NO. 8 TEXAS A&M HOSTS OKLAHOMA STATE ON SENIOR NIGHT AT REED ARENA

GAME PREVIEW

It's hard to believe that another four years have passed and the Texas A&M women's basketball program will once again bid farewell to one of the greatest senior classes to ever don the Maroon and White. Starks, Gant and Micheaux. Three names that have been synonymous with putting Aggie Basketball on the national map over the last four years leading A&M to back-to-back Big 12 Conference Championship titles and three-straight NCAA Tournament appearances including a historic Elite Eight run in 2008. No other senior class has accomplished as many milestones in a four-year span as the Class of '09. The eighth-ranked Aggies (22-5, 10-4) host Oklahoma State (15-12, 4-10) on Senior Night scheduled for Thursday, March 5 at Reed Arena. Their home regular-season finale with the Cowgirls will tipoff at 7 p.m. (CT) on Fox Sports Net. A&M is riding a four-game winning streak in league play including its second-ever road victory at No. 15 Kansas State (71-45) to start off the month of March on a high note. The Aggies will look to continue to make some noise by defending their home court well this season. They have won 18 of their last 19 contests in the friendly confines of Reed Arena where they have been successful in their last three regular-season home games over Iowa State in 2006, archrival Texas to claim the program's first-ever conference title in 2007 and a then No. 10-ranked Oklahoma squad in 2008.

A LOOK AT THE COWGIRLS

Oklahoma State has lost two of its last three contests by narrow margins including a 73-63 loss to No. 2 Oklahoma in the Bedlam rivalry series on Feb. 28 and a 74-70 decision to Texas Tech on Feb. 21. In fact, nine of the Cowgirls' 14 league games have been decided by 10 points or less. OSU is looking to salvage a season in which they posted an 11-2 record against non-conference opponents and went 14-5 in its first six games of the Big 12 slate. The Cowgirls' star point guard Andrea Riley is averaging a team-leading 23.9 points per game which also ranks second nationally as of March 1. Similar to A&M's last opponent in Kansas State, Oklahoma State handles the ball well averaging only 13.9 turnovers per game which ranks among the top 10 in the land.

ON THE TUBE

Texas A&M will make its fourth-straight appearance on national television against OSU. Play-by-play announcer Kevin Eschenfelder and color analyst Brenda VanLengen will call the action live from Reed Arena on Fox Sports Net. The game will be carried live on Fox Sports Detroit, Fox Sports Florida (non Florida Panthers), Fox Sports Midwest, Fox Sports North, FSN Northwest, Fox Sports Ohio (non Blue Jackets), FSN Rocky Mountain, Fox Sports Southwest (Texas and Oklahoma only), Fox Sports Houston (Texas only), Fox Sports West, Fox Sports Wisconsin, Comcast Chicago, Comcast New England and SportSouth. A delayed broadcast will be televised on Fox Sports Arizona.

INSIDE THE SERIES

Oklahoma State leads 20-16 in the all-time series with Texas A&M. The Aggies have won 10 out of the last 11 meetings between the two schools dating back to a 65-52 win on Feb. 4, 2004 in College Station. OSU's only win in that particular stretch was a 61-58 victory sparked by a last-second three-pointer by Andrea Riley on Jan. 19, 2008 in College Station. A&M will be looking for its fifth-ever series sweep of the Cowgirls having done so in 1996-97, 2004-05, 2005-06 and 2006-07.

OSU REWIND

Danielle Gant turned in her fourth double-double of the season with a game-high 22 points and 12 rebounds to lead No. 7 Texas A&M to a 60-50 road victory at No. 24 Oklahoma State before a crowd of 4,568 at historic Gallagher-Iba Arena on Jan. 24. Senior All-America candidate Takia Starks added 15 as the Aggies snapped a two-game losing skid in Big 12 Conference play by surviving a late comeback attempt led by Oklahoma State's Andrea Riley, who turned in 21 points despite a 4-of-19 shooting performance from the floor versus A&M's pressure defense. Riley brought the Cowgirls back within one, 51-50, after her fourth-straight free throw with 1:23 to go in regulation, but the Aggies went 9-for-10 from the charity stripe and held OSU scoreless the rest of the way for their fifth-straight win in Stillwater. A&M has now won 10-of-11 in the series, including a win in the Big 12 Conference championship game in 2008. For the game, the Aggies held OSU to a season-low 22.9 percent shooting from the floor and outrebounded the Cowgirls, 49-37, including a 12-rebound effort by senior center La Toya Micheaux.

BEST OF THE BEST

Four seniors will be taking part in their final home game on Thursday night at Reed Arena including Takia Starks (Houston, Texas), Danielle Gant (Oklahoma City, Okla.), La Toya Micheaux (Missouri City, Texas) and former walk-on Kiley Finstad (Cranfills Gap, Texas). During their four-year careers, Texas A&M earned a program-best No. 3 national ranking, four consecutive 20-win seasons and four-straight 10-win seasons in league play under head coach Gary Blair. No other senior class has posted four consecutive 20-win campaigns or ever made four-straight NCAA Tournament appearances in the 35-year history of the women's basketball program at A&M.

IN YOUR FACE D

The Texas A&M defense has forced its last three-straight opponents to turn over the ball more than 20 times in a ballgame. Texas (29), Oklahoma (29) and Kansas State (23) each had season-highs in the turnover department against the Aggies for a combined 81. A&M currently leads the league in turnover margin (+6.9) with opponents averaging 22.8 miscues per game.

ONE FISH, TWO FISH, MAROON FISH

For the second time this season, freshman Sydney Carter was named Phillips 66 Big 12 Conference Freshman of the Week on March 2. It marked the sixth time an Aggie Fish received the honor next to preseason Big 12 Frosh of the Year Tyra White on Nov. 17 and Adaora Elonu on three occasions on Nov. 24, Dec. 8 and Dec. 22. Carter shot a career-best 70 percent (7-of-10) from the floor with a trio of three-pointers to tie a career-high of 17 points to lead A&M to its second-ever road victory at No. 15 Kansas State on March 1. For the week, She averaged 14.0 points, 2.0 steals, 2.0 assists and a 4.00 assist-to-turnover ratio off the bench against Oklahoma and the Wildcats combined. Freshman Kelsey Assarian also turned in a career-high with eight points off the bench at K-State on 4-of-5 shooting from the floor. This year's freshman class has contributed to 27 percent of the team's scoring production this season as White, Elonu, Carter and Assarian have been a part of A&M's 10-player rotation.

AGGIE SIDEBARS

- Texas A&M head coach Gary Blair is 17-6 lifetime versus Oklahoma State in his 24 years as a Division I head coach. He is 9-3 against the Cowgirls since his arrival in Aggieland in 2003-04. Blair and Oklahoma State head coach Kurt Budke are both disciples of Hall of Fame Louisiana Tech head coach and current Baylor assistant coach Leon Barmore. Blair served as a La. Tech assistant coach from 1980-85, while Budke was an associate head coach from 2000-02 and took over the storied Lady Techster program from 2002-05 after Barmore's retirement.

- Coach Blair was first introduced to Oklahoma State's Andrea Riley when she was three-five years old and her father, Roosevelt Riley, Jr., worked Blair's Stephen F. Austin basketball camps in Nacogdoches. Blair says Mr. Riley, a former BCI coach in the Dallas area, was one of the first coaches who was very instrumental in starting up summer basketball for inner city youth. He now serves as a bodyguard for Dallas Cowboys owner Jerry Jones.

- The Aggies are winners of their last four in league play including three consecutive victories over a ranked opponent in No. 21 Texas on Feb. 21, No. 2 Oklahoma on Feb. 23 and No. 15 Kansas State on March 1. It marked only the second time in school history in which A&M has beaten back-to-back-to-back top 25 opponents next to the last three games of the regular season versus No. 17 OSU, No. 8 Baylor and No. 10 OU in 2007-08.

THERE'S NO PLACE LIKE HOME

The Aggies have protected their home court well over the last four seasons with an unprecedented 56-5 (.918) overall success rate at Reed Arena. They have compiled a 12-1 record at home this season including a season-high 49-point blowout of Texas State (94-45) on Dec. 13 and a league-high 43-rout of Nebraska (86-43) on Feb. 8.

JUST THE 10 OF US

The Aggies turned in their fourth-straight 10-win campaign and fourth overall since the league's inception in 1996-97. They have a compiled an unprecedented four-year league record of 45-17 (.726) to date. A&M is among a select few teams who have turned in four consecutive 10-win seasons since 2006 including Oklahoma (53-9) and Baylor (46-16). With this in mind, A&M seniors Takia Starks, Danielle Gant and La Toya Micheaux have led their team to the third-most wins in the last four years against league foes, behind OU seniors Courtney Paris, Ashley Paris and Carolyn Winchester and BU seniors Rachel Allison, Jhasmin Player and Jessica Morrow.

MOVE TO THE HEAD OF THE CLASS

Since their arrival on campus, the 2009 Senior Class has led the Aggies to an impressive 99-29 (.773) overall record to date. The impact that Takia Starks, Danielle Gant and La Toya Micheaux have made on the A&M women's basketball program has surpassed the 2008 Senior Class and their overall record of 93-39 (.705) during their four-year careers to move to the head of all senior classes in school history. That memorable class included current WNBA players Morenike Atunrase (San Antonio Silver Stars) and A'Quonesia Franklin (Sacramento Monarchs) as well as Patrice Reado, current athletic assistant Katy Pounds and LaToya Gulley.

20-20 VISION

The Aggies turned in in their fourth consecutive 20-win season under head coach Gary Blair and ninth all-time in program history with a 76-65 win over Texas on Feb. 21. It marked the first time that A&M has turned in four-straight successful seasons over the 20-win benchmark. Last season, the Aggies put together the most victories in school history with a 29-8 record in 2007-08. Overall, Blair has guided 18 teams combined at Stephen F. Austin (7), Arkansas (7) and A&M (4) to 20-win campaigns. The Aggies finished 24-9 in the inaugural season in 1974-75, 26-18 in 1978-79, 23-8 in 1993-94, 21-9 in 1994-95, 20-12 in 1995-96, 23-9 in 2005-06 and 25-7 in 2006-07.

HOT-SHOOTING AGGIES

Texas A&M shot a season-high 61.0 percent from the floor (36-of-59) and claimed their largest margin of victory (+43) against a Big 12 Conference opponent in school history with an 86-43 rout of Nebraska on Feb. 8. It marked the first time A&M shot better than 60 percent from the field since a 63.8 percent shooting performance against McNeese State on Nov. 21, 2006 in non-conference play. The Aggies have never shot 60 percent or better in a Big 12 game since the league's inception in 1996-97. Their previous high was 54.9 percent against Missouri on Jan. 31, 1998 in regular-season action as well as 57.6 percent versus seventh-seeded Texas in the first round of the Big 12 Tournament in Kansas City on March 3, 1998.

MOVING UP THE CHARTS

Three A&M seniors continue to move up the all-time career charts. Takia Starks ranks second all-time in career scoring with 1,849 points to date, while Danielle Gant is tied for fifth with 1,506 points to date. Starks (735) and Gant (590) also rank first and fourth all-time in field goals made. Starks became the school's all-time leader in career three-pointers made (172) at No. 21 Iowa State on Feb. 4.

AGGIES ON THE RADIO

All Texas A&M women's basketball games can be heard via a radio broadcast on the Texas A&M Sports Network. Play-by-play announcer Mike Wright will call the action live from Reed Arena alongside color analyst Tap Bentz on KZNE 1150 AM. A live audio feed will also be available on www.AggieAthletics.com.

THE TALENTED MISS STARKS

Senior All-America candidate Takia Starks (Houston, Texas) has been consistent in the scoring column throughout Big 12 play. She has reached double figures against all league opponents this season averaging a team-leading 16.9 points per game which is 1.1 more a game than her overall average this season (15.8 ppg). Her biggest game was a season-high 26 points at No. 16 Texas on Jan. 28 and her lowest output during her current 14-game double-digit scoring streak was 11 points in a balanced attack versus Colorado on Feb. 14. Starks turned in her eighth 20-point game of the season at Texas Tech on Feb. 11.

BIG 12 CONFERENCE AT A GLANCE

Texas A&M has clinched one of four top seeds and a first-round bye in the upcoming Phillips 66 Big 12 Women's Basketball Championship on March 12-15 in Oklahoma City. With two games remaining on the regular-season slate, the top six spots in the standings have been decided with league leader Oklahoma (13-1) followed by Baylor (11-3), A&M (10-4), Iowa State (10-5), Kansas State (8-6) and Texas (8-6). The Aggies are playing for a second, third or fourth-place finish in the final league standings. They hold the tiebreaker over the Wildcats and Longhorns, but lost in head-to-head competition to the Cyclones and have one more meeting left with the Lady Bears on March 7.

KANSAS STATE RECAP

Texas A&M 71, Kansas State 45

- For the 10th time this season, Texas A&M used the starting lineup of Sydney Colson, Takia Starks, Tanisha Smith, Danielle Gant and La Toya Micheaux (8-2).
- With the victory, A&M claimed only its second-ever win in Manhattan in seven all-time trips to the Little Apple. Coach Blair also picked up his first-ever win against K-State in Manhattan in four tries in his 24-year coaching career and his first since arriving in Aggieland in 2003-04.
- A&M turned in its fourth-straight 10-win season since the league's inception in 1996-97 and under Blair.
- Takia Starks continues on her double-digit scoring streak through Big 12 Conference play with 15 points at Kansas State for her 14th-straight double-figure game against league opponents.
- Sydney Carter turned in her third double-digit game against Big 12 opponents and fourth overall this season with a game-high 17 points. It marked her league career-high for points ahead of her previous high of 13 points against Nebraska on Feb. 8. It also tied a career-best 17 points against Pepperdine on Nov. 29.
- The Aggies reached 71 points against Kansas State who ranked second in the nation in scoring defense prior to Sunday's contest at 51.7 points per game. It marked the 12th time A&M has reached 70-or-more points in a game this season.
- A&M shot 53.3 percent from the floor (32-of-60) against K-State. It marked the Aggies' second-best shooting percentage of the season against an opponent.
- Freshman Kelsey Assarian came off the bench in relief of A&M's post players in foul trouble and turned in a career-high eight points on 4-of-5 shooting from the field against the Wildcats.
- For the third consecutive game, the A&M defense forced a Big 12 opponent to commit 20-or-more turnovers. Kansas State had a season-high 23 miscues. The Aggies also held the Wildcats to their second-fewest points in the series (45) next to 39 in a 66-39 rout on Jan. 11, 2006 in College Station.

AGGIE NOTABLE QUOTABLES

"When you look at last year's senior class and this year's senior class, these young ladies will be remembered for a long time for what they have accomplished and what our team has accomplished in each of their four-years here at A&M. Four-straight NCAA Tournaments for this year's senior class and three NCAA Tournaments and a WNIT for last year's senior class. Hopefully, you will see their names in the rafters someday, because they built this program into what it is today – a national power." – Texas A&M Head Coach Gary Blair on his last two senior classes

"This senior class is just hungry. We had the opportunity as freshmen to come in and make an impact on this program early. To see where it is all headed now and what we have accomplished is phenomenal. It probably won't sink in until after the season is over that this is it for us. We are so proud to have had a part in building this program from the ground up. We hope people will come out and support us on Thursday for what this team has accomplished this year." – Senior center La Toya Micheaux on the difference between the two senior classes

"It has been a long four years of grinding and hard work. But, it is finally paying off. We are happy to see how far we have come, but it is getting closer to the end of the road. It's not really hitting us right now. With our last game at home on Thursday, I'll probably be a little emotional. We have had a lot of success and we are such a great group playing together. We just want to take it to the end this year. – Senior All-America candidate Takia Starks on this year's senior class being different or special from other classes in the past

"First, we would like to win these next two games (against Oklahoma State and Baylor) and go win the Big 12 Championship in Oklahoma City. That is our main focus right now. Not only that, we want to go further than we did last year (in the NCAA Elite Eight). If we go further than we did last year, then we have improved as a team." – Senior All-America candidate Danielle Gant on what's next after three-straight wins over top 25 opponents

"We just need to have consistency on offense. In the last couple of games, we have had three or four players in double figures and we definitely need to keep that up. On the defensive end, we just need to contain (Andrea) Riley and contain the rest of the OSU players. We know she is going to shoot a lot. We just need to rebound misses and handle our business. It's the last home game of the season, there's a lot of flash about it, but we are focused on the game. If we stick to our game plan, we'll come out with the victory." – Starks on Oklahoma State and what the team needs to do to finish off their Reed Arena run this season

COLLEGE STATION, Texas – In its season opener, No. 10 Texas A&M was too much for Mercer with a 73-45 rout before a crowd of 3,387 fans at Reed Arena.

The Aggies went on a 26-5 run through the first 12 minutes of the contest as Mercer turned over the ball 19 times in the first half alone. A&M took advantage of a 41-15 lead at halftime. It marked the fourth-fewest points scored by an A&M opponent in a half.

Preseason Big 12 Conference Freshman of the Year Tyra White registered a team-high 13 points as the Aggies cleared the bench with all but three players contributing to the final score. Senior All-America candidate Danielle Gant was the only other player to score in doubles figures with 12 to catapult her into the top 10 all-time in career scoring at A&M.

Senior All-America candidate Takia Starks and preseason Big 12 Newcomer of the Year Tanisha Smith added nine apiece, while freshman Adaora Elonu was the team's leading rebounder with eight boards to go along with eight points in her official Aggie debut.

Mercer (0-1) made a comeback in the second half by improving their shooting from the floor to 34.8 percent which resulted in 30 of the team's final 45 points. The Bears were led by Oklahoma State senior transfer Natasha Doh who registered a game-high 15 points.

BATON ROUGE, La. – No. 10 Texas A&M improved to 2-0 on the season with a 56-50 victory over No. 23 Pittsburgh in its first-ever appearance in the State Farm Women's Tip-Off Classic at the Pete Maravich Assembly Center.

After a slow start by both teams, sophomore point guard Sydney Colson came off the bench to spark the Aggie offense scoring seven-straight points including a three to put A&M ahead, 21-20, with 1:24 to go in the first half. Colson, who is coming off surgery on a torn ACL in June, ended the night with 12 points, three assists and two steals in 22 minutes of play.

Pitt's top returning player Shavonte Zellous had two quick fouls in under two minutes of the ballgame, but scored 23 points to lead the Panthers (0-1). She went 3-for-16 from the floor, but was 14-for-16 from the free throw line.

Preseason Big 12 Conference Freshman of the Year Tyra White led the Aggies in the scoring column for the second-straight game with a team-high 13 including back-to-back three-pointers with under eight minutes remaining that stretched A&M's lead out to as many as nine.

The Aggies outrebounded Pitt, 42-37, behind the board work of senior All-America candidate Danielle Gant who had a game-high 13 along with nine points which was just short of a double-double. The win also marked A&M's fourth all-time win over a nationally-ranked opponent in non-conference play.

TUCSON, Ariz. – Senior All-America candidate Danielle Gant turned in her first double-double of the season with a game-high 12 points and 10 rebounds as No. 5 Texas A&M held off Arizona, 54-44, at Lute and Bobbi Olson Court at the McKale Center.

Gant's double-double was the 13th of her career, while A&M set a program milestone with its first-ever road victory in the all-time series versus Arizona (3-2) in Tucson. The win also catapulted the Aggies to one of their best starts in school history with an unblemished 4-0 record which includes three consecutive victories on the road.

After a 9-4 run by Arizona in the opening minutes of the game, A&M stepped up its defensive pressure and took the Wildcats deep into the shot clock on their possessions. Freshman reserve Sydney Carter knocked down a three-pointer at the 9:05 minute mark to relinquish the lead, 13-11, and the Aggies never trailed again.

A&M held Arizona to a season-low 24.5 percent (12-of-49) shooting from the floor, but the Wildcats were able to stay in the ballgame by going nearly perfect from the free throw line making 20-of-23 charity attempts including 13 of their 23 first-half points with a 92.9 percent accuracy rate.

In the second half of play, the Aggies pushed the lead out to as many as 13 points as Carter hit the front end of a one-and-one from the free throw line. A&M led most of the second half by double digits, but Arizona got within four with a jumper by Reiko Thomas with under two and a half minutes to go, 48-44. A&M remained composed as Gant and Carter combined for A&M's 6-0 scoring run in the final stretch to hold off the Wildcats' last second-attempt at an upset.

Senior All-America candidate Takia Starks was the only other A&M player in double figures with 10 points and a season-high seven rebounds, despite a sprained ankle in the first half.

MALIBU, Calif. – Senior All-America candidate Takia Starks scored a season-high 20 points to lead No. 5 Texas A&M to a 61-57 victory over Penn State in the opening round of the Timeout 4 HIV/AIDS Tournament at Firestone Fieldhouse.

Senior All-America candidate Danielle Gant added 14 to help the Aggies remain an undefeated 5-0 on the season. A&M had two key steals by junior Tanisha Smith and Starks in the final minute of regulation to send the Aggies to the line and secure yet another win on its current six-game road swing.

A&M went 8-for-12 from the charity stripe, including two from Starks, in the final three minutes of regulation to hold off Penn State (3-2). The Aggies led by as many as 15 in the second half of play, but PSU responded with a 13-0 run to get within two of the Aggies, 48-46, with 10:35 remaining in regulation. A&M committed 22 turnovers in the contest which resulted in 27 points for the Lady Lions including 16 in the second half.

Penn State's Tyra Grant, who turned in a game-high 22 points, missed her second free throw attempt with 0.6 seconds left for a chance to tie up the contest. Brienne O'Rourke had 14 and Julia Trogele 12 for the Lady Lions.

NACOGDOCHES, Texas – No. 4 Texas A&M delivered a 41-point rout of Stephen F. Austin, 77-36, to claim its best start in school history on a historic night at William R. Johnson Coliseum.

A&M improved to an undefeated 7-0 on the season and picked up its second-ever road victory over SFA (4-3) in seven tries in Nacogdoches. Head coach Gary Blair, who coached the Ladyjacks from 1985-93, was inducted into the school's Hall of Fame at halftime with words from University President Dr. Baker Pattillo and several of his former SFA players in attendance for the special occasion.

Three A&M players reached double figures including a career- and game-high 17 points by freshman Adaora Elonu who also added six rebounds to the winning cause. Preseason Big 12 Conference Newcomer of the Year Tanisha Smith and preseason Big 12 Freshman of the Year Tyra White each added 13.

The Aggies never trailed in the contest and led by as many as 43 points with 3:05 remaining in regulation. It marked A&M's largest margin of victory over an opponent and the fewest points scored by an opponent this season.

The A&M defense held the Ladyjacks to an opponent season-low 25.5 percent shooting from the floor (12-of-47) including 16 percent on 4-of-25 shooting in the first half of play. SFA committed 29 turnovers in the game which resulted in 29 of A&M's total points. Natasha Green led the Ladyjacks with 12.

COLLEGE STATION, Texas – No. 4 Texas A&M rolled to its eighth-straight victory of the season with an 80-48 blowout of former Southwest Conference rival SMU before a season-high crowd of 3,563 at Reed Arena.

It marked the Aggies' eighth-straight win on their home court, having been tested on the road for six of its first seven games of the season to continue on their best-ever start in school history.

Senior All-America candidate Takia Starks scored 14 of her game- and season-high 21 points in the first half of play as the Aggies took a 43-18 advantage into halftime. Starks moved into third all-time in career scoring with 1,525 career points to date.

Two other Aggies joined Starks in the double-figure column with 13 from senior All-America candidate Danielle Gant who scored A&M's first five points of the ballgame and freshman Adaora Elonu who added a near double-double performance with 12 points and eight rebounds to the mix.

The Mustang offense had no chance against the A&M defense which has now held six of its eight opponents this season to under 32 percent shooting from the floor and 20 percent accuracy from beyond the three-point arc.

SMU (2-5) hit only 30.4 percent (17-of-56) of its field goals and 18.8 percent (3-of-16) of its three-point attempts for the game. Brittany Gilliam turned in a team-high 18 points and eight rebounds as the Mustangs remained without a road win in three tries this season.

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. — Preseason Big 12 Conference Newcomer of the Year Tanisha Smith scored a career-high 17 points off the bench as No. 3 Texas A&M had its 12-game win streak snapped by Florida State with a 60-53 road loss at the Donald T. Tucker Civic Center.

Florida State's Tanae Davis-Cain scored 11 of her 13 points in the second half of play. Davis-Cain and teammate Courtney Ward combined for 10 points as the Seminoles (12-4) ran off 16 straight to take a 56-50 lead with 3:35 remaining in regulation. A&M led by as many as 17 points with 13:27 to go, but FSU closed the game with a 20-3 surge to seal the upset.

Senior All-America candidate Danielle Gant added 10 points along with seven rebounds and two blocked shots. It was a tale of two halves as the Aggie defense held Florida State to a season-low 19 first-half points on 5-of-24 shooting from the floor, but the Seminoles improved their shooting percentage to 65.2 percent (15-of-23) with their late second-half rally, while A&M shot 7-of-32 from the field in the second half.

The Aggies (12-1) will shake off the loss and ready themselves this week for one of the toughest league schedules ahead of them. A&M remains the frontrunner of four Big 12 teams currently ranked in the top 10 in this week's Associated Press Poll.

COLUMBIA, Mo. — The No. 3/6-ranked Texas A&M women's basketball team held off a late Missouri rally with a Big 12 Conference-opening 62-56 victory at Mizzou Arena.

Senior All-America candidates Danielle Gant and Takia Starks led the way for the Aggies (13-1, 1-0) who picked up only their second win on the road against the Tigers (9-5, 0-1) in the all-time series. Gant scored a game-high 22 points on a perfect 10-for-10 from the field and 2-for-2 from the charity stripe. Starks added 14 points as A&M rebounded from its first loss of the season at Florida State on Monday.

Gant added seven rebounds and four assists for the Aggies, who built a 17-point lead in the second half before MU went on their late second-half run. Missouri was led in scoring by Shakara Jones with 14 points, while Jessa Johnson contributed 13.

A&M led 27-23 after a sluggish first half where the Aggies shot 33.3 percent (11-of-33). A three-pointer by preseason Big 12 Newcomer of the Year Tanisha Smith in the opening minute of the second half extended the lead to seven, 30-23, and sparked an 18-5 run by the Aggies. Missouri cut the deficit to four behind a half-court trap late in the game, but could get no closer.

NORMAN, Okla. (AP) – Despite a valiant second-half effort, No. 6 Texas A&M fell to No. 3 Oklahoma, 71-59, at the Lloyd Noble Center.

The Aggies (14-2, 2-1) had been off to their best start in Big 12 Conference play and won three of their last four meetings with the Sooners. Senior All-America candidate Takia Starks scored all of her team-high 19 points in the second half, while senior All-America candidate Danielle Gant added 18 including 10 on 5-of-7 shooting in a low-scoring first half for the Aggies.

Danielle Robinson led the way for the Sooners (13-2, 3-0) with 19 points and 10 assists and was one of three OU players to turn in double-doubles. Whitney Hand had a career-high five three-pointers in six attempts and scored 17 points for OU.

OU's Courtney Paris had 11 points and 14 rebounds to extend her NCAA-record streak of consecutive double-doubles to 108 games, but did not reach double digits in points until 1:01 remained. Her twin sister, Ashley Paris, had 16 points and 10 rebounds for her 12th double-double of the season.

The Aggies cut a 19-point deficit early in the second half to 12 points at 41:29 on a three-point play by Starks with 15:58 left. Hand started a 14-0 Oklahoma run with a put-back, followed by a three-pointer, and another three-pointer by Carlee Roethlisberger gave the Sooners a 55-29 lead with 11:54 left.

Texas A&M, whose only previous loss had come to Florida State on Jan. 5, rallied within 60-51 on another three-point play by Starks with 3:23 left, but after that, Robinson sent 4-of-4 from the free-throw line and assisted on two baskets by Courtney Paris to keep the Sooners comfortably ahead.

OU committed 13 first-half turnovers but still led 35-22 at half-time, thanks in part to 4-of-4 three-point shooting by Hand and a 23-11 rebounding advantage.

COLLEGE STATION, Texas – No. 7 Texas A&M went down-to-the-wire with No. 4 Baylor in a hotly-contested Big 12 Conference women's basketball showdown between two of the nation's and league's top teams which resulted in a 64-61 victory for the visiting Lady Bears before a crowd of 5,234 at Reed Arena.

Senior All-America candidate Danielle Gant drained her second free throw with 34 seconds remaining in regulation to tie things up at 61-61. With time ticking away on the game clock, Baylor's Danielle Wilson converted a crucial three-point play after receiving an inbound pass in the lane for the layup and being fouled by Gant with 4.8 seconds left to secure the Lady Bears' 10-straight win of the season.

Senior All-America candidate Takia Starks dribbled up the court and took the last shot past the top of the key to possibly send the game into overtime, but BU would escape with its first win in College Station in close to three years in the Battle of the Brazos series. Starks ended the night with 18 points and four rebounds in 36 minutes of action versus the Lady Bears.

There were 19 lead changes in the ballgame and 17 ties. Pre-season Big 12 Newcomer of the Year Tanisha Smith came up big for the Aggies (14-3, 2-2) all night with a career-and game-high 19 points and six rebounds including six of the team's first eight points of the game where A&M capitalized on Baylor's early mistakes on the court. The Aggie defense forced the Lady Bears into a season-high tying 20 turnovers for the game.

Both teams shot close to 50 percent in a fast-paced first half, but BU took a 37-34 advantage into halftime on a three-pointer by Jessica Morrow who ended the night with 15 points. Morghan Medlock led the Lady Bears (16-1, 4-0) with 17 points. Wilson, who had the game-winning play, recorded a double-double with 11 points and 10 rebounds, while Jhasmin Player added 12.

AUSTIN, Texas – Senior All-America candidate Takia Starks was on fire all night as she scored 21 of her game-high 26 points in the second half to lead No. 7 Texas A&M to a 68-54 victory over No. 16 Texas on the road in the State Farm Lone Star Showdown before a crowd of 5,998 at the Frank Erwin Center.

The Aggies (16-3, 4-2) earned their fifth-ever win in Austin and back-to-back road victories in the all-time series for the first time in school history. They also snapped the Longhorns (14-5, 2-3) 11-game home court winning streak in the process and earned a half point toward the State Farm Lone Star Showdown standings.

A&M led by 10 at halftime after a steal and layup by sophomore Sydney Colson with three seconds remaining on the clock to go into the lockerroom, 38-28. Colson dished out five assists and had nine points against UT.

Starks scored seven of the Aggies' first nine points in the second half to break the game wide open, eventually pushing the lead to as many as 20 with 10:20 remaining in regulation. Senior center La Toya Micheaux grabbed a career-high 16 rebounds in the winning cause, while Big 12 Conference Newcomer of the Year Tanisha Smith added 12.

The Aggies have now won six of the last seven meetings with the Longhorns. Kathleen Nash scored 13 points to lead Texas who shot a season-low 31.5 percent (17-of-54) from the floor against A&M's pressure defense.

COLLEGE STATION, Texas – No. 7 Texas A&M rallied back in the second half to beat Kansas, 73-60, for its third-straight win in Big 12 Conference play before a season-high crowd of 7,143 at Reed Arena.

Senior All-America candidate Danielle Gant led the way for the Aggies (17-3, 5-2) with 17 of her team-high 21 points coming in the second half which included a key 11-0 run by A&M down the stretch.

A three-pointer by senior All-America candidate Takia Starks with 8:25 left on the clock also sparked the second-half surge for the Aggies and evened the contest at 48-48. She tied former All-American Lisa Branch in the A&M record books for career three-pointers made (165) on the same play and ended the night with 17 points.

A&M later matched its largest lead of the game with a jumper by Gant with 7:19 remaining in regulation, 53-51. The Aggies had led by two at the 18:17 minute mark of the first half.

Kansas (12-7, 1-5) went into halftime with a 35-29 advantage after shooting 64 percent (16-of-25) from the floor in the first half. The Jayhawks only made six field goals out of the break as A&M turned up its defensive pressure. KU would go on to turn over the ball 26 times in the ballgame which resulted in 29 of A&M's 73 total points. They were led by Danielle McCray who scored an opponent season-high 24 points with seven rebounds in the loss.

COLLEGE STATION, Texas – No. 4 Texas A&M used a balanced scoring attack in an 86-43 rout of Nebraska at Reed Arena.

Ten players contributed to the scoring column in A&M's largest margin of victory (+43) against a Big 12 Conference opponent in school history. It also marked Nebraska's lowest-scoring production of the season and its fewest points ever scored in the series.

Senior All-America candidate Takia Starks and sophomore back-up point guard Sydney Carter each knocked down a team-high 13 points, while junior Tanisha Smith added 11.

The Aggies (18-4, 6-3) sought revenge after committing an uncharacteristic 30 turnovers in a 73-60 loss in Lincoln a year ago on Jan. 23, 2008. This time around, the A&M defense forced the Cornhuskers (10-12, 1-8) to a season-high 28 turnovers, behind 13 steals in the game courtesy of a career-high five from sophomore point guard Sydney Colson within 12 minutes of play in the first half.

Nebraska opened up the game on a quick 4-0 run, but A&M countered by scoring the next 14-of-18 combined points by both teams. The Aggies took their first lead of the game as senior All-America candidate Danielle Gant converted the fast break layup off of a turnover by Cory Montgomery with 13:53 left in the half, 8-6. A&M never looked back.

The Aggies shot a season-high 61.0 percent knocking down 36-of-59 attempts from the floor and held the Huskers to a season-low 28.3 percent (13-46). Gant and Colson each had nine in the winning cause, while A&M's bench was responsible for 47 of the team's second-largest offensive output of the season with 86 for the game.

LUBBOCK, Texas – No. 8 Texas A&M fought back in the final seconds but it wasn't enough to overcome a 60-53 decision to Texas Tech on the road before a crowd of 8,587 at United Spirit Arena.

It marked the Aggies' (18-5, 6-4) first loss in the last seven games in the series and their first in the last two years in Lubbock. Texas Tech (14-9, 4-5) avenged a 67-56 setback on Jan. 13 in College Station and ended a two-game skid in Big 12 Conference play.

Senior All-America candidate Takia Starks scored a game-high 20 points and was joined in double figures by senior All-America candidate Danielle Gant who returned to the game with four fouls and knocked down six-straight points to get the Aggies within four with under seven minutes left on the clock, 44-40. Gant ended the night with 12 points, all in the second half of play.

The Lady Raiders converted 19-of-26 attempts from the charity stripe as A&M was called for 24 fouls in the game with post players La Toya Micheaux, Damitria Buchanan and Gant with three or more fouls apiece with under 11 minutes to go in regulation.

Kierra Mallard paced five Tech players in double digits with 15 points, followed by Jordan Murphree and Tilmila Martin with 12 each.

Starks hit a jumper with 13 seconds left to go as A&M used all of its timeouts to close the gap to 58-53. The Aggies had no choice but to foul as Tech held off their last-second attempts with free throws to seal the victory. The Lady Raiders led throughout the ballgame with A&M's only lead coming in the opening minutes of play.

COLLEGE STATION, Texas – No. 11 Texas A&M claimed its fifth-straight victory over No. 12 Texas, 76-65, to earn another half-point toward the State Farm Lone Star Showdown standings between the two in-state rivals at Reed Arena.

The Aggies (20-5, 8-4) also turned in their fourth-straight 20-win campaign under Texas A&M head coach Gary Blair and swept the Longhorns (19-7, 7-5) for only the fourth time in program history and third time since the league's inception in 1996-97.

Takia Starks kept her double-digit scoring streak intact against all Big 12 opponents pouring in 16 of her game-high 18 points in the second half of play. She was one of five A&M players to reach double figures including 12 points and 11 rebounds by Danielle Gant who collided with Texas' Ashleigh Fontenette for a loose ball at the 13:41 minute mark of the second half and did not return to the game. It marked Gant's fifth double-double of the season and 17th of her career in only 26 minutes of action versus the Longhorns.

Texas led for most of the first half and by as many as seven. Gant scored eight-straight points in a span of three and a half minutes to get A&M within one of the Longhorns, 19-18, with under four minutes to go in the half. Sydney Carter hit a three-pointer with 2:34 to go to tie the game up at 21-all. The Aggies would later make three free throws from Starks and Tanisha Smith to take a 31-27 lead into halftime.

A&M would continue to wear Texas down in the second half with its pressure defense and forced the Longhorns to a season-high 29 turnovers in the ballgame. Adaora Elonu came off the bench in the second half of play in relief of Gant and turned in back-to-back layups to give the Aggies their biggest lead of the contest and they never looked back. Elonu finished with a league career-high 10 points followed by Smith with 11 and Sydney Colson with 10.

COLLEGE STATION, Texas – Takia Starks hit a layup in the lane with 6 seconds left to lead No. 12 Texas A&M to a 57-56 win over second-ranked Oklahoma, ending the Sooners' 20-game winning streak. It is the highest-ranked team A&M has ever beaten.

The Aggies (21-5, 9-4) trailed by one before Starks got the ball at the top of the key and drove into the lane for the winner. She also had a long jumper with 2 minutes left to get Texas A&M within striking distance.

Oklahoma (24-3, 12-1) led by 14 points in the second half before Texas A&M went on a run that gave the Aggies a seven-point lead with eight minutes left. The Sooners, who had a season-high 29 turnovers, scored 10 straight points to take a 56-53 lead with 3½ minutes remaining.

Texas A&M got 18 points from Tanisha Smith and Starks finished with 12. Sydney Carter added 11 points and Danielle Gant eight.

The Sooners were led by Danielle Robinson's 17 points and Courtney Paris added 15 points and 11 rebounds.

The Aggies used a 25-4 run to erase a 14-point deficit and take a 53-46 lead with about eight minutes left. The Sooners had six consecutive turnovers at the end of that span.

Oklahoma didn't score for almost seven minutes during A&M's run. The Sooners finally broke the drought with a jump shot by Paris with about 7½ minutes remaining.

The Sooners scored nine straight points to open the second half and stretch their lead to 42-28.

A&M took advantage of four turnovers by OU to score the next eight points and cut the lead to 42-36 with about 15 minutes left.

Oklahoma led by a dozen after seven minutes as the Aggies made just two of their first 12 shots. Texas A&M then went on a 14-4 run to cut the lead to 20-18 about 6½ minutes before halftime. A four-point play by Starks highlighted that run.

The Aggies tied it three times after that, but never took the lead. Oklahoma scored five straight points to end the half and led 33-28 at halftime.
