SERIES RECORDS

- K-State has won the last four meetings and leads the overall series, 16-11, since the teams first met in 1981.
- K-State, which has swept the two-match season series against the Aggies each of the last two years, is 16-10 against A&M in Big 12 matches only, but A&M leads, 9-4, in matches played in College Station.
- A&M's most recent victory against the Wildcats, as well as the Aggies' only win in Manhattan, was a three-game sweep on Nov. 4, 2006.
- Four of the last seven meetings between the two teams have gone the maximum five sets, although K-State swept the Aggies last year at G. Rollie White Coliseum in College Station.
- In the most recent meeting, Texas A&M took No. 16 Kansas State to five sets but suffered a heartbreaking 23-25, 25-12, 25-21, 19-25, 15-9 loss to the Wildcats at Ahearn Field House in Manhattan on Oct. 29, 2008. K-State outhit A&M .303 to .219, recording nine blocks to A&M's four.

A&M trailed 7-6 in the final frame when the Wildcats went on a controversy-filled 4-0 run. Sarah Ammerman ended the rally with her 15th kill of the match, but K-State got a kill and an ace to go up, 13-7. Mary Batis put down her 19th kill of the match, but Rita Liliom countered with her 19th kill on the ensuing play to put the Cats serving for the match. Jennifer Banse kept the Aggies alive with her 14th kill before a kill by Megan Farr clinched the win for K-State.

Banse led A&M with 14 digs, and Schevikhoven posted 51 assists. Liliom and Natalya Korobkova tied Batis for match-high honors in kills with 19 apiece. K-State libero Lauren Mathewson led all players with 18 digs, and Farr tallied a match-high eight blocks for the Cats.

AGGIE QUICK HITS

- A&M has led or tied its opponent for most aces in every match this year and is averaging a league-leading 1.45 aces per set for the full season. In addition, the Aggies lead the league for fewest aces allowed with 0.52 per set for the full season.

- A&M has three players averaging more than three kills per set for the full season: Sarah Ammerman, 4.03 kps; Mary Batis, 3.28 kps; and Jennifer Banse, 3.22 kps. In addition, three players are averaging more than three digs per set: Batis, 3.38 dps; Tori Mellinger, 3.34 dps; and Ammerman, 3.08 dps.

- A&M is on the brink of breaking into the AVCA Top 25 Poll, as the Aggies are receiving votes and are listed a season-high 26th this week. The last time A&M was ranked in the top 25 was Sept. 10, 2007, when the Aggies made a one-week appearance at No. 25.

- Batis needs 19 digs to give her 1,172 for her career and move her into 10th place in the A&M career records.

She will surpass Elizabeth Edmiston, who had 1,171 digs from 1989 to 1992.

• A&M's breast cancer awareness match will be against Colorado on Saturday, Oct. 17 at Reed Arena. More details will be available soon.

• Batis, who ranks third in the A&M career record books with 1418.5 points, is only 2.5 points ahead of Ammerman, who ranks fourth with 1416 points. In addition, Batis is ninth in the A&M career records with 1,254 kills, only 10 ahead of Ammerman, who ranks 10th with 1,244 career kills.

• Senior setter Kristen Schevikhoven needs 66 assists to move into seventh place in the A&M career records for assists. She will pass Lexy Beers, who had 2,579 in her three-year career (2001-03).

• Freshmen middle blockers Lindsey Miller and Alisia Kastmo and freshman libero Tori Mellinger have played in every match this season. Miller has started all 13 matches and leads the starters with a .353 hitting percentage. Kastmo moved into the starting lineup in the fourth match of the season after sophomore middle blocker Stephanie Minnerly went down with a torn ACL against Northern Iowa and is second among the starters with a .326 hitting efficiency. Mellinger has played in all but three sets and has been the designated libero in each of the last nine matches. She has posted double figures in digs in a team-leading eight matches, including seven of the last eight matches, and she ranks second on the team with 3.34 digs per set for the full season.

• Kelsey Black, Chelsea Ringel and Jola Kelner all saw significant action in the sweep against Kansas. Black started the last two sets in place of outside hitter Mary Batis and recorded five kills and five digs. Ringel was a back-row sub in the last two sets and posted five digs, and Kelner subbed in for Schevikhoven in the third set and closed out the match with seven assists.

• Senior outside hitter Sarah Ammerman played for K-State head coach Suzie Fritz last summer as a member of bronze medal-winning USA A2 Team at the USA Volleyball Open Championship.

• Ammerman's career-high 25 digs against Missouri on Sept. 26 marks the most digs in a match by an A&M player since former libero Holly Clay had 28 at Texas Tech on Oct. 22, 2005, when the 30-point scoring system was in effect. Ammerman ranks third on the team with 3.08 digs per set for the full season and is second on the team with a 3.72 average in Big 12 matches only.

• A&M's .465 hitting percentage in the Big 12 opener at Texas Tech on Sept. 19 ranks ninth in the school record books and third all-time in A&M's Big 12 matches only.

• The Aggies, 1-1 against Top 25 teams, are slated to play a total of eight matches against teams ranked in this week's Top 25: two matches each against No. 2 Texas, No. 9 Nebraska, No. 14 Iowa State and No. 17 Baylor. Saint Mary's, which defeated A&M, 3-1, in Moraga, Calif., also is receiving points and is listed 29th, and Northern Iowa, who A&M defeated earlier in the season, is receiving points and is 37th.

• The Aggies, who went 11-9 to tie eventual NCAA-regional finalist Iowa State for fourth place in the Big 12 last year, have been picked to finish fourth in the league this season, according to a preseason poll of the conference coaches. Defending Big 12 co-champions Texas and Nebraska are picked to finish first and second, respectively, with Iowa State following at third place. A&M is followed by Baylor,

Laurie Corbelli is in her 17th season at Texas A&M and is the winningest coach in Aggie volleyball history in total victories and ranks second in winning percentage with a 353-161 (.687) record...The 1999-2000 Texas A&M Student-Athlete Advisory Committee's Coach of the Year according to a vote of the Aggie student-athletes, the 1995 District VI Coach of the Year and the two-time SWC Coach of the Year has directed A&M to a historic 13 trips to the NCAA tournament in the last 16 years, including the school's two NCAA Elite Eight appearances (1999, 2001) and an all-time high No. 9 ranking in the final '99 AVCA Top 25 Poll... Corbelli, who posts a 453-267 (.629) career record, began her coaching career in 1986 at the University of San Francisco. Following a four-year stint at the helm of the Lady Dons, Corbelli was hired at Santa Clara University. In 1992, her final season at Santa Clara, Corbelli directed the Broncos to the West Coast Conference Championship, and she earned WCC and West Region Coach of the Year accolades as the Broncos made their first-ever NCAA tournament appearance...The former Laurie Flachmeier was a silver medalist as a member of the 1984 USA Olympic Volleyball Team and received the Flo Hyman All-Time Great Player Award by USA Volleyball in 1998...A 1988 graduate of the University of San Francisco with a degree in physical education, Corbelli is married to A&M associate head coach John Corbelli...Corbelli-coached players have earned eight AVCA first-, second- or third-team All-America citations in the last 12 years. A two-time All-American under Corbelli, former Aggie standout Stacy Sykora (1995-98) became A&M's first varsity athlete to compete in three Olympics. Sykora was the starting libero for Team USA at both the 2000 Olympic Games in Sydney, Australia, and the 2004 Olympic Games in Athens, Greece, and was a silver medalist as a defensive specialist at the 2008 Beijing Games. Throughout her Olympic career, Sykora honored Corbelli by wearing No. 5, the same number Corbelli wore at the 1984 Olympics.

• Aggie head coach Laurie Corbelli is 353-161 in her 17th year as head coach of the Aggies and 453-267 in the 24th season of her head coaching career. She is A&M's winningest coach in terms of total victories and ranks second for winning percentage (.687). In addition, her 453 career wins leads all coaches in the Big 12 for Division I victories.

A LOOK AT THE WILDCATS

• Kansas State, 6-8 overall and 0-4 in the Big 12, suffered its fifth consecutive loss on Friday as the Wildcats fell to No. 2 Texas, 25-20, 25-21, 25-21, in Manhattan.

• K-State's last three opponents have been ranked in the top 25: then-No. 25 Baylor, No. 11 Iowa State and No. 2 Texas.

• K-State hit .300 against the Horns, the highest hitting efficiency by a Texas opponent this season. Vanessa Murray led the Wildcats with 12 kills and hit .364, and Kathleen Ludwig and JuliAnne Chisholm pitched in 10 kills apiece.

• Senior middle blocker Kelsey Chipman, a preseason All-Big 12 selection, leads the Wildcats with a .352 hitting percentage and 1.09 blocks per set for the full season. In Big 12 matches only, Chipman is averaging 1.21 blocks per set but is being held to a .240 hitting percentage.

• Junior outside hitter JuliAnne Chisholm leads K-State with 3.16 kills per set for the full season, while junior outside hitter Vanessa Murray leads the team with 3.27 kills per set while hitting at a team-best .272 clip in conference matches only.

• K-State, which finished third in the Big 12 standings with a 14-6 record and then lost in the NCAA first round in 2008, are picked to finish sixth in the conference this year, according to a preseason poll of the league coaches.

• Suzie Fritz (Florida Atlantic '94) is 177-86 in her ninth season as head coach at K-State.

A&M RECENT RESULTS

Texas A&M remained undefeated in home matches and kept Kansas winless in 15 all-time trips to College Station as the Aggies swept the Jayhawks, 25-17, 25-22, 25-23, in front of 1,360 Saturday at Reed Arena.

A&M improved to 10-3 overall, including 5-0 in home matches and 3-2 in Big 12 Conference matches only. Kansas, which entered the match tied with the Aggies for sixth place in the league standings, dropped to 9-5, 2-3 in Big 12 matches.

Kansas held a narrow 4-3 lead in the opening set before Aggie setter Kristen Schevikhoven's attack fell for a kill to start a three-point scoring spurt that would give A&M the lead for good. A&M freshman middle blocker Lindsey Miller followed with a punishing kill off of a Kansas overpass, and Schevikhoven and Miller then teamed for a block to put A&M up 6-4. Kansas was within striking distance at 12-10 when A&M went on a 7-1 scoring run.

A&M, which outhit Kansas .214 to .030 in the frame, built its biggest lead at 24-15, but Kansas fought off two set points before sending an attack long to give the Aggies the set.

A&M used a 6-1 run to break away from a 10-10 tie in the second set. All six of A&M's points in the run came on kills, with Miller and Jennifer Banse getting two each, and Alisia Kastmo and Kelsey Black also posting a kill apiece. Kansas, which was outhit .425 to .268 in the stanza, fought back within a point at 20-19 and 21-20 before A&M reeled off three unanswered points to be serving for the set. A Kansas kill and an A&M attack error put the Jayhawks within 24-22, before the Jayhawks' next attack sailed long to end the set and give the Aggies a 2-0 lead in the match.

A&M opened the third set with four consecutive points. The Aggies went on to build their biggest lead at 13-8, but Kansas later used a 5-1 run to tie the score at 19. The Jayhawks then committed a service error and an attack error to put the Aggies up, 21-19. Kansas managed to tie the score at 22 and 23 but was unable to take a lead.

Sarah Ammerman put down her team-leading 11th kill to put the Aggies at match point. Kansas had an attack error on the ensuing play to give A&M the win.

Ammerman also led the Aggies in digs with 11, and freshman libero Tori Mellinger also reached double figures in digs with 10.

The Jayhawks, who were outhit, .286 to .202, were led by Allison Mayfield's 18 kills. Manda led all players with 18 digs.

NOTABLES

• Ammerman named MVP at CenturyTel Premier: Texas A&M senior outside hitter Sarah Ammerman garnered MVP honors at the Texas State CenturyTel Premier, Sept. 11-12, after leading the Aggies to a 3-0 record and the tournament title. She was joined on the all-tournament team by senior outside hitter Mary Batis, as well as freshman middle blocker Lindsey Miller.

• Aggies 2-for-2 in tournament titles: Texas A&M won both tournaments it participated in this season, going undefeated at both its own Texas A&M Invitational and the Texas State CenturyTel Premier. The Aggies didn't drop a set in either tournament en route to each championship title.

• Batis named National Player of the Week: Senior outside hitter Mary Batis was named the National Player of the Week by College Volleyball Update (CVU.com) on Sept. 1, following her tournament MVP performance at the Texas A&M Invitational. Batis received the national honor for the first time in her career after leading the Aggies to a 3-0 record and the tournament title. The San Antonio native posted double figures in kills in every match and led the Aggies with 4.80 kills and 3.60 digs per set and was second on the team with 5.00 points per set. In addition, Batis hit a combined .392 over the three matches, including a career-high .667 hitting percentage in the season opener against Iona with 21 kills and only one error in 30 attempts. Her 21 kills against Iona led all players and moved her into 10th in the A&M records with 1,147 career kills. Batis, a preseason All-Big 12 selection, also took match-high honors in digs against both Iona and Virginia with 11 and eight, respectively, and tied for team-high honors with 17 digs against Northern Iowa.

• Kastmo named Big 12 Rookie of the Week: Texas A&M middle blocker Alisia Kastmo was named the Big 12 Rookie of the Week on August 31 after hitting a blistering .700, with 14 kills and zero errors in 20 attack attempts at the Texas A&M Invitational. In her first-ever collegiate appearance, the Tyler, Texas, native was 3-for-3 in kills in A&M's season opening sweep against Iona. She also came off the bench and played in two sets in the sweep against Virginia, tallying five kills in seven swings, including the clinching kill in the second set. In the match against Northern Iowa to determine the tournament champion, Kastmo came off the bench to post six kills in 10 attempts, including crucial kills to clinch both the second and third sets as A&M went on to defeat the Panthers, 3-1. Overall, Kastmo saw action in seven of 10 sets and averaged 2.29 points and 2.00 kills per set.

• Ammerman, Batis garner attention of Big 12 coaches: Texas A&M senior outside hitters Sarah Ammerman and Mary Batis have been named to the Preseason All-Big 12 Team for the second consecutive year following a vote of the league's head coaches.

Ammerman was one of five unanimous selections on the 14-member preseason All-Big 12 team. Tabbed A&M's MVP and top offensive player in 2008, Ammerman averaged 3.75 points, 3.35 kills and 2.35 digs per set as a junior.

Batis, who has started every match in her career, was named A&M's top defensive player for the second consecutive year last season after leading the Aggies with 2.81 digs per set. She also led the team with 3.38 kills and 3.81 points per set and became only the third player in A&M history to surpass the 1,000 mark in the career kills, digs and points categories since rally scoring began in 2001.

• Reed Arena, the new home of Aggie Volleyball: For the first time since the program's inception, Texas A&M volleyball no longer calls G. Rollie White Coliseum home. Instead, the Aggies moved across the tracks to the main stage on campus, Reed Arena, which will be their home for at least the next three years while the Memorial Student Center undergoes a massive renovation. The Aggies are off to a perfect 5-0 start at their new home, including a 3-1 upset against No. 6 Nebraska before a nationally televised audience. The victory snapped a 19-match, 10-year losing skid to the Huskers.

• USA Volleyball connection: Sarah Ammerman was named to USA Volleyball's A2 Team this past spring and won a bronze medal at the USA Volleyball Adult Open Championships for the second consecutive year.

Sophomore libero/outside hitter Kelsey Black honed her skills this summer as a member of the U.S. Junior National Team that competed at the 2009 FIVB Women's Junior World Championship in Tijuana, Mexico. Aggie associate head coach John Corbelli served as an assistant coach for the team for the second consecutive year.

In past years, Aggie head coach Laurie Corbelli was a member of the 1984 Olympic Team that won a silver medal and a member of the 1980 team that boycotted the 1980 Games in Moscow. In 1998, she was awarded the Flo Hyman All-Time Great Player Award by USA Volleyball.

A&M associate head coach John Corbelli was once a member of the USA Men's National Team. He also served as an assistant coach for the 1984 Olympic team and for the last two summers has served as an assistant coach for the USA Girls Junior National Team.

Robyn Romansky was hired as A&M's assistant coach following a three-year stint as the technical coordinator for the USA Women's Volleyball Team, culminating at the 2004 Olympic Games in Athens, Greece. She has since assisted at numerous USA High Performance events.

Former Aggie two-time All-American Stacy Sykora became A&M's first-ever varsity athlete to play in three Olympics and won a silver medal at the 2008 Games in Beijing as a member of the USA Women's Olympic Team.

• Listen to Corbelli bimonthly on KZNE.com: Aggie head coach Laurie Corbelli is a guest on KZNE-1150 with First Word host Louie Belina every other Wednesday at 9:30 a.m. The show can be heard live on the Internet at KZNE.com. Her next appearance will be Oct. 7.

• Three A&M matches to be televised: Texas A&M's two biggest home volleyball matches against the Big 12's most formidable opponents will be telecast on ESPNU this season. In addition to the Aggies' matches against defending Big 12 co-champions Nebraska and Texas, both Final Four teams last year and currently ranked No. 2 and No. 10, respectively, in the Top 25 poll, A&M's match at Kansas State is slated to be televised by FSN-Midwest.

A&M upset No. 6 Nebraska, 3-1, at Reed Arena on Sept. 23 to improve to 4-0 in home matches. The Aggies host the No. 2 Longhorns, Wednesday, Oct. 28 in the State Farm Lone Star Showdown. First serve has been changed to 7 p.m.

UPCOMING SCHEDULE

The Aggies face a challenging two-match road swing as A&M faces back-to-back ranked opponents starting Saturday at No. 17 Baylor. Match time against the Bears, who are 16-1 overall and in second place in the Big 12 with a 5-1 mark, is 7 p.m. at the Ferrell Center in Waco. Baylor's No. 17 ranking is the highest in program history, and the Bears are making their first appearance in the top 25 since the 200 season when they reached a then-record-high No. 19.

A&M faces No. 14 Iowa State on Wednesday, Oct. 14 in Ames, Iowa, before returning to Reed Arena for a three-match homestand. The Cyclones, who tied A&M for fourth place in the Big 12 last year, reached the 2008 NCAA regional finals before being eliminated by Final-Four bound Texas.

AGGIES ON THE INTERNET

Free video streaming of all A&M home matches, with the exception of televised matches, will be available at AggieAthletics.com. In addition, audio broadcasts of selected home and away are slated with Matt Simon providing the play-by-play. Also for the first time, broadcasts can be heard on 95.1-3 on the FM dial of an HD Radio.
