NCAA FIRST SERVE

- Texas A&M women's tennis prepares to make its 27th overall and 22nd consecutive NCAA Tournament appearance in the 2022 NCAA Championships. The Aggies earned a bid as the automatic qualifier representing the Southeastern Conference.
- A&M welcomes Baylor, Washington and Texas A&M-Corpus Christi to the Mitchell Tennis Center for the opening rounds of the tournament. The Mitchell Tennis Center gets set to host the NCAA Women's First and Second Rounds for the sixth time since the facility opened in 1999.
- The Aggies most recent tournament appearance in 2021 saw the Maroon & White defeat Drake and Northwestern on the road before falling to Florida State in the Sweet 16.
- Texas A&M is the only team from the state of Texas to appear in every NCAA Tournament since 2000. The Aggies are 29-26 in the tournament all-time.

STORY OF THE SEASON

- Texas A&M women's tennis secured its first double conference championship, winning the SEC Regular Season and Tournament titles without dropping a match in 16 opportunities.
- The Aggies positioned themselves atop the league standings in late March and early April, as the Maroon & White swept past a pair of top-10 opponents in Georgia and Auburn.
- The doubles tandem of Jayci Goldsmith and Tatiana Makarova garnered the highest ranking in Texas A&M program history, earning the No. 2 spot on April 13.
- A&M submitted its best performance in program history at the ITA National Women's Team Indoor Championships, garnering a pair of ranked victories at the event.
- Carson Branstine earned the highest ranked singles victory in school history in the win over then-No. 10 USC, defeating No. 1 Eryn Cayetano in straight sets.
- A&M started the 2022 dual match campaign with six consecutive doubleheader sweeps. The Aggies 42-0 scoring margin to open the year marked the most dominant start in program history.

#LOCKEDIN ON A&M-CORPUS CHRISTI

- A&M-Corpus Christi is the automatic qualifier from the Southland Conference and prepares to make its fifth NCAA Tournament appearance all-time.
- Emma Aucagne leads the Islanders at the top line singles position, boasting a 14-5 record.
- In the all-time series, the Aggies hold a 1-0 edge over the Islanders following their meeting on Jan. 27 of this year. The Maroon & White swept past A&M-CC in the first half of a doubleheader.

DOUBLE THE BLING
- Texas A&M secured its first SEC Tournament title, defeating Vanderbilt and host-Florida before breezing by defending-champion Georgia.
- Earlier in April, the Aggies secured their first conference regular season title since 2013 in a 6-1 win over Arkansas.
- The win coupled with Georgia's loss later in the evening granted A&M its first outright conference title since 1986.
- A&M's 2022 roster became the first team in program history to earn both a conference regular season and tournament title in the same year.

POLL POSITION
- In the Tennis Channel/USTA College Tennis Top-25 poll released on Apr. 27, the Aggies garnered the No. 1 ranking.
- The selection marked A&M's first No. 1 ranking all-time by either of the two major ranking services.
- The Maroon & White became the ninth team to earn the top spot in the six-year history of the poll.
- A&M's previous record in the poll came one week prior, when the team came in at the No. 3 spot.
- On May 4, the Aggies remained atop the USTA poll for the second consecutive week. The ITA computerized rankings placed Texas A&M at No. 7.

UNPARALLELED
- The Aggies own the most victories among all teams in NCAA Division I.
- Texas A&M owns the highest win percentage in the nation with a .968 clip.
- A&M is the winningest team in the SEC at 30-1 overall and maintains the conference's longest active win streak at 21 consecutive matches.

DAWG DAY AFTERNOON
- For the second time in program history, Texas A&M defeated the seventh-ranked Georgia Bulldogs on Sunday, March 27. A&M stunned the Bulldogs in a 7-0 sweep on the road.
- Georgia's loss marked their first defeat by an SEC opponent since falling to South Carolina in the 2019 SEC Championship match.
- The Bulldogs suffered their first SEC Regular Season defeat since falling 4-3 on the road to Ole Miss in 2018.
- A&M's 7-0 rout of the Bulldogs marked Georgia's first 7-0 loss at home since 2005.

RUBBER, MEET THE ROAD
- Texas A&M dominated its second consecutive top-10 opponent on April 1, cruising past No. 9 Auburn in a 7-0 rout at the Mitchell Tennis Center.
- The win granted A&M sole possession of the top spot in the SEC standings.
- The 2022 Aggies became the first team in program history to sweep past back-to-back top-10 teams.

SEC YA AT THE TOP
- Following its back-to-back sweeps of then-No. 7 Georgia and No. 9 Auburn, Texas A&M never relinquished the top spot in the SEC.
- The Aggies locked in their fifth conference title and second outright conference title against Arkansas on April 15.
- A&M secured its first undefeated conference regular season with a sweep of Missouri on the road on April 17.

BEASTS FROM THE SOUTHEAST
- Texas A&M swept the Southeastern Conference Weekly Awards four times this season, the only team in the SEC to do so in 2022.
- Carson Branstine has been named SEC Player of the Week on two occassions this season, first on Feb. 16 and again on Apr. 6.
- Tatiana Makarova has earned two SEC Player of the Week designations on Mar. 9 and Mar. 30.
- Mary Stoiana became the second player in school annals to win conference Freshman of the Week four times in a season on Apr. 6.

INTERIOR DECORATING
- Texas A&M put forth its best performance in program history at the ITA Indoors in 2022, going 2-1 at the tournament with two ranked wins.
- The Aggies toppled #17 Old Dominion and #10 USC, defeating ranked opponents in consecutive matches for the first time since beating #16 Tennessee and #19 Ole Miss in the 2021 campaign.
- A&M's 4-1 win over #10 USC was the Aggies first top-10 victory since dismantling #9 Texas on the road during the 2019 NCAA Tournament, 4-1.

RECORD-BREAKING RANKING
- In the ITA Division I Women's Team Rankings released on April 6, the Aggies rose to the #5 spot nationally.
- The ranking is the highest that an Aggie team has acheived under head coach Mark Weaver, breaking the previous record of #7 set earlier this year.
- A&M cracked the top-five of the ITA Rankings for the first time since April 22, 2014, when the Aggies also held the #5 spot.

THE DONUT SHOP
- Since the seven-point scoring era began in 2001, the 2022 Aggies are the only Texas A&M team to hold six consecutive opponents scoreless.
- The Aggies recorded six 7-0 sweeps to open the 2022 season, the first time A&M has booked six consecutive 7-0 results in program history.
- The Aggies reversed a 4-0 sweep at the hands of Georgia from the 2021 SEC Championship, returning the favor in 2022 to claim the team's first SEC Tournament title.

MITCHELL MAGIC

- The Maroon & White own a 245-65 record (.790) all-time in the friendly confines of the George P. Mitchell Tennis Center.
- Texas A&M finished its second complete-season undefeated home campaign against Alabama on April 3.
- A&M set the program record for most home wins in a season earlier this year, going a perfect 18-0 in Aggieland.

MIDDLE OF THE ROAD

- The middle of A&M's singles lineup, postitions 2, 3 and 4, are a combined 81-5 (.942) in dual match play.
- The Maroon & White are 28-0 when winning at two out of those three spots.
- A&M has swept all three of the No. 2, 3 and 4 singles slots 22 times and is undefeated when doing so.

DOUBLE TROUBLE

- The Aggies have won the doubles point in 29 of 31 matches played and boast a 28-1 record in those instances.
- Under head coach Mark Weaver, A&M is 113-13 after clinching the first point of the match.
- At the No. 1 doubles position, the Aggies are a team-best 24-2.
- Overall, A&M is 62-10 in dual match doubles play, a win percentage of .861.

THE HEADLINERS

- Jayci Goldsmith and Tatiana Makarova have compiled an 91-34 (.728) record as a doubles pairing at Texas A&M, the most wins by any tandem in school history.
- Goldsmith and Makarova own the Texas A&M record for highest doubles ranking at No. 2, announced in the April 13 ITA Individual Rankings.
- The duo were named ITA All-Americans in 2021, joining Aggie legends Rachel Pierson and Rutuja Bhosale as the only doubles teams in school history with that designation.

TATIANA'S TIME

- Graduate Tatiana Makarova is off to a 29-2 start in singles play thus far and leads the team with a 33-5 doubles record in 2022.
- Her 25 consecutive singles victories mark the longest active winning streak on the team in the category.
- The Moscow, Russia, native is 2nd in the A&M record book for career doubles wins (108), and 3rd in career singles victories (102).
- Makarova was named to the SEC All-Tournament Team following her undefeated performances in singles and doubles, also garnering the SEC Tournament MVP Award.
- Following a postseason vote of the league's coaches, Makarova earned her second career appearance on the All-SEC First Team.

THE GOLD(SMITH) STANDARD

- Senior Jayci Goldsmith currently stands at 27-3 in singles play with a second-place mark on the team in doubles at 32-5.
- The senior was named to the All-SEC First Team for the first time in her career following her outstanding performances in doubles alongside Makarova.
- Goldsmith returns following a 16-10 record in singles and a 20-13 finish in doubles in 2021, warranting an All-American selection.
- The Dripping Springs, Texas, native is second on A&M's active singles (82) and doubles (91) win charts.

MARVELOUS MISS MARY

- Freshman Mary Stoiana owns the best singles record on the team, currently maintaining a 30-4 mark.
- After her performance at ITA Indoors, Stoiana became the first Aggie to earn SEC Freshman of the Week honors since 2019.
- Stoiana was named SEC Freshman of the Week for the second time on Mar. 9, the first Aggie to garner the award twice or more since Saska Gavrilovska did so in the 2014 season.
- The Southbury, Connecticut, native claimed SEC Freshman of the Week yet again on Mar. 30 following A&M's wins over Tennessee and then-No. 7 Georgia.
- Stoiana became the second player to win conference Freshman of the Week four times in a season on Apr. 6, matching Saska Gavrilovska's record.
- The freshman standout garnered All-SEC Second Team accolades in addition to a spot on the SEC All-Freshman Team.

CARSON'S COURT

- Junior transfer Carson Branstine arrived in Aggieland in January and recorded the clinch victory at No. 1 singles in her first match against Houston.
- Branstine booked the highest ranked singles victory in program history during ITA Indoors, defeating her former teammate, No. 1 Eryn Cayetano of USC, in straight sets (6-4, 6-3).
- The Orange, California, native garnered All-SEC First Team honors following a 9-4 ledger in leauge singles play with a 16-6 record overall.
- Branstine peaked as the #4 junior tennis player in the world according to the ITF, arriving at A&M following one-year stints at USC and Virginia.

FISH CAMP

- The Aggies signed the No. 2 recruiting class in the nation in 2021 according to the Tennis Recruiting Network.
- A&M's class was comprised of two blue chip recruits (Pielet and Stoiana), two five-star athletes (Mireles and Pittman) and one three-star prospect (Gownder).
- Texas A&M signed two of the top three players in the state of Texas, as well as the No. 1 players from both Connecticut and Indiana.

MARK WEAVER
HEAD COACH

Entering the 2021-22 campaign, Texas A&M women's tennis head coach Mark Weaver returns for his 23rd season in Aggieland and his seventh at the helm of the Aggie women's tennis program. Over the course of his storied tenure, Weaver has been a part of 21 consecutive NCAA Tournament appearances, seven Round of 16 berths, three conference championships and Texas A&M's first trip to the NCAA Championship Final match in 2013. He has played a major role in coaching nine Aggies to All-American designations, including both of A&M's doubles All-American tandems during his time as head coach.

Originally hired as a volunteer assistant under legendary head coach Bobby Kleinecke in 2000, Weaver has racked up a litany of coaching honors and accolades while simultaneously establishing a tremendous track record both on and off the court. Kleinecke promoted Weaver to the assistant coaching position in 2007, with new head coach Howard Joffe once again promoting Weaver to the title of Associate Head Coach in 2013. After a national runner-up finish in 2013 and another stellar season in 2014, Weaver was named the ITA Texas Region Assistant Coach of the Year. Following his ascent to the head coaching position in 2015-16, he continuously built a winning culture and was rewarded with the ITA Texas Region Coach of the Year Award in 2019, also receiving acclaim as an ITA Coach of the Year finalist that same season.

On the recruiting trail, Weaver and his assistants have cultivated a record of success that is unparalleled across women's college tennis. Alongside assistant coach Jordan Szabo, Weaver has repeatedly signed the highest rated recruiting classes in Texas A&M program history, with both the 2021 and 2018 signing classes rated in the top-two nationally. Each of A&M's three prior classes received high marks in the national media, with all three classes earning top-10 distinctions. In his two most recent signing classes, Weaver has amassed six blue chip recruits according to Tennis-Recruiting.net and has consistently added five star American players and impressive international prospects into the mix. As an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator prior to 2015, Weaver was instrumental in the recruitment and cultivation of superstar Aggie talents and All-Americans in Rachel Pierson, Saska Gavrilovska, Cristina Stancu and Cristina Sanchez-Quintanar.

JORDAN SZABO
ASSISTANT COACH

Jordan Szabo will begin his fifth season as the Texas A&M women's tennis assistant coach in the 2021-22 season, having lettered for the Aggie men's tennis squad in four seasons from 2012-15. Through his first four years with the A&M women's team, Szabo has helped guide the Aggies to winning seasons and NCAA Tournament appearances in every year of his tenure, including a pair of trips to the NCAA Round of 16 in 2019 and 2021. He also played a key role in the development of A&M All-Americans Tatiana Makarova and Jayci Goldsmith, headlined by a remarkable run at the 2021 NCAA Individual Championships.

Following an illustrious playing career with the Maroon & White, Szabo elected to begin his coaching career at Texas A&M. After serving one year as a student assistant under Aggie men's tennis coach Steve Denton, Szabo accepted an assistant coaching position with the Texas Tech Red Raiders men's program before ultimately returning to Aggieland as a women's tennis assistant under head coach Mark Weaver. Since his return to the Brazos Valley, Szabo was named the ITA Texas Region Assistant Coach of the Year and an ITA National Assistant Coach of the Year finalist in 2019.

An exceptional recruiting coordinator under Weaver, Szabo is responsible for the two highest-rated signing groups in the history of Texas A&M women's tennis. The Aggies have signed two recruiting classes in Szabo's tenure, landing the No. 2 group in 2018 followed by yet another No. 2 class in 2021 according to the Tennis Recruiting Network spring rankings. He is responsible for signing six blue-chip prospects including All-American Jayci Goldsmith, also adding five-star American players and impressive international talent to bolster A&M's roster.

BJORN THOMSON
VOLUNTEER ASSISTANT COACH

Former A&M men's tennis standout Bjorn Thomson joined the women's program as a volunteer assistant coach in August 2021.

Prior to joining the Aggie women's tennis staff, Thomson played a crucial role as one of the primary doubles options for the Texas A&M men's tennis team as a graduate in 2021. Along with partner Juan Carlos Aguilar, Thomson finished with a 13-10 overall record in doubles play and recorded eight victories against nationally ranked opposition. His on-court success translated to national acclaim, earning the No. 9 ranking in the final ITA Doubles Poll of the season while garnering ITA All-America Doubles honors alongside Aguilar. In addition to serving as a cornerstone in the Aggie doubles lineup, Thomson cemented an additional eight victories in singles action while donning the Maroon & White. His new assignment with the Aggie women's tennis program will serve as Thomson's first foray into collegiate coaching.

Thomson, a native of Birmingham, United Kingdom, is currently pursuing his Master of Education degree at Texas A&M in sport and fitness administration and management. Prior to his career in the Brazos Valley, Thomson was a standout player on the Texas Tech Red Raider men's tennis squad from 2016 to 2020, compiling a program-record 88 doubles wins, two selections to the All-Big 12 First Team and yet another ITA Doubles All-America accolade. Thomson graduated from Texas Tech in 2020 with a Bachelor's degree in Sport Management, additionally serving as the President of the Big 12 Conference Student-Athlete Advisory Committee during his time in Lubbock.
