Media are forbidden from reporting (e.g. tweeting, blogging, etc.) on anything related to practice until after the post-practice interview with the head coach. This includes media who leave practice early. Video is permitted for any drill during the pre-determined open periods (first 4) that does not include offense vs. defense (i.e. 7-on-7, 11-on-11) or involves formations. ### OLE MISS HEAD COACH HUGH FREEZE

Hugh Freeze (Southern Miss, 1992) is in his second season at the Ole Miss helm. After leading the Rebels to their second straight 3-2 start, he now owns a 10-8 mark in Oxford and a career record of 40-15. His first year as head coach in Oxford saw him reverse the team's fortunes with a 7-6 record and a bowl win over Pittsburgh in the BBVA Compass Bowl. He followed that up with a signing class that rated top five in the nation. Expectations are soaring for Rebel Nation thanks to Freeze, who was named the University's 37th head football coach on Dec. 5, 2011. He came to Oxford after serving one year as head coach at Arkansas State, leading the Red Wolves to a 10-2 season and the 2011 Sun Belt Conference title, while Freeze was tabbed Sun Belt Coach of the Year. It is his second stint at Ole Miss, as he was a member of the Rebel coaching staff from 2005-07, including the final two seasons as an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator with two of the top classes in UM history.

TEXAS A&M HEAD COACH KEVIN SUMLIN

Kevin Sumlin (Purdue, 1988) is in his second season with Texas A&M, boasting a 15-3 record as the Aggies' head coach. He directed A&M to an 11-2 record and Cotton Bowl victory over Oklahoma last year. His up-tempo offense also paved the way for Johnny Manziel to have an historic redshirt-freshman season en route to the Heisman Trophy. Sumlin came to College Station after a highly successful four-year stint as the head coach of the Houston Cougars. He boasts a career record of 51-20, with just four losses over the last three seasons. Sumlin is a three-time national coach of the year finalist. Previous stops as an assistant coach included Oklahoma, Texas A&M, Purdue, Minnesota and Wyoming.

TEXAS A&M SCOUTING REPORT

The Aggies are 4-1 overall and 1-1 in the SEC with the only loss coming to No. 1 Alabama (49-42). Their SEC win was at Arkansas (45-33). Texas A&M has picked up where it left off last year as one of the nation's top offensive teams. A&M leads the SEC in scoring offense (49.2 ppg), total offense (586.4 ypg) and passing offense (365.0 ypg). QB Johnny Manziel tops the SEC in total offense (360.6 ypg) and ranks second in passing yards (297.8 ypg), and WR Mike Evans leads the league in receiving yards (138.2 ypg).

OLE MISS SETS RECORD FOR SEASON TICKET SALES

Ole Miss has achieved its goal of selling out of football season tickets with a school-record 50,386, which tops the previous highs of 50,009 in 2009 and 48,180 in 2004. A limited number of individual game tickets still remain for the Idaho, Arkansas, Troy and Missouri games. Fans are encouraged to act quickly by visiting the OleMissSports.com ticket site or calling 888-REB-TKTS.

LANDSHARK

At Ole Miss, "Landshark" is a term adopted by the Rebel football team's defensive unit. As part of that identity, defensive players will celebrate big plays by putting a hand to their forehead in the shape of a shark fin. A battle cry of "fins up" also contributes to the players' persona.

With the popularity of both the players and the "Landshark" celebration, Ole Miss student-athletes from other sports have even performed the hand gesture as a tribute to their fellow Rebels on the football team.

Roots of the "Landshark" at Ole Miss date back to 2008. After four straight losing seasons, the Rebel football team returned to national prominence with a 9-4 record and a victory over 7th-ranked Texas Tech in the Cotton Bowl. Leading the charge was a defensive squad that ranked fourth in the nation in rushing defense and included All-Americans Peria Jerry and Greg Hardy and eventual All-SEC standout Jerrell Powe.

The term "Landshark" originated that season from senior linebacker Tony Fein, an Army veteran who served a one-year tour in the Iraq War before arriving in Oxford. A two-year letterman after transferring from Scottsdale (Ariz.) Community College, Fein was the 2008 recipient of the Pat Tillman Award by the Military Order of the Purple Heart. Fein passed away in October 2009, but his legacy at Ole Miss continues through the "Landshark."

HOTTY TODDY

Are You Ready?
Hell Yeah! Damn Right!
Hotty Toddy, Gosh Almighty,
Who The Hell Are We? Hey!
Flim Flam, Bim Bam
Ole Miss By Damn!

OLE MISS HOSTS RACIAL RECONCILIATION WEEK

Ole Miss Athletics is teaming up with the University of Mississippi, the William Winter Institute for Racial Reconciliation, local churches, Fellowship of Christian Athletes and Mission Mississippi to promote racial equality through a weeklong Racial Reconciliation Week this Tuesday-Saturday. Highlights from the week include an integrated church service, two panel discussions and the Mission Mississippi cross arriving in Oxford. In addition, Ole Miss has invited Nathaniel Northington Sr., the first African-American football player in the SEC, to share his story with student-athletes. Northington broke the "color barrier" by becoming the first African-American to play any sport in the SEC when Kentucky played Ole Miss in Lexington, Ky., in 1967.

1963 SEC CHAMPS TO BE HONORED

The 1963 Ole Miss football team that captured the Rebels' sixth SEC title will be honored during Saturday's game. The '63 team earned the league title with a 5-0-1 SEC record, while finishing 7-1-2 overall. Members of that 1963 team will return to campus for a special 50-year team reunion this weekend.

- Scott currently ranks seventh in the SEC in rushing (84.8 ypg) and ninth in all-purpose yards (119.6 ypg).
- Among the league's top 15 rushers, his 8.7 yards-per-carry is the best.
- If he had enough punt returns to qualify, he would lead the league with his 19.6-yard return average.
- Scott ripped the Texas Longhorns for a career-high 164 rushing yards and a career-high 243 all-purpose yards ... He also returned a punt 73 yards for a touchdown and was named SEC Special Teams Player of the Week.

Previously known as the Indoor Practice Facility, Ole Miss announced on Friday, Sept. 6, that the newly renovated home of Ole Miss Football will now be known as the Olivia and Archie Manning Athletics Performance Center. The announcement was made at the premiere of the ESPN Films documentary, The Book of Manning, at the Gertrude C. Ford Center for the Performing Arts on the Ole Miss campus. # HEAD COACH HUGH FREEZE

A Mississippi native, inspirational leader and one of the nation's top rising coaches, Hugh Freeze was the first choice to return championships to Ole Miss Football and was introduced as the Rebels' 37th head coach on December 5, 2011.

He certainly is off to a good start.

Inheriting a team that won just two games in 2011 and had lost 14 straight Southeastern Conference games, Freeze led Ole Miss to seven wins in 2012, including three SEC victories, and the team's first bowl berth since 2009.

A month after the Rebels capped the season with a 38-17 win over Pittsburgh in the BBVA Compass Bowl, Ole Miss was the talk of National Signing Day when Freeze and Co. landed a consensus top-10 class that was ranked as high as No. 2 by 247Sports and No. 5 by ESPN - the highest recorded signing class rankings in school history.

Freeze is the sixth head coach in program history to direct his team to a bowl appearance in his first season. The Rebels' seven wins could have been even more had they not lost three tight SEC games (Texas A&M, Vanderbilt, at LSU) by a combined 10 points.

The Rebel offense saw a dramatic turnaround under Freeze in 2012. With many of the same players, he took a team that had ranked at or near the bottom of the SEC in every statistical category in 2011 to rank top five in the league and top 50 in the nation in scoring, total offense and passing.

The 2012 Rebels soared up the school record books and cracked the top four single-season totals in scoring, total offense and passing.

Under Freeze's watch, sophomore quarterback Bo Wallace and sophomore receiver Donte Moncrief posted some of the best numbers in school history. Wallace became the only Ole Miss quarterback not named Eli Manning to eclipse 3,000 total yards in a season, while Moncrief's 10 receiving touchdowns tied for the school's single-season record and his 979 receiving yards were the second-most in a season in school history.

Freeze has led a resurgence in team attitude and effort that extends to the defensive side of the ball, as well. An undersized, but feisty Rebel D finished first among SEC teams and fourth nationally in tackles for loss (7.9/game) and second in the SEC and 11th nationally in sacks (2.9/game).

Freeze, a noted speaker and recruiter throughout his career, has enjoyed success at nearly every coaching level over the past 18 years, from high school to NAIA to FBS, and each stop has featured a high-scoring offense and the ability to motivate young people. Before returning to Oxford, the former Ole Miss assistant experienced a record-setting run at Arkansas State.

With Freeze as head coach in 2011, the Red Wolves captured the Sun Belt Conference championship and became just the third school in Sun Belt history to finish undefeated in league play with a perfect 8-0 mark. The 10-2 overall record marked the program's first 10-win season since 1986, when ASU was a member of the I-AA Southland Conference.

In the best debut season ever by an A-State head coach, Freeze became just the 14th FBS first-year head coach to win 10 regular season games. He also returned ASU to a bowl game for the first time since 2005. He was named Sun Belt Coach of the Year, while 13 of his pupils earned all-conference honors, including both the Offensive Player of the Year in junior quarterback Ryan Aplin and the Defensive Player of the Year in senior lineman Brandon Joiner.

Freeze's first season in Jonesboro saw him serve as Arkansas State's offensive coordinator, guiding the Red Wolves' offense to a record-breaking year in 2010.

Prior to his arrival at Arkansas State, Freeze compiled a 20-5 record over the 2008 and 2009 seasons at the helm of the Lambuth University football program.

Prior to taking over as head coach at Lambuth, Freeze served on the Ole Miss staff from 2005-07, including the final two seasons as an assistant coach. He originally arrived in Oxford as Assistant Athletics Director for External Affairs before being named the Rebels' recruiting coordinator and tight ends coach before the 2006 season.

LAST MEETING: TEXAS A&M 30, OLE MISS 27

Game #6 • Oct. 6, 2012
Attendance: 55,343 • Vaught-Hemingway Stadium • Oxford, Miss.

OXFORD, Miss. - On a chilly Saturday evening at Vaught-Hemingway Stadium, the Ole Miss Rebels fell in heartbreaking fashion, 30-27, to Texas A&M. Ole Miss (3-3, 0-2 Southeastern Conference) led by 10 points in the fourth quarter against the Aggies, but couldn't hold on to the victory.

Leading by four points with just over three minutes remaining in the game, Ole Miss had possession of the ball and faced a fourth-and-1 opportunity from its own 39-yard line. Already two-for-two for the game, the Rebels went for it again, but junior running back Jeff Scott was stopped at the line of scrimmage and Texas A&M (4-1, 2-1 SEC) took over on downs.

The Aggies wasted little time with the ball, converting on their fourth play from scrimmage with a 20-yard touchdown pass from Johnny Manziel to Ryan Swope in the back left corner of the endzone.

Ole Miss took a 27-17 lead, its largest of the game, when Bo Wallace hit wide receiver Donte Moncrief for a four-yard touchdown. Ole Miss began the drive with optimal field position on the Texas A&M five-yard line after the Aggies had a muffed punt return that was recovered by the Rebels. Moncrief has a touchdown reception in five of the Rebels' six games this season.

After nearly getting tackled for a safety, Texas A&M regrouped to drive 99 yards for a touchdown, but after missing the extra point attempt, Ole Miss still led by four points at 27-23.

Ole Miss drove the ball 23 yards on the ensuing possession before facing fourth-and-1 from its own 39-yard line. The Rebels chose to go for it on fourth down, but were stopped at the line of scrimmage and gave up possession on downs to Texas A&M with 3:02 on the clock.

Wallace finished with a season-high 305 yards passing for Ole Miss. The Ole Miss defense caused a season-high six turnovers on the evening against a Texas A&M offense that had only turned the ball over once all season. It was the fourth time in six games the Ole Miss offense has accumulated at least 450 yards.

LAST GAME: AUBURN 30, #24 OLE MISS 22

Game #5 • Oct. 5, 2013
Attendance: 86,504 • Jordan-Hare Stadium • Auburn, Ala.

AUBURN, Ala. - The No. 24 ranked Ole Miss Rebels had a chance late in the fourth quarter down one possession against Auburn, but the comeback fell short, as the Tigers held on for a 30-22 win at Jordan-Hare Stadium Saturday night.

Nick Marshall ran for 140 yards and two touchdowns, and Robenson Therezie scored on a 78-yard interception return to lead Auburn to its first win over a top 25 team in two years.

Marshall's second scoring run gave Auburn a 27-9 lead in the third quarter. The Tigers lost two turnovers in the fourth quarter to help the Ole Miss comeback attempt.

Ole Miss was held to only three field goals before Bo Wallace threw a 49-yard touchdown pass to Donte Moncrief in the third quarter and added a 12-yard scoring pass to Moncrief midway through the fourth quarter.

The Rebels fell to 3-2 overall and 1-2 in the SEC as they get set to return home to the friendly confines of Vaught-Hemingway Stadium for their next six games.

OLE MISS 39, VANDERBILT 35

Game #1 • Aug. 29, 2013
Attendance: 40,350 • Vanderbilt Stadium • Nashville, Tenn.

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP) - Jeff Scott scored on a 75-yard touchdown run with 1:07 left, and Ole Miss rallied twice to beat Vanderbilt 39-35 in a wild season opener for both teams.

Vanderbilt went up 35-32 on a 34-yard TD pass from Austyn Carta-Samuels to Stephen Scheu with 1:30 left. But Scott beat the Commodores for a TD and the fourth lead change.

Vanderbilt had a final chance to extend the Southeastern Conference's longest winning streak, but Cody Prewitt intercepted a pass off Jordan Matthews' hands with 26 seconds left. That allowed the Rebels to snap a three-game skid to Vanderbilt.

Bo Wallace keyed the Rebels' rally from 11 points down running for two touchdowns and connecting with highly touted freshman Laquon Treadwell for the 2-point conversion. Wallace tied a career high with 31 completions on 47 attempts for 283 yards.

Treadwell showed why he was the nation's top-rated high school receiver last year with a college debut of nine catches for 82 yards, the most catches by an Ole Miss Rebel since Mike Espy had nine against Auburn in 2005. Freshman tight end Evan Engram had a strong college debut with five catches for 61 yards.

The Commodores gave up 29 points in the second half, their most since allowing 20 to Florida in their last loss Oct. 13.

Scott posted his eighth career 100-yard game with 138 yards on 12 carries, including the sensational 75-yard sprint for the winning touchdown.

OLE MISS 31, SOUTHEAST MISSOURI 13

Game #2 • Sept. 7, 2013
Attendance: 60,815 • Vaught-Hemingway Stadium • Oxford, Miss.

OXFORD, Miss. - Playing in front of a sellout crowd of 60,815 in its home opener, the Ole Miss football team (2-0) raced out to a 31-0 lead by halftime, and cruised to a 31-13 victory over Southeast Missouri (0-2) at Vaught-Hemingway Stadium.

Junior quarterback Bo Wallace passed for 188 yards and two touchdowns in the first half and rested in the second half as senior quarterback Barry Brunetti took over. In his place, Brunetti rushed for a career-high 111 yards, including a four-yard scamper up the middle with 3:06 to play in the first quarter, giving the Rebels a 10-0 lead. Brunetti's touchdown rush was his third of the season, matching his season total from a year ago.

While Ole Miss head coach Hugh Freeze was pleased with his team's victory, he also wished the Rebels had finished a bit stronger in the second half.

Starting in place of injured preseason All-SEC linebacker Denzel Nkemdiche, junior linebacker Serderius Bryant had a fantastic game, recording a career- and team-high 15 tackles, including a career- and team-high eight solo tackles. Junior free safety Cody Prewitt grabbed his second interception of the season, and sophomore defensive back Chief Brown had his second career fumble recovery.

Following a 37-yard field goal by senior kicker Andrew Ritter and Brunetti's aforementioned touchdown run, the Rebels used the long ball to put points on the board in a hurry.

Wallace connected with freshman tight end Evan Engram down the left sideline for a 64-yard touchdown with 1:06 to play in the first quarter, and then hit junior wide receiver Donte Moncrief for a 67-yard touchdown pass with 13:03 to play in the second quarter, giving the Rebels a 24-0 lead.

Sophomore running back I'Tavius Mathers closed out the Ole Miss scoring with a nifty 10-yard rush on his second carry of the season. Mathers finished the game with 56 yards on four carries after missing the Rebels' season opener at Vanderbilt with an ankle injury.

Ole Miss' 31-point lead at halftime was its largest since holding a 31-0 halftime lead over Mississippi State on Nov. 28, 2008.

#25 OLE MISS 44, TEXAS 23

Game #3 • Sept. 14, 2013
Attendance: 101,474 • Royal-Texas Memorial Stadium • Austin, Texas

AUSTIN, Texas - Senior running back Jeff Scott ran for a career-high 164 yards and had a 73-yard punt return for a touchdown as Ole Miss scored 30 unanswered points to run past Texas 44-23 in front of the third-largest crowd (101, 474) at DKR Stadium.

With the win, the Rebels improved to 3-0 for the first time since 1989.

Bo Wallace passed for two touchdowns and ran another for the Rebels, who led 14-0 midway through the first quarter before Texas scored 23 straight points.

The Rebels rallied when Andrew Ritter kicked a 52-yard field goal on the last play of the first half and Wallace directed consecutive touchdown drives in the third quarter. Scott eluded six tacklers on a weaving, cross-field touchdown return that put the Rebels ahead 37-23 late in the third.

Scott recorded his ninth 100-yard rushing game, second of the year, and moved into a tie for ninth on the Rebels' all-time rushing TDs list with his 17th career rushing score (5-yarder in the first quarter). Scott also set a career high with 243 all-purpose yards, which is tied for the 10th-most in a game in school history.

Texas, which gave up 550 yards rushing a week earlier in a loss to BYU, surrendered 272 on the ground to Ole Miss. The Rebels eclipsed 250 rushing yards for the second straight game (272 vs. SEMO) and have posted 200-plus rushing yards in all three games.

The Rebel defense shut out the Longhorns in the second half and allowed UT to convert only 4-of-15 3rd-down attempts and 1-of-3 4th-down tries in the game. Junior linebacker Serderius Bryant led the Rebels with 11 tackles (six solo), his second straight double-digit performance. He also had a career-high 3.0 TFLs as the Landshark defense produced a season-high nine tackles for loss against the Longhorns.

Dating back to last season, this was Ole Miss' fifth consecutive victory. The Rebels' five-game winning streak is their longest since an eight-game streak between the 2008 and 2009 seasons.

#1 ALABAMA 25, #21 OLE MISS 0

Game #4 • Sept. 28, 2013
Attendance: 101,821 • Bryant-Denny Stadium • Tuscaloosa, Ala.

TUSCALOOSA, Ala. - For most of the game, No. 21 ranked Ole Miss' defense held their own against No. 1 Alabama, but the offense could not get anything going, as the Crimson Tide won 25-0 at Bryant-Denny Stadium.

T.J. Yeldon rushed for 121 yards, Kenyan Drake gained 99 and a dominating defense powered No. 1 Alabama.

Yeldon scored on a 68-yard run and Drake added a 50-yard scamper to revive a struggling running game for the Crimson Tide (4-0, 2-0 Southeastern Conference), which outgained the Rebels 434-205.

Ole Miss (3-1, 1-1) was seeking its first 4-0 start in 43 years but instead was shut out for the first time since Arkansas did it in November 1998.

AJ McCarron completed 25 of 32 passes for 180 yards with an interception for Alabama, which came in ranked last in the league in rushing. Alabama was held to 36 rushing yards in building a 9-0 halftime lead but gained another 218 on the ground in the second half.

Bo Wallace was 17-of-30 passing for 159 yards for the Rebels.

The Rebels' fast-paced offense came in averaging 38 points and 490 yards, but never got going and managed just 46 yards on 25 rushes. Alabama's C.J. Mosley made a tackle in the end zone in the fourth quarter for a safety, and Drake's 50-yarder came on the next play.

Jeff Scott, who was averaging 110 yards a game and 9.4 per carry, was held to 28 yards on eight attempts.

Seeking more respect nationally, Ole Miss trailed just 9-0 at halftime. Alabama's offense repeatedly stalled but Cade Foster hit field goals of 28, 42 and a career-long 53 yards.

The Rebels had several gambles fail, converting just 1 of 4 fourth-down tries.

They had a chance to close the gap early in the fourth quarter when Cody Prewitt intercepted McCarron's pass at the Alabama 31. It was Prewitt's third interception of the season, placing him among the national leaders.

The Rebels made it to the 13 and got another shot thanks to a false start before Wallace's fourth-and-5 pass fell incomplete. Coach Hugh Freeze went for it again, but Deion Belue broke up the throw headed toward the goal line.

Game #5 • Oct. 5, 2013
Attendance: 86,504 • Jordan-Hare Stadium • Auburn, Ala.

AUBURN, Ala. - The No. 24 ranked Ole Miss Rebels had a chance late in the fourth quarter down one possession against Auburn, but the comeback fell short, as the Tigers held on for a 30-22 win at Jordan-Hare Stadium Saturday night.

Nick Marshall ran for 140 yards and two touchdowns, and Robenson Therezie scored on a 78-yard interception return to lead Auburn to its first win over a top 25 team in two years.

Marshall's second scoring run gave Auburn a 27-9 lead in the third quarter. The Tigers lost two turnovers in the fourth quarter to help the Ole Miss comeback attempt.

Ole Miss was held to only three field goals before Bo Wallace threw a 49-yard touchdown pass to Donte Moncrief in the third quarter and added a 12-yard scoring pass to Moncrief midway through the fourth quarter.

The Rebels fell to 3-2 overall and 1-2 in the SEC as they get set to return home to the friendly confines of Vaught-Hemingway Stadium for their next six games.

Ole Miss will face Texas A&M and last year's Heisman Trophy winner Johnny Manziel, next Saturday night at 7:30 p.m. on ESPN.
