Game Notes

Key Game Notes

■A&M has won four of its last five games but is coming off a 59-54 loss to top-ranked Kansas at home on Monday. Iowa State has lost five straight and is coming off a 69-64 loss to Oklahoma State at home on Wednesday.

■The Aggies have rallied from double-digit deficits in each of their last three victories.

■After opening Big 12 play with a 1-2 mark, A&M has won six of its last eight games, including consecutive road victories at Missouri and Texas Tech.

■The Aggies are 3-4 (2-3 Big 12) in true road games while Iowa State is 10-5 (1-4 Big 12) in home games.

■A&M is 13-4 in its last 17 Big 12 games, second in the Big 12 only to Kansas' 16-1 mark in that span.

■A&M's 7-4 start in Big 12 play is its second-best in the league's 14-year history. The 2006-07 team, which finished 27-7 and advanced to the NCAA Sweet 16, started 9-2.

■A&M has played eight nationally-ranked opponents, the most of any Big 12 team. A&M played four nationally-ranked non-conference opponents (that doesn't include New Mexico, which entered the rankings the next week). The Aggies' schedule-to-date is ranked as the fifth-toughest nationally, and the toughest outside of the Big East Conference, by CBS Sports.

■A&M is 3-5 against ranked teams this season with wins against No. 19 Clemson (69-60), No. 16 Minnesota (66-65) and No. 20 Baylor (78-71). Six of the Aggies' seven losses have been to teams that have been ranked in the top 25 for multiple weeks (Texas, West Virginia, Washington, New Mexico and Kansas State). The other loss was at Oklahoma State, one of the nation's toughest venues. A&M is 15-2 (6-1 Big 12) against unranked foes.

■The three wins against ranked opponents ties for the third most in school history with the 2005-06 team. The school record is five in 1978-79. The 2006-07 Sweet Sixteen team had 4 wins vs. ranked foes. If one includes only the regular season, the three wins against ranked opponents ties for the second most in school annals.

About Iowa State

■The Cyclones went 11-4 in non-conference play but are 2-9 in Big 12 games.

■Iowa State is in its fourth season under Coach Greg McDermott. The Cyclones are led by preseason first-team All-Big 12 forward Craig Brackins, who is averaging 16.8 points and 8.4 rebounds. Forward Marquis Gilstrap, the preseason pick as Big 12 newcomer of the year, adds 14.4 points and 9.3 rebounds.

Series Notes

■A&M leads the series, 8-7, and has won six straight since a 91-82 Cyclones win in Ames in 2004.

■The series is tied, 3-3, in games played in Ames. A&M has won two straight — and three of the last four — games played at Hilton Coliseum.

Sidebar

■A&M Coach Mark Turgeon and Iowa State Coach Greg McDermott were coaching rivals in the Missouri Valley Conference for four years before coming to the Big 12. Turgeon's Wichita State teams were 3-5 against McDermott's Northern Iowa teams. Turgeon has evened the head-to-head record (5-5) since coming to A&M.

Team Notes

Never Give Up

■The Aggies have rallied from double-digit deficits to win each of the last three games. A&M trailed by 11 at Missouri, by 12 against Baylor and by 11 at Texas Tech.

■In Turgeon's three seasons, A&M has rallied from double-digit deficits to win nine games. Last year, A&M came back from deficits of 14 or more points to win three games (Arizona, Alabama and Nebraska).

Roland's Value

■Senior guard Derrick Roland will miss the rest of the season after breaking his right leg on Dec. 22 against Washington. Roland was considered by many to be the top perimeter defender in the Big 12. He was the Aggies' No. 2 scorer and perhaps the team's top leader.

■To illustrate Roland's importance to the team, because of foul trouble or injury he played fewer than 25 minutes in all three losses. His fewest minutes played came in the close losses to New Mexico (14 minutes, early foul trouble) and Washington (16 minutes, leg injury). He also got in foul trouble against West Virginia (24 minutes) and was on the bench during a key second-half run by the Mountaineers.

■The Aggies are 8-4 since Roland's injury (including the game against Washington in which he was injured).

What Might Have Been

■When last season ended, Coach Turgeon thought he would have four senior starters returning in 2009-10. But All-Big 12 center Chinemelu Elonu opted to remain in the NBA Draft and was chosen late in the second round by the Los Angeles Lakers. Then Roland was lost before the Christmas break to a season-ending broken leg.

■In addition, Turgeon expected to have the services of freshmen big men Kourtney Roberson (6-9, 230) and Ray Turner (6-8, 220) when fall practice began. However, Roberson did not qualify and Turner was not cleared by the NCAA clearinghouse to even practice until mid-December. A&M re-signed Roberson, who is attending a prep school, in November as part of the 2010 recruiting class.

■In addition, DeAndre Jordan entered the 2008 NBA Draft after his freshman season. He would have been a junior this year. Jordan was a second-round pick by the Los Angeles Clippers.

Looking Ahead to 2010-11

■The Aggies play host to nationally-ranked Washington next season at Reed Arena as part of the Big 12/Pac 10 Hardwood Series. A&M will also compete in the 2010 Old Spice Classic Nov. 25-28 in Orlando, Fla. The tournament also includes Boston College, California, Georgia, Manhattan, Notre Dame, Temple and Wisconsin.

Making the Grade

■Eleven of 12 seniors have graduated in the last three years, including Acie Law and Chinemelu Elonu. Josh Carter did not graduate before going overseas to play professionally, but is in good academic standing and plans to return to school and finish his degree.

NBA Aggies

■Chinemelu Elonu earned honorable mention All-Big 12 honors last year as a junior and was named the Big 12's most improved player by the Fort Worth Star-Telegram. After graduating in May, Elonu elected to forego his senior year and enter the NBA Draft. He was selected by the Los Angeles Lakers in the second round with the 59th overall pick.

■A&M is the only Big 12 school to have a player drafted in each of the last three years. An Aggie has been chosen in four of the last five NBA Drafts. The others were Antoine Wright in 2005 (first round to the New Jersey Nets), Acie Law IV in 2007 (first round to the Atlanta Hawks) and DeAndre Jordan in 2008 (second round to the Los Angeles Clippers). Prior to Wright's selection in 2005, A&M had not had a player drafted since Winston Crite in 1987.

■Prior to 2007, A&M never had more than one active NBA player.

■Law, Wright and Jordan each started and had 20-point efforts in NBA games last season. Wright had started in 53 of 65 games for the Dallas Mavericks and had a career-high 24 points against Indiana. Wright was traded to the Toronto Raptors in June. Law appeared in 55 games for the Hawks and scored a career-high 22 points against Cleveland. He was traded to the Golden State Warriors in June and to the Charlotte Bobcats Monday. Jordan played in 53 games for the Clippers, starting 13 times, and scored a career-high 23 points against the Los Angeles Lakers. He also had a 20-rebound game against Golden State and had 6 blocked shots against Minnesota.

All-Sports Power

■Texas A&M captured three NCAA team championships in 2008-09 (men's golf, men's outdoor track and field, women's outdoor track and field), the most of any school in the country.

■The Aggies finished 13th in the 2008-09 NACDA Director's Cup, which includes every Division I institution. A&M placed 12th in 2007-08, its highest finish.

■A&M captured the 2008-09 State Farm Lone Star Showdown against Texas for the second straight year. Points are awarded in each sport to the head-to-head winner between the schools.

■The Laboratory for the Study of Intercollegiate Athletics (LSIA) named Texas A&M as the most efficient athletic department in the Big 12. The study analyzed the number of national and conference championships won compared to athletic budgets.

Coach Mark Turgeon

Career Highlights

■A former player and assistant coach at Kansas, 44-year-old Mark Turgeon is entering his third season at Texas A&M. He cut his coaching teeth at Kansas under legends Larry Brown and Roy Williams.

■Turgeon's 49 wins at A&M in his first two seasons in the Big 12 are a record by a league coach. The previous mark was 47 wins by Kansas' Bill Self (2003-05) and Iowa State's Larry Eustachy (1998-00). Others near the top of the list are Texas Tech's Bob Knight (45), Texas' Rick Barnes (43) and A&M's Billy Gillispie (43).

■Turgeon's two-year win total ties for the second-best debut in the entire history of any Big 12 school. Eddie Sutton won 52 games his first two years at Oklahoma State (1990-92), while Tom Penders won 49 in his first two seasons at Texas (1988-90).

■Turgeon is 37-5 in regular-season non-conference games at A&M, including a 29-0 record at home. The losses have been on the road at Arizona (2007) and Washington (2009), and at neutral sites to Tulsa (2008), West Virginia (2009) and New Mexico (2009).

■He is only the second coach to lead A&M to consecutive NCAA Tournaments. Turgeon led the Aggies to a 25-11 record in his first season and a 24-10 mark last year. Turgeon's 25 wins in 2007-08 were the most by a Big 12 coach in his debut and tied for the most by a first-year coach in the history of any Big 12 school. Tom Penders went 25-9 in his first year at Texas in 1988-89 prior to the Big 12.

■Turgeon was inducted into the Topeka Shawnee County Sports Hall of Fame in June. Turgeon helped lead Hayden High School to back-to-back state titles in 1982 and 1983, including a perfect season his senior year. He was an all-city pick and also received all-state recognition.

■Turgeon went on to play at Kansas, becoming the first Jayhawk to play in four consecutive NCAA Tournaments (1984-87), including a Final Four appearance in 1986. He played in 12 NCAA Tournament games, helping the Jayhawks to an 8-4 record. Turgeon served as head coach at Wichita State for seven seasons before moving on to A&M in 2007.

2010 Recruiting Class

The four players who signed with Texas A&M Nov. 11 hand the Aggies and Head Coach Mark Turgeon one the of the nation's best recruiting classes, according to ESPN analyst Bob Gibbons. Toby Oyedeji (pronounced OH-yuh-DEDG-ee) of Houston; Daniel Alexander of Drippings Springs, Texas; Keith Davis of DeSoto, Texas; and Kourtney Roberson of Arcadia, La., will enter A&M as freshman next fall. All four players are big men measuring at least 6-foot-8. "The four players that the Aggies signed have positioned them to have a surefire top-20 recruiting class," Gibbons said. "When all the dust settles, it could be ranked even higher. No school in America has assembled a class with this much size, length, versatility, and athleticism. Mark Turgeon and his staff are known for doing things the right way and continue to bring top talent to Texas A&M."

Name	Pos.	Ht.	Wt.	Class	Hometown (HS/Prep)
Daniel Alexander	F	6-8	210	FR	Dripping Springs, Texas (High)
Keith Davis	C	6-9	220	FR	DeSoto, Texas (High)
Tobi Oyedeji	F	6-8	215	FR	Houston (Bellaire HS)
Kourtney Roberson	F	6-9	230	FR	Arcadia, La. (High/Christian Life)

Tobi Oyedeji

A 6-foot-8 forward from Bellaire High School in Houston, Oyedeji is the No. 68-ranked prospect in the country by Scout.com. He is the top-ranked senior in Houston after averaging 15 points and 12 rebounds as a junior. Oyedeji also was recruited by Oklahoma, Baylor, LSU, Georgia Tech, and Arizona State.

Tobi Oyedeji: "I feel comfortable at A&M. Coach Turgeon knows how to develop big men. He did a great job of developing Chinemelu Elonu last season. The basketball program has become one of the best in the country and has become a program that wins every year. A&M's facilities are big time. It has everything that you need to be successful. I'm really close with Coach Turgeon and I know the future is bright at A&M. Some of the guys talk about being the first A&M squad to get to the Final Four. That's exciting and I want to be a part of it."

Mark Turgeon: "We have been recruiting Tobi since we first arrived at Texas A&M. He's a great student, great person and great player. His family did a great job of instilling a solid value system in him and it shows in how he carries himself. On the court, Tobi is a hard-working power forward. He controls the game on the defensive end of the floor by blocking shots and rebounding inside and outside of his area. He excels at transitioning from defense to offense and uses his athleticism and length to finish on the break. Offensively, Tobi can score in the paint or from the elbow. His teammates enjoy playing with him because he's not afraid to pass the ball out of the post. Tobi is a product of a great high school program and has been taught how to play the right way."

Daniel Alexander

A 6-foot-8 forward, Alexander is the No. 89-ranked prospect in country by Rivals.com. He earned district MVP honors after averaging 19.6 points and 12 rebounds as a junior at Dripping Springs High School. Last summer, Alexander was invited to the prestigious Lebron James Skills Academy and the Vince Carter Skills Academy. He is featured on the cover ESPN Rise, a national magazine devoted to high school sports. Alexander also was recruited by Arizona, Baylor, Marquette, and Southern California.

Daniel Alexander: "The coaching staff recruited me really hard and it's obvious they worked the hardest in the recruiting game. The distance from home is close enough to where my family can come and see me and far enough where my mother can't come and check my room. I love their playing style. It's more of a motion and more of a fluent game. All the players are genuine guys and they're not worried about themselves. It's like a family and it's an 'all for one, one for all' attitude with them. Coach Turgeon is a straight shooter who tells it like it is and focuses on making you a better basketball player."

Mark Turgeon: "We are thrilled to add Daniel to our basketball program. He's a high-character kid who has a great personality. Daniel's successes on the court mirror his successes in the classroom and he comes from a close-knit family. Daniel is best known for his ability to shoot the basketball. He has great range on his shot and will really be able to help us stretch defenses. He has uncommon ball skills and playmaking ability for a guy his size. Daniel is a well-rounded player who has the talent and ability to impact every aspect of the game by scoring, defending and rebounding. He will help us continue to play our fast-paced offensive attack."

Keith Davis

A 6-foot-9 center, Davis is rated as a 4-star prospect by Scout.com. Last spring, he led DeSoto High School to the Class 5A state championship. He joins a long line of recent athletes from DeSoto who have come to A&M, including Cyrus Gray (football), Tony-Jerod Eddie (football), Garrick Williams (football) and Sydney Carter (women's basketball). Davis also was recruited by Texas, Florida, Oklahoma State and Arkansas.

Keith Davis: "I'm very excited to be an Aggie. When I go there I can be taught the game of basketball from good coaches and be in a good environment. A&M is the perfect spot because I can do my own thing. Coach Turgeon and I would talk and the trust was there and I felt it. When you watch their home games you see the crowd and how everybody is wild. I like how the team gets after the other team on defense and the way they run. It's great to see a team that actually wants to play defense and wants to run up and down the floor. It came down to which staff I was more comfortable with, the depth chart and being close to home and my mother. We all agreed that on these points, A&M was the best fit. Coach Turgeon won't settle for us to be just basketball players. He wants to help us develop as people and get our degrees. They run a lot and give their posts a lot of freedom to run the floor, block shots, and rebound."

Mark Turgeon: "Keith is a very important player for us because he gives us a legitimate Big 12-caliber center. He's a great kid with a lot of ambition. Keith is an elite athlete and uses his athleticism to be a great presence on the defensive end of the floor. He can run the floor and will put a lot of pressure on opposing teams' transition defense. His offensive game is still evolving and we are looking forward to helping him develop into a dominant and complete player. Keith will continue the trend of student-athletes from DeSoto High School being successful at Texas A&M."

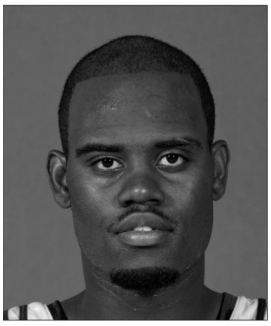

Kourtney Roberson

Roberson, a 6-foot-9 forward from Christian Life Academy in Houston, is the half-brother of Bernard King, A&M's all-time leading scorer who played from 1999-03. He was rated No. 87 nationally by ESPN.com as a senior at Arcadia High School, where he was a two-time all-state pick, He averaged 21 points and 15.8 rebounds as a senior, leading the team to a runner-up finish at the state tournament. He was regarded by some publications as the top prospect in Louisiana in 2009. Roberson also was recruited by LSU, Southern California, West Virginia, Texas and Louisiana Tech.

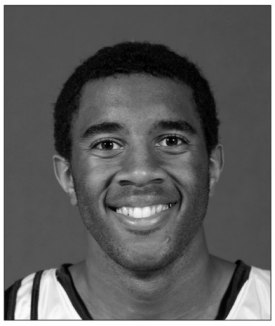

Kourtney Roberson: "A&M is a great school academically and I really like the closeness of the coaches and players. I felt comfortable there and my brother said it was a great place to go to school. I like how A&M treated me and it's a good school. It's a good fit for me. The players and coaches are what made A&M stand out. They are good guys and I feel like they will treat me right. You can talk to the coaches about anything. I have good ball handling skills and I'm a good rebounder. They told me what I need to work on and that I should be able to come in and help them right away."

Mark Turgeon: "We are very excited about the opportunity to coach Kourtney. For his size, he is a player who has a lot of skill and instincts for the game. His best basketball is in front of him. Kourtney is a great example of the type of player we are bringing in to our program. At 6-9, he has the ability to do a lot of different things for us on the court. He has a chance to be a great defender and great all around offensive player for us."
