AGGIES SEEK FIRST SEC WIN VS. HOGS

Texas A&M will be seeking its first-ever conference victory as members of the Southeastern Conference when the Aggies host old Southwest Conference foe Arkansas at 11:21 a.m. on Saturday at Kyle Field.

- Texas A&M is in its first year in the SEC after 16 seasons in the Big 12 from 1996-2011. A&M and Arkansas were both members of the SWC until Arkansas joined the SEC in 1992.
- Calling the game for the SEC Network will be Dave Neal (play-by-play), 1989 Heisman Trophy winner Andre Ware (analyst) and Cara Capuano (sideline). Describing the action for the national radio broadcast on the Touchdown Radio will be Frankie Frangie (play-by-play) and 1992 Heisman winner Gino Torretta.
- UA holds a 41-24-3 advantage in the long series with the Aggies, that dates back to first meeting in 1903.
- Arkansas holds a 15-17-1 advantage over the Aggies in College Station, but the Aggies have won four of the last five in Kyle Field.
- Arkansas will be making its first appearance at Kyle Field since 1991. The Aggies won that game 13-3 in front of an ESPN national viewing audience and 62,487 fans in the stands.
- Prior to A&M joining the SEC, the Aggies and Hogs played the first three games of a 10-year non-conference series agreement with Arkansas earning victories at Cowboys Stadium in Arlington in 2009, 2010 and 2011.
- Texas A&M and Arkansas, along with the Dallas Cowboys' organization, agreed to a new long-term series earlier this fall to play the annual football game between the two schools at Cowboys Stadium in Arlington beginning in 2014 and continuing through the 2024 season.

TRENDS AND NOTABLES

- NCAA sack leader Damontre Moore has posted 12 sacks in his last seven games dating back to last year.
- The Aggies have been dominant in the middle two quarters so far in 2012, outscoring their opponents 97-9. In the second quarter, A&M has outscored its opponents 69-3.
- The Aggies have given up just one turnover and zero points after turnovers in 2012. A&M has scored touchdowns after both its 2012 takeaways.
- Texas A&M is one of just seven teams in the NCAA FBS without a recovered fumble in 2012.
- Texas A&M is completing 65.1 percent of its pass attempts in 2012, which is well ahead of the school record percentage of 61.6 set last season when NFL first-round draft pick Ryan Tannehill took the majority of snaps at quarterback.
- Fourteen Aggies have already made at least one catch in 2012.
- Junior RB Ben Malena has started in four of the Aggies' last five games. In his starts, Malena is averaging 70.5 yards on 16.8 carries (4.2 yards per carry).
- Senior CB Dustin Harris has 16 punt returns in the first three games of 2012 after logging just 18 last year when he led the NCAA FBS with a 18.6 average.
- Texas A&M easily has the most punt return yardage in the NCAA FBS with 347 after three games. The next highest total is 318 by North Carolina in four games.
- A&M opponents have just three punt returns in 2012 for a total of six yards.
- The Aggies have had 15 scoring drives the past two games while averaging 1:56 in time of possession and six plays per scoring drive.
- Opponents average 33:09 in time of possession to the Aggies' 26:51.
- The Aggie defense is limiting opponents to just 20 percent in third-down situations (9 of 46).
- The Aggies have had four different tackle leaders in the first three games of 2012: Jonathan Stewart with 17 vs. Florida; De'Vante Harris and Toney Hurd Jr. tying with 7 vs. SMU; Damontre Moore with 6 vs. South Carolina State.
- Redshirt freshman QB Johnny Manziel has produced 11 touchdowns in the past two games -- seven via the air and four on the ground.
- The Aggies had their first "pick six" in more than two seasons when sophomore Deshazor Everett stepped in front of a South Carolina State QB Richard Cue aerial last week. He returned it 22 yards for a TD. It was A&M's first INT return for a touchdown since Dustin Harris had a 38-yarder against Stephen F. Austin in 2010.
- The 70 points by the Aggies against South Carolina State were the most since scoring 73 vs. Baylor in 2003.
- Redshirt freshman PK Taylor Bertolet was credited with tying a school record for PATs in a single game with 10 against South Carolina State. However, the 10th PAT was actually taken by sophomore transfer Josh Lambo, who was a recent addition to the Aggie roster. He is a 6-foot, 215-pound placekicker from Middleton, Wisc., by way of Collin College.
- Texas A&M has four individual SEC statistical leaders: CB Dustin Harris (punt returns, 20.4), Ryan Epperson (punting, 47.6) and DE Damontre Moore (QB sacks, 2.0/TFL 2.7).
- In the SEC team statistics, the Aggies lead in net punting (47.2), sacks (5.3/G) and 3rd down conversion defense (19.6 percent).
- Senior WR Ryan Swope is eight catches away from 200 career catches. Coming into 2012, only five SEC receivers had ever hit the 200-catch level.
- Senior RB Christine Michael is 54 yards from becoming the 13th Aggies to hit the 3,000-yard level in career all-purpose yards.
- Junior DE Damontre Moore tallied his 20th career QB sack, which put him in the top 12 on the Aggies' illustrious career sacks list. He also has seven career forced fumbles in just 28 career games, and he's chasing the school record of 12 set by Jacob Green (1977-79).
- With the victory over SMU, head coach Kevin Sumlin won his seventh straight road game.
- Sophomore linebacker Justin Bass (Plano East HS) has been the Aggies' 12th Man in all three games this season. His older brother, Ben, was a 2011 senior for the Aggies, and is currently on the Dallas Cowboys practice squad.

DEFENSE AMONG ELITE COMPANY

The Texas A&M defense, flourishing in new defensive coordinator Mark Snyder's 4-3 scheme, is one of six teams in the NCAA FBS ranked in the top 20 of the four main statistical categories: total, rushing, pass efficiency and scoring defense. Other teams ranked in the top 20 of all four stats are No. 1 Alabama, No. 3 LSU, No. 4 Florida State, No. 15 TCU and No. 20 Michigan State.

The defense's stinginess is in stark contrast to 2011's numbers when were ranked No. 59 or worse in three of the four statistical categories.

MANZIEL HAS NOSE FOR ENDZONE

Redshirt freshman quarterback Johnny Manziel has a knack for finding the endzone. After three games, Manziel ranks in a tie for No. 2 nationally in points responsibility with an average of 24.0 points per game. His average would likely be even higher because he was pulled early in the Aggies' blowout wins over SMU and South Carolina State. Manziel played the full game in the season opener against Florida (1 rush TD), was pulled after three quarters against SMU (6 TDs -- 4 pass/2 rush) and played just the first half against South Carolina State (5 TDs -- 3 pass/2 rush).

FRESHMAN LEADERS

The impact made by the Aggies' freshman class is undeniable. For the first two games of 2012, the game high totals for passing, rushing, total offense, catches, receiving yards, kickoff return yards and all-purpose yards were posted by true or redshirt freshmen. Last week vs. South Carolina State, freshmen led the way in passing, catches and total offense.

NEW SCHEME, SAME RESULTS

Aggie defensive boss Mark Snyder's new 4-3 defensive scheme gets pressure from all over the front seven with a whopping 11 defenders with at least a half-sack, including five defensive linemen, five linebackers and a defensive back.

Like last year when they led the nation in sacks, the Aggies are again at the top of the NCAA quarterback sacks chart with 16 in the first three games. Last season the Aggies led the nation with 51 sacks (3.9 per game).

MOORE LEADS THE SACK ATTACK

Building on last season's strong play down the stretch, junior defensive end Damontre Moore has posted six sacks in three games and stands atop the NCAA statistics for QB sacks and tied for the lead in tackles for losses. Moore is flourishing in his new role at defensive end after spending his first two years at outside linebacker.

After his three-sack performance against Florida, Moore earned SEC Co-Defensive Lineman of the Week honors. He earned honorable mention National Defensive Lineman of the Week honor after the SMU and South Carolina State games from the College Football Performance Awards.

Last season, Moore ranked No. 21 nationally with 8.5 quarterback sacks, with six of those sacks coming in the final four games of the season. Down the stretch last year, Moore posted two sacks against Kansas State and Kansas and single sacks against Texas and Northwestern. His three sacks against Florida were a career high and were the most by an Aggie since Tony Jerod-Eddie had three against SMU in last year's season-opener.

For his career, Moore has compiled 29 QBs or 0.7 sacks per game, which puts him in a tie for No. 2 on the NCAA active career sacks leaders list.

NET GAIN FOR EPPERSON

Incumbent starter Ryan Epperson, who fought off a strong challenge from sophomore Drew Kaser to win the 2012 punting job, has opened the 2012 season with several eye-opening performances. He is averaging 47.6 on 14 boots, and ranks No. 1 in the SEC and No. 3 in the NCAA.

Six of his 14 punts have been downed inside the opponent 20 yard line with no touchbacks, and only three of his punts have been returned.

The Aggies' season net punt average stands at 47.2 and ranked No. 2 nationally. Last year, the Aggies were No. 94 nationally with a 35.0 net punt average.

BIG CROWDS AT KYLE FIELD

Texas A&M's two sellout crowds to start 2012 have pushed its sellout streak to 10 games, which is easily a school record. A&M's sellout streak dates back to the 2010 Nebraska game, which set the Kyle Field record with an attendence of 90,079. Kyle Field was filled to 105.0 percent capacity in 2011 and the average attendance of 87,183 broke the previous high by over 4,000 fans per game.

SWOPE SETS SIGHTS ON RECEIVING RECORDS

- After breaking A&M's single season receptions record in back-to-back seasons, senior wide receiver Ryan Swope is within range of most of the career receiving standard in the Aggies' record book.
- For his career, Swope has 192 catches for 2,299 yards and 17 touchdowns. He is within 41 catches and 793 yards of his receiving counterpart for the past three years, Jeff Fuller, who grabbed 233 receptions for 3,092 yards and 34 touchdowns from 2008-11.
- Swope posted a school record with six 100-yard receiving games last season, and has nine for his career (ties for school record with Fuller).
- He set another school record with four touchdown receptions against Baylor in 2011. His 206 receiving yards (on 11 catches) against the Bears was the fifth 200-yard game in A&M history.
- A second-team All-Big 12 pick last year, Swope is the SEC's leading active pass catcher in receptions, receiving yards and receiving TDs.
- Easily the team leader in offensive 20-yard plays last year with 16, including seven 20-yard plus TD plays.
- Was a running back at Austin Westlake High School, but lined up at WR from day one at Texas A&M.
- Aggies are 7-2 in Swope's 100-yard receiving games, and are 8-4 when he has 8 or more catches.

HARRIS TO THE HOUSE

Senior Dustin Harris earned SEC Co-Special Teams Player of the Week after shredding South Carolina State for 246 punt return yards, including a breath-taking 96-yard sprint for a touchdown. Harris' 246 punt return yards shattered his own single game school record from last season and the Southeastern Conference's 64-year old record. Harris' long return was the second-longest in school history behind Bob Goode's 98-yarder against Ellington Field in 1945. Harris broke his old school record of 162 yards set vs. Kansas last year, and eclipsed the SEC record of 203 yards set by Vanderbilt's Lee Nalley against Kentucky in 1948. It was the third punt return touchdown of Harris' career, joining his 54-yarder against Louisiana Tech in 2010 and his 72-yarder vs. Kansas in 2011. He matched the career school record for punt return touchdowns originally set by Kevin Smith from 1988-91.

Two of the nation's most dangerous punt returners in 2011 resided in the SEC with Joe Adams of Arkansas and Tyrann Mathieu of LSU, but the NCAA leader was in College Station. Harris was the NCAA statistical champ with an average of 18.6 yards on 18 punt returns with one touchdown.

C-MIKE RETURNS

- Christine Michael's first name is pronounced: CHRIS-tin, not Christian or chris-TEEN
- Michael's last two seasons have been cut short due to season-ending injuries. He broke his right leg in game 8 in 2010 (vs. Texas Tech) and tore his left ACL in game 9 in 2011 (vs. Oklahoma).
- Perhaps the team's hardest worker, Michael was far ahead of his projected rehabilitation schedule. During spring drills, new head coach Kevin Sumlin had to monitor Michael to make sure he wasn't doing too much. At the time Sumlin said: "I had to tell him to go sit down, and I look back up and he's back in there. I'm going to have to have a meeting with him, but a good meeting. He wants to play."
- Despite missing nine games the past two seasons due to season-ending injuries, Michael is the SEC's leading active rusher with 2,433 career yards.
- Has nine career 100-yard plus rushing games, including four in nine games last season. Aggies are 7-2 in games when C-Mike rushes for 100-plus yards.
- His 2,433 career rushing yards rank No. 14 in school history.
- Was well on his way to his first 1,000-yard season in 2011 with 899 yards in nine games, including a monster 32-carry, 230-yard, three-TD effort against Arkansas.

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 8 · KYLE FIELD · COLLEGE STATION, TEXAS
ATTENDANCE: 87,114 · TV: ESPN

COLLEGE STATION (AP) — Mike Gillislee ran for 83 yards and two touchdowns and No. 24 Florida shut down Texas A&M's offense in the second half in a 20-17 win in the Aggies' first Southeastern Conference game after moving from the Big 12.

Florida trailed 17-10 at halftime after a first half where Texas A&M's offense under new coach Kevin Sumlin pretty much did what it wanted. Things changed in the second half as the Gators clamped down and forced punts each of A&M's six possessions after the break.

Caleb Sturgis helped Florida cut A&M's lead to 17-13 with a 25-yard field goal early in the third quarter.

Florida quarterback Jeff Driskel looked indecisive most of the day and was sacked eight times. But he made a play when he had to, finding Omarius Hines on a 39-yard completion to propel a drive early in the fourth quarter.

Gillislee finished it off, evading a couple of defenders and then tight-roping the sideline on a 12-yard touchdown run to put Florida up 20-17. Gillislee had a 4 yard score in the first quarter.

Driskel also came up big late in the game with a 21-yard run to give the Gators a first down and allow them to run out the clock.

Texas A&M freshman quarterback Johnny Manziel threw for 173 yards and ran for 60 more, but he couldn't move A&M's offense after halftime.

Saturday was Texas A&M's opener after the Aggies and Louisiana Tech postponed last week's game until Oct. 13 because of Hurricane Isaac.

The Aggies' second half offensive woes ruined a great day for their defense. Jonathan Stewart finished with 17 tackles and Damontre Moore had three sacks.

Manziel, who was the first freshman quarterback to start a opener for the Aggies since 1944, looked great early.

A&M's first drive ended with a 27-yard field goal on their first drive.

The Gators soon took a 7-3 lead on a 4-yard touchdown run by Gillislee on their opening drive.

Manziel really heated up on the second drive, using his arm and his feet to move the Aggies down the field. His 11-yard touchdown scamper put A&M back on top 10-7 early in the second quarter.

Then the defense went to work. The Aggies collected three sacks on Florida's next possession and quickly forced a punt.

Texas A&M used a bit of trickery en route to their next score. They went with an end-around receiver pass from Kenric McNeal to Mike Evans to gain 27 yards on second-down. Christine Michael finished off the drive when he took the direct snap and bulled into the end zone for a 1-yard touchdown to extend the lead to 17-7.

Texas A&M's fifth sack of the game forced Florida to attempt a 51-yard field goal in the second quarter. Sturgis missed it, but A&M called a timeout, giving him another shot -- and he nailed the second one to cut the lead to 17-10. It was the seventh field goal of 50 yards or more in his career to set a school record.

Driskel was 13 of 16 for 162 yards and Jordan Reed had five receptions for 59 yards.

DALLAS (AP) -- Quarterback Johnny Manziel accounted for 418 total yards and six touchdowns in three quarters, and Texas A&M overcame a sluggish start to beat SMU 48-3

Manziel threw for four touchdowns and a school-freshman-record 294 yards. He also had 13 carries for 124 yards and a pair of a scoring runs.

Texas A&M (1-1) racked up 605 yards in offense and bounced back after losing its Southeastern Conference opener last week to No. 18 Florida.

SMU (1-2) suffered its most lopsided home loss since 2002, when it dropped a 52-6 contest to Oklahoma State.

Chase Hover kicked a 25-yard field goal in the third quarter for SMU's only points.

Freshman Mike Evans had 123 yards receiving and Uzoma Nwachukwu caught a pair of touchdown passes for the Aggies, who are 11-0-1 against their former Southwest Conference rivals since 1984.

SMU's Zach Line rushed for 104 yards for his 17th career 100-yard game. That is second all-time in school history behind NFL great Eric Dickerson.

Against Florida, Manziel became the Aggies' first freshman starting quarterback in an opener since 1944.

Texas A&M started slow Saturday after a shaky second half against the Gators. The Aggies punted three times in the first quarter and failed on fourth-and-2 from the SMU 34.

Texas A&M's Taylor Bertolet missed a 23-yard field goal before Manziel and the offense put up 20 straight points to close out the first half.

Manziel found Ryan Swope for a 29-yard touchdown pass midway through second quarter.

The dual-threat quarterback then used his running ability two drives later when he scampered up the middle for a 48-yard TD. On the extra point, SMU's Margus Hunt blocked his 16th career kick - which is second all-time in NCAA history.

The 6-foot-8 Hunt set the NCAA record last weekend by blocking his ninth career field goal.

The Aggies stretched their lead to 20-0 when Manziel - who was 20 of 36 passing - scrambled to his right and hooked up with Nwachukwu for a 26-yard touchdown pass with 1:03 left in the first half.

On Texas A&M's first drive of the second half, Manziel was about to be sacked before he broke free from linebacker Taylor Reed. He scrambled to his left and lofted a pass to Kenric McNeal, who ran in for a 42-yard touchdown.

Manziel added a 15-yard touchdown run and a 12-yard scoring pass to Nwachukwu in the third.

Jameill Showers replaced Manziel on the first drive of the fourth quarter.

Manziel broke the freshman passing record of Kevin Murray, who threw for 280 yards against Rice in 1983.

COLLEGE STATION (AP) — Johnny Manziel threw for three touchdowns and ran for two more by halftime as Texas A&M built a big lead and coasted to a 70-14 win over South Carolina St.

Two of Manziel's touchdown passes went to Uzoma Nwachukwu. All four of Nwachukwu's receptions this season have been for touchdowns.

The Aggies (2-1) were up 14-7 after the first quarter before Manziel scored on runs of 39 and 20 yards to give A&M a commanding lead.

Ben Malena had two rushing touchdowns in the first half and Texas A&M led 49-7 at halftime.

Dustin Harris had a 96-yard punt return for a touchdown and finished with a school and Southeastern Conference record 246 punt return yards for A&M.

Richard Cue threw for 189 yards and a touchdown for South Carolina St. (1-3) of the Football Championship Subdivision.

Manziel was 15 of 20 for 174 yards passing and added 78 yards rushing on eight carries. Malena finished with 88 yards on 11 carries. Malena put A&M up 7-0 with a 4-yard run in the first quarter.

Manziel found Nwachukwu later in the quarter on a 9-yard touchdown pass to make it 14-0 Texas A&M.

The Bulldogs got within 14-7 when Jalen Simmons found a big hole and ran 17 yards for a touchdown. That drive was helped when Steven Campbell was flagged 15 yards for roughing the passer on a blow to the head of Cue.

Manziel's first rushing touchdown was a nifty one. He hurdled a defender near the line of scrimmage and zigzagged through the South Carolina State defense for a 39-yard touchdown to extend the lead to 21-7.

He used his feet again on A&M's next possession, making it 28-7 on a 20-yard run that he capped with a dive into the end zone less than four minutes later.

Manziel went back to the air for the next score, finding Kenric McNeal on a 30-yard touchdown pass to leave A&M ahead 35-7.

Nwachukwu kept up his streak later in the second quarter when he caught a short pass from Manziel and evaded a defender before bouncing outside and barreling into the end zone to complete the 37-yard score.

Malena wrapped up the Texas A&M's dominant first half with a 50-yard run.

Harris returned a third quarter punt 96 yards for a touchdown to extend A&M's lead to 56-7. It was the second longest punt return in school history.

Michael played the second half and finished with 26 yards and had a 5-yard touchdown run early in the fourth quarter.

Lennel Elmore scored on a 39-yard pass from Cue to make it 63-14 with about 12 minutes remaining.
