Texas A&M (10-5, 3-0 SEC), riding its best-ever start in Southeastern Conference play, puts its undefeated SEC record on the line Friday, when the Aggies take on 11th-ranked Florida (13-3, 4-0 SEC) in Gainesville. First serve is at 6 p.m. (7 p.m. ET) at the Exactech Arena at Stephen C. O'Connell Center, and the match will be televised on SEC Network with Melissa Lee and Missy Whittemore calling the action.

Led by sophomore setter Camille Conner's triple-double and double-doubles by junior outside hitter Hollann Hans and senior libero Amy Houser, Texas A&M improved to 3-0 in SEC play for the first time since joining the conference with a come-from-behind 3-2 (24-26, 25-21, 20-25, 25-23, 15-13) victory at LSU on Sunday. It was the Aggies' first true road victory this season, and they extended their winning streak to a season-best three matches.

Florida, the two-time defending SEC co-champion, won its ninth consecutive match and remained undefeated in conference matches with a 3-0 (25-20, 25-20, 26-24) victory at Alabama on Sunday. Taelor Kellum had a match-high 12 kills, and Rachael Kramer had 10 kills while hitting .556 and also added six blocks as the Gators notched their fourth straight sweep.

season and capture their first conference volleyball title in program history.

- The last time the teams met in Gainesville was Oct. 4, 2017. Texas A&M gave then-No. 1 Florida a scare as the first three sets were decided by the minimum two points, but the Gators remained the only undefeated team in the nation after pulling away for a 26-24, 25-23, 25-27, 25-10 victory at the Stephen C. O'Connell Center.

- A&M's third-set 27-25 win marked the first time the Aggies won a set in Gainesville since 1988, when A&M suffered a 3-1 loss in the first-ever meeting between the two teams.

- Hollann Hans led A&M with 12 kills and then-junior defensive specialist Amy Houser tied her career-high with three aces. Florida, which outhit A&M .295 to .170 for the match and led in blocks, 12-3, had three players post double-digit kills, including Carli Snyder who led all players with 16 kills.

- In the most recent meeting, No. 3 Florida completed the home-and-home season series sweep by defeating A&M, 25-18, 25-22, 25-20 on Nov. 15, 2017, at Reed Arena. It marked the first time the Aggies did not win a set against the Gators in seven all-time meetings in College Station.

- Florida All-American middle blocker Rhamat Alhassan led all players with 13 kills without an error in 17 attempts for a .765 hitting efficiency. Then-senior outside hitter Kiara McGee led the Aggies with 12 kills

- Since A&M joined the SEC, three of the five meetings in College Station have been decided in five sets.

- This year's match-up in Gainesville will be the only meeting between the two teams in 2018.

LAURA BIRD KUHN, TEXAS A&M HEAD COACH (1ST SEASON)

Laura "Bird" Kuhn, a former American Volleyball Coaches Association (AVCA) Assistant Coach of the Year, was named the head volleyball coach at Texas A&M on Dec. 30, 2017. Previously the associate head coach and recruiting coordinator at the University of Kansas, Kuhn became the sixth volleyball head coach in Texas A&M program history.

She joined the Aggies after a seven-year stint at Kansas, where she was instrumental in helping the volleyball program elevate to new heights of achievement, including the program's first NCAA Final Four appearance in 2015 and the Jayhawks' first Big 12 Conference championship in 2016.

In the final six seasons of her seven years as an assistant coach at Kansas, the Jayhawks constructed a combined record of 152 wins with 38 losses (.800 winning percentage), surpassing the 20-win milestone every year. Over that span, the Jayhawks made six consecutive NCAA tournament appearances, serving as host of first and second round matches four times. Kansas also finished in the top three in the Big 12 in each of the last six years, including one outright first-place finish (2012). The Jayhawks were ranked in the final AVCA Top 25 poll in four of the last six years, including an all-time high No. 3 final ranking in 2015.

In 2015, Kuhn was promoted to associate head coach, and she was honored by her coaching peers and selected the AVCA National Assistant Coach of the Year following KU's historic Final Four run in which the Jayhawks upset No. 1 Southern California in the regional finals while finishing the season with a school-record .299 hitting percentage.

Following Kuhn's arrival at Kansas in 2011, Jayhawks head coach Ray Bechard was named Big 12 Coach of the Year for four times (2012, 2013, 2015, and 2016). In addition, Jayhawks players garnered a combined seven first-, second-, and third-team AVCA All-America honors as well as nine honorable mention awards.

In 2015, two Kuhn recruits who are Texas natives (Kelsie Payne and Ainise Havili) became the first Jayhawks in program history to earn first-team accolades. Payne, Havili and Pflugerville, Texas, native Madison Rigdon, who earned AVCA All-America Honorable Mention in 2017, were all members of Kansas' 2014 recruiting class that was ranked 15th in the nation.

Kuhn, 35, was an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator at the University of Miami (Florida) for three years (2008-10) before joining the Jayhawks staff. In her first season with the Hurricanes, head coach Nicole Lantagne-Welch was named AVCA Region Coach of the Year and ACC Coach of the Year as Miami went 26-6 overall and finished with an all-time best 14-6 record in ACC matches. Kuhn helped the Hurricanes reach the NCAA tournament in each of her final two seasons, and outside hitter Lane Carico became the program's first AVCA All-American in 2010.

Kuhn began her college coaching career in 2007 at Appalachian State, where Matt Ginipro was named the Southern Conference Coach of the Year and Brittany Zahn collected SoCon Player of the Year honors.

Kuhn played collegiately at Georgia Tech, where she was a four-year letterwinner and three-year starting right side hitter from 2001-04. During her playing career, the Yellow Jackets went a combined 113-25 (.819), won three Atlantic Coast Conference regular season championships and one ACC tournament title and advanced to the NCAA Tournament every year. Both the 2002 and 2004 teams reached the Sweet 16, and in 2003 the Yellow Jackets advanced to the Elite Eight for the first time in school history and also became the first ACC team to reach a regional final.

Kuhn earned a Bachelor of Science degree in business management from Georgia Tech in 2005.

A native of Tiffin, Ohio, Kuhn was a two-sport star at Calvert High School, where she excelled at both volleyball and basketball. While in high school, Kuhn earned Junior Olympic All-America honors for the Toledo Volleyball Club in 2000.
