MILESTONES TO WATCH FOR

- Graduate WR Ainiyas Smith aims to continue his climb through the A&M record books and is in need of just two receiving touchdowns to move into the top five all-time, currently sitting in a tie for seventh with Mike Evans (2012-13) at 17 scoring receptions.
- Smith is just three catches away from passing Jhamon Ausbon (2017-19) on the Aggies' career receptions list as Smith has tallied 145 catches to-date.
- Already sitting in eighth all-time at A&M with 1,884 career receiving yards, Smith is in need of 116 yards through the air to become the eighth Aggie in program history to reach the 2,000 yard mark.
- Smith is 12 punt return yards away from moving into eighth on A&M's all-time career list ... His 123 all-purpose yards against Auburn helped him make the jump to 17th on A&M's career list as he upped his total to 3,182, and he is currently 176 yards away from breaking into the top 15.
- Sophomore QB Conner Weigman cracked the top 20 on A&M's all-time career passing touchdowns list in just seven career appearances and enters Week 5 in need of two touchdown passes to match Mark Farris' (1999-00) 18 career TD passes ... He is seven scoring strikes away from making his way into the top 15.
- Weigman is also just eight completions away from making his way into the top 25 of A&M's career list with 155 entering the game, as he chases Lex James' (1970-72) mark of 162 career completions.
- Junior WR Moose Muhammad III is on the verge of moving into the top 20 of A&M's all-time career receiving touchdowns list with nine career scoring receptions, while he is also 178 receiving yards away from reaching the 1,000-yard mark for his career.
- Sophomore WR Evan Stewart, who started the season with back-to-back 100-yard games, needs just 44 receiving yards to reach 1,000 for his career and 10 receptions to crack A&M's all-time top 30.

SWISS ARMY KNIFE

- Graduate WR Ainiyas Smith has been called a "Swiss Army Knife" by head coach Jimbo Fisher because of his do-it-all ability on the field.
- Smith recorded the fifth 100-yard game of his career when he led the offense with 127 yards on seven catches in the win over ULM.
- Smith has etched his name into Aggie history as he has climbed into the top 10 on A&M's career receiving touchdowns (17), receiving yards (1,884), receptions (146) and punt return (70-637) lists, while also recently becoming the 20th Aggie in program history to rack up 3,000 all-purpose yards in their career.
- Dating back to the 2019 LSU game, Smith has caught a pass in 31 consecutive games ... This streak is the 11th-longest active streak in the nation, sixth among Power 5 receivers, while it is also the longest streak by an Aggie since Christian Kirk (2015-17) had a string of 39 games.
- Smith has recorded seven multi-touchdown games in his career, catching multiple TD passes in a game five times ... Against Sam Houston last season, Smith hauled in a 63-yard scoring pass to put the Aggies up 17 points at the half and extended the lead in the fourth quarter with a 43-yard TD grab.

BRYAN-COLLEGE STATION IS THE HOME OF TEXAS A&M ...

On August 20, 2020 the Texas A&M Board of Regents voted and approved the use of "Bryan-College Station" as the home of Texas A&M University. "Bryan-College Station" should be used to reference all sporting events, academic events, press releases, marketing collateral, letterhead, and other representations of Texas A&M University and The Texas A&M University System where a specific postal address is not required.

Aggieland has grown beyond the boundaries of any one municipality. College Station is known as the "Home of Texas A&M University", but the City of College Station and the City of Bryan have had an entwined history since the City of College Station was incorporated in 1938. Bryan and Texas A&M University's historical ties go back to 1871, when Bryan was incorporated and the Texas Legislature established the Agricultural and Mechanical College of Texas.

The former Bryan Air Force Base was operated as the Texas A&M University Research and Extension Center for a quarter of a century before being designated as the Texas A&M University Riverside Campus in 1988, and the Texas A&M University Riverside Campus grew into the Texas A&M University Research Annex before transforming into the RELLIS Campus in 2016. The RELLIS Campus is home to Texas A&M University System entities including ten regional universities, the Texas A&M Engineering Extension Service (TEEX), the Texas A&M Engineering Experiment Station (TEES) and the Texas A&M Transportation Institute (TTI). In 2007, the City of Bryan gifted more than 200 acres to the Texas A&M University Health Science Center.

Recognizing that over the past decade, Texas A&M University and the Texas A&M University System have expanded into the City of Bryan with seven Texas A&M University System colleges, ten Texas A&M University System universities and multiple Texas A&M University System state agencies on more than 2,200 acres with more than $1 billion in investment, the Board of Regents voted to recognize the long history and partnership between the City of Bryan, the City of College Station and both Texas A&M University and The Texas A&M University System.

- A true quadruple threat, Smith has gained more than 250 yards as a rusher (389), receiver (1,884), punt returner (637) and kick returner (272) ... Among Aggies already in the 3,000-yard club, only six players even have stats in all four categories and just two -- Dante Hall and Larry Stegent -- had 250+ in all four.

- Smith is one of two players in SEC history to rack up 1,000 receiving yards while also gaining 250+ yards as a rusher and returner (punt and kickoff) ... The other is Kentucky's Randall Cobb, who posted 1,661 receiving yards along with 1,313 rushing yards, 619 punt return yards and 1,081 kickoff return yards from 2008-10.

WEIGMAN TAKES OVER AS QB1

- Sophomore Conner Weigman was officially named QB1 ahead of the season opener after logging four starts toward the end of the season in 2022.

- Weigman made it back-to-back 300-yard passing games, three for his career, after tallying 336 at Miami and racking up 337 against ULM ... Weigman also finished the ULM game 25-of-29 passing for a school record 86.2 completion percentage.

- Spearheading the highly productive Aggie offense, Weigman has helped the team rank in the top-20 in the country in scoring offense (39.8 ppg) and passing offense (301.8 ypg), while sitting in a tie for 16th with 55 passing first downs.

- Weigman put on a show against New Mexico, connecting on five touchdown passes and finishing the opener going 18-of-23 for 236 yards through the air ... His five touchdown passes were the most in regulation by an Aggie QB since Johnny Manziel (2012-13) threw five touchdown passes against Mississippi State in 2013 and the tally is tied for fifth on A&M's single-game chart.

- Weigman cracked the top 20 on A&M's all-time career passing touchdowns list in just seven career appearances and is just two scoring passes away from moving into 19th all-time.

- Entering the season, Weigman was the only SEC quarterback with at least 85 pass attempts that had not thrown a pick ... Despite ending his streak at Miami, he now holds the A&M all-time record with 179 consecutive attempts without a turnover.

- Making his first career start against No. 15 Ole Miss, Weigman put up 338 yards on 28-of-44 passing and four touchdowns ... His passing yards were the most in a game by a true freshman in program history and his four passing TDs were the most by any A&M freshman.

- Weigman was a highly touted prospect out of Bridgeland High School and was rated the No. 1 quarterback by Rivals and ESPN ... He was named a 2022 Under Armour All-American and was a multi-sport athlete that was also rated as one of the top baseball prospects in Texas.

STEWART MAKES IMPACT

- Sophomore WR Evan Stewart has become a favorite target for Aggie quarterbacks after making an immediate impact in his debut season and continuing to shine this year.

- Stewart made it back-to-back 100-yard games as he set career highs with 11 catches for 142 yards against Miami ... He became the first A&M receiver to catch 10-plus passes in a game since the 2017 season and the first to record back-to-back 100-yard games since the 2019 season.

- Stewart started his sophomore season in a big way, registering the third 100-yard game and first multi-touchdown game of his career, racking up 115 yards on eight catches and a pair of touchdown receptions.

- Stewart ranked eighth among all SEC receivers, averaging 64.9 yards per game last season, which led all FBS freshmen nationally ... He was also tied for 10th overall and led all freshmen in the league with 53 receptions.

- As a newcomer, he registered two 100-yard games, catching eight passes for 106 yards at Alabama and eclipsing the century mark with 120 yards on eight receptions against Florida.

- A highly-touted recruit in A&M's top 2022 signing class, Stewart was an Under Armour All-American that was also a track standout ... He earned top-two finishes at the Texas 5A state championships in the long jump and triple jump, while also helping his 4x400m and 4x200m relay teams to medal finishes.

MOOSE STEPPING UP

- With the Aggies looking for a spark at wide receiver after the loss of senior leader Ainias Smith to injury last season, junior WR Moose Muhammad III stepped up and consistently produced for the Aggies.

- Muhammad put his dependability on display in the season opener, catching all three passes that came his way, including a 12-yard touchdown grab midway through the fourth quarter.

- He registered the second 100-yard game of his career, racking up 112 yards on eight catches, including a 3-yard touchdown reception, against Ole Miss.

- In his second career start last season at Mississippi State, Muhammad led the Aggies with 119 receiving yards on six receptions, also grabbing his first TD catch of the 2022 season.

- On the season, Muhammad's 61.0 receiving yards per game in 2022 were good for 11th among SEC receivers.

- He is the son of longtime NFL wide receiver Muhsin Muhammad II, who enjoyed a 14-year professional career with the Carolina Panthers and Chicago Bears from 1996-2009. He was a two-time Pro Bowler and earned first-team AP All-Pro honors in 2004 when he led the NFL with 1,405 yards and 16 receiving TDs on 93 catches.

MAROON GOONS

- The Texas A&M offensive line returns great experience from last season ... Led by graduate Layden Robinson, who has been a staple at right guard over the last two seasons, the Aggies return three of five starters from a year ago.

- The Aggies rank fourth in the SEC, only allowing 6.0 sacks so far this season ... They are also among the top-five in the league, allowing 18.0 TFL on the year.

- Robinson is in his third year as a starter after helping clear the way for one of the top running back tandems in the nation in 2021 and a 1,000-yard rusher last season.

- The Aggies have seen Robinson, Trey Zuhn III, Mark Nabou Jr. and Chase Bisontis start all four games so far this season, while Bryce Foster, Kam Dewberry and Dametrious Crownover have had key roles on the line early on.

SEASONED SECONDARY

- A&M boasts a seasoned secondary that is led by fifth-year starter Demani Richardson who has started a team-best 48 games, including 29 consecutive starts.

- Graduate transfer Josh DeBerry burst on the scene in the season opener, filling out the stat sheet and leading the way in his first game in the Maroon & White ... DeBerry matched his single-game career highs from Boston College with 10 tackles, a solo sack, a pick and a hurry.

- A&M is first in the SEC with 19 pass breakups on the season, while DeBerry leads the way as he is tied for second among league players with six passes defended and Chappell is tied for eighth in the SEC with three breakups on the year.

- Under Coach Fisher, the Aggies have limited their opponent to less than 100 passing yards on 10 occasions, recently holding Auburn to just 56 yards through the air in the SEC opener after allowing just 95 passing yards in the win over ULM.

- The A&M defense finished the 2022 season with the No. 1 passing defense in the nation as it gave up just 156.2 yards through the air, including an average of 5.7 yards per pass which ranked fourth nationally ... The Aggies also boasted a top-25 scoring defense, which was fourth among SEC teams, allowing 21.2 points per game.

- Richardson leads all defensive players with two career touchdowns, both coming in 2022 ... He and junior DB Tyreek Chappell teamed up against Arkansas for the Aggies' first defensive touchdown of the season after DB Tyreek Chappell scooped up a loose fumble and later handed it off to Richardson, who took it 82 yards to the house and he capped off the season recovering a fumble and bringing it 27-yards to the house against LSU.

DEPTH ON THE D-LINE

- After entering the 2022 season with little experience but an abundance of talent on the defensive line, the group has remained intact for the 2023 season and has a full season of experience together under its belt.
- The line has been successful in limiting the run game early this season, holding both New Mexico (91) and Miami (77) to less than 100 yards on the ground, marking the first time the Aggies have done so since the 2021 season when they kept Missouri (98), South Carolina (71) and Auburn (73) under the century mark in consecutive games.
- As a unit the defensive line has been a key part of the Aggies' success in shutting down their opponents on third downs as they lead the league and rank third nationally allowing just seven conversions on 34 attempts this season, good for a 20.6 conversion percentage.
- Senior McKinnley Jackson and junior Shemar Turner have logged the most starts on the line and bring great versatility in their abilities or play both inside and outside ... While Jackson serves as a disruptive pass rusher, Turner has shown great consistency this year in getting to the quarterback and creating turnovers, recording at least 1.0 tackle for loss in all four games and sitting in a tie for first in the SEC with two forced fumbles and a tie for fifth with 3.0 sacks.
- In their debut seasons in 2022, Shemar Stewart, LT Overton and Walter Nolen made an immediate impact as each Aggie appeared in at least 11 of the team's 12 games ... Each of the three has started multiple games in their careers and the group continues to add reliable depth to A&M's rotation.

AGGIE GRADS

Throughout his career, head coach Jimbo Fisher has seen 179 of his student-athletes earn their degrees ... This season, a total of 18 Aggies will wear the SEC graduate patch on their jersey.

TEXAS A&M UNIVERSITY

HOME OF THE 12TH MAN

THE 12TH MAN

- Graduate DB Sam Mathews was named the 12th Man by head coach Jimbo Fisher on August 29, 2023.
- Mathews began his collegiate career at Division II Harding University, redshirting his only season at the Arkansas school before attending Blinn Junior College for the 2020-2021 academic year. After nearly two years away from the game of football due to COVID-19, he finally had his chance to earn a spot on the A&M team at walk-on tryouts in the spring of 2021.
- Mathews played in nine games during the 2021 season and went on to earn the Special Teams Most Improved Award at the annual team banquet.
- In 2022, Mathews continued to showcase his effort and toughness throughout fall workouts as he began to earn opportunities on defense. Eight games into the season the Aggies were hit with the flu-bug and Mathews was called on for his first career start at linebacker on Nov. 5 against Florida. Mathews finished the day with a career-high six tackles, including four solo takedowns. He finished the season playing in all 12 games and was named Special Teams MVP, while also earning the Strength & Conditioning Specialist Award at the team banquet.

ORIGINS OF THE 12TH MAN

- Texas A&M's famous 12th Man tradition dates back to Jan. 2, 1922 when student E. King Gill came out of the stands in the Dixie Classic in Dallas at the request of legendary head coach Dana X. Bible because of injuries to his football team ... Gill never entered the game but "stood ready" in the Aggies' 22-14 win over the powerhouse Centre College Praying Colonels.
- Texas A&M celebrated the 100-year anniversary of the birth of the hallowed 12th Man tradition throughout the 2021-22 school year.
- In honor of the tradition, the Texas A&M student body "stands ready" to show their support of their team on the field.

THE 12TH MAN KOT

- The 12th Man Kickoff Team tradition was started in 1983 by then-head coach Jackie Sherrill after being inspired by watching students build the famous Aggie Bonfire. "I knew that I could find, out of 40-some-odd thousand students, 11 guys that would cover kickoffs, but have no regard for their body and be tough as nails," Sherrill said. (Source: MyAggieNation.com) Beginning in 1991, a single 12th Man was chosen to represent the student body on the kickoff unit.

AINIAS SMITH

WR • GR-4L • MISSOURI CITY, TEXAS (FORT BEND DULLES)

- Smith has been called a "Swiss Army Knife" by head coach Jimbo Fisher due to his ability to do it all.
- A true quadruple threat, in his career he has gained more than 250 yards as a rusher (389), receiver (1,884), punt returner (637) and kick returner (272). Among Aggies in the 3,000-yard club, he is one of only seven players to even have stats in all four categories and just two others -- Dante Hall and Larry Stegent -- have 250+ in all four.
- Smith became the 20th player in Aggie history to reach 3,000 all-purpose yards in a career with 133 yards in the win over ULM. He now has 3,182 all-purpose yards in his career, putting him in 17th on the all-time Aggie list. Christine Michael (2009-12) is next on the list in 16th place with 3,331 career all-purpose yards.
- Smith continues to climb through the A&M record books after returning to the field in 2023 following a season-ending injury midway through the 2022 season. He vaulted into the top 10 in career receiving yards when he hauled in seven catches for 127 yards against ULM, and he enters this week vs Arkansas with 1,884 career receiving yards after having recently surged past Jhamon Ausbon (2017-19) into sole possession of eighth place. He is now eyeing seventh place, held by Uzoma Nwachukwu's (2009-12) 2,239 career receiving yards.
- Smith enters Week 5 having recorded a reception in 31 consecutive games, dating back to the 2019 LSU game. Over that span, he has registered 12 games with 5+ catches and nine with at least 70 receiving yards. It is the longest streak of games with at least one catch for an Aggie since Christian Kirk (2015-17) had a string of 39 games from 2015-17.
- Smith is currently in a tie for seventh on A&M's all-time list with Texas A&M Hall of Fame inductee and Super Bowl Champion Mike Evans (2012-13) with 17 career TD grabs.
- He already stands among the top 10 in A&M history in career receptions, but is eyeing Jhamon Ausbon's (2017-19) mark of 147 career catches. Smith currently has 145 career grabs going into this week's game vs Arkansas.
- Smith has seven multi-touchdown games in his career, the last coming in the 2022 season opener when he hauled in a pair of receiving TDs vs Sam Houston.
- Throughout his career he has handled punt return duties where he has averaged 9.0 yards per return with one touchdown. In 2021, he ranked third in the SEC and 11th nationally at 11.3 yards per return. As a freshman, he was the kickoff return specialist.
- Smith is 13 punt return yards away from moving into eighth on A&M's all-time career list after entering the top 10 and upping his career total to 637 yards on 86 yards through four games this year.
- Smith led the team in total touchdowns (10) in 2020, becoming the first Aggie to average a touchdown per game for an entire season since Trayveon Williams (2016-18) in 2018.
- Smith was not unfamiliar with the SEC prior to committing to Texas A&M, as his brother Maurice Smith was a cornerback at Alabama before transferring after graduation to Georgia. Maurice played four seasons in the NFL with the Miami Dolphins, Washington Football Team, Cincinnati Bengals and Tennessee Titans.

CONNER WEIGMAN

QB - SO-1L - CYPRESS, TEXAS [BRIDGELAND]

- A dual-threat signal caller who has already accounted for 10 touchdowns through the air and on the ground through four games for the Aggies in 2023. That includes a career-best five TD throws vs New Mexico and rushing scores in games vs Miami and ULM.
- Weigman put together the most efficient passing game of his career against ULM, completing 25-of-29 passes (86.2 percent) for 337 yards and a score. The 86.2 percent was the highest clip by an Aggie quarterback in program history.
- He set career highs with 31 completions and 53 attempts at Miami while coming up just 2 yards shy of his career best with 336 yards in the air. The 53 pass attempts were the most by an Aggie since Kenny Hill (2013-14) also put it up 53 times in 2014. The 31 completions were the most by an Aggie since Nick Starkel (2017-18) completed 42 vs Wake Forest in 2017.
- His touchdown pass vs ULM was the 16th of his career, breaking a tie with Nick Starkel (2017-18) to give him sole possession of 20th on the all-time Aggie list.
- Weigman entered the season as the only SEC quarterback with at least 85 pass attempts that had not thrown a pick and had not turned it over in his career until throwing a pair of INTs at Miami. The first pick came on his 179th career pass attempt, surpassing the previous Aggie best in that category, held by Johnny Manziel (2012-13) who opened his career with 133 throws without a pick.
- Weigman made his fifth career start under center in the 2023 opener vs New Mexico and finished the game 18-of-23 with 236 yards passing and a career-high five touchdown passes, the most in a regulation game by an Aggie QB since Manziel threw for five scores against Mississippi State in 2013. The tally is tied for fifth on A&M's single-game chart.
- Weigman made his collegiate debut in the fourth quarter at South Carolina in 2022 and made his first career start under center against Ole Miss one week later. It marked the first time since the 2002 season that the Aggies started three different quarterbacks in a regular season game in the same season.
- Against Ole Miss, Weigman finished with 338 yards on 28-of-44 passing and four touchdowns. His passing yards were the most in a game by a true freshman in program history and his four passing TDs were the most in a game since Kellen Mond (2017-20) threw four against South Carolina in 2020.
- Weigman helped the Aggies cap off the season with a big win, taking down No. 6 LSU as he finished the game 12-of-18 with 155 yards and two scoring strikes. He went on to be named SEC Freshman of the Week for his performance.
- Weigman was named an ESPN Freshman All-American following the conclusion of the 2022 season.
- Weigman was a highly touted 4-star prospect out of Bridgeland High School and was the No. 1 quarterback by Rivals and ESPN. He was named a 2022 Under Armour All-American. Weigman was a multi-sport athlete that was also rated as one of the top baseball prospects in Texas.

EVAN STEWART

WR • SO-1L • MEMPHIS, TENN. [FRISCO LIBERTY (TX)]

- Stewart missed the ULM game, but returned to the lineup with a bang in Saturday's win over Auburn. The sophomore standout made the most of his four targets with three grabs for 50 yards, most notably a 37-yard touchdown catch in the third quarter from Max Johnson to give the Aggies a commanding 20-3 lead.
- Stewart needs just 44 more receiving yards to reach 1,000 for his career. Should he achieve the feat on Saturday vs Arkansas it would be in his 14th career game, tying him with Ryan Tannehill (2008-11) as the third fastest Aggie to reach the millennium mark. Only Mike Evans (2012-13) and Christian Kirk (2015-17) did it faster with Evans reaching it in 12 games and Kirk in 13.
- He currently leads the team in both receptions (22) and receiving yards (307) and ranks ninth in the nation and third in the SEC with an average of 7.3 receptions per game. Stewart is also averaging 102.3 receiving yards per game in 2023, a mark good for fifth in the SEC and 16th in the country.
- Stewart made an immediate impact in his debut season in Aggieland, ranking as one of the top receivers in the SEC and one of the best freshmen in the nation in 2022.
- Stewart put up single-game career highs at Miami in receptions (11) and receiving yards (142). It was his second straight 100-yard receiving game to open 2023 and the third of his career. He is the first Aggie to have back-to-back games with 100+ receiving yards since Jhamon Ausbon (2017-19) had 109 vs Lamar and 111 vs Auburn in 2019.
- Stewart opened up his sophomore campaign by recording the third 100-yard game of his career in the win over New Mexico, hauling in a pair of touchdowns and matching his then career high with eight receptions.
- In 2022, Stewart ranked eighth among all SEC receivers, averaging 64.9 yards per game, which led all FBS freshmen ... He was also tied for 10th overall and led all freshmen in the league with 53 receptions.
- Stewart's 649 receiving yards in 2022 marked the fifth-most by an Aggie in a freshman season, while his 53 receptions on the year ranked fourth on A&M's all-time freshman list.
- Stewart recorded two 100-yard games in his debut season, tallying 106 yards on eight catches at Alabama and added 120 yards on eight grabs against Florida.
- He was named to the 2022 SEC All-Freshman Team and as a Freshman All-American by The Athletic, ESPN & FWAA.
- A native of Memphis, Tennessee, Stewart was a 5-star recruit and Under Armour All-American out of Liberty High School in Frisco, Texas. A two-sport athlete in high school, excelled on the football field and on the track. Stewart claimed the Texas 5A long jump title as a junior with a 24'6.5" leap, along with a silver medal in the triple jump (48'9"). He anchored the gold medal-winning 4x400m and silver medal-winning 4x200m teams.
- Was coached by former Dallas Cowboys star tight end Jason Witten at Frisco Liberty High School.

Aggies Roll to 52-10 Win in Season Opener

Conner Weigman tossed five touchdown passes, while the receiving duo of Evan Stewart and Noah Thomas combined for 189 yards and five TDs as the No. 23 Texas A&M Aggies rolled to a 52-10 win over the New Mexico Lobos in Saturday's season opener at Kyle Field.

Weigman's scoring strike tally was the most for an A&M quarterback in a season opener and marked the most by an Aggie in a regulation game since Johnny Manziel in 2013. Playing in just the first three quarters, he finished the day 18-for-23 for 236 yards.

The Aggies took control early carrying a 35-7 lead into the half, including four scoring tosses by Weigman and one rushing score compliments of Le'Veon Moss. Weigman threw his fifth touchdown as the Aggies took a commanding 42-10 lead into the final quarter. The Maroon & White added on 10 more points with a 12 yard touchdown pass from Max Johnson to Moose Muhammad II before Randy Bond nailed a 39 yard field goal.

Stewart led the receiving core with 115 yards on eight catches and two scores, while Thomas tallied 74 yards receiving on six catches and three TDs.

Graduate transfer Josh DeBerry filled the stat sheet with a career-high 10 tackles while adding a pick, a solo sack and a QB hurry. As a unit, the Aggies held the Lobos to only 91 yards on the ground on 32 carries for a 2.8-yard average.

Aggies Fall on the Road at Miami, 48-33

The Texas A&M Aggies were unable to weather a Miami surge in a 48-33 loss to the Hurricanes at Hard Rock Stadium.

The Aggies led 17-7 two minutes into the second quarter, but Miami outscored the Maroon & White 41-16 the rest of the way.

A&M capitalized on great field position in the opening series with a blocked punt by Jahdae Walker before Conner Weigman punched it in from the 1-yard line for his first career rushing touchdown. Randy Bond extended the early lead to 10-0 with a 24-yard field goal.

After a Miami score, Edgerrin Cooper recovered a Miami muffed punt before Amari Danies scored with a 9-yard rush to make it 17-7. Texas A&M trailed, 21-17, heading into the break following 14 unanswered points by Miami.

Bond brought the game within one, before two second-half turnovers and a special teams miscue hindered the Aggies' comeback effort.

Weigman ended the game connecting on 31 of 53 passes for 336 yards and two touchdowns and two interceptions. Evan Stewart registered career highs with 11 catches for 142 yards, his second 100-yard game of the season and fourth of his career.

Aggies Sack Auburn to Open SEC Play, 27-10

Spelling starter Conner Weigman due to injury with a precarious 6-3 lead coming out of halftime, Max Johnson completed his first five passes for 95 yards, including a pair of touchdown strikes, to lead Texas A&M in a dominant second half.

Meanwhile, the Texas A&M defense overwhelmed Auburn, holding the Tigers to 200 yards of total offense thanks in large part to a season-high seven sacks. The visitors were only able to scrounge up 56 passing yards on the day with three different quarterbacks taking snaps.

Auburn's first four drives of the second half resulted in three-and-outs and Texas A&M outgained the Tigers 146-2 in total offense in the pivotal third quarter. The Maroon & White held the Tigers to 3-of-15 on third-down conversions for the game, including just 1-of-10 through the first three quarters. After the Aggie defense held Auburn to a three-and-out on the first series of the second half, Johnson led Ol' Sarge's charges on a six-play, 46-yard drive, hitting his brother Jake Johnson for a 22-yard scoring toss, staking the Maroon & White to a 13-3 lead with 9:42 remaining in the quarter.

The Texas A&M defense stymied the Tigers again on the next drive after just three plays and the Aggies followed with another touchdown drive. This time they traveled 65 yards on six plays, capped by a precision 37-yard aerial to Evan Stewart in the end zone to stretch the margin 17 at the 6:22 mark of the third quarter.

Amari Daniels iced the game with 4:20 remaining when he weaved his way to a career-long 79-yard run, taking the ball down to the Auburn 4-yard line. Le'Veon Moss pounded his way into the end zone on the next play for the final score of the game.

Max Johnson ended the day hitting on 7-of-11 through the air for 123 yards and two touchdowns.

The Aggies mounted a 6-0 lead with a pair of first quarter field goals by Randy Bond. He closed out Texas A&M's game-opening 12-play, 41-yard drive with a 51-yarder. With 5:31 remaining in the period he hit a 32-yarder following a three-and-out by Auburn.

The backfield tandem of Moss and Daniels gobbled up career highs for rushing yardage. Moss ended the day with 97 yards on 15 carries. Daniels added 85 yards on five totes as the Aggies rolled up 209 yards in the ground game.

Linebackers Taurean York and Cooper played like mad dogs in a meat market to lead the A&M defense. York registered a career-high 11 tackles, including 2.0 TFL. Cooper logged eight tackles, including 3.0 TFL and a career-high 2.0 sacks. Walter Nolen and Chris Russell Jr. both checked in with 1.5 sacks.
