QUICK LOOK AT THE AGGIES

- Head coach Trisha Ford is in her fourth season in Aggieland and 16th overall as a head coach.
- Texas A&M returns 15 letterwinners from a 2025 squad that finished 48-11 overall and claimed the program's first SEC Tournament title.
- Nine newcomers have made Davis Diamond their new home, including six transfers and three true freshmen.

BUILT FORD TOUGH

- Known for her blue-collar mentality, head coach Trisha Ford has instilled that attitude into her program leading Texas A&M to its first national No. 1 ranking and No. 1 overall seed in the NCAA Tournament in 2025.
- Ford became the third-fastest coach to lead a new program to the top spot in the ESPN poll era, reaching the milestone in just 159 games. Texas A&M has appeared in the top-25 in 44 weekly polls under her watch.
- In the Ford era, the Maroon & White have won 11-of-16 SEC series and have finished in the league's final standings at least four placings higher than what it was picked in each of the season's SEC coaches preseason poll.
- Texas A&M takes 2026 head on facing a tough non-conference schedule that includes seven of its first 16 games against preseason top 25 opponents, including 2025 National runner-up No. 1 Texas Tech on opening weekend.

PRESEASON NOISE

- The Aggies rank No. 11 in the D1 Softball, NFCA and ESPN/USA Softball preseason polls, while Softball America listed Texas A&M at No. 14.
- Mya Perez was named to the Preseason All-SEC Team, while the Aggies were voted to finish sixth by the league coaches. The junior was also named one of 50 players to USA Softball Preseason Player of the Year Watch List.
- Perez and KK Dement were named to the D100 Preseason Player Rankings by D1 Softball, with Perez being listed at No. 15 and Dement at No. 48. The duo were also named D1 Softball Preseason All-Americans, while Perez was also listed as a Preseason All-American by Softball America.
- True freshman Maddie Sauni drew preseason attention after the four-star prospect was named to the Softball America Top 100 Freshman Watch List and D100 Freshman Watch List by D1 Softball.

MY-OH-MYA

- Mya Perez enters the 2026 season as one of the nation's top hitters after a breakthrough sophomore season earning All-America Second Team honors, as well as NFCA All-Region Second Team and All-SEC First Team accolades.
- The Corona, California, native broke a 43-year old Texas A&M program single season record with 73 RBI, while her .424 batting average was third best and .804 slugging percentage was sixth best all-time in school history. She ranked top 20 nationally in on-base percentage (.561) and RBI (73).
- Perez was dominant against ranked opponents last season hitting .400 with seven home runs and six doubles, producing a .760 slugging percentage, while adding 28 RBI, 15 runs and 20 walks.

SHIFT TO THE SIX

- KK Dement makes the move to shortstop in her sophomore season after posting one of the better freshman seasons at second base in Texas A&M history. Dement earned D1 Softball All-America Freshman First Team honors, along with NFCA Central All-Region First Team and SEC All-Tournament Team accolades in 2025.
- The Selma, California, native led the Aggies in 2025 in doubles (18), two-out RBI (27) and her 16 homers tied for a team best, while ranking second among the Aggies in slugging percentage (.743), total bases (124) and third in RBI (64).
- Dement stepped up in postseason action slashing .500/.577/1.364 in seven games, while leading A&M with five home runs, four doubles and a 1.941 OPS

LOCKED CORNER, OPEN BASEPATHS

- Senior Kennedy Powell has been a permanent fixture at the "hot corner," starting every single game of the 2025 season at third base. Since joining the Aggies in 2024, she has appeared in 119 total games, starting 118 of them.
- Powell finished a perfect 19-for-19 in stolen base attempts for the 2025 season. Remarkably, she has successfully swiped 25 consecutive bases without being caught, a streak that dates back to early February 2024.
- As the primary leadoff hitter, Powell led the team with 63 runs scored in 2025, setting a program single-season record. Her presence on the basepaths is a winning formula for the Aggies, who posted a 36-5 record in games where she scored at least one run. She tied the Texas A&M program record for most runs scored in an SEC season with 24, while ranking second in the conference for stolen bases and third in runs during league play.

ONE CIRCLE, ONE STANDARD

- Known as a pitching guru across the country among her colleagues, head coach Trisha Ford has built a versatile pitching staff for the 2026 season. Texas A&M will rely on multiple arms, including returners Sidne Peters, Sydney Lessentine, Kate Munnerlyn, Grace Sparks and Taylor Brown, while Taylor Pannell is the lone newcomer joining the circle.
- Pannell, a Missouri transfer, has appeared in 84 games, boasting a 2.75 ERA in 129.2 innings of work in her career. The senior is the NCAA active career leader in saves with 24.
- Lessentine returns for a second season in Aggieland after leading the 2025 staff in ERA (2.85), WHIP (1.18) and batting average against (.179). As a freshman she made 21 appearances, including three complete games in 11 starts, totalling 79 strikeouts in 66.1 innings of work to finish with a 6-2 record.
- Peters logged a 7-0 record with a 1.75 ERA in 36.0 innings of work, despite battling through injuries in 2025. She held opponents to a .221 average at the plate, while striking out 43 batters and yielding only 10 walks as a sophomore.

FROM COWGIRLS TO AGGIES

- Seniors Micaela Wark and Tallen Edwards traded in their orange and black for Maroon & White making the transfer to Aggieland from Oklahoma State. In three seasons in Stillwater, the two combined have made 325 starts, while appearing in 370 games, totalling 265 hits and driving in 173 runs.
- Edwards graduated early from Southmoore High School to sign with Oklahoma State and earned D1 Softball Freshman All-America honors as an outfielder in 2023. She moved to the infield as a sophomore and collected NFCA All-Region honors before winning a NFCA/Rawlings Gold Glove at third base in 2025. The senior makes the move from the hot corner to second base in 2026. Edwards boasts a .304 career batting average and a .954 career fielding percentage.
- Wark garnered NFCA First Team All-Region recognition and All-Big 12 All-Freshman Team honors in 2023 after redshirting as a true freshman at Kansas in 2022. She played a key component in Oklahoma State's run to the Women's College World Series as she earned NFCA All-Region honors for a second consecutive season in 2024. The fifth-year player owns a .283 career batting average with 29 home runs and 99 RBI.

THE LONG ROAD TO AGGIELAND

- Redshirt sophomore Ariel Kowalewski makes her highly anticipated Aggie debut after sitting out the 2025 season due to SEC midyear transfer rules.
- As a freshman in 2024 at Florida, she started 56 games at third base, hitting .308 with eight home runs, 33 RBI and 45 hits.
- Originally from Richmond, Texas, she was a multi-time District MVP at Travis High School and a 2022 PGF Futures All-American, as well as a 2017 USA Softball All-American.

HOME OF THE 12TH MAN

- The Aggies own a 166-53 (.758) record at Davis Diamond since it opened on April 27, 2018 and finished the 2025 season 28-8 at home. Texas A&M averaged 2,136 attendance per game, the highest in Davis Diamond history. A&M ranked No. 5 in the nation and No. 4 in the SEC.
- The Aggies set the No. 1 (2,754) and No. 2 (2,522) attendance records at Davis Diamond, while seven of the top 10 crowds in stadium history were in 2025.
- The 12th Man also set a Program record three-game SEC series attendance record (7,014) against No. 6 LSU in 2025.

AGGIE CLASSIC PREVIEW

- The Aggie Classic opens for Texas A&M on Thursday, Feb. 5, with a 4:30 p.m. game against ACU, followed by a 7 p.m. matchup with Utah State. The Aggies continue Friday at 4:30 p.m. against Providence. No. 1 Texas Tech visits College Station on Saturday, Feb. 7, for a 4:30 p.m. first pitch. The Red Raiders, last season's national runner-up, split the 2025 Texas A&M Invitational with the Aggies, highlighted by a 7-6 Texas A&M win on March 1 with returning pitchers Grace Sparks earning the win and Kate Munnerlyn earning the save.
- ACU and Utah State return to the Aggie Classic for a second straight season. Texas A&M defeated Utah State, 11-5, and edged ACU, 1-0, last year.

HOW TO FOLLOW

- Each Texas A&M game at the Aggie Classic will be streamed on SEC Network+ with Olympian and Texas A&M great Tori Vidales on the call as the analyst, while Will Johnson will add commentary as play-by-play.
- All Aggie softball games can be heard on the 12th Man Mobile app or locally on Willy 1550 AM with Matt Simon as the play-by-play voice in his 12th season with Texas A&M softball.

HEAD COACH TRISHA FORD

Trisha Ford, a 16-year head coaching veteran and four-time conference coach of the year, is in her fourth season leading the Texas A&M softball program. She was named the Aggies' 10th head coach on June 7, 2022, following previous coaching stops at Arizona State, Fresno State, Stanford and Saint Mary's. On May 5, USA Softball announced Ford was selected to the U.S. Women's National Team coaching pool for the 2025-28 quad.

Since her arrival in Aggieland, Ford has guided the Maroon & White to three NCAA Tournament appearances and the program's first national No. 1 overall seed in 2025. Her tenure has produced four NFCA All-Americans, 16 NFCA All-Region selections and 13 All-SEC honorees. Texas A&M has made 44 weekly top-25 appearances under her watch, including its first-ever No. 1 ranking in both the NFCA and ESPN polls. Ford became the third-fastest coach to lead a new program to the top spot in the ESPN poll era, reaching the milestone in just 159 games.

The 2025 season marked a historic campaign, as Ford led A&M to a 48-11 record, the most wins since 2008 and fifth-most in school history. The Aggies finished second in the SEC regular season standings at 16-7, their highest placing since joining the league in 2013, and were declared SEC Tournament Co-Champions. Despite a weather-shortened bracket, A&M set tournament records in batting average (.418), runs (26) and RBI (25), while posting a 14-2 semifinal run-rule win over Texas, the largest margin of victory in SEC Tournament history. The season also saw school records set in runs (432), RBI (416), doubles (99) and run-rule victories (20). The Aggies collected a program-best seven SEC weekly honors and seven NFCA All-Region selections, the most since 1982. Mya Perez and Mac Barbara earned NFCA All-America Second Team accolades, becoming the first Aggie duo to earn All-America honors in the same season since 2013. Perez was also named a College Sports Communicators Academic All-American, the first Aggie since 2008 and only the fourth in the program's history.

Known nationally as a pitching guru, Ford continued to develop All-American Emiley Kennedy, who became the first Aggie to earn All-SEC First Team honors in consecutive seasons and just the 10th pitcher in program history to reach 500 career strikeouts. Sydney Lessentine set a single-game program record with 19 strikeouts and led the team in ERA (2.85), WHIP (1.18) and opponent batting average (.179).

In 2024, Texas A&M posted a 44-15 record and went 27-2 at Davis Diamond, the best home winning percentage (.931) since 2011. The Aggies hosted an NCAA Regional and advanced to the Super Regionals for the first time since 2018. They finished third in the SEC at 15-9, won six-of-eight conference series and reached the SEC Tournament semifinals. Kennedy earned NFCA Second Team All-America honors after setting program records in SEC play for innings pitched (100.1) and strikeouts (86).

Ford's debut season in 2023 saw A&M finish 35-21 overall and 12-12 in SEC play. The Aggies earned a No. 2 seed in the Austin Regional, extending their NCAA postseason streak to 21 seasons. Ford was one of only three Division I head coaches, and the only one from a Power 5 program, to lead her team to the NCAA Tournament in her first season. The Aggies appeared in all four major national polls for the first time since 2019, spending 15 straight weeks in the D1 Softball rankings and climbing as high as No. 13. The pitching staff lowered its ERA from 3.71 in 2022 to 2.70 in 2023 and tossed three no-hitters. Julia Cottrill earned NFCA Third Team All-America honors and was joined by Rylen Wiggins, Amari Harper and Koko Wooley in earning All-SEC and NFCA All-Region recognition.

Over her head coaching career, Ford owns a 524-273-1 (.657) record, including a 212-89 (.704) mark at Arizona State. She was named Pac-12 Coach of the Year in 2018 and 2022, guiding the Sun Devils to their first Pac-12 title since 2011 and a Women's College World Series appearance in 2018. Her six-year tenure in Tempe produced five All-Americans and 20 All-Conference selections.

Before arriving at Arizona State, Ford served as head coach at Fresno State from 2013 to 2016, earning Mountain West Coach of the Year honors in 2015 and 2016 after leading the Bulldogs to back-to-back 40-win seasons and conference titles. Her 2016 team finished 42-12-1 with a 22-1 mark in league play and a school-record 23-game win streak.

Ford also spent nine seasons at Stanford from 2004 to 2012, including four as associate head coach, helping the Cardinal compile a 385-155 record during the most successful era in program history. She began her head coaching career at her alma mater, Saint Mary's, where she also starred as a player. The only female student-athlete in school history to have her jersey retired, Ford was inducted into the Saint Mary's Hall of Fame in 2007. A native of Fremont, California, she and her husband, Eddie, have two children, Emma and EJ.

TEXAS A&M SCORIGAMI

WHAT IS SCORIGAMI?

- A scorigami refers to a final score that has never occurred.
- The term scorigami is a concept that was defined by sportswriter Jon Bois to track unique final scores in NFL history. There have been 1,085 different final scores for games in NFL history.
- The official NFL Scorigami tracker can be found at nflscorigami.com.

A&M SCORIGAMI NOTES

- There have been 179 unique score combinations, including 106 unique winning scores and 73 losing unique scores.
- In the Trisha Ford era, there have been 11 scorigami occurrences, including a school record 25-0 win against East Texas A&M (formerly Texas A&M-Commerce) on Feb. 12, 2023.
- Four of the five most common scores are wins, with the exception of losing 1-0 (91 times).
