MOST RECENT MEETING

Senior outside hitter Sarah Ammerman had a then-season-high 21 kills to lead No. 25 Texas A&M to a 23-25, 25-22, 25-22, 25-15 victory over

Kansas on Halloween night at the Horejsi Family Athletics Center. It was the Aggies' seventh consecutive win against the Jayhawks as A&M swept the season series for the third straight season.

Kansas gave A&M a scare in the opening set, outhitting the Aggies, .277 to .176, and taking a 1-0 lead in the match. A&M errors early in the frame proved costly, allowing the Jayhawks to build their biggest lead at 17-11. Setter Jola Kelner then came off the bench and sparked the Aggies to a 21-21 tie. A&M also tied the score at 22 and 23 before Karina Garlington got back-to-back kills to clinch the set for the Jayhawks.

The second set was tied at 3-3 when A&M reeled off three unanswered points. The Aggies would keep the lead for the remainder of the set, outhitting the Jayhawks, .324 to .243. A&M held its largest lead at 23-17 when Kansas scored three consecutive points to cut the gap to 23-20. Ammerman then posted her sixth kill of the stanza to put the Aggies serving for the set. Allison Mayfield countered with her eighth kill of the set to keep the Jayhawks alive, and an A&M attack error put KU within 24-22. The Jayhawks then hit long to end the set and even the match at a set apiece.

There were 11 ties and six lead changes in the third set. The Jayhawks held a 17-16 lead when A&M got back-to-back blocks and a kill to take a 19-17 lead. A&M held a 20-19 margin when Mary Batis and Kristen Schevikhoven posted consecutive kills, and a KU attack error put the Aggies up 23-19. The Jayhawks came back with Sykora was the starting libero for Team USA at both the 2000 Olympic Games in Sydney, Australia, and the 2004 Olympic Games in Athens, Greece, and was a silver medalist as a defensive specialist at the 2008 Beijing Games. Throughout her USA National Team career, Sykora has honored Corbelli by wearing No. 5, the same number Corbelli wore at the 1984 Olympics.

two kills to get within 23-21 but hit long on the ensuing play to put A&M at set point. A&M served into the net, but Ammerman came back with her sixth kill of the frame to clinch the set and give the Aggies a 2-1 lead.

The fourth set was all A&M, as the Aggies outhit the Jayhawks, .379 to .200 and posted five aces. Leading 3-1, the Aggies reeled off five consecutive points, getting kills from four different players, as well as a block during the stretch. A&M continued to widen the margin and built its first 10-point lead at 16-6 on an ace by Kelsey Black. Kansas rallied for three points, but the Aggies matched it with a kill from Batis and back-to-back aces by Jennifer Banse. Trailing 19-9, the Jayhawks made another three-point run, but A&M again answered with its own three-point rally, which included two aces by Batis. With A&M leading, 22-12, the teams then traded point for point, with Ammerman getting the match-clinching kill.

Ammerman hit .391 for the match as the Aggies outhit Kansas, .269 to .233. Batis added 12 kills, and Banse had 10 kills and a team-leading 15 digs. Black drew her first career start at middle blocker and posted a career-high five blocks. Lindsey Miller tied Black for team-high honors in blocks to help lead A&M to a 10.5-5 block advantage over the Jayhawks.

Mayfield led Kansas with 20 kills, and libero Melissa Grieb had a match-high 20 digs.

A&M RECENT RESULTS:

Texas A&M started off Big 12 Conference play with a bang, stunning No. 8 Texas, 25-22, 25-18, 25-23, Thursday at Reed Arena in the year's first edition of the State Farm Lone Star Showdown.

A&M, which had not defeated the Longhorns since Oct. 16, 2004, snapped a 12-match losing skid against the rival Longhorns, who had not even dropped a set to the Aggies since 2008. The win also snapped Texas' streak of 47 consecutive wins against in-state opponents, a streak that began following A&M's 2004 victory.

A crowd of 3,305, the seventh largest home crowd in A&M history, watched as the Aggies defeated a Top-10 team in their conference home opener for the second straight year, having knocked off No. 6 Nebraska last year, 3-1.

Kelsey Black led all players with 13 kills, and Lindsey Miller added nine while hitting .533. She also had a match-high five blocks. Freshman setter Allie Sawatzky had four blocks and 32 assists.

A&M out-hit the Longhorns, .217 to .110, as Texas committed 23 attack errors to A&M's 16.

Chelsea Ringel, who was recognized as the State Farm Lone Star Scholar Athlete before the match, had a match-high 12 digs, and Tori Mellinger added 10 to lead A&M to a 43-35 advantage.

It was the fourth consecutive win and the fourth consecutive sweep for the Aggies.

KANSAS TIDBITS

- The Jayhawks have limited their opponents to a .145 attack percentage, which ranks third in the Big 12. Nine of the Jayhawks' 12 foes have hit below .200 this season.

- Senior outside hitter Karina Garlington, a preseason all-Big 12 selection, is averaging 3.44 kills per set, which ranks eighth in the Big 12. Junior outside Allison Mayfield also ranks in the top 10, adding 3.05 kills per set. Guiding the offense is freshman setter Kara Wehrs with 9.32 assists per set, but junior Nicole Tate has seen an increased role at setter, averaging 9.38 assists per set over the last three matches.

- Head coach Ray Bechard is one win shy of his 200th career victory at KU, sporting a 199-177 record at the helm of the Jayhawks.

- The Jayhawks start three freshmen: setter Kara Wehrs, libero Brianne Riley and middle blocker Caroline Jarmoc.

- Kansas placed eighth in the Big 12 last year with an 8-12 record. It was the third consecutive eighth-place finish for the Jayhawks, whose highest finish was a tie for fourth in 2003.
