QUICK HITS

- The Texans will play their sixth Power Four opponent of the season after falling to UT Arlington at home, losing the series 3-0.
- The Texans are bringing back 13 returners from last year's WAC championship squad.
- Freshman Rayner Heinrich was named WAC Player of the Week two weeks ago, becoming the first freshman in program history to receive a WAC weekly award.
- The Texans were ranked fourth in the WAC Preseason Poll prior to the 2025 season despite winning the conference championship in 2024. They currently rank seventh across the WAC with a 3-6 conference record.
- Slade McCloud is the first and only Texan to register 45 or more hits so far this season. He leads the team with 49.
- Tyson Drake leads the team in home runs (10), RBIs (35) and runs (45). He had two home runs and seven RBIs against Lamar last Tuesday.
- Out of 42 players on the roster, Tarleton has eight freshmen and 21 transfers.
- This will be Parrish Beagle's fourth appearance against a Power Four opponent but only his first start. Beagle has put together two scoreless appearances this season against both Kansas and Kansas State.
- A&M is coming off a historic victory against South Carolina where they hit back-to-back home runs in the ninth inning.
- Slade McCloud was named WAC Player of the Week during opening week. The senior tallied 11 hits, 8 runs, 6 steals and 3 RBIs in four games against Butler.
- Tarleton State notched a 31-5 win against Butler on opening week, marking their biggest victory as an NCAA Divsion I program.
- Tarleton has stolen 78 bases this season, averaging over two steals per game.
- Following their midweek matchup against the Aggies, Tarleton State will head to Orem, Utah for a three-game conference series against the Utah Valley Wolverines.
- Brian Panneton leads all Texan pitchers with 41 strikeouts in 43.2 innings of wo.

WEEKEND RECAP

- The Purple and White played their third conference series of the year against the UT Arlington Mavericks, losing all three games over the course of the weekend.
- Freshman Rayner Heinrich tallied his first collegiate home run on Saturday, followed by another deep shot on Sunday to tie the series finale up at 13-13 in the ninth inning.
- Sergio Guerra appeared in two games over the weekend, totalling four hits in 10 at bats along with two home runs. The senior now has four home runs in his last four games.
- Senior center fielder Lane Brewster notched a hit in all three games of the weekend slate,.
- Carson Lorch set a personal single-game high with three hits on Sunday afternoon.

SERIES HISTORY

- The Aggies lead the all-time series, 4-0.
- All four games have been played in College Station.
- Texas A&M's largest margin of victory came on a 10-6 win in 2024.
- Last time these two squads faced off, Ike Shirey tallied two hits and a team-high two RBIs.
- The Texans have scored 19 runs across four games at Blue Bell Park.

OPPONENT SCOUTING REPORT

- Texas A&M is currently on a six-game win streak, including a series win against former No. 1 Tennessee.
- The Aggies tallied back-to-back grand slams on Sunday, achieving a historic 15-12 comeback victory over South Carolina.
- Gavin Lyons (probable starter for Tuesday) has an ERA of 0.84 across 10.2 innings of work.
- The Aggies have two players batting over .300.
- Terrence Kier II leads the team with a .352, followed by Wyatt Henseler who is batting a .312.
- Kier II is the only Aggie to register 40 or more hits this season. He holds a team-high 44.
- Jace LaViolette ranks first on the team leaderboard with 10 home runs and 39 RBIs.

TYSON LEADS THE TEXANS

- With a triple against UIW last Wednesday, Tyson Drake currently ranks second across all of NCAA Division I Baseball with seven triples.
- Drake is the only Texan to register 40 or more runs this season. He leads the team with 45.
- The junior recently broke his career high for home runs in a single season, notching his 10th homer on April 5th against Seattle U.
- Drake has two games this season with seven or more RBIs. He leads Tarleton State with 35 across the entire season.

SLADE'S SENIOR YEAR

- Slade McCloud has put together quite the senior campaign in 2025, becoming the first and only Texan to register 45 or more hits this season.
- McCloud leads the team in batting percentage (.338) and total hits (49).
- McCloud is one of three players to start every game for the Purple and White this season.
- During Tarleton State's opening week, McCloud became the first Texan since Feb. 2024 to win a conference Player of the Week award. The senior tallied 11 hits, 8 runs, 6 steals and 3 RBIs in four games against Butler.
- McCloud leads the Texans in steals with 11.

NOTES

THE FULLER SMITH FILE

Smith's first season was an immense success, taking the Texans to a conference tournament title in Tarleton State's final year of reclassification, as his team became the first baseball program to win a conference tournament title by a reclassifying D1 institution. The Texans won the WAC Tournament in Mesa, Arizona, on May 25, as 5-seed Tarleton State knocked off 4-seed California Baptist in dominant fashion 9-1 in a winner-take-all nightcap at Hohokam Stadium. This marked the third conference tournament championship by the Texans in their NCAA era (2018, 2014), and they became the first team to win the WAC Tournament in a team's inaugural appearance since UTSA did so in 2013.

Tarleton State posted their most postseason wins since 1992, going 5-1 throughout the WAC Tournament, all of this with a first-year head coach, Smith. From 2023-24, Smith won back-to-back WAC Tournaments. He was an assistant coach at Sam Houston in 2023 when the Bearkats won it all. In 2024, Tarleton State was one of just two programs nationwide to win their final game of the season in the postseason, along with Tennessee, who won the College World Series.

The Texans finished 32-29 after their WAC Tournament championship, their most wins in a season since 2018 (35). Smith earned his first victory as the skipper in the team's season opener, a 9-4 win at Southeastern Louisiana on Feb. 26. His first series win in a series three-plus games was a four-game sweep at home against Northern Colorado on Feb. 23-25. Altogether under Smith, Tarleton State posted their most wins in the Division I era, their most wins since 2018, and the most wins by a first year Tarleton State head baseball coach since 1988 (37).

HOW THE TEXANS STACK UP AMONG THE NATION

- Rayner Heinrich ranks 21st among all of NCAA Division I Baseball with 0.45 doubles per game.
- Jaime Perez is the sixth toughest batter to strike out in NCAA Division I, averaging one strikeout per every 19.3 at bats.
- Tyson Drake ranks second in the nation with seven triples.
- Drake ranks T-3 for most home runs in a single game. The junior slugger had three home runs against Butler on Feb. 15, 2024 en route to Tarleton State's largest victory as a Division I program, 31-5.

SERGIO CONTINUES TO SHINE

- Sergio Guerra extended his hit streak to 11 straight games this weekend, marking the longest hit streak on the team this season.
- Guerra has four home runs in his last four games. The senior ranks second among the Texans with six home runs on the year.

NEXT UP

- Following their midweek matchup against the Aggies, Tarleton State will head to Orem, Utah for a three-game conference series against the Utah Valley Wolverines.

ABOUT TARLETON

With its main campus in Stephenville, an hour southwest of Fort Worth, Tarleton State University offers the value of a Texas A&M University System degree with its own brand of personal attention, individual opportunities, history, tradition and community.

Tarleton is a vibrant learning community with nearly 100 undergraduate and graduate degrees, as well as a doctorate in education, within seven academic colleges – Agriculture and Natural Resources, Business, Education and Human Development, Graduate Studies, Health Sciences and Human Services, Liberal and Fine Arts, and Science and Technology. Tarleton has extended the reach of state-supported, affordable education by expanding online undergraduate and graduate programs and classes in Waco, Midlothian, and Fort Worth.

Recent additions to the main Stephenville campus include a state-of-the-art Nursing Building, and a new $25 million living and learning residence hall for 500 students. Tarleton's research centers include the renowned Texas Institute for Applied Environmental Research and the Southwest Regional Dairy Center.

ABOUT STEPHENVILLE

Tarleton State University offers the value of a Texas A&M University System degree with its own brand of personal attention, individual opportunities, history, traditions and real community.

Located in the heart of Stephenville and encompassing a 173-acre main campus just an hour southwest of Fort Worth, Tarleton is one of the best university values in Texas and the perfect place for students to begin a future.

Tarleton offers the resources of a major public university, including more than 65 undergraduate programs, more than 20 graduate programs and a doctor of education degree, as well as cutting edge academic facilities and faculty experts with extensive university and industry experience – all with the personal attention, warmth and faculty interaction expected from a smaller college.

ABOUT TARLETON SPIRIT GROUPS

TTP AND TTS – Formed when Tarleton was a junior college, the Ten Tarleton Peppers (TTP) and Ten Tarleton Sisters (TTS) are the two oldest organizations on campus. These spirit organizations for men and women were formed in 1921 and 1923, respectively. New members of these secret organizations are selected by current members. When first organized, the two groups met late at night and prepared signs for upcoming athletic events. The basic signs at this time were made of canvas and were stretched between trees on campus. The clubs met in the attic of the old recreation hall, which is now the Administration Annex. The identities of the senior members were Disclosed in group photos when the yearbooks were Distributed. Senior members stood facing the camera while others faced away from the camera with various and sundry items placed over their heads. The groups are sponsored by faculty and staff members.

PURPLE POO – The TTS and TTP were precursors of the modern Purple Poo. The still-secret organization makes Poo signs each Monday night, which appear on campus every Tuesday morning. The signs occasionally comment on campus political life and student life, but most promote school spirit. These signs are nailed to trees on campus. Members appear in public dressed in costumes and identity is closely guarded.

THE PLOWBOYS – In 1984, a group of interested students established a spirit organization on campus and re-adopted the name "Plowboys," which was the former mascot of the athletic teams. The Plowboys attend athletic events and other campus activities and are familiar to students because of their white shirts, hats and purple chaps.

OSCAR P – Legend has it that John Tarleton, founder of the university, had a pet duck named Oscar P who went everywhere with him. The two were so close that Oscar P is said to be buried with Tarleton. At various student activities, the Purple Poo rally Tarleton students by raising the spirit of Oscar P. This is done by kneeling and pounding the ground while calling out "Hey, Oscar P." Although this has become one of the favorite traditions, there is no evidence to verify the story.

P.A.N.K.U.S. – The P.A.N.K.U.S. acronym stands for People Against Not Knowing University Spirit. People Against Not Knowing University Spirit is an organization, who embraces the Spirit and Traditions of Tarleton. P.A.N.K.U.S. was established at Tarleton in November 2001 and has grown into one of the biggest spirit organizations for students. Their purpose is to be an organization that involves students in spirit activities and events at Tarleton State University.
