TEXAS A&M ORANGE BOWL HISTORY

1/1/1944 vs. LSU L, 14-19

BRYAN-COLLEGE STATION IS THE HOME OF TEXAS A&M ...

On August 20, 2020 the Texas A&M Board of Regents voted and approved the use of "Bryan-College Station" as the home of Texas A&M University. "Bryan-College Station" should be used to reference all sporting events, academic events, press releases, marketing collateral, letterhead, and other representations of Texas A&M University and The Texas A&M University System where a specific postal address is not required.

Aggeland has grown beyond the boundaries of any one municipality. College Station is known as the "Home of Texas A&M University", but the City of College Station and the City of Bryan have had an entwined history since the City of College Station was incorporated in 1938. Bryan and Texas A&M University's historical ties go back to 1871, when Bryan was incorporated and the Texas Legislature established the Agricultural and Mechanical College of Texas.

The former Bryan Air Force Base was operated as the Texas A&M University Research and Extension Center for a quarter of a century before being designated as the Texas A&M University Riverside Campus in 1988, and the Texas A&M University Riverside Campus grew into the Texas A&M University Research Annex before transforming into the RELLIS Campus in 2016. The RELLIS Campus is home to Texas A&M University System entities including ten regional universities, the Texas A&M Engineering Extension Service (TEEX), the Texas A&M Engineering Experiment Station (TEES) and the Texas A&M Transportation Institute (TTI). In 2007, the City of Bryan gifted more than 200 acres to the Texas A&M University Health Science Center.

Recognizing that over the past decade, Texas A&M University and the Texas A&M University System have expanded into the City of Bryan with seven Texas A&M University System colleges, ten Texas A&M University System universities and multiple Texas A&M University System state agencies on more than 2,200 acres with more than $1 billion in investment, the Board of Regents voted to recognize the long history and partnership between the City of Bryan, the City of College Station and both Texas A&M University and The Texas A&M University System.

- On the year, Wydermyer is the Aggies' leader with 29 catches for first downs, and he also leads the team with 14 catches for first downs on third-down plays.
- The Mackey Award finalist has done his most damage in the Aggies' two games vs. top-five opponents, tallying 13 receptions for 135 yards against No. 2 Alabama and No. 4 Florida.
- Wydermyer's 13 catches this season vs. AP Top 25 teams ranks seventh nationally among tight ends.

GOONS PROTECTING QB1

- Texas A&M's offensive front, long known as the Maroon Goons, has emerged as one of the best at limiting pressure on the quarterback.
- The Aggies have given up just 4.0 total sacks on the year and are allowing 0.44 sacks per game, as both numbers put them in a tie for fourth nationally and lead the way among SEC schools.
- Through nine games against only SEC opponents this season, A&M has become the first school in the last 10 years to lead the league in sacks allowed (0.44), tackles for loss allowed (3.78) and yards per carry (5.35) in the same season.
- A&M's sacks allowed per game average is the lowest season average among Power 5 schools since Tennessee allowed 0.29 per game in 2007 ... The Aggies' 4.0 total sacks on the year marks the first time an SEC program has allowed fewer than 5.0 sacks in a season in the last 10 years.
- The Goons' 3.78 TFL allowed per game average is also good for fifth nationally this season.
- The Maroon Goons went 24 quarters and 201 pass attempts without letting its opponent get to the quarterback ... The streak spanned from the second quarter of the season opener against Vanderbilt until the third quarter of the LSU game.
- At Auburn, the offensive line cleared the way for the Aggies to tally 313 yards on the ground, their highest single-game total of the season, as sophomore RB Isaiah Spiller recorded the 10th 100-yard game of his career and senior QB Kellen Mond became the second Aggie and fourth SEC QB to pass for 60 TDs and rush for 20 more in their careers.
- The O-line allowed just 1.0 tackle for loss at Mississippi State, the program's fewest since not allowing a TFL in the 16-10 road win over Colorado midway through the 1997 season.
- The Aggies are averaging a robust 437.2 total yards/game and 6.4 yards/play.

THE ELKO EFFECT

- After not finishing in the top 50 nationally in total defense for more than a decade, Mike Elko's arrival in Aggieland as defensive coordinator in 2018 has coincided with consecutive top-35 finishes and a No. 12 spot in the current FBS total defense rankings.
- Elko has produced top-50 defenses in each of the last eight years with multiple programs (Texas A&M, Notre Dame, Wake Forest, Bowling Green).
- The Aggies lead the SEC in total defense at 316.6 yards/game ... They are second in the SEC in rushing defense (92.22) and pass defense (224.3) and third in scoring defense (21.1).

- Since joining the SEC in 2012, Texas A&M has never finished better than No. 9 in all four defensive categories (total, rush, pass, score).
- Another way the Aggies have improved under Elko and with the style of play by head coach Jimbo Fisher is the dramatic drop in number of snaps faced per game by the defense ... Texas A&M's defense is facing just 58.7 snaps/game in 2020, which is similar to the numbers from 2018 (60.4) and 2019 (64.8) ... Prior to Elko's arrival in 2018, the Aggies faced 72.5 snaps in 2017 and a whopping 79.6 in 2016.

DUAL THREAT MOND

- Senior QB Kellen Mond is one of two Power 5 players with more than 8,000 career passing yards and 1,500 career rushing yards (all games at P5 school) ... Mond has passed for 9,429 and rushed for 1,572 in 45 career games at Texas A&M.
- At Auburn, Mond became the fourth A&M QB to rush for 20-plus touchdowns and the third SEC signal caller to throw for over 9,000 yards and rush for 1,500 more, joining Mississippi State's Dak Prescott and Florida's Tim Tebow.
- At South Carolina, Mond joined Prescott, Tebow and fellow Aggie Johnny Manziel as the only SEC QBs to pass for 60 touchdowns and rush for 20 more in their careers.
- Mond leads all SEC starting quarterbacks having passed and rushed for a touchdown in the same game 18 times in his career ... He was named MVP of the Texas Bowl after tallying 117 yards on the ground, including a 67-yard touchdown run in the fourth quarter.

HANSFORD'S JOURNEY TO STARTER

- Senior LB Aaron Hansford made the second start of his career in the opener against Vandy and helped lead the defense with 11 tackles.

- Hansford played in 13 games as a junior, making his first start at then-No. 1 LSU ... He made some of his biggest plays against big opponents last season, recording his first career sack against No. 1 Alabama for a 10-yard loss and had another for an 8-yard loss at No. 4 Georgia.
- Hansford was originally recruited to A&M as member of the receiving corps and made the transition to the defensive side of the ball as a junior after battling a pair of season-ending injuries in 2016 and 2018.

DEFENSE MAKES THE DIFFERENCE IN OPENER

- Senior LBs Buddy Johnson, who led the Aggies in tackles last season, and Aaron Hansford led the defense with 11 takedowns apiece in the season-opening victory over Vanderbilt.
- Making his presence felt against Vanderbilt was 5th-year senior DE Micheal Clemons, who was recruited out of Junior College as the heir apparent to Myles Garrett, but had contributed just 1.5 QB sacks in his previous two seasons ... He matched that total in the 2020 season opener with 1.5 QBS, including a crucial sack on VU's final drive.
- Clemons received the Lohman Inspiration Award at Texas A&M's 2020 Building Champions Awards gala last spring for overcoming the loss of his father and helping his mother raise his brother.
- The Aggies' veteran group of safeties - senior Keldrick Carper, junior Leon O'Neal and sophomore Demani Richardson - had a big impact against VU, combining for 15 tackles, 3.0 tackles for loss, two pickoffs and a broken up pass.
- Seeking to offset the loss of NFL third round pick Justin Madubuike, the Aggies' interior defensive front was disruptive against the 'Dores ... Senior Jayden Peevy made five stops, including 1.5 TFLs, with a batted down pass, while junior Bobby Brown III contributed three stops and had a QB hurry ... True freshman McKinnley Jackson had two stops and a half-sack in his first game.
- Sophomore DL DeMarvin Leal, who can play inside or outside, was disruptive as expected with seven tackles, including 2.0 for losses against VU.

AGGIE GRADS

- Twenty-one Aggies on the 2020 roster have already earned their degree.
- At the recent December graduation ceremonies Connor Blumrick, Camron Buckley, Carson Green, Aaron Hansford, Jared Hocker, Buddy Johnson, Kellen Mond, Dan Moore Jr., Thomas Spann and Dylan Taylor all earned their A&M degrees.
- Graduate student Braden White walked across the graduation stage in August of 2019 after completing his undergraduate degree and earned his Masters degree in marketing in December 2020.
- Michael Clemons earned his degree in August of 2019 and Ryan McCollum and Ryan Renick walked across the stage in December of 2019.
- Although graduation looked much different in May of 2020, Cagan Baldree, Keldrick Carper, Travon Fuller, Drew Riethman, McCrae Rutledge and Colton Taylor earned their degrees, while Ikenna Okeke became an A&M grad this past August.

NEW FACES

- Texas A&M Football added three new coaches in the offseason, including tight ends coach James Coley, running backs coach Tommie Robinson, defensive backs coach TJ Rushing and linebackers coach Tyler Santucci.
- Coley came to Aggieland after four seasons at Georgia, working mainly with receivers and quarterbacks ... He previously worked with Coach Fisher as a GA in the early 2000's at LSU, from 2008-12 as the tight ends coach and later the OC at Florida State.
- Robinson has coached for over 30 years at both the collegiate and NFL levels and most recently spent three seasons at LSU, winning a national title last season.
- Rushing joined the staff after two seasons as the passing game coordinator and defensive backs coach at Memphis ... He played six years of professional football, winning a Super Bowl with the Indianapolis Colts in 2006, before beginning his coaching career.
- Santucci returned to A&M after one season as the linebackers coach at Wake Forest ... He previously served as a defensive analyst on Fisher's first staff at A&M.

THE 12TH MAN

- Graduate student LB Braden White was named the 12th Man by head coach Jimbo Fisher on August 20, 2019.
- The Florence, Alabama, native has appeared in 39 career games, playing primarily on special teams ... He earned the Top Conditioned Athlete Award following the 2018 season and was named Defensive Scout MVP at the annual team banquet following his redshirt season in 2016.
- White graduated in August of 2019, earning his degree from the College of Business.
- Texas A&M's famous 12th Man tradition dates back to 1922 when student E. King Gill came out of the stands in the Dixie Classic in Dallas at the request of legendary head coach Dana X. Bible because of injuries to his football team ... Gill never entered the game but "stood ready" in the Aggies' 22-14 win over the powerhouse Centre College Praying Colonels.

- In honor of the tradition, the Texas A&M student body "stands ready" to show their support of their team on the field.
- The 12th Man Kickoff Team tradition was started in 1983 by then-head coach Jackie Sherrill after being inspired by watching students build the famous Aggie Bonfire. "I knew that I could find, out of 40-some-odd thousand students, 11 guys that would cover kickoffs, but have no regard for their body and be tough as nails," Sherrill said. (Source: MyAggieNation.com) Beginning in 1991, a single 12th Man was chosen to represent the study body on the kickoff unit.

- Capacity: 102,733
- Stadium record crowd is 110,633 (A&M vs. Ole Miss, 10/11/2014).

Texas A&M ranked No. 6 nationally in home attendance in 2018 with an average of 99,844 per game and drew more than 600,000 fans to Kyle Field for the sixth consecutive year.

GAME SUMMARIES

	—/— VANDERBILT (0-1)	12
	10/11 TEXAS A&M (1-0)	17

SATURDAY, SEPT. 26 • KYLE FIELD • BRYAN-COLLEGE STATION, TEXAS
ATTENDANCE: 24,073 • TV: SEC NETWORK-ALTERNATE

BRYAN-COLLEGE STATION, Texas (AP) -- Texas A&M coach Jimbo Fisher admitted that he'd be mad all week after the way his 10th-ranked team played against Vanderbilt on Saturday night.

But the veteran coach was able to look on the bright side of his situation after the game.

"I'm going to promise you this, it's a lot easier to go fix mistakes when you win than when you lose," he said.

Isaiah Spiller had 117 yards rushing, Ainiyas Smith ran for a touchdown Texas A&M overcame three turnovers in a mistake-filled game to beat Vanderbilt 17-12 in the season-opener for both teams.

Spiller had 5 five yards rushing in the first half before getting going after halftime. Smith added 51 yards rushing after switching from receiver to running back this season to steady the offense on a night when Kellen Mond fumbled twice, losing one.

The Aggies didn't trail after the first quarter but were never able to pull away despite entering the game as 30-point favorites because of three fumbles and a penalty that resulted in a safety.

Spiller got things going for A&M after halftime when he ran for 57 yards on the first play of the third quarter. Texas A&M pushed the lead to 14-5 when Mond connected with Caleb Chapman on a 17-yard TD pass two plays later.

Seals threw an interception on Vanderbilt's next drive, but the Aggies couldn't cash in on the mistake after Mond fumbled at the end of a run on the ensuing possession.

The Commodores cut the lead to 14-12 late in the third quarter when Seals threw a perfect strike to Amir Abdur-Rahman in the corner of the end zone for a 7-yard touchdown. Abdur-Rahman had five receptions for 72 yards -- both career highs.

The Aggies added a field goal early in the fourth quarter to make it 17-12. Texas A&M was driving later in the quarter when Daevion Davis forced a fumble after a reception by Jalen Preston and recovered it to give Vanderbilt the ball at their own 42.

But a pass by Seals was tipped and intercepted by Leon O'Neal. He returned it 35 yards and the Aggies got 15 more yards after Chris Pierce was flagged for a late hit when he threw O'Neal down at the end of the run while he was out of bounds on the A&M sideline.

The Aggies came away empty on their next drive when Mond fumbled the handoff on fourth-and-1. But Vanderbilt had to punt it back to allow Texas A&M to hold on for the victory.

Vanderbilt led 3-0 in the first quarter before Smith ran 25 yards for a touchdown to put A&M on top.

There were about eight minutes left in the second quarter when Andre Mintze hit Mond to force a fumble which was recovered by Dashaun Jerkins. The Commodores couldn't move the ball and had to punt. But Brian George received a personal foul for a blind side block in the end zone to give Vanderbilt a safety to cut the lead to 7-5.

	13/13 TEXAS A&M (1-1)	24
	2/2 ALABAMA (2-0)	52

SATURDAY, OCT. 3 • BRYANT-DENNY STADIUM • TUSCALOOSA, ALABAMA
ATTENDANCE: 19,424 • TV: CBS

TUSCALOOSA, Ala. (AP) -- Mac Jones passed for a career-high 435 yards and four touchdowns, including a pair of deep throws to John Metchie III and an even longer one to Jaylen Waddle, and No. 2 Alabama defeated No. 13 Texas A&M 52-24 on Saturday.

Briefly threatened early, Jones and the Crimson Tide (2-0) flexed their considerable big-play muscle in the passing game to put away the Aggies (1-1). A sign of things to come: His first attempt went 78 yards to Metchie, Bama's latest major receiving threat.

Jones topped that with an 87-yard TD to Waddle, who had sprinted past two Aggies defenders to make the grab with nothing but green in between himself and the end zone. Metchie and Jones hooked up for a 63-yarder in the fourth, giving the sophomore five catches for 181 yards.

Jones finished 19-of-26 passing for a second straight surgically precise performance marred by one interception off a deflection. Waddle had 142 yards receiving and his touchdown catch was tied for the fifth longest in program history.

It came after three Alabama penalties in four plays. Jones' three career pass touchdowns of 85-plus yards are the most by a Tide quarterback.

Najee Harris rushed for two short touchdowns and safety Daniel Wright scored on a 47-yard interception return against Kellen Mond.

Mond put up big numbers but it wasn't nearly enough. He completed 25 of 44 passes for 318 yards with three touchdowns -- and the pick six. Ainiyas Smith had six catches for 123 yards and two touchdowns.

SATURDAY, OCT. 10 • KYLE FIELD • BRYAN-COLLEGE STATION, TEXAS

BRYAN-COLLEGE STATION, Texas (AP) -- Isaiah Spiller rushed for 174 yards and two touchdowns, and No. 21 Texas A&M beat fourth-ranked Florida 41-38 on Seth Small's 26-yard field goal as time expired Saturday.

Spiller helped get the Aggies get into position for Small's decisive kick, giving Jimbo Fisher his first win over a top-five team since taking over as Texas A&M coach.

Fisher brushed off the notion that it was a signature win or it meant more than anything he's done in three seasons in College Station.

The Gators were driving when Buddy Johnson forced a fumble by Malik Davis, and it was recovered by DeMarvin Leal to set up the game-ending field goal.

Mond passed for 338 yards and three touchdowns to help the Aggies (2-1, 2-1 SEC) down the previously undefeated Gators (2-1, 2-1).

Florida quarterback Kyle Trask had 312 yards passing and four TDs, but the Gators were done in by the late mistake and another poor performance by their defense.

Mullen was disappointed that the Gators allowed A&M to convert 12 of 15 third-down opportunities.

Chapman finished with nine receptions for 151 yards and two touchdowns as the Aggies bounced back from last week's lopsided loss to No. 2 Alabama.

Leon O'Neal intercepted Trask on Florida's first drive of the second half, but the play was wiped out by a hands-to-the-face penalty on Michael Clemons. There was a scuffle after a play later in the drive that resulted in unsportsmanlike conduct penalties for both teams.

Kadarius Toney grabbed his second TD reception on the next play, a 37-yarder that made it 28-17 Gators with about 10 minutes left in the third.

Another unsportsmanlike conduct penalty on the Aggies, this one on Andre White, occurred on the ensuing kickoff and it looked as if Florida was in control of the game.

But then Spiller got going. Texas A&M grinded it out on its next drive, passing just once on a 10-play possession capped by a 3-yard TD from Spiller.

Florida led 28-24 early in the fourth when Spiller struck again, running 19 yards for a touchdown on a fourth-and-2 play. Spiller bounced off several defenders before waltzing into the end zone and then hitting the Florida fan section with a Gator chomp.

Florida's Evan McPherson kicked a tying 53-yard field goal with about 9½ minutes remaining, setting the stage for a wild finish.

The game was tied when Aini Smith fumbled after a reception and the ball was recovered by Marco Wilson. The Gators cashed in on the mistake when Trask threw a 1-yard touchdown pass to Dameon Pierce to make it 38-31 with about six minutes left.

Kyle Pitts gave the Gators an early lead when he leaped above two defenders for a 5-yard touchdown reception on the first drive. The Aggies tied it up when Mond connected with Chase Lane on an 11-yard TD on their first possession.

Trask's second TD pass came on the next drive when he found Toney for an 11-yard grab.

Mond then orchestrated a 14-play, 94-yard drive capped by a touchdown pass to Caleb Chapman with 9½ minutes left in the first half.

The Aggies made a field goal at the end of the second quarter to cut the lead to 21-17 at halftime.

SATURDAY, OCT. 17 • DAVIS-WADE STADIUM • STARKVILLE, MISSISSIPPI
ATTENDANCE: 13,142 • TV: SEC NETWORK

STARKVILLE, Miss. (AP) -- Texas A&M controlled the line of scrimmage and the clock.

Isaiah Spiller ran for 114 yards and two touchdowns and Kellen Mond threw for two scores to help the No. 11 Aggies beat Mississippi State 28-14 on Saturday.

"When you're on the road, you've got to be able to control clock, control tempo, and you've got to run the football to do that," Aggies coach Jimbo Fisher said. "And we did at times today. The other part was running out the last five, six minutes of the game when we got the ball and we got down there and could have had a score. We didn't, but eating that clock up and not giving it back, that was huge."

Texas A&M (3-1) led 14-0 at the half and had 325 yards of total offense in the game. Aini Smith caught five passes for 20 yards and a touchdown. Chase Lane caught two passes, including a 51-yard touchdown reception in the opening minutes of the third quarter.

Mississippi State (1-3) had little offensive rhythm for the third straight game. The Bulldogs' first touchdown came on Emmanuel Forbes' interception return in the third quarter.

"I thought we literally squandered the first half," Bulldog coach Mike Leach said. "Right now we're one team on Tuesday and Wednesday and another team on Saturday. We need to be able to transition that to the field. And if you think that's frustrating for you, you should try it from my perspective."

Leach benched starting quarterback KJ Costello midway through the second half for freshman Will Rogers, same as he did last week in a 24-2 loss at Kentucky. Rogers connected with Malik Heath for a 15-yard touchdown pass in the fourth quarter.

"Offensively, we were a bunch of pincushions out there," Leach said. "And I think its mental on the part of our o-line, because we can block our own defensive line consistently in practice and A&M couldn't even do that. So, it's definitely mental."

Texas A&M's defense continually disrupted the line of scrimmage, finishing with six sacks and eight tackles for loss. Mississippi State had minus-2 yards rushing and just 217 yards of total offense.

BRYAN-COLLEGE STATION, Texas (AP) -- Kellen Mond threw for 260 yards and three touchdowns as eighth-ranked Texas A&M built a big lead and held on for a 42-31 victory over Arkansas on Saturday night, extending its winning streak over the Razorbacks to nine games.

Jalen Wydermyer had a career-high 92 yards receiving with two touchdowns. Ainius Smith ran for a touchdown and caught a TD pass in the first half to help A&M win its third straight since losing to No. 2 Alabama.

Mond threw TD passes of 35, 6 and 15 yards. The senior added 32 yards rushing to give him 10,015 yards of total offense in his career, passing 2012 Heisman Trophy winner Johnny Manziel (9,989), who played just two seasons, for the most in school history.

The Aggies (4-1) led by 14 at halftime and scored two touchdowns in the third quarter while limiting the Razorbacks (2-3) to a field goal to make it 42-17 entering the fourth quarter.

Arkansas scored two touchdowns in the fourth quarter on a reception by Treyton Burks and 14-yard run by Rakeem Boyd, but the deficit was too big to overcome.

Franks threw for 239 yards and three touchdowns and ran for 91 yards for Arkansas. Burks had 117 yards receiving and two scores.

Arkansas entered the game leading the country with 10 interceptions after grabbing six in its last game against Ole Miss. But the Razorbacks couldn't force any turnovers on Saturday and remained winless against the Aggies since 2011.

It was the first campus meeting between these teams since a game at Arkansas in 2013 after they played the last six games at AT&T Stadium in Arlington, Texas.

A.J. Reed made a 34-yard field goal in the third quarter to cut the Aggies' lead to 28-17 after missing two longer tries in the first half.

Mond's second touchdown throw to Wydermyer made it 35-17 with about 5 1/2 minutes left in the third. Freshman Devon Achane's 30-yard run later in the third pushed the lead to 25 points.

Burks put Arkansas up early when he grabbed a 6-yard TD pass on the team's first possession.

The Aggies tied it when Smith scored on a 35-yard reception later in the first quarter.

Smith got into the end zone again on A&M's next possession, this time running 15 yards for the score to make it 14-7 late in the first quarter.

Freshman safety Jalen Catalon was ejected for targeting on that drive after a helmet-to-helmet hit on Chase Lane after a 15-yard reception.

Mond's second TD pass was on a 6-yard reception by Wydermyer, which extended the lead to 21-7 about seven minutes before halftime.

Tyson Morris got the Razorbacks within seven with a 1-yard touchdown catch later in the second quarter. Burks had a 36-yard reception on fourth-and-2 two plays earlier to keep the drive alive.

Texas A&M made it 28-14 with a 16-yard scoring run by Isaiah Spiller with about a minute left in the first half. Arkansas had a chance to cut the deficit after that, but Reed missed a 49-yard field goal attempt – his second miss of the half.

	7/7 TEXAS A&M (5-1)	48

SATURDAY, NOV. 7 • WILLIAMS-BRICE STADIUM • COLUMBIA, SOUTH CAROLINA
ATTENDANCE: 16,253 • TV: ESPN

COLUMBIA, S.C. (AP) -- Kellen Mond threw four touchdown passes to become Texas A&M's career leader, Isaiah Spiller ran for 131 yards and the No. 7 Aggies routed South Carolina 48-3 on Saturday night.

Mond moved past Jerrod Johnson with the 68th touchdown pass of his career, a 52-yarder to Devon Achane in the third quarter with the game long decided.

Mond also ran for a score to help Texas A&M improve to 5-1 – all in the Southeastern Conference – for its best start since opening 6-0 in 2016. The Aggies are 7-0 against the Gamecocks.

Mond and Spiller helped the Aggies open a 21-0 halftime lead and cruise to their fourth consecutive victory since a loss at Alabama last month.

Spiller had two short pickups for first downs – one on a fourth-and-1 with Texas A&M in chip-shot field goal range – before Mond flipped a 4-yard TD pass to Ainius Smith.

Mond found tight end Jalen Wydermyer for two first-half scores. Wydermyer was left all alone and walked into the end zone on a 15-yard scoring grab. Right before half, Mond hit Wydermyer on a crossing route near the goal line to go up three scores.

South Carolina (2-4), coming off an off week, had no answer.

Quarterback Collin Hill was 8 of 21 for 66 yards and two interceptions before getting lifted in the fourth quarter for last year's starter and current backup, Ryan Hilinski.

Kevin Harris, the SEC's second-leading rusher coming in, was limited to 39 yards on 13 carries.

Mond had a 15-yard scoring run to start the third quarter before his long TD pass to Achane gave him his latest school record. Mond already holds career Aggies marks for completions, passing yards and total offense – probably with more on the way as his senior season continues.

He finished 16 of 26 for 224 yards.

Spiller also had two catches for 46 yards before limping off the field in the third quarter. The tailback went into the Aggies' medical tent and came out running on the sidelines. But with Texas A&M's big lead, he was not needed in the second half.

South Carolina has surrendered 1,071 yards and 100 points in losses to LSU and the Aggies its past two games.

The Gamecocks avoided their first shutout since 2018 on Parker White's 48-yard field goal with less than six minutes left.

BRYAN-COLLEGE STATION, Texas (AP) -- Isaiah Spiller ran for 141 yards and a touchdown and Buddy Johnson returned an interception for a score in No. 5 Texas A&M's 20-7 victory over LSU on Saturday night.

Texas A&M (6-1, No. 5 CFP) extended its winning streak to five games in its first contest since Nov. 7 after the team couldn't play the last two weeks because of a coronavirus outbreak.

"I thought we could have played better," Spiller said. "We were a little rusty."

The Aggies relied on their running game and tough defense on a wet and soggy night where rain fell steadily and made passing difficult. Kellen Mond had a season-low 105 yards passing in his first game this season without a touchdown pass. LSU's 123rd-ranked pass defense broke up eight of his passes in the first half and finished with 11.

"Our offense was way too inconsistent, didn't get a rhythm (but) our team found a way to win the game and that's what's important," coach Jimbo Fisher said.

TJ Finley threw for 118 yards and had an interception in the second quarter for LSU (3-4) before he was benched for Max Johnson after Buddy Johnson's Pick-6 in the third quarter.

Texas A&M beat the Tigers for the second time in three years, limiting LSU to 36 yards rushing and allowing just two of 16 third-down conversions.

LSU fumbled on a punt return with about six minutes left in the third, but the Aggies were unable to take advantage of the miscue when Mond was sacked on third down to force a punt. Texas A&M made it 20-0 when Johnson picked off a pass Finley threw under heavy pressure and returned it 15 yards for a touchdown with about 4 1/2 minutes left in the third.

Max Johnson, who played briefly in the first half, finished the game and had 113 yards passing and a 3-yard TD pass that made it 20-7 with less than a minute remaining.

Spiller had a 52-yard touchdown run, dragging a defender with him for the last couple of yards, to extend Texas A&M's lead to 10-0 late in the first quarter.

The Tigers looked to have cut the lead to 3 on a long TD catch by Kayshon Boutte with about nine minutes left in the second quarter. But the play was reviewed and ruled an incomplete pass.

The Aggies got the ball back on the next play when Finley's pass was tipped and intercepted by Jaylon Jones.

AUBURN, Ala. (AP) -- Kellen Mond passed for two touchdowns and ran for a third and No. 5 Texas A&M scored 17 points in the fourth quarter of a come-from-behind 31-20 victory over Auburn on Saturday.

The Aggies (7-1) dominated the final quarter to win their sixth straight and remain in College Football Playoff contention. The Tigers (5-4), who have gone 0-3 against teams ranked in the top five at the time, led 20-14 entering the fourth.

Mond rebounded from his worst game of the season against LSU with a strong performance. He completed 18 of 23 for 196 yards, highlighted by two TDs to Jalen Wydermyer, and ran for 60 yards.

Seth Small iced the game with a 32-yard field goal with just over a minute remaining after an earlier miss had helped Auburn remain within a score.

Isaiah Spiller had his fifth 100-yard game of the current winning streak, gaining 120 on 20 carries. Devon Achane also ran for 99 yards on just nine carries. Wydermyer caught eight passes for 89 yards.

The Aggies took a 21-20 lead early in the fourth quarter when Auburn linebacker Zakoby McClain tipped the ball into the arms of tight end Wydermyer for a touchdown - instead of what could have been a game-changing interception.

Then Aini Smith followed his 37-yard catch with a 4-yard run into the end zone. Auburn couldn't muster any late offense or defensive stops after winning the past three meetings.

Bo Nix had a highlight reel play on one of his two touchdown runs for Auburn, but also overthrew a wide-open Eli Stove in the end zone.

After a 28-yard completion and a 20-yard scramble, Nix escaped the grasp of 325-pound defensive tackle Bobby Brown and appeared about to go down. Then he scrambled left and barreled into the end zone.

Nix passed for 144 yards and ran for 49.

Both quarterbacks ran for touchdowns late in the second quarter, but Mond struck last on a quarterback sneak with 24 seconds left for a 14-10 halftime lead.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. (AP) -- Kellen Mond threw for 281 yards and a touchdown and rushed for 59 yards and a score to lead Texas A&M closed its case for inclusion in the College Football Playoff with a 34-13 victory over Tennessee on Saturday.

Isaiah Spiller ran for 89 yards and a touchdown, and Ainias Smith scored once rushing and once receiving.

Mond completed 26 of 32 passes as the Aggies (8-1, No. 5 CFP) finished their regular season and hoped for an upset or two within the CFP's top four.

Tennessee (3-7) has lost seven of its last eight games, ramping up speculation about Jeremy Pruitt's future as Vols coach.

Harrison Bailey and J.T. Shrout combined to throw for 189 yards and two touchdowns for the Vols.

The Aggies had trouble getting separation in the second half. Up 24-13 at halftime, the Aggies flirted with pulling away in the third quarter, but a red zone interception ended the threat.

It wasn't until the 9:02 mark of the fourth quarter that Texas A&M got some breathing room. Mond engineered an 88-yard drive, with a key play of a 28-yard pass to Jalen Wydermeyer, that ended with a 1-yard run by Smith for a 31-13 lead.

Smith had two big runs accounting for 50 yards on the Aggies' last possession. It ended in a 21-yard field goal that accounted for the 34-13 final.

Mond was impressive in the first half, completing 19 of 22 passes for 183 yards as the Aggies led, 24-13. He threw a 4-yard scoring pass to Ainias Smith and also ran for a TD from five yards.

Texas A&M, ranked third in the nation in third-down conversion percentage (55%), didn't punt in the first half. The Aggies converted on 6 of 7 third-down opportunities. They controlled the ball for more than 21 minutes.

Bailey led Tennessee to the game's opening score. The freshman hit Jacob Warren with a 33-yard scoring pass to cap a five-play, 75-yard drive.

Mond answered with a 75-yard drive of his own that included five passing plays of double digits. He ended it with a 5-yard run.

The Aggies took the lead when Spiller bulled over from 3 yards to cap a 69-yard drive four plays into the second quarter. Texas A&M's advantage went to 17-7 when the Aggies turned a Bailey fumble into a 23-yard field goal by Seth Small.

Shrout came off the bench and made an immediate impact for the Vols. He hit Cedric Tillman twice for 61 yards, the payoff being a 46-yarder while diving into the end zone.

After a missed PAT, the Aggies moved the ball 75 yards in 11 plays and scored on a 4-yard pass from Mond to Smith 15 seconds before intermission.

DALLAS—Sixth-ranked A&M used trickery to pull out a close win over 12th-ranked Fordham.

The Aggies used the "hideout pass" to break the scoring ice. Trailing 6-0 at the start of the third quarter, A&M's Earl "Bama" Smith trotted toward the east sideline while his teammates rushed to their huddle. Smith then took off undetected with the start of the play and hauled in a 62-yard scoring aerial from quarterback Marion Pugh to tie the game.

A&M blocked both of Fordham's extra-point kicks and Pugh converted after Kimbrough's score to provide the difference in the game.

(#20) ALABAMA 29, (#9) TEXAS A&M 21
THURSDAY, JAN. 1, 1942 • DALLAS, TEXAS
COTTON BOWL • ATTENDANCE: 33,000

DALLAS—If ever a game provided credence to the point that statistics can lie, this contest did.

Alabama made only one down (A&M had 13), gained just 59 yards rushing (to A&M's 115), 16 passing (to A&M's 194), and punted 16 times. But, the Crimson Tide scored 29 points and won the game.

Seven Aggie interceptions and five lost fumbles negated any statistical advantages A&M achieved.

Alabama's Jimmy Nelson was the star of the game with two interceptions, a 72-yard punt return for a score and a 21-yard scoring run.

COTTON BOWL • ATTENDANCE: 73,800

DALLAS—Student faced teacher as the Aggies capped a Cinderella season by appearing in the Cotton Bowl for the first time in 25 years and making its first post-season appearance in a decade.

A&M Head Coach Gene Stallings met his former college coach, Alabama's "Bear" Bryant, and his Aggies won their seventh straight game. Bryant, facing A&M for the first time since his departure following the 1957 season, gave Stallings a ride off the field on his shoulders after the game.

A&M converted an Alabama interception and fumble into a 13-10 halftime lead. Then, midway through the third quarter, the Aggies turned a short, 28-yard Tide punt into its final score of the game as fullback Wendell Housley bulled 20 yards for a clinching touchdown.

MEMPHIS, Tenn.—Emory Bellard's Aggies, seemingly shellshocked after a season-ending 31-6 loss to Arkansas cost them a possible national title shot, were punchless offensively as the Trojans gave Head Coach John McKay a win in his final game as USC grid boss.

USC shook off a four-game losing streak to drop the Aggies to 10-2.

A 65-yard bomb from quarterback Vince Evans to end Randy Simmrin set up a score by fullback Mose Tatupu. Tailback Ricky Bell, the game's MVP, ran 76 yards with a screen pass for another score.

EL PASO, Texas—A&M ended a 10-2 season by dominating virtually every phase of the game in knocking off the Gators.

Placekicker Tony Franklin kicked three field goals, including an NCAA bowl-record 62-yarder, and fullback George Woodard scored three times while rushing for 124 yards to key the Aggies offensively.

A&M raced to a 16-0 halftime lead as Franklin's three field goals sandwiched a nine-yard run by quarterback David Walker.

The Aggie defense forced five Gator turnovers and held them to minus-12 yards total offense in the decisive second quarter. Florida had only 27 net yards and two first downs at halftime and was contained by A&M until the game was out of reach.

And, once again, A&M ran off in the second half to a big victory as the Aggies dropped frustrated Tim Brown and Notre Dame in the first meeting ever between the two schools.

In what many call the most important victory in modern times for A&M, the Aggies handed the future national champs a setback behind a powerful rushing game spearheaded by freshman quarterback Bucky Richardson.

Richardson earned Most Valuable Player honors by rushing for 96 yards and two scores while directing a potent A&M offense in the crucial second half. A halfback pass from freshman Darren Lewis to split end Tony Thompson in the second quarter tied the game and turned momentum permanently in A&M's favor.

DALLAS—The Aggies drove through the Seminoles' defense with surprising ease in the early going and appeared poised to take the lead on their first possession when Greg Hill sprinted 39 yards toward the endzone.

But Hill fumbled the ball out of the endzone as he was hit at the two-yard line and the Seminoles were awarded possession on their own one-yard line. A&M's Quentin Coryatt sacked FSU quarterback Casey Weldon for a safety on the next play, but that's all the scoring the Aggies could muster.

Two possessions later, A&M dropped a sure scoring pass in the endzone. In the second quarter, safety Chris Crooms returned an interception 42 yards for an apparent touchdown, but Crooms had stepped out of bounds at the 26-yard line.

FSU's potent offense could manage just 10 points and 280 yards against A&M's No. 1-ranked defense, but the Aggies could gain just 180 yards against the Seminoles.

DALLAS—After a brutal defensive struggle for much of the first half, Notre Dame scored on a 40-yard pass from Rick Mirer to Lake Dawson with :36 left in the half for a 7-0 lead.

The Irish carried the momentum into the third quarter and took command with a pair of touchdowns, the first on a 26-yard pass from Mirer to Jerome Bettis and the second on a 1-yard run by Bettis.

A&M added a 41-yard field goal by Terry Venetoulis early in the fourth quarter to cut the lead to 21-3, but another touchdown run by Bettis put the game out of reach and handed the Irish a big 28-3 victory.

The Aggies gained just 165 yards of total offense and managed just 11 first downs, while Notre Dame compiled 439 yards of offense and 28 first downs.

Sophomore linebacker Jessie Cox had a big game for the Aggies, posting 17 tackles.

SATURDAY, JAN. 1, 1994 • DALLAS, TEXAS
COTTON BOWL • ATTENDANCE: 69,886

DALLAS—Both teams scored on their opening drives, with Notre Dame striking first on a 19-yard run by Kevin McDougal and A&M finding paydirt on an eight-yard run by Greg Hill.

The Aggies took a 14-7 halftime lead after a 15-yard pass from Corey Pullig to Detron Smith late in the second quarter. Notre Dame knotted the game, 14-14, early in the third period, but the Aggies came right back to regain the lead, 21-14, on a short plunge by Rodney Thomas.

The Fighting Irish returned the favor three minutes later with a scort scoring run of their own to tie the game, 21-21.

With less than four minutes to play, Notre Dame's Michael Miller returned an Aggie punt 38 yards to the A&M 22-yard line, the longest punt return allowed by A&M all season. The A&M defense held firm, but Notre Dame managed a 31-yard field goal by Kevin Pendergast to end the scoring.

With just :24 left, A&M narrowly missed a miracle comeback when, on fourth-and-17 from the Aggie 41, Corey Pullig completed a 14-yard pass to Tony Harrison, who attempted to lateral to trailing Leeland McElroy. However, the pitch sailed high and was recovered by Notre Dame, who took home an exciting 24-21 victory.

The Aggies outgained the Irish in total offense, 341-311, as Pullig passed for 238 yards.

(#18) TEXAS A&M 22, (#14) MICHIGAN 20
FRIDAY, DEC. 29, 1995 • SAN ANTONIO, TEXAS
ALAMODOME • ATTENDANCE: 64,597

SAN ANTONIO—Both defenses made the going tough for the opposing offenses in one of the closest and entertaining bowl games of the season.

A&M's Kyle Bryant was named the Offensive MVP, kicking five field goals to lead the Aggie attack. Linebacker Keith Mitchell was named the Defensive MVP for his constant harassment of the Michigan quarterback Brian Griese.

A trio of true freshman running backs—Eric Bernard, D'Andre Hardeman and Sirr Parker—subbed for the injured Leeland McElroy and gained 137 yards and scored one TD.

With A&M holding a 19-13 lead and time running out, Aggie cornerback Andre Williams intercepted a pass to set up Bryant's final field goal to give A&M a 22-13 lead with 23 seconds left to play. Michigan would complete a hail mary to narrow the score to the final, 22-20.

DALLAS—The game pitted Aggie head coach R.C. Slocum against UCLA head coach and former A&M assistant Bob Toledo as the Aggies were double-digit underdogs.

The Aggies led 16-0 before UCLA could muster any points. Led by two Wrecking Crew scores, the Aggies controlled early. A&M junior linebacker Dat Nguyen was named the Defensive Most Valuable Player as he recorded 20 tackles and a bowl record 15 solo stops.

UCLA took the momentum to the locker room at halftime with a late score to trail 16-7.

The No. 5 ranked Bruins outlasted the Aggies by the final of 29-23.

Dante Hall carried seven times for 93 yards and a touchdown.

The Aggies honored former A&M standout Reggie Brown, who sustained a career-ending neck injury in December, by wearing his number under their jerseys.

1999 SUGAR BOWL

(#3) OHIO STATE 24, (#8) TEXAS A&M 14
FRIDAY, JAN. 1, 1999 • NEW ORLEANS, LOUISIANA
SUPERDOME • ATTENDANCE: 76,503

NEW ORLEANS—Ohio State players, coaches and fans came to the Bayou State with one purpose in mind: To ring in 1999 with a Sugar Bowl victory befitting the Big Easy's nickname.

And in the end, the boisterous, cocksure Buckeyes did indeed get their win. But it wasn't by a big margin, and it certainly wasn't easy. The underdog and under-appreciated Texas Aggies gave their Big Ten-champion counterparts far more than they bargained for in front of 76,503 fans at the Louisiana Superdome.

In fact, for 53 minutes and 25 seconds of play, the Aggies did more than enough to make the Buckeye fans sweat out their New Year's Eve hangovers. Unfortunately for A&M, it was that other 6:35 of play that gave OSU fans a reason to revel throughout all corners of the French Quarter.

"We played a great team, and we played pretty well at times," Texas A&M freshman fullback Ja'Mar Toombs said following the Aggies' 24-14 loss. "They were ranked No. 1 for a long time, and there's a reason for that. They're very talented. But I think we proved we are, too. We just got too far behind."

Ohio State (11-1) used two impressive drives and a key blocked punt to score 21 points in a span of 6:35 in the first quarter. That proved to be enough for the Buckeyes to register a hard-fought win. But it wasn't what OSU had envisioned in the days in weeks leading up to the Sugar Bowl.

The Buckeyes, who spent nine weeks ranked No. 1 in the nation, wanted to destroy the Aggies (11-3) and stake their claim to the national title. That simply wasn't the case, as Texas A&M stood toe-to-toe with Ohio State and frequently had OSU on its heels.

A&M became only the second team this season to hold the Buckeyes to as few as 24 points (Michigan State also held OSU to that total in the Buckeyes' lone loss). And the Aggies became the first team to hold the high-powered Ohio State offense scoreless in the second half.

In other words, it was a struggle for the Buckeyes, not a stroll.

If it wouldn't have been for that little scoring outburst they had, it could have been a whole different ballgame," A&M junior running back Dante Hall said. "But we never panicked, and there in the second half, I kind of thought we might be on the verge of another Kansas State-type comeback."

Even with a convincing 24-7 lead at the intermission, Ohio State coach John Cooper spent plenty of time in the locker room reminding his players about A&M's heroic, late-season comebacks.

"At halftime, we were talking about the Kansas State game," Cooper said of the Big 12 title game in which the Aggies overcame a 15-point fourth-quarter deficit to win in double overtime. "(The Aggies) were getting the second-half kickoff, and we knew what they did in the second half against Kansas State."

Despite the warning, the Buckeyes appeared to be on the verge of buckling several times in the second half. First, A&M quarterback Brannndon Stewart hit Leroy Hodge on a 7-yard scoring pass to cut the lead to 24-14 with 5:24 left in the third quarter.

Then, after stuffing OSU on its next series, A&M drove to as deep as the Ohio State 33, as the Superdome rocked and resembled - in appearance and volume level - Kyle Field with a roof on it.

"We had them on their heels, and this place was going nuts," A&M senior tight end Dan Campbell said. "That's the frustrating thing to me. If we make it 24-21, I really would have liked to have seen (the Superdome) crowd. And I would have liked to have seen how (Ohio State) responded to it."

To the Aggies' chagrin, the Buckeyes never had to deal with that kind of pressure late in the game. A&M's late third-quarter drive into Buckeye territory was halted by a penalty and a sack. Then with the Aggies marching early in the fourth quarter, Stewart's lateral pass to Toombs was recovered by OSU at the Aggies' 48.

That killed a promising A&M drive and effectively ended the Aggies' comeback momentum. Ohio State simply held on the rest of the way to send the Aggies to their fifth-straight New Years Day bowl loss.

"(Ohio State) knew they had been in a war," Campbell said. "That much, I know for sure."

The Buckeyes should have sensed that from the opening kickoff. A&M forced OSU to go three-and-out on its first offensive possession of the game, and then A&M went on an impressive touchdown march. A&M drove 59 yards in six plays, with Hall capping the drive with a 9-yard scoring run to give the Aggies an early 7-0 lead.

Then on OSU's next possession, the Buckeyes faced a third-and-15 at their own 24. But OSU quarterback Joe Germaine completed a 28-yard pass to a wide-open Dee Miller to give the Buckeyes a big first down. Three plays later, Germaine hit Reggie Germany on an 18-yard scoring pass, and OSU's touchdown barrage had officially begun.

If that wasn't the key play of the game, then the blocked punt some six minutes later was. With OSU leading 14-7, Ohio State's Derek Ross blocked Shane Lechler's punt, and Kevin Griffin scooped it up and ran 16 yards for the score to put the Buckeyes up, 21-7. It was the first blocked punt against the Aggies since 1993, and it proved to be devastating.

"That was a significant play," A&M head coach R.C. Slocum said. "Being behind 21-7 is a whole lot different than being behind 14-7. Our team settled down and played a whole lot better in the second half, but it took us too long to get it going."

But unlike most games this year, the Aggies' magic ran out in the end, as a brilliant season met with a bitter end. Still, the Aggies proved all year long - and again in the Sugar Bowl - that they belong on the same center stage with the elite teams of college football.

"It's disappointing to end the season with a loss, but I can't say enough about my team," Slocum said. "We were Big 12 Champions, won 11 games and played eight bowl teams. A loss (in the Sugar Bowl) doesn't take away from a tremendous season."

1999 ALAMO BOWL

(#13) PENN STATE 24, (#18) TEXAS A&M 0
TUESDAY, DEC. 28, 1999 • SAN ANTONIO, TEXAS
ALAMODOME • ATTENDANCE: 65,380

SAN ANTONIO (AP)—Rashard Casey passed for a touchdown and ran for one as No. 13 Penn State, ending a three-game losing streak that cost it a possible shot at the national title, defeated No. 18 Texas A&M 24-0 in the Alamo Bowl.

"It seemed like a Hollywood script," All-American linebacker LaVar Arrington said after Penn State's first shutout of the season. "It's too bad it's too late to show what we had—but better late than never."

Penn State (10-3) sent longtime defensive coordinator Jerry Sandusky into retirement with a strong performance, holding Texas A&M to just 80 net yards rushing and 122 yards passing.

"We played like a Penn State defense," said Sandusky, the defensive coordinator since 1977. "We bent, but we didn't break, and people made plays in the clutch. That is what did it. And that's symbolic of the way we played so many, many times."

The defense had carried Penn State to a 9-0 start and a No. 2 national ranking, before the team's title hopes were dashed by losses to Minnesota, Michigan and Michigan State.

Penn State avoided what could have been the first four-game losing streak in Joe Paterno's 34-year career as coach.

As the Lions received their Alamo Bowl trophy, Paterno praised his players and the Penn State fans who traveled to Texas.

"It was a great effort by our team, and I'm very, very proud of them," he said. "Let's go get a shower and have fun tonight, guys!"

Penn State jumped to a 14-0 lead by halftime, then added another touchdown when Casey ran in for the score from the 4 on the first play of the fourth quarter.

A 39-yard field goal by Travis Forney pushed the Lions' lead to 24-0.

Casey had his first start of the season and played the whole game for Penn State, which had used Casey and Kevin Thompson at quarterback this year. Paterno said Monday that Thompson's arm was slightly sore.

"I knew I was going to get the start because coach had told me Kevin had messed up his shoulder," Casey said. "I went and practiced like I was going to be the starter."

Casey was 8-of-16 for 146 yards and Penn State added 175 yards rushing.

Randy McCown of Texas A&M was 13-for-22 for 105 passing yards but threw four interceptions, matching the career high he threw in a loss to Nebraska this season. McCown was sacked three times.

"It was tough to stay positive," McCown said. "We wanted to get a good start and we didn't. You're not going to win many football games playing like that."

Arrington, a junior who might make himself available for the NFL draft, had a big game for Penn State with 14 tackles, including one for an 8-yard loss.

"We had a lot of pressure on the quarterback," Arrington said.

Texas A&M coach R.C. Slocum knew going into the game that Arrington, not to mention his two fellow All-American defensive teammates, would pose problems for his offense.

"He's a great player," Slocum said. "He was up for every postseason award for a linebacker, so this is not the first time he's done it."

The Aggies had only one promising drive in the first half, and it failed when Shane Lechler—also the team's punter—saw his 44-yard field-goal attempt fall short.

Texas A&M looked as though it might get its running game together to start the second half, as Ja'Mar Toombs and D'Andre Hardeman combined for an impressive drive to begin the third.

But when the Aggies got near the end zone, Ron Graham of Penn State intercepted McCown's pass at the 7. Other Aggies mistakes followed, including Bethel

Johnson's fumble of a kickoff return in the fourth quarter.

An ocean of Aggies fans packed the 65,000-seat Alamodome, but the loud maroon-clad crowd couldn't keep the Aggies afloat. Some fans started to head for the exits with 10 minutes left in the game.

The defeat ended a season of tragedy for Texas A&M (8-4), whose players wore a helmet decal honoring the students killed in the Nov. 18 bonfire log collapse on campus that killed 12 people and injured 27.

The Lions got on the scoreboard early when Derek Fox ran 34 yards for a touchdown in the first quarter after intercepting a pass by McCown.

Earlier in the first quarter, the Lions took points off the board when they opted to take a first down on a roughing-the-kicker call after Forney made a 38-yard field goal. Four plays later, Forney was wide right on a 30-yard field goal attempt.

Penn State drove 73 yards and scored on a 45-yard pass from Casey to Eddie Drummond and moved ahead 14-0 with 8:54 left before halftime.

This was Paterno's 30th bowl appearance, breaking the record of 29 he shared with Bear Bryant of Alabama. Paterno has won more bowl games than any other coach and now has a bowl record of 20-9-1.

INDEPENDENCE STADIUM • ATTENDANCE: 36,974

SHREVEPORT, La.—Snow blanketed Independence Stadium prior to the 2000 Sanford Independence Bowl on New Year's Eve and provided one of the most unique experiences for Texas A&M and Mississippi State.

Barely able to make out the yard lines, the teams were forced to concentrate on the ground game. A&M junior running back Ja'Mar Toombs carried the ball 35 times (a school bowl record) for 193 yards and three touchdowns (a school bowl record), while MSU's Dontae Walker netted 143 rushing yards and three touchdowns.

The Aggies held an early 14-0 lead in the first quarter after touchdowns by Richard Whitaker and Toombs. MSU answered with two touchdowns in the second before A&M quarterback Mark Farris connected with receiver Robert Ferguson on a 42-yard TD pass.

The Aggies led 20-14 at the half, but would trail 21-20 entering the fourth. Farris opened the 4th with a 35-yard TD pass to Bethel Johnson and Toombs added another TD run and the Aggies led 35-21.

MSU rallied with two late TDs to force overtime. Toombs scored on the first possession, but the PAT by Terence Kitchens was blocked and returned for two points by Julius Griffith.

MSU's Wayne Madkin scored on the next possession to give the Bulldogs the overtime bowl win.

It set an A&M record for combined points in a bowl game and was the first overtime bowl game in school history.

2001 HOUSTON BOWL

TEXAS A&M 28, TCU 9
FRIDAY, DEC. 28, 2001 • HOUSTON, TEXAS
RELIANT ASTRODOME • ATTENDANCE: 53,480

HOUSTON (AP)—Not a bad way to begin a career.

Freshman Byron Jones intercepted three passes in his first start, and Joe Weber scored two touchdowns, helping Texas A&M end a four-game bowl losing streak with a 28-9 victory over TCU in the Galleryfurniture.com Houston Bowl on Friday.

Jones, one of five freshmen in the lineup, helped the Aggies beat their former Southwest Conference rivals for the 24th straight time. A&M won a bowl game for the first time since a 22-20 victory over Michigan in the 1995 Alamo Bowl.

"It was fun to finally win a bowl," Slocum said. "But I haven't beat myself up personally about it. Sometimes we were just playing one of the best teams in the nation and we just weren't good enough to win. Today, the better team won the game."

The Aggies ended the season 8-4 after losing their final three regular-season games. The Horned Frogs (6-6) haven't beaten the Aggies since 1972, and trail the series 56-29-7.

Weber, voted offensive player of the game, broke a 7-7 second-quarter tie with a 2-yard touchdown run and added a 14-yard run that put the Aggies in control with 1:14 left in the third quarter.

TCU's Casey Printers was intercepted four times, including the first three of Jones' career.

Aggies safety Wes Bautovich got A&M's fourth interception. On the next play, Mark Farris hit Mickey Jones for an 82-yard touchdown pass and a 28-7 lead with 14:40 left in the game. Weber broke straight up the middle on his second touchdown, knocking aside two tacklers and running into the end zone. He finished with 59 yards on nine carries.

Jones was the game's MVP and also was the defensive player of the game. He had three tackles and ran back his interceptions a total of 77 yards.

Starting in place of the injured Sean Weston, Jones had only two broken-up passes on his defensive chart in 11 games before he returned his first interception 62 yards in the first quarter to the Frogs' 35.

The Aggies couldn't score on that chance, but Jones had a 15-yard interception return to TCU's 1-yard line in the second quarter, setting up Farris' quarterback keeper for the score.

Charlie Owens scooped up a fumble by A&M running back Derek Farmer and returned it 89 yards for a TCU touchdown with four minutes left in the half, tying the game 7-7. It was the second-longest fumble return in school history.

Thomas returned the ensuing kickoff 43 yards, and Carriger, a converted defensive lineman, lumbered 19 yards with his second reception of the season to set up Weber's 2-yard touchdown run with 1:06 left in the half.

2005 COTTON BOWL

(#15) TENNESSEE 38, (#20) TEXAS A&M 7
SATURDAY, JAN. 1, 2005 • DALLAS, TEXAS
COTTON BOWL • ATTENDANCE: 75,704

DALLAS (AP)—Rick Clausen looked nothing like the third-stringer he was most of the season, leading No. 15 Tennessee to five touchdowns in just 2 1/2 quarters, and the defense had its way with No. 22 Texas A&M in a 38-7 victory in the Cotton Bowl.

The Volunteers (10-3) had lost four of their last five bowl games, the last two by a combined 40 points. After never leading in either of those games, they made things different just seven plays into this one when Clausen's short pass to C.J. Fayton turned into a 57-yard touchdown.

Tennessee wound up with the most lopsided victory in its 45-game bowl history. The Vols came within 5:13 of their first bowl shutout since the last time they played the Aggies, way back in the 1957 Gator Bowl.

The rout was as much a result of the Volunteers playing perfectly as it was the Aggies self-destructing. For instance, A&M lost only one fumble in its first seven games, but gave away four this time. Three came in the first half, helping Tennessee stretch its quick 7-0 lead to 21-0 early in the second quarter, forcing the Aggies out of their game plan.

The Vols' plan was excellent, especially on offense.

Instead of relying on the rushing of Gerald Riggs Jr. and Cedric Houston, Clausen came out firing from a variety of formations and showed the poise and patience of a seasoned leader, not a junior transfer who was beaten out by two freshmen and was playing only because they were both hurt.

Clausen was 18-of-27 for 222 yards with three touchdowns, no interceptions and no sacks. He also handled a hostile crowd of 75,704 -- the game's largest since 1978, the vast majority dressed in A&M maroon -- by scampering around the backfield to make sure everyone heard his audibles.

That was the case until he took the crowd out of it completely.

Tennessee gained 306 yards by halftime, even though two TD drives went just 28 and 8 yards thanks to fumble recoveries. The Vols set another school bowl record with 32 first downs.

Riggs followed his career-high 182 yards in the SEC championship with 102 and a touchdown on 18 carries. Houston ran 13 times for 62 yards, enough to make him and Riggs the first Tennessee teammates to have 1,000 yards in the same season. He also had a touchdown before leaving with a bruised thigh in the third quarter.

A&M trailed 28-0 at halftime, but had a chance to make it a game when Terrence Thomas ran 54 yards to the 15 on the opening drive of the third quarter. Then quarterback Reggie McNeal was tackled from behind on fourth-and-1 from the 6 and the Aggies hardly threatened again.

They finally scored in the closing minutes on a 5-yard pass to Earvin Taylor.

It was the eighth time in coach Phillip Fulmer's tenure Tennessee has won at least 10 games.

2006 HOLIDAY BOWL

(#20) CALIFORNIA 45, (#21) TEXAS A&M 10
 THURSDAY, DEC. 28, 2006 • SAN DIEGO, CALIFORNIA
 QUALCOMM STADIUM • ATTENDANCE: 62,395

SAN DIEGO (AP)—Marshawn Lynch ran for 111 yards and two touchdowns, and No. 20 California's defense played impressively in a 45-10 win over No. 21 Texas A&M in the Pacific Life Holiday Bowl.

Nate Longshore threw for a touchdown and ran for another, and Lynch's backup, Justin Forsett, ran for 124 yards and one score.

Cal (10-3) put an emphatic final touch to its second 10-win season in three years. The Golden Bears had lost to Arizona and Southern California in disheartening fashion before beating rival Stanford and then the Aggies (9-4).

In 2004, Cal was in position to end its long Rose Bowl drought but was leapfrogged in the final Bowl Championship Series standings by Texas. Although the fourth-ranked Golden Bears claimed not to be bothered by the snub, they couldn't even hang with No. 23 Texas Tech in the Holiday Bowl and were humiliated 45-31. This trip to San Diego turned out a lot better.

Lynch, the Pac-10 offensive player of the year, scored on a 2-yard run in the second quarter to give Cal a 14-7 lead. While Longshore lined up at wide receiver, Lynch was in the shotgun formation, took the snap and bulled into the end zone.

Lynch scored on a 1-yard run in the third, leaping over the line and fumbling as he came down in the end zone. The Aggies recovered and referee John O'Neill signaled first down for Texas A&M, then said the play was being reviewed. Replay official Jim Augustyn ruled that Lynch had possession when he broke the plane of the end zone, making it 21-10 Cal.

While the Golden Bears moved up and down the field, their defense came up big, too.

Jorvorskie Lane, Texas A&M's 274-pound tailback, wasn't much of a factor after tying a 79-year-old school record with 19 rushing touchdowns this year. He was held to 36 yards and no touchdowns on seven carries.

Longshore scored on a 1-yard keeper to tie the game at 7 in the first quarter, eight plays after Texas A&M's Stephen McGee threw a 19-yard TD pass to Chad Schroeder.

Longshore also threw a 4-yard touchdown pass to Lavelle Hawkins late in the third quarter. He finished 19-of-24 for 235 yards.

Texas A&M gambled a few times too many. After Bryce Reed gained 7 yards on a fake punt in the first quarter, the drive bogged down and the Aggies went for it on fourth-and-8 from the Cal 32. McGee was sacked by Nu'u Tafisi.

Lynch scored his first TD five plays later.

His second touchdown was set up when Texas A&M's Justin Brantly shanked a punt out of bounds for no gain at the Aggies' 41. Lynch scored four plays later.

2007 ALAMO BOWL

PENN STATE 24, TEXAS A&M 17

 ALAMODOME • ATTENDANCE: 66,166

SAN ANTONIO—Under interim head coach Gary Darnell and in front of the largest crowd to ever see a sporting event in the Alamodome, the Aggies jumped out to a 14 point first quarter lead but couldn't hold off Joe Paterno's Nittany Lions, 24-17, in the Valero Alamo Bowl.

The Aggies got on the board first as Mike Goodson culminated a nine-play, 70-yard drive with a one-yard touchdown plunge late in the first quarter. On the ensuing kickoff, safety Kenny Brown forced and recovered a Penn State fumble, and Mike Goodson scored on the next play for his second touchdown run in as many plays.

The Nittany Lions would come roaring back however as they reeled off 17 straight points to take a 17-14 lead into the locker room for halftime.

Early in the third quarter after a Stephen Hodge interception, the Aggies put together an 18-play, 78-yard drive resulting in a 38-yard Matt Szymanski field goal to knot the game at 17.

Late in the third quarter Penn State pulled ahead for good with a 38-yard touchdown run from Evan Royster to make the score 24-17.

The teams traded punts to start the fourth quarter before the Aggies embarked on a 93-yard drive to set up fourth and one from the Penn State two-yard line. The Aggies elected to go for it on fourth down but a failed option play turned the ball over to the Nittany Lions on downs.

MONDAY, DEC. 28, 2009 • SHREVEPORT, LOUISIANA
INDEPENDENCE STADIUM • ATTENDANCE: 66,166

SHREVEPORT, La. (AP)—Joe Cox threw two touchdown passes, Caleb King added two rushing scores and Georgia beat mistake-prone Texas A&M 44-20 on Monday in the Independence Bowl.

Cox hit Aron White on touchdown passes of 24 and 2 yards in the second half as the Bulldogs (8-5) pulled away for their fourth straight bowl victory. It was the fourth straight postseason loss for the Aggies (6-7), who have not won a bowl since 2001.

Georgia blocked two kicks, Brandon Boykin tied the Southeastern Conference record with his third kickoff return of the season and Cox threw his first touchdown pass after the snap sailed over the Texas A&M punter's head in the third quarter.

The Bulldogs sealed the win by intercepting Jerrod Johnson twice in the third quarter.

Special teams led directly to 24 points for the Bulldogs, who also blocked an early field goal attempt and got a 49-yard field goal from Blair Walsh.

Jerrod Johnson, who had a breakout game with four touchdown passes against Texas in the team's regular-season finale, completed 29 of 58 passes for 362 yards and one score. Cox was 15 of 28 for 158 yards. Georgia defensive tackle Geno Atkins was named defensive MVP and White was the offensive pick.

2011 COTTON BOWL

(#11) LSU 41, (#17) TEXAS A&M 24
FRIDAY, JAN. 7, 2011 • ARLINGTON, TEXAS
COWBOYS STADIUM • ATTENDANCE: 83,514

ARLINGTON (AP) — Jordan Jefferson threw three touchdown passes to Terrence Toliver and ran for a score to help the 11th-ranked Tigers rally for a 41-24 victory over No. 18 Texas A&M in the 75th Cotton Bowl.

Texas A&M (9-4) led 10-0 in the first quarter, including a field goal after Jefferson threw an interception, but had its six-game winning streak snapped.

Jefferson was 10 of 19 for 158 yards with scoring passes of 42, 2 and 41 yards to Toliver, who had only two TD catches in the regular season.

LSU went ahead for good when Stevan Ridley had a 17-yard TD run, jumping over a defender near the line and then sweeping right untouched into the end zone for a 21-17 lead with 4:43 left in the first half.

Ryan Tannehill, who had been 5-0 since taking over as the Aggies starting quarterback, then threw two interceptions in a span of three throws - after 127 consecutive attempts without a pick. The second interception was by Eric Reid, who returned it 34 yards to the 2 to set up Jefferson's short TD pass to Toliver for a 28-17 halftime lead.

Ridley had 24 carries for 105 yards. Spencer Ware ran for 102 yards on 10 carries as LSU got its first Cotton Bowl win since beating Arkansas 14-7 in the 1966 game.

Uzoma Nwachukwu had two TD catches for the Aggies to match his regular-season total. He caught a 6-yarder from Tannehill and a 14-yarder on a halfback pass by Cyrus Gray, who also had his seventh consecutive 100-yard rushing game - 100 yards on 20 carries.

Coryell Judie help set up A&M's two first-quarter scores.

Judie returned the opening kickoff 69 yards to the 31, setting up Nwachukwu's first TD. It was the first time all season that LSU's defense gave up a score on the opening drive.

After the Tigers' opening offensive drive was extended by a roughing the punter penalty, Judie had a one-handed interception near the end zone when he leaped and fully extended his right arm. That led to Randy Bullock's 39-yard field goal for a 10-0 lead.

When LSU got the ball back, Oliver had both arms stretched over his head when he caught a 42-yard touchdown pass. He had the 41-yarder on the opening drive of the second half.

The Tigers took their first lead on Jefferson's 1-yard TD run early in the second quarter after Bullock missed a 52-yarder. On that drive, Ware had a 24-yard run when he spun to avoid a tackler at the line and shed two different defenders before being driven out of bounds and Jefferson converted a third-and-11 with a 13-yard scramble.

2011 MEINEKE CAR CARE BOWL

TEXAS A&M 33, NORTHWESTERN 22
SATURDAY, DEC. 31, 2011 • HOUSTON, TEXAS
RELIANT STADIUM • ATTENDANCE: 68,395

HOUSTON (AP) - Ryan Tannehill threw for 329 yards and a touchdown and Ben Malena ran for two more scores to lead Texas A&M to a 33-22 win over Northwestern on Saturday in the Meineke Car Care Bowl.

Northwestern led 7-3 early in the second quarter before A&M reeled off 27 straight points to take a decisive lead and then fight off a late rally to capture its first bowl victory since 2001.

Texas A&M broke a five-game bowl losing streak in a win the team dedicated to fired coach Mike Sherman and offensive lineman Joseph Villaviesencia, who was killed in a car accident a week before.

Malena ran for 77 yards, filling in ably for Cyrus Gray, who missed his second straight game with a stress fracture in his left shoulder.

A&M won a bowl for the first time since a 28-9 victory over TCU after the 2001 season. That also came in Houston, when this game was called the Galleryfurniture.com bowl and played next door at the Astrodome.

The Aggies were up 30-7 before Brian Peters intercepted Tannehill early in the fourth quarter and the Wildcats took advantage of that mistake when Kain Colter scored on a 1-yard run for Northwestern's first points since early in the second quarter. The 2-point conversion left A&M ahead 30-15.

Colter found Tim Riley in the corner of the end zone for on a 2-yard touchdown pass to get Northwestern within 30-22 with less than six minutes remaining.

A&M responded with a clock-eating drive capped by a 31-yard field goal to secure the win. Senior Jeff Fuller, who has had a disappointing and injury-plagued year, had a key third down catch for 29 yards on that drive and finished with a season-high 119 yards receiving.

The Aggies were led by interim coach Tim DeRuyter in his last game at Texas A&M before leaving to become Fresno State's coach. The Aggies hired former Houston coach Kevin Sumlin earlier this month to replace Sherman, but he wasn't involved in bowl preparations.

Texas A&M erased a 7-3 second quarter deficit thanks to touchdowns by Malena and Fuller and a field goal by Randy Bullock to lead 20-7 at halftime.

Malena's second touchdown came on a 19-yard run early in the third quarter that made it 27-7. Another field goal by Bullock, this one from 47 yards, pushed A&M's advantage to 30-7.

Texas A&M's offense got rolling in the second quarter when Tannehill found Ryan Swope, who was a high school running back, on a short pass that he took 37 yards to the 1. Swope tight-roped the sideline and avoided a half dozen tacklers before he was brought down.

2013 COTTON BOWL

(#9) TEXAS A&M 41, (#11) OKLAHOMA 13
FRIDAY, JAN. 4, 2013 • ARLINGTON, TEXAS
COWBOYS STADIUM • ATTENDANCE: 83,514

ARLINGTON (AP) — Johnny Manziel tiptoed the sideline for a 23-yard touchdown on Texas A&M's first drive of the game.

The Heisman Trophy-winning quarterback known as Johnny Football and the 10th-ranked Aggies were just getting warmed up in the Cotton Bowl. There were plenty more highlights after that nifty run.

In his first game since becoming the first freshman to win the Heisman, Manziel set a Cotton Bowl-record with 516 total yards and accounted for four TDs as the Aggies capped their first SEC season with a 41-13 win over 12th-ranked Oklahoma on Friday night.

With first-year coach Kevin Sumlin and their young star quarterback, the Aggies (11-2) fit right in with the SEC after leaving the Big 12. They broke the SEC record with their 7.261 total yards this season (the first over 7,000 after 633 in Cowboys Stadium). They also averaged more than 40 points a game.

And they capped their debut season with an overwhelming victory in the only postseason game matching teams from those power conferences. It is the Aggies' first 11-win season since 1998, when they won their only Big 12 title.

Texas A&M led by only a point at halftime, but scored on its first three drives of the second half -- on drives of 91 and 89 yards before Swope's score on a fourth-and-5 play.

Oklahoma (10-3), which like the Aggies entered the game with a five-game winning streak, went three-and-out on its first three drives after halftime.

SEC teams have won the last five Cotton Bowls, all against Big 12 teams, and nine out of 10. That included Texas A&M's loss to LSU only two years ago.

Manziel set an FBS bowl record with his 229 yards rushing on 17 carries, and completed 22 of 34 passes for 287 yards.

Oklahoma, led by quarterback Landry Jones in his 50th career start, had only 312 total yards as a team.

2013 CHICK-FIL-A BOWL

(#20) TEXAS A&M 52, (#22) DUKE 48
TUESDAY, DEC. 31, 2013 • ATLANTA, GA.
GEORGIA DOME • ATTENDANCE: 67,946

ATLANTA (AP) — Even by Johnny Manziel's Heisman-winning standards, his lead role in Texas A&M's comeback was one to remember.

Manziel threw four touchdown passes, and Toney Hurd Jr. returned an interception 55 yards for the late go-ahead touchdown in Texas A&M's 52-48 victory over Duke on Tuesday night in the Chick-fil-A Bowl.

Led by Manziel, the Aggies rallied after trailing 38-17 at halftime. It was the highest-scoring game in the bowl's history.

Manziel, playing in what might be his final college game, completed 30 of 38 passes for 382 yards and ran for 73 yards and a touchdown.

"I was in a zone I haven't been in before," Manziel said. "Ever. I just wanted this game."

Hurd's interception return gave the No. 20 Aggies (9-4) their first lead with 3:33 remaining.

No. 22 Duke (10-4) took a 41-31 lead into the fourth quarter. The Blue Devils couldn't hold off the comeback and are still looking for their first bowl win since beating Arkansas 7-6 in the 1961 Cotton Bowl.

Hurd stepped in front of receiver Johnell Barnes for the interception, the first turnover for either team. Texas A&M linebacker Nate Askew ended Duke's next possession with another interception.

Texas A&M's defense opened the second half with its first stop of the game. The Blue Devils, successful on two fourth-down calls in the first half, were stopped on fourth down from the Texas A&M 35.

That set the stage for Manziel's magic.

The elusive quarterback had runs of 12 and 14 yards before his highlight play of the game. On second down from the Duke 17, Manziel danced and shuffled in traffic before vaulting a defender and dumping a short pass to Travis Labhart, who scored easily for his third touchdown of the game.

"It looked like we had him down three times," Duke coach David Cutcliffe said. "He's just strong, so strong."

2014 LIBERTY BOWL

TEXAS A&M 45, WEST VIRGINIA 37
MONDAY, JAN. 29, 2014 • MEMPHIS, TENN.
LIBERTY BOWL STADIUM • ATTENDANCE: 51,282

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP) — Kyle Allen threw for four touchdowns and ran for a fifth, and Texas A&M erased an early 10-point deficit to defeat West Virginia 45-37 in the Liberty Bowl.

Allen, a true freshman making his fifth career start, went 22 of 35 for 294 yards to make up for an early interception that KJ Dillon returned for a touchdown. The Aggies' season leaders in sacks (Myles Garrett), all-purpose yards (Speedy Noil) and interceptions (Armani Watts) also were true freshmen.

'Malcome Kennedy caught two of Allen's touchdown passes, and Tra Carson rushed for a career-high 133 yards on 25 carries. Allen's 14-yard rushing touchdown in the final minute of the first half put the Aggies (8-5) ahead for good.

Texas A&M has won bowl games in four straight seasons for the first time in school history. The Aggies won the Chick-fil-A Bowl last year, the Cotton Bowl two seasons ago and the Texas Bowl in 2011.

"That's something that nobody can ever take from them and puts (the seniors) in a separate class by themselves," coach Kevin Sumlin said.

The game lived up to its billing as a shootout between two fast-paced offenses that had scored over 30 points per game while allowing more than 25 this season. This wound up as the second-highest scoring day in the Liberty Bowl's 56-game history, trailing only Louisville's 44-40 victory over Boise State in 2004.

The first quarter alone featured 34 combined points, with West Virginia leading 20-14.

Texas A&M outlasted West Virginia by outrushing the Mountaineers 235-126 and holding West Virginia below 4 yards per carry. The Aggies had allowed 5.1 yards per rush this season.

Texas A&M pulled ahead 21-20 early in the second quarter on Allen's 11-yard touchdown pass to Kennedy. Just 39 seconds later, West Virginia went back in front 27-21 on Howard's 49-yard TD throw to White.

Texas A&M took over from there.

The Aggies got a 28-27 lead with 53 seconds left in the half as Allen went to his right and saw a defender converging, then headed to his left and ran down the sideline for a touchdown. Texas A&M scored 17 points on its first three series of the third quarter to pad its advantage to 45-30.

West Virginia cut the deficit to 45-37 on Howard's 4-yard touchdown pass to Elijah Wellman with 2:32 remaining, but the Mountaineers' offense wouldn't touch the ball again.

2015 MUSIC CITY BOWL

LOUISVILLE 27, TEXAS A&M 21
WEDNESDAY, DEC. 30, 2015 • NASHVILLE, TENN.
NISSAN STADIUM • ATTENDANCE: 50,478

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — Lamar Jackson ran for a career-high and Music City Bowl-record 226 yards and two touchdowns and threw for two more scores to help Louisville beat Texas A&M 27-21.

The freshman, making his first start since Oct. 30, finished with a bowl-record 453 total yards, and set the Louisville career rushing mark before the end of the first quarter in giving the Cardinals a 20-7 lead they never lost. Jackson ran for 126 yards in the first 15 minutes, including a 61-yard scoring run.

Louisville (8-5) won for the eighth time in 10 games. The Cardinals also had their third bowl victory in their past four trips.

The Aggies made it interesting in the final minutes with their third-string quarterback making his first career start.

Hubenak shook off five sacks and two turnovers to throw for 307 yards, including a 29-yard touchdown pass to Christian Kirk with 4:54 left that pulled the Aggies to 27-21.

Texas A&M nearly had first-and-goal at the Cardinals 6, but a review showed Kirk did not maintain possession of the ball on his catch. That left Hubenak two more chances inside the final 2 minutes. The Cardinals batted down a pass, then Hubenak was incomplete throwing into the end zone.

The Aggies lost their second straight overall and snapped a four-game bowl winning streak. Aggies wide receiver Josh Reynolds set Music City Bowl records with 11 catches for 177 yards.

Louisville linebacker Devonte Fields had three sacks, and Louisville safety Josh Harvey-Clemons stripped Hubenak him of the ball and intercepted a pass both in the third quarter.

Jackson had no such issues as he passed Stefan LeFors' previous career rushing mark of 756 yards between 2002 and 2004. He showed off the speed that Louisville coach Bobby Petrino wants to bring to the Atlantic Coast Conference, running through, around and over the Aggies.

Jackson set a bowl rushing record, topping the 187 yards Marion Barber of Minnesota ran for in 2004. He also set the total offense mark of 424 set by Mike Glennon of North Carolina state in 2012 as he threw for 227 yards.

He put Louisville up 27-14 with 3:01 left in the third with a 17-yard TD pass to a wide-open Keith Towbridge for his second TD.

Louisville senior linebacker James Burgess' career ended on the Cardinals' first defensive play of the game. He was flagged, then ejected for targeting Texas A&M wide receiver Damion Ratley on a hit that left both the receiver and Cardinals cornerback Shaq Wiggins on the ground for a few minutes. He didn't return until late in the first quarter with a strained lower back.

Aggies defensive end Myles Garrett, who came in leading the SEC in sacks, had a pretty quiet night aside from one sack, giving him a career-high 12 1/2 for the season.

2016 TEXAS BOWL

KANSAS STATE 33, TEXAS A&M 28
WEDNESDAY, DEC. 28, 2016 • HOUSTON, TEXAS
NRG STADIUM • ATTENDANCE: 68,412

HOUSTON (AP) — Jesse Ertz threw for 195 yards and a touchdown and ran for two more scores in Kansas State's 33-28 victory over Texas A&M in the Texas Bowl on Wednesday night.

Ertz had a 79-yard touchdown pass and scoring runs of 1 and 5 yards to help give Kansas State its fourth straight win and first bowl victory since the 2013 Buffalo Wild Wings Bowl.

The Wildcats (9-4) led by five when Ertz bulled into the end zone on a 1-yard run that made it 33-21 with nine minutes left. Ertz set up the score with a 20-yard run two plays earlier.

The Aggies (8-5) cut it to 33-28 on Josh Reynolds' 15-yard TD reception about a minute later.

Texas A&M attempted to convert a fourth-and-8 with about two minutes left, but Trevor Knight's pass was short, to give Kansas State the ball back and allow the Wildcats to run out the clock.

Reynolds had a Texas A&M bowl-record 12 receptions for 154 yards and two touchdowns and Knight threw for 310 yards with three touchdowns and one interception as A&M dropped its second straight bowl game.

Kansas State did a good job of neutralizing Texas A&M star defensive end Myles Garrett. The junior, who is expected to declare for the draft and many believe could be the top overall pick in April, blocked an extra point in the second quarter. But he was unable to do much else while facing near-constant double teams and he finished with one tackle.

Texas A&M got to 23-21 when Reynolds made a 4-yard touchdown catch with about seven minutes left in the third quarter. A 25-yard field goal by Ian Patterson extended Kansas State's lead to 26-21 with about three minutes remaining in the quarter. A highlight of that drive came on a 36-yard run John Silmon.

The Aggies took a 7-0 lead when Keith Ford scored on a 7-yard run on their first possession.

Kansas State tied it when Ertz connected with Byron Pringle and he dashed down the field for a 79-yard touchdown run later in the first quarter.

The Wildcats took the lead when Ertz stiff-armed Justin Evans on a 5-yard touchdown run early in the second quarter. But Garrett blocked the extra point to make it 13-7.

A 3-yard reception by Ricky Seals-Jones put A&M back on top 14-13 soon after that. But Kansas State regained the lead with a 40-yard field goal before pushing the lead to 23-14 on a 52-yard run by Dominique Heath just before halftime.

2017 BELK BOWL

WAKE FOREST 55, TEXAS A&M 52
WEDNESDAY, DEC. 29, 2017 • CHARLOTTE, N.C.
BANK OF AMERICA STADIUM • ATTENDANCE: 32,784

CHARLOTTE, N.C. (AP) — John Wolford threw for 400 yards and four touchdowns, and Matt Colburn ran for 150 yards and the go-ahead score in Wake Forest's 55-52 victory over Texas A&M on Friday in the Belk Bowl.

The teams combined for 1,260 yards and 107 points, making it one of the highest-scoring games in bowl history.

Wolford, a four-year starter and the game's Most Valuable Player, threw all four TD passes in the first half for Wake Forest (8-5). Colburn had a 1-yard touchdown with 2:18 left in the game to give the Demon Deacons the lead.

Wake Forest stopped the Aggies on downs on their final drive to seal the win, which was no easy task given Texas A&M's potent offense. Texas A&M's Nick Starkel threw for a Belk Bowl-record 499 yards and four touchdowns -- three of those to wide receiver Christian Kirk, who caught 13 passes for 189 yards.

Scotty Washington had nine catches for 138 yards and a touchdown for the Demon Deacons, while tight end Cam Serigne had nine catches for 112 yards and a score. Tabari Hines had eight receptions for 58 yards and two touchdowns.

Wake Forest spotted Texas A&M (7-6) a 14-point first quarter lead following a pair of special teams miscues, but rattled off 31 straight points in a span of 11 minutes, 16 seconds to take a 31-14 lead.

But Texas A&M battled back to take the lead late in the third quarter.

The Aggies turned two blocked punts in the game's first five minutes into a 14-0 lead.

DeShawn Capers-Smith smothered Wake Forest's first punt attempt and Charles Oliver recovered in the end zone for a touchdown. On Wake Forest's next possession, Roshauud Paul partially blocked a punt that advanced just 19 yards. Starkel then completed a 42-yard strike to Kirk to set up a 2-yard touchdown run by Trayveon Williams.

But Wake Forest bounced right back as Wolford completed TD passes of 50 yards to an open Washington along the left sideline and 7-yarder to Harris on a slant route to tie the game midway through the first quarter. The second score came after Texas A&M ran into the kicker on a missed field goal attempt, giving the Demon Deacons an automatic first down.

2018 GATOR BOWL

TEXAS A&M 52, NC STATE 13
MONDAY, DEC. 31, 2016 • JACKSONVILLE, FLORIDA
TIAA BANK FIELD • ATTENDANCE: 38,206

He posed for pictures, hugged teammates and friends, and blew kisses to the crowd.

It sure looked like a farewell party.

Williams ran for 236 yards and three touchdowns, smashing a 30-year-old school record and carrying No. 21 Texas A&M to a 52-13 victory against North Carolina State in the Gator Bowl on Monday night.

The Aggies (No. 19 CFP) ended 2018 with a four-game winning streak and broke a three-game postseason skid. It was the first bowl victory for most of Texas A&M's roster, including Williams.

It also capped an impressive inaugural season for coach Jimbo Fisher in Aggieland.

Williams earned MVP honors, a potential final curtain call for his college career. The junior is expected to leave school early and enter the NFL draft.

He said afterward he's still contemplating his future, but no one could blame him for turning pro after the way he closed out the season.

Williams ran for 829 yards and eight scores during Texas A&M's final four games, all wins. His performance against the Wolfpack gave him 1,760 yards for the season, topping Darren Lewis' previous Texas A&M mark of 1,692 set in 1988.

Williams had 61 yards rushing in the first half and then got rolling in the third quarter. He carried five times for 82 yards on one drive, including a 17-yard touchdown run. He topped that with a 93-yard scoring run on Texas A&M's ensuing drive.

His longest scamper broke the previous Gator Bowl record of 216 yards rushing set by Syracuse's Floyd Little in 1966 against Tennessee.

Texas A&M's Kellen Mond completed 14 of 26 passes for 140 yards, with a touchdown and an interception. Mond also ran five times for 85 yards and a score. Kendrick Rogers made a leaping, 6-yard catch in the back of the end zone to help Mond.

Little went right for the Wolfpack, which was trying to get to double-digit wins for the second time in school history. North Carolina State finished with 273 yards and went 0 for 13 on third down.

2019 TEXAS BOWL

TEXAS A&M 24, OKLAHOMA STATE 21
FRIDAY, DEC. 27, 2019 • HOUSTON, TEXAS
NRG STADIUM • ATTENDANCE: 68,415

HOUSTON (AP) — Kellen Mond ran for a career-high 117 yards and threw a touchdown pass as Texas A&M scored 24 straight points to overcome an early deficit and beat Oklahoma State 24-21 in the Texas Bowl on Friday night.

Mond ran 67 yards to give the Aggies (8-5) a 21-14 lead early in the fourth quarter. Mond cut to the right to avoid a couple of defenders and outran everyone else. Tre Sterling had a shot to tackle him around the 25, but Mond ran away from his diving attempt.

The Cowboys (8-5) went for it on fourth-and-1 from the Texas A&M 34 on their next possession, but Spencer Sanders was stopped for no gain.

The Aggies added a 24-yard field goal to make it 24-14 with about three minutes to go.

Oklahoma State cut the lead to three on a touchdown reception by Braydon Johnson with about a minute left. The Cowboys attempted an onside kick, but A&M recovered it to secure the victory.

Chuba Hubbard, who finished the regular season as the nation's leading rusher, ran for 158 yards, and Johnson had 124 yards receiving and two touchdowns for the Cowboys.

Hubbard finished the season with 2,094 yards rushing to become the second player in school history to reach 2,000, joining Barry Sanders.

Mond, who threw for 95 yards, fumbled twice early and the Aggies trailed 14-0 after the first quarter and were down by seven at halftime.

He had just 35 yards passing in the first half, but got going on Texas A&M's first possession of the second half. He had a 28-yard completion on a drive that ended with a 10-yard touchdown pass to Jhamon Ausbon which tied it at 14-14 early in the third.

Mond fumbled on A&M's first drive and it was recovered by Oklahoma State. But the Cowboys came away empty when Matt Ammendola missed a 53-yard field goal.

The Cowboys took a 7-0 lead in the first quarter when they capped a 97-yard drive with a 42-yard touchdown reception by Johnson. Hubbard had a 37-yard run to power that drive.

Dru Brown connected with Johnson on a 57-yard pass later in the first quarter to give Oklahoma State a first down at the 9. The Cowboys pushed the lead to 14-0 when Brown dashed into the end zone on the next play.

Brown threw for 184 yards and two touchdowns.

Mond fumbled again early in the second quarter, but once again the Cowboys couldn't turn the mistake into points and they had to punt it away.

The Aggies cut the lead to 14-7 on the next drive on a 1-yard touchdown run by Isaiah Spiller.

Oklahoma State had a chance to pad the lead just before halftime, but Ammendola's 46-yard field goal attempt sailed wide left.
