NOTES FROM LONG BEACH STATE TAKEDOWN

NOTES FROM CORNELL TAKEDOWN

Texas A&M's 22-0 victory over Cornell was notable for a variety of reasons. Some notes from the victory are below.

- 29 hits against Cornell was one shy of the school record of 30 set at Texas Tech on April 30, 1985.
- The 22 runs was the most for the Aggies since logging a 22-2 victory over Wake Forest at the 2016 College Station Regional.
- The 22 runs was the widest margin of victory for the Aggies since topping Westmont, 31-2 in 1991. It's also the widest margin of victory for Texas A&M against a Division I school since a 27-2 win at Texas Tech on March 24, 1989.
- The 22 runs was the widest margin of victory for the Aggies in shutout since posting a 26-0 victory against Rice in the 1942 regular-season finale.

IRON MAN

BRADEN SHEWMAKE had his streak of 114 consecutive starts snapped in the Sunday game at Arkansas. MICHAEL HELMAN is now the only Aggie to start every game in 2018. ZACH DELOACH is the only other A&M player to play all 51 games in 2018, including 50 starts.

Texas A&M had four players appear in all 64 games in 2017, including Shewmake, Nick Choruby, Austin Homan and GEORGE JANCA.

JANCA'S SENIORITY

With no returning four-year players in the batting order, GEORGE JANCA entered the season as the team leader in games played (90) and games started (84). He's currently up to 137 games played and 123 starts.

For the first time in the Rob Childress era, the Aggies entered the season without a player who has appeared in at least 100 games.

SETTING THE TABLE

Aggies leading off an inning own a .378 on-base percentage and .296 batting average, hitting 110-for-372 with 40 walks and nine hit batsmen. The tally includes 21 doubles, two triples and 10 home runs. Key catalysts include MICHAEL HELMAN (.509 OBP, 21-for-49, 5 BB, 3 HBP, 2 doubles), HUNTER COLEMAN (.538 OBP, 12-for-30, 8 BB, 1 HBP, 2 doubles, 2 home runs, 7 BB, 1 HBP), CAM BLAKE (.467 OBP, 5-for-13) and ZACH DELOACH (.426 OBP, 21-for-60, 7 BB, 1HBP, 3 doubles, 2 triples, 1 home run).

HELMAN'S STREAK

MICHAEL HELMAN started the season with a 27-game streak of reaching base via hit, walk or hit-by-pitch. It marked the longest streak for an Aggie since Nick Banks reached in 42 straight games in 2015. In the second game of the Georgia series, Helman had a hit streak snapped at 20 games. It was tied for the ninth longest streak in school annals and the longest since Mikey Reynolds' 22-gamer in 2013.

For the season, Helman has reached base in 39 of the 40 games.

POSTSEASON STREAK CONTINUES INTO 2018

Prior to the arrival of head coach ROB CHILDRESS, Texas A&M had never appeared in the NCAA Tournament more than four consecutive years. Last season's College World Series run extended the Aggies' current string to 11 consecutive years, something that had never happened before in the program's 115 year history.

Previously, the Aggies put together two strings of four consecutive NCAA Championship appearances. Former head coach Tom Chandler led his squad to the NCAA Regionals each season from 1975 to 1978 and 11 years later the Aggies enjoyed a similar four-year run from 1986-89 under the direction of head coach Mark Johnson.

'CHISE TIES SINGLE-GAME RUNS RECORD

In just his fifth game in College Station, ZACH DELOACH tied the Texas A&M single-game record for runs scored with five. He became the eighth player to join the long and distinguished list that includes the names of Aggie greats like Dave Elmendorf, Chad Allen and Jason Tyner.

HEAD COACH ROB CHILDRESS

One of the top pitching coaches and recruiters in the country, Rob Childress enters his 13th season as the head coach of the Texas A&M baseball program.

With a steady stream of success, Childress has led A&M to a school-record 11 consecutive NCAA Championship appearances, six NCAA Regional titles, two conference regular-season crowns, four league tournament titles and College World Series appearances in 2011 and 2017. He owns a career record of 499-261-2, trailing only Mark Johnson (876) and Tom Chandler (660) in coaching victories at Texas A&M.

Over the last three seasons, Texas A&M has amassed a 140-53 record (.725). The .725 winning percentage over the three seasons ranks sixth among Division I programs. The Maroon & White are one of just seven teams to rack up 40 or more wins in each of the last three seasons. The Aggies are also one of just six teams to claim a regional title in each of the last three seasons.

Last season, the Aggies made a College World Series appearance, finishing with a 41-23 mark. The pitching in 2017 was brilliant, ranking in the Top 25 in the nation in ERA (20th – 3.48) and WHIP (23rd – 1.26). The staff was led by All-American Brigham Hill and standout reliever Kaylor Chafin.

The 2016 Aggies earned their first-ever SEC Tournament crown with a 12-5 victory over No. 1 Florida in the championship game. Texas A&M finished the season with a 49-16 record, including a four-week stretch in which the Maroon and White won 10 of 14 games against squads ranked in the Top 10. The Aggies finished third in the SEC with a 20-10 record and captured their eighth NCAA Regional trophy. The magical campaign included Kyle Simonds' complete-game no-hitter against Vanderbilt, a top 10 squad.

The 2015 squad started the season with an SEC-record 24-game win streak en route to a 50-14 campaign, the highest victory tally for the Aggies since 1999. The Maroon and White finished third in the SEC with an 18-10 league ledger and won their seventh NCAA Regional title. The Aggies came up one run shy of the College World Series, dropping game three of a Super Regional against TCU, 5-4, in 16 innings.

The 2015 campaign was one of the best coaching performances Childress has put in, as his pitching staff posted a 3.04 ERA (22nd in the nation) despite losing two weekend starters for most of the season. Matt Kent and Grayson Long, who both posted 9-1 records on the year, went on to get drafted, along with A.J. Minter, who went 2-0 with a 0.43 ERA in four starts before succumbing to a season-ending injury. The Aggies had four different players earn All-America honors on the year, including Grayson Long, Logan Taylor, Nick Banks and Blake Allemand.

In 2014, Childress guided the Aggies through their second season in the Southeastern Conference, securing a spot in the SEC Tournament for the second consecutive year and earning a bid to a school-record eighth consecutive NCAA Championship.

In Texas A&M's first run through the SEC in 2013, Childress led A&M to the final six of the SEC Tournament and a seventh straight NCAA Championship. The Gilmer, Texas, native's expertise as a pitching coach is evident and made an immediate impact. A&M's pitching staff ranked first or second in the rugged Big 12 in earned run average in each of his seven seasons in the league, including a Big 12-best 2.92 team ERA in 2012.

By earning SEC Freshman of the Week in each of the first two weeks, he became the second player to ever earn the award in back-to-back weeks, joining South Carolina's Braden Webb (2016). He became the first SEC player to garner freshman of the week in each of the first two weeks of his career and the first true freshman to earn in consecutive accolades.

LOCAL BOYS

He racked up a career record of 25-4 in his first three seasons for the Cougars, not pitching in his senior year. He batted over .300 in three of his four years, including a .459 average in 2015. He tossed three no-hitters and one perfect game as a prep.
