Childress led A&M to the final six of the SEC Tournament and a seventh straight NCAA Championship. The Gilmer, Texas, native's expertise as a pitching coach is evident and has made an immediate impact. A&M's pitching staff ranked first or second in the rugged Big 12 in earned run average in each of his seven seasons in the league, including a Big 12-best 2.92 team ERA in 2012.

In 2011, Childress captured co-Big 12 Coach of the Year honors as he led the Aggies to another milestone campaign as he guided the squad back to college baseball's promised land of Omaha, Nebraska, and the College World Series. The trip to Omaha was the fifth in program history and capped off another successful run in the NCAA Tournament.

The 2011 team also claimed the 23rd conference championship in program history as it brought home both the Big 12 regular season and tournament titles before emerging victorious in both the College Station Regional and Tallahassee Super Regional.

A trio of Aggies (Tyler Naquin, Ross Stripling and Michael Wacha) garnered All-America honors in 2011 as Naquin was also named Big 12 Player of the Year while both Stripling and Wacha excelled on the mound under Childress' tutelage. Stripling blossomed during his third year in the A&M program as he led the nation in wins by turning in a 14-2 campaign with a 2.29 ERA.

Named the Big 12's Coach of the Year by his peers in 2008, he guided the Aggies to 46 wins, their first regular-season title in nine years and the first back-to-back NCAA regional championships in school history. Along the way A&M set a new school and Big 12 record by winning 16 straight conference games.

After just one season at the helm, Childress orchestrated the biggest turnaround in NCAA Division I baseball. His 2007 team finished 48-19, winning 23 more games than in 2006, in addition to claiming the NCAA College Station Regional championship, a berth in the Super Regionals and the school's first Big 12 title since 1999.

Childress was named the 19th head baseball coach in school history on June 21, 2005, after spending the previous eight seasons at Nebraska--the first five as an assistant under current Arkansas Head Coach Dave Van Horn and the last three as an assistant to Mike Anderson. In those eight seasons, the Huskers made the NCAA Tournament five times, advanced to the Super Regionals four times and made three appearances in the College World Series (2001, 2002 and 2005).

Childress was a collegiate assistant coach for 14 seasons, including 10 years at the Division I level. He spent seven seasons at Nebraska after serving with Van Horn at Northwestern State from 1995 to 1997.

SUMMER LOVIN'

Baseball America tabbed two Aggies as top prospects in their respective summer leagues.

MITCHELL KILKENNY - Northwoods League

Kilkenny worked out of the bullpen for Texas A&M this spring but impressed when he did get opportunities, posting a 1.67 ERA and 29 strikeouts in 27 innings. He started five games for Madison and showed the best combination of stuff and projectability of any pitcher in the league. Listed at 6-foot-4, 202 pounds, Kilkenny has a lean, athletic frame and his motion is loose and easy. He stays upright throughout, throws from a high three-quarters arm slot and works quickly. Kilkenny works with a four-pitch arsenal and throws them all for strikes—he had just three walks in 32 innings this summer. He works 90-94 mph with his fastball, throws a changeup and curveball in the 77-80 mph range and a cutter from 87-91 mph. The latter pitch might be his best—it has excellent depth and deception, especially when it's thrown down in the zone, and hitters were often helpless against it during the summer." - Baseball America

STEPHEN KOLEK - Northwoods League

"A year after Corbin Martin was named the circuit's best prospect, another Aggie landed atop the list as the physical righthander Kolek flashed the type of movement and velocity on his fastball that made some think he could be a first-round pick in due time. The younger brother of 2014 No. 2 overall pick Tyler Kolek, Stephen pitched in just 12 games for the Aggies as a freshman but impressed anyway, striking out 21 in 30 innings and posting a 3.30 ERA. He was even better for the Miners this summer, striking out 32 in just 37 innings and finishing with a 2.45 ERA. Already 6-foot-3 and 210 pounds, Kolek used a cutter, two-seam fastball and sinker, all of which sat 89-92 mph this summer, to overpower opposing hitters. Other pitchers on the circuit might have thrown harder, but few boasted more movement on their pitches than Kolek. The hard sinker is his best pitch currently and if he is able to add strength and velocity down the road as Miners' coach Ben Taylor expects he will, the pitch will be downright lethal. He pitches off his variety of fastballs but his secondary stuff isn't below-average either. The changeup has good sink in its own right and has a chance to be an average pitch down the road while the curveball needs refinement but did show good depth at times. Despite his size and how hard he throws Kolek doesn't put a lot of effort into his delivery and his motion is very clean. This allowed him to throw all of his pitches for strikes in any count and keep hitters guessing. Kolek's command came and went this summer but that was at least partially attributed to the movement on his pitches." - Baseball America
