FIRST PITCH

WEEKEND OUTLOOK

- Following a series against Oakland, the Aggies will travel to College Station, Texas, for their first road series of the season.
- First pitch against No. 14 Texas A&M on Friday is scheduled for 5 p.m. MST with Saturday beginning at 1 p.m. and Sunday's finale at Noon.
- All four games will be streamed live on SEC Network Plus, which is included in subscriptions to ESPN+.
- The series opener will mark the first of five consecutive road games for the Aggies who have played 11 of their first 12 games in their home park.
- Friday's game will mark the seventh all-time meeting between Texas A&M and NM State with each of the previous six games also taking place in College Station. NM State will also seek its first-ever win over Texas A&M.

LAST TIME OUT

- NM State welcomed Oakland for a four-game series at Presley Askew Field and split the series after tallying wins on Friday and Saturday before dropping Sunday and Monday contests.
- Friday marked the Aggies' first walk-off win of the season as they defeated the Golden Grizzlies 5-4 in 10 innings.
- In Friday's win, Jack Turner continued an impressive start to his Aggie career as he tossed six innings and recorded a season-high three strikeouts.
- NM State then used a six-run seventh inning on Saturday to earn a 13-8 win on Saturday before falling in the next two games.
- Despite losing on Monday, the Aggies recorded their third three-home-run game of the season as Steve Solorzano, Camden Kaufman and Sheehan O'Connor all went yard.

NOTES

SET THE TONE
Last weekend, center fielder Jonatan Clough was moved to the top of the order and provided a spark for the Aggie offense. In Saturday's 13-8 victory over Oakland, Clough recorded three hits and an RBI while tallying four runs. He also recorded three stolen bases to become the first Aggie to do so since current Milwaukee Brewer Joey Ortiz did so in 2017.

FACING THE SEC
NM State will be seeking the program's first ever win over Texas A&M and first win over an SEC opponent since 2018 when it knocked off Alabama 3-0 in the opener of a three-game series versus the Crimson Tide.

Since the program's start in 1962, the Aggies have faced off against eight current SEC schools and hold a 4-25 all-time record. At six games, Texas A&M represents the second most common SEC opponent for NM State as it has only squared off against Oklahoma (12 games) more. The Aggies have also faced Alabama (3 games), Arkansas (2 games), Mississippi State (2 games), Missouri (2 games), Kentucky (1 game) and Vanderbilt (1 game).

Most recently, the Aggies collided with Vanderbilt in the 2022 Corvallis Regional and suffered a 21-1 defeat.

SAY HIS NAMIE
Entering the 2024 campaign, returner Mitch Namie was slated to be one of the Aggies' key contributors once again after appearing in 50 of the Aggies' 54 games and making 49 starts during his sophomore season. The Mesa, Ariz., serves as the leading returner in batting average (.333), at-bats (183), runs (50), hits (61), doubles (13), triples (2), home runs (5), RBIs (35) and walks (31).

Through the Aggies' first 12 games, Namie's offensive power has been on full display as he is currently the only Aggie to register a hit in every game thus far. Including a pair of hits in the Aggies' final two games of the 2024 season, Namie has now logged a hit in the Aggies' last 14 games.

The junior from Mesa, Ariz., currently leads the team in batting average (.419) and ranks second among Aggie hitters in on-base percentage (.556), doubles (4), RBIs (12) and walks (9).

CONFERENCE USA CONTENDERS
Though the season is only in its infancy, the Aggies look to have one of the strongest offenses among Conference USA teams. Entering the weekend, the Aggies currently pace the league in batting average (.319) and slugging percentage (.543) while ranking among the top three in doubles (2nd, 29), hits (3rd, 130), on-base percentage (3rd, .418) and triples (2nd, 7).

FRESHMAN ARMS
The Aggies have leaned on their young arms this season as seven of the Aggies' eight available freshman have appeared in at least one game this season. The lone freshman pitcher that has not spent any time on the mound is two-way player Chris Daniels, who has tallied three starts this season at either first base or designated hitter.

In total, the Aggie freshmen have combined to throw 31.0 innings and have given up just 26 earned runs while combining for 26 strikeouts. This weekend, freshman right-hander Matthew Yarc will make his third start.

SHEEHAN O'CONNOR NAMED CUSA PLAYER OF THE WEEK
On Monday, Feb. 17, it was announced that standout second baseman Sheehan O'Connor earned Conference USA Hitter of the Week honors after an impressive trio of games to open the season.

Following a two-hit performance on Sunday, O'Connor entered Monday's finale with a .583 batting average, three home runs, eight RBIs and a pair of doubles to help guide the Aggies to a pair of wins and earn the season's first hitter of the week honor, which is announced every Monday.

As of Thursday, O'Connor ranks first in the league in home runs (7), second in slugging percentage (.952) and fourth in RBIs (15). With seven long balls, O'Connor ranks tied for sixth in home runs among Division I hitters.

YEAR TWO
NM State is amid its second season under Head Coach Jake Angier and looks to continue to make strides after increasing its win total by 11 games and posting the highest number of wins since 2019.

In year one under Angier, the Aggies landed three on the all-conference awards list as Keith Jones II earned first team All-CUSA honors, Titus Dumitru earned second team honors and Steve Solorzano secured all-freshman team honors.

Angier was previously at the University of Oregon where he operated as the pitching coach for the 2020-2023 seasons. Before Oregon, Angier was at Sacramento State from 2014-2019. Angier was named by Baseball America as one of the 50 names to watch in the 2023 coaching cycle.

PRESEASON DOUBT
On Jan. 30, Conference USA released is preseason poll and preseason award recipients and, notably, no Aggies were included on the preseason all-conference team while NM State landed in a tie for eighth place as a team on the 2025 CUSA Preseason Poll which is based on a vote of the league's 10 head coaches.

However, the Aggies did receive one first-place vote in the preseason poll as Head Coach Jake Angier has publicly backed his team and made known that he was the lone coach to not cast his first-place vote for preseason favorite Dallas Baptist.

TRENDING UP
After finishing No. 297 in RPI in 2023, the Aggies jumped to No. 138 at the conclusion of the 2024 season to mark the largest RPI increase in the nation.

BIG SPIKES TO FILL
NM State entered the 2025 season with nearly two-thirds of its 2024 roster no longer in the picture. This year, NM State brings back just 12 players while 22 individuals have departed.

With a new-look roster comes opportunity as the Aggies will be looking to replace nearly all of its offensive and pitching production. With the departures, the Aggies lost over 70% of their runs (72.9%), hits (72.4%), home runs (86.1%), RBIs (78.2%), stolen bases (87.8%) and innings pitched (72.6%). NM State will also be without Keith Jones II, Romeo Ballesteros and Nick Gore who were the only three Aggies last season to start more than 50 games - starting 53, 53 and 52, respectively.

LOCAL PRODUCTS
The 2025 NM State roster features four Aggies from the Land of Enchantment. This includes Kade Benavidez (Belen), Jaden Davis (Jemez Pueblo), Steve Solorzano (Las Cruces) and Hazen Wright (Carlsbad).

WELCOME ABOARD
This offseason, NM State added Assistant Coach Camden Duzenack to its staff. Following an impressive playing career which included six seasons in the farm system for the Arizona Diamondbacks, he will assist primarily with the infield for the Aggies.

In college, Duzenack spent four seasons with CUSA foe Dallas Baptist where he recorded a career batting average of .291 and was named a Louisville Slugger Freshman All-American as a freshman in 2014. He was also named MVC Defensive Player of the Year as a senior and garnered All-MVC honors three years in a row.

ONCE AN AGGIE...
This season, Head Coach Jake Angier is supported by a pair of former Aggies on his staff as both Assistant Coach David Bellamy and Director of Pitching Analytics Aaron Treloar each spent time during their collegiate playing days at NM State.

Bellamy, a two-year letter winner at NM State, is amid his second season on Angier's staff. As a player, he was a standout outfielder for both the 2017 and 2018 seasons. He batted .307 his senior year to help lead the Aggies to the Lubbock Regional before being named to the Google Cloud Academic All-District First-Team and Academic All-WAC First-Team. Bellamy now serves as the Aggies' hitting coach and is tasked with calling the offensive plays.

Meanwhile, Treloar is in his first season on staff after wrapping up his playing career just last season. Treloar ultimately spent his final two years with the Aggies and appeared in 35 games while totaling 42 strikeouts, including 26 in 2024.

EASTWARD EXPANSION
This season, the Aggies will spend their fair share of time on the road as they are slated to play 27 games away from Presley Askew Field. Unlike American settlers, the Aggies will do most of their traveling to the east as their contests against Arizona will represent the only two times that the Aggies will travel west of Las Cruces.

During its season, NM State will rack up frequent flyer miles as seven of its 11 road trips will include games that require over 700 miles of travel. This includes three extra lengthy trips as its road trip to UNC Greensboro and Liberty (1,789 miles to UNCG), its trip to FIU (2,030 miles) and its trip to Kennesaw State (1,461 miles) all exceed 1,000 miles.

SCOUTING THE (OTHER) AGGIES
NM State's weekend opponent will enter the week with a 7-5 overall record and are 2-5 in their last seven after opening the season with five straight wins. Most recently, Texas A&M submitted a 6-2 victory over Texas Southern on Wednesday night. Additionally, Texas A&M opened the season as the consensus No. 1 ranked team in college baseball, however, they have since dropped to No. 14 in the most recent D1Baseball.com Top 25 poll.

As a team, the Aggies are maintaining a .245 batting average and are scoring 6.1 runs per game. They are currently led by infielder Wyatt Henseler who hoists a .364 average to serve as one of three qualified Aggies maintaining an average of above .300 this season.

While the Aggie offense has struggled at times, Texas A&M has leaned on its pitching which enters the weekend with a combined 3.32 ERA to rank 35th in the nation. This has been supported by Friday starter Ryan Prager who is maintaining a 0.55 ERA across his first three starts this season. Prager is once again expected to start on Friday while Justin Lamkin will throw Saturday and Myles Patton will get the start on Sunday.

The Aggies are led by first-year head coach, Michael Earley, who took over after serving as Texas A&M's hitting coach for the last three seasons and helped the Aggies to two College World Series appearances and a national runner-up finish just last season.

UP NEXT
Following the three-game series against the Aggies, NM State will make the three-hour drive to Beaumont, Texas, for a pair of midweek matchups against Lamar. The Aggies will take on the Cardinals at 5 p.m. MST on Tuesday before returning for a Noon first pitch on Wednesday.

JAKE ANGIER

HEAD COACH | 2ND SEASON | SOUTH DAKOTA STATE '10

Jake Angier was announced as the 12th head baseball coach in Aggie history on Monday, June 19, 2023.

In his first year at the helm of the Aggie program, Angier helped lead the Aggies to a 25-win season while helping instrument the single highest RPI gain in the NCAA Baseball RPI standings of any Division I program in the nation as the Aggies climbed 159 spots from 2023 to 2024. Under Angier, the Aggies also finished the season ranked second in the conference in batting average (.300) to help generate an 11-win increase.

This charge was led by three standouts that garnered all-conference honors as Keith Jones II was named First Team All-CUSA while outfielder Titus Dumitru picked up Second Team All-CUSA honors and Steve Solorzano claimed distinction as a member of the all-freshman team. Angier's first year also helped produce two MLB draft picks as Jones II was selected in the ninth round by the Texas Rangers while Titus Dumitru was picked by the Atlanta Braves in the 16th round. Angier's debut season with the Aggies was headlined by a pair of wins over Power Five programs as NM State took down Pac-12 power Arizona on March 26 before knocking off Big 12 foe TCU on May 11.

A native of Bellevue, Wash., Angier capped off a four-year stint at the University of Oregon with three consecutive NCAA Tournament appearances, including a trip to the 2023 Super Regionals. Finishing with 41 wins in 2023, the Ducks posted the fourth-winningest season in program history. In addition, the Ducks also knocked off 26 ranked opponents in four seasons under Angier's watch, including seven wins over top-ten teams.

One of Baseball America's Top 50 Names to Watch in 2023's coaching cycle, Angier has a proven track record of developing pitchers and a winning culture. Through 15 seasons as a pitching coach, Angier has coached 32 MLB Draft picks, eight MLB players, five All-Americans, and three Freshman All-Americans. Angier's teams have also appeared in five of the past six NCAA Tournaments (2023, '22, '21, '19, and '17).

Throughout his career as a pitching coach, Angier has coached at four different Division I schools (Oregon, Sacramento State, North Dakota State, and South Dakota State) and in three different conferences (Pac-12, Western Athletic, and Summit). In addition to several all-conference pitchers, he has tutored five All-Americans, three freshman All-Americans and four all-region pitchers.

Before Angier arrived in Eugene, the Ducks finished the 2019 campaign with a 5.93 ERA, which was the highest mark since Oregon reestablished its baseball program in 2009. In both 2020 and 2021, Angier's pitchers posted sub-four ERA's at 3.85 and 3.71, respectively. In 2021, the pitching staff ranked 18th in the nation and second in the Pac-12 in ERA (3.71), while also ranking in the top 35 nationally in shutouts (15th), strikeout-to-walk ratio (29th) and WHIP (35th). The Ducks led the Pac-12 in shutouts (6) and strikeout-to-walk ratio (2.82), while ranking third in WHIP (1.31). In each of Angier's three full seasons, Oregon pitchers have been dominant on the bump, posting three of the top seven strikeout seasons in program history (513, T-1st, 2021; 505, 4th, 2023; 467, 7th, 2022).

No stranger to Las Cruces, Angier spent six seasons (2014-19) with Western Athletic Conference foe Sacramento State. He started his tenure with the Hornets as an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator before being promoted to pitching coach in 2017 and associate head coach in 2019. During Angier's three seasons as Sacramento State's pitching coach, the Hornets boasted the WAC's top pitching staff. Sacramento State led the WAC in ERA all three seasons, while also leading the conference in WHIP, strikeout-to-walk ratio and hits allowed per nine innings each season.

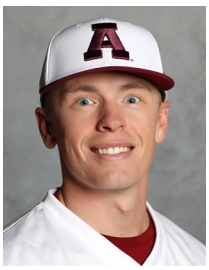

Sacramento State advanced to the NCAA Regionals three times in Angier's six seasons and twice (2017, 2019) with him serving as the team's pitching coach. In 2018, Sacramento State's pitching staff finished among the nation's top 12 in four separate statistical categories: walks allowed per nine innings (2nd), strikeout-to-walk ratio (5th), shutouts (T8th) and WHIP (12th). In all, the Hornets had five top 50 national statistical rankings in 2018 while cracking the top 50 in three categories in 2017 and four in 2019.

Before heading to the Golden State, Angier spent three seasons as the pitching coach at North Dakota State where his pitching staffs set several school records. The Bison won 88 games over the course of three seasons, including a then program record 40 wins in 2012. The 2013 North Dakota State team allowed just 3.03 walks per nine innings – a mark that remains the lowest in the history of Bison baseball. While in Fargo, Angier worked under Tod Brown, who is now the head coach at the University of New Mexico.

A graduate of South Dakota State, Angier started his coaching career at his alma mater where he was the pitching coach while working as a graduate assistant from 2009-10. While in Brookings, S.D., the Jackrabbits won 65 games, including a 39-win season in 2010 that still stands as tied for the best in program history.

Angier graduated from SDSU with a bachelor's degree in sociology in 2007 and a master's degree in sports pedagogy in 2010. While playing baseball at South Dakota State, Angier's head coach was Reggie Christensen, his future boss at Sacramento State. Angier also spent two years as a player at Big Bend Community College in Moses Lake, Wash.

Angier and his wife Sheena have a nine-year-old daughter, Avery, and a six-year-old son, Tripp.
